O Bethlehem, O little town all still and sleeping,
O Bethlehem, in thee this night great things are wrought!
Jesus the world's Redeemer holy
Is born in thee, in manger lowly, O Bethlehem!

O Bethlehem, what wondrous light, around thee shineth!
O Bethlehem, the gates of heaven are open wide.
With angels' songs the skies are ringing,
Peace and goodwill the song they're singing, O Bethlehem!

O Bethlehem, a mother o'er the crib is bending,
O Bethlehem, softly she sings sweet lullaby:
"Sleep, little Babe, and take thy rest,
In Thee shall all mankind be blest," O Bethlehem!

O Bethlehem, our lonely hearts to thee are turning,
O Bethlehem! O little Child in manger bare,
Here would we kneel in adoration,
And find in Thee the world's salvation. O Bethlehem!

MEN'S MEETING FOR BISHOP HUANG

On Monday evening, January 6, there will be a dinner for the men of the Parish at which Rt. Rev. Quentin Huang will speak. Bishop Huang is bishop of Kumming, a new diocese that was formed in Western China during the war. He is one of our newest bishops and is an interesting and lively speaker. All the men of the Parish and their friends are earnestly invited to hear him. Those planning to attend are asked to notify the Parish Secretary at once. There will be a charge of not more than $1.50 for the dinner.

CHURCH SCHOOL PARENTS MEETING

On Tuesday, January 14, there will be a meeting for the parents and teachers of the Church School in the Parish House at 8:15 P. M. We are fortunate in having as the speaker for that meeting Dr. Edward Burn of the Pennsylvania Institute for Mental Diseases and the Philadelphia General Hospital who will speak on the relationship between religious education and mental health.

ANNUAL MEETING

Notice is hereby given of the Annual Meeting of the Corporation of St. Martin-in-the-Fields to be preceded by the annual election of Vestrymen in the Parish House on Monday, February 3, 1947. The polls will be open for the election of Vestrymen in the Parish House at 5:45 P. M. "Nominations for Vestrymen shall be made in writing by five or more members of the Parish entitled to vote and shall be presented to a Church Warden or Secretary of the Vestry at least seven days before the election."

Dinner will be served at 6:45, followed by the annual reports of the various Parish organizations. Don't leave as soon as you've heard them, though, because there's going to be a movie afterwards, "Seeds of Destiny". It's a Signal Corps picture, and therefore authentic, about the children whose faces we've been changing. The film is a graphic presentation of the effects of malnutrition on the minds and bodies of the people of Europe, and it's guaranteed to chill your vitals.

CHURCH SCHOOL PARENTS' MEETING

On Tuesday, January 14, there will be a meeting for the parents and teachers of the Church School in the Parish House at 8:15 P M. We are fortunate in having as the speaker for that meeting Dr. Edward Burn of the Pennsylvania Institute for Mental Diseases and the Philadelphia General Hospital who will speak on the relationship of religious education and mental health.

The Material Aid Committee wishes to announce that there is guava jelly and orange marmalade on sale in the Parish House during the week and after church on Sundays.

THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION SUNDAY

For the past few years, the last Sunday in January has been called "'Theological Education Sunday", and the offering in those Churches which observe it has been given to the support of the Theological Schools of the Church. There was a time when our 12 schools could depend solely upon the gifts of large donors and the return from invested capital, but these sources are no longer able to meet the demands upon them. In none of the schools do the fees from the students cover the total cost of their education. It is only right that the Church as a whole should take on the responsibility for training its leaders. All the schools have greatly increased enrollments, with men from the services taking up their studies in preparation for the ministry.

As is the custom on this Sunday, the offering will go to the Rector's own school.

Thou the true Redeemer art!
Our souls Thou wakest, Our bonds Thou breakest,
Who trust Thee surely Hath built securely,
He stands forever; Hallelujah!
Our hearts are pining To see Thy shining,
Dying or living to Thee are cleaving,
Naught can us sever: Hallelujah!
He intercedeth, And ever pleadeth,
Jesus, the truth and the way.
Fair as a flower, Waiteth the hour
Them that seek Thee will find Thee today.
Though earth us faileth, Thy love availeth,
Who calleth clearly, findeth Thee early,
Never forsaken. Hallelujah!
All sin forgiven, earnest of Heaven.
Peace like a river, floweth forever;
New songs awaken! Hallelujah!
In Thee is gladness! Hallelujah!

ANNUAL MEETING

The following members of the Parish have been duly nominated to fill the three places open on the Vestry: Jasper W. Nicolls, present incumbent and Accounting Warden, Theodore E. Eckfeldt, Gilbert H. Fall, J. Wesley D. Kingsbury, R. Barclay Knight, and Richard V. Zug.

Under the amended Charter adopted at last years annual meeting those "qualified to vote at any election for Vestrymen and upon all questions which may come before any meeting of the corporation shall be all Lay, Baptized persons of the age of twenty-one years or upwards, who shall have been worshippers in this Church as their usual place of Public Worship for at least one year, and who shall appear by the books of the corporation to have contributed towards the current expenses of the corporation during each of two successive years immediately preceding such election or meeting." According to the By-Laws of the Parish: "Each member of the Parish entitled to vote may cast three votes for one candidate, or distribute his three votes upon two or more candidates; no fractional votes shall be counted."

The polls will be open in the Parish House from 5:45 to 6:45 P. M. on February 3rd immediately preceding the Parish Dinner and meeting. If you plan to attend the dinner, please notify the Parish Office immediately.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY - FEBRUARY 13th

Speaker - Brinkley S. Snowden - 10:30 A. M.

Mr. Snowden, an agricultural Missionary sent to India by the National Council, has recently returned to this country with interesting up-to-date information about conditions there and with excellent moving pictures which he will show us. All the women of the Parish are urged to come and to invite friends from other parishes. Bring a box lunch. Coffee will be served.

CHURCH SCHOOL

Because of many requests, children in the First and Second Grade class of the Church School will come into the 11 o'clock service with the older children on the first Sunday of each month, and will sit either with their parents or in the front pew on the "north" side of the Church. This new plan will be put into practice this Sunday

Attendance: Jan. 19, 96 Jan. 26, 100

HUNGER WON'T WAIT

As you may already know, the General Convention of the Episcopal Church pledged to give $1,000,000 annually for the next 3 years for relief in the war devastated areas. This comprises the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief. The Diocese of Pennsylvania's share is about $100,000, of which St. Martin's would like to raise at least $8,000. To accomplish this end, we are asking each of you to help. Suggestions have been printed on the card enclosed with this week's Parish News. We welcome any further ideas and earnestly hope that each of you will check and return these cards as soon as possible so we may know where we stand. Each of you probably has some hidden talent or perhaps has had some "windfall" which could be applied to this Fund. Last year the $1300 we raised came from 38 people. There are now 500 members of all ages in this parish who could be helping. We plan to set up a telephone Trading Post, so if you have something to sell or if you want something, just telephone the Parish House. We will list your needs and your talents in the Parish News from time to time. Apart from these individual efforts, we hope to put on several "evenings of divertissement" during the winter and a Fair after Easter, at which time we could sell all the articles we hope you'll be making between now and then.

Those of you who saw the "Seeds of Destiny" movie at the Parish Dinner came away convinced that since the problem of relief and rehabilitation is a question of social insurance as well as Christian brotherhood, there is ample reason for everyone, inside and outside the Church to share in it. So get your friends to help! One hairdresser became so interested that she raised half a heifer from small contributions given by her clientele. We need all your ingenuity and continuing generosity, so, please don't fail us or those children overseas whose only hope lies in your compassionate response to their plight.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

As has been the custom for many years, the first Sunday in Lent will be observed as the World Day of Prayer. The services in Chestnut Hill will be held this year at the Baptist Church on the corner of Bethlehem Pike and Germantown Avenue. Mrs. Samuel Paul will conduct the morning service at 10:30; Miss Ann Adams is in charge of the Children's Service at 3:45 in the afternoon; and the Young People's Service is at 8:00 in the evening. It is hoped that many members of the Parish will attend.

JUNIOR TOWN MEETING

The Young People's Fellowship is indebted to Mr. Loring Dam one of the founders of the "Junior Town Meeting of the Air" and the Youth Civic Council of Philadelphia for what promises to be its most interesting and worthwhile program of the year.

As part of an effort to interest the Churches in the development of better citizenship, three experienced members of the Youth Civic Council will present a panel discussion with audience participation on the subject "Our Moral Obligation in Politics" on the evening of February 23 at 7:30.

Our Fellowship has invited the Fellowships from seven neighboring Churches and extends a cordial invitation to all members of the Congregation to see in action one of the most heartening developments in the field of youth activity of our day. This discussion will be similar to those broadcast monthly by KYW, and the three members of the panel are among the cleverest and most experienced of the membership of the Youth Council.

MATERIAL AID

Taxi service to and from the Wednesday Evening Services in Lent has been suggested by Mrs. George V. Strong as a contribution toward Material Aid. She lives in the neighborhood of Stenton Avenue and Gravers Lane and would be glad to transport anyone in that area. Round trip will cost 25c. This seems to us to be an excellent idea and we hope other people with cars will make a similar offer. Telephone the Parish House if you wish a ride or if you can offer your services.

We need contributions of good readable books for the Lending Library which will be set up shortly in the Parish House. Books may be left at the Office. If you wish to have them returned, please put your name in them.

Don't forget to bring your excess fat to the Parish House for soap.

DEDICATION OF THE LENTEN MITE BOXES

M. The harvest truly is great but the laborers are few.
P. Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them into the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.
M. Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you; and lo! I am with you even unto the end of the World.
P. For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him shou'd not perish but have everlasting life!
M. Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send and who will go for us?
P. Then said I, Here am I! send me.
M. The Lord be with you. P. And with thy Spirit.
M. Let us pray
M. A Prayer for Missions

The Prayer of Dedication of the Boxes
All. O God, our heavenly Father, we thank thee for the gift of thy dear Son. Grant that we who have received him in our hearts may joyfully go forth with him on many errands. Bless those that toil for thee in far off places; comfort them in their loneliness, and unite our work to theirs. Accept our gifts; receive our prayers; and use us for the sake of thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

VESTRY

The Vestry takes pleasure in announcing the appointment of Mr. Gilbert H. Fall who will fill the unexpired term of Mr. Thomas S. Gates.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY — FEBRUARY 27

Speaker — The Rev. Clifford E. B. Nobes — 11:00 A. M.

Mr. Nobes can tell you what the inside of Santo Thomas looks like. He can also tell you a great deal about the work of our Church in the Philippines where he was a missionary for several years before and during the war. It is an unusual opportunity for us to hear him, and all the members of the Parish are urged to come and bring their friends. Luncheon will be served. Please notify the Parish Office by Tuesday, February 25, if you expect to stay. The cost will be 50 cents.

WEDNESDAY EVENING SERVICES

After the service every Wednesday evening, there will be an informal reception in the Parish House at which time the congregation is invited to greet the Rev. J. Clemens Kolb.

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

Is not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free . . . Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry . . . when thou seest the naked that thou cover him? (Isaiah 58:6, 7)

Convinced that world relief in all it aspects is an obligation belonging expressly to the Churches, believing too that this relief must be administered on the basis of need and not sect, the Churches have banded together in Church World Service, a cooperative effort to raise funds and to send help to the places of greatest need. Episcopal Churchmen take part in this cooperative project through their contributions to the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief. Church World Service administers relief through two agencies: The World Council of Churches in Europe and the National Christian Councils in Asia. Episcopal contributions in 1946 amounted to $825,000, money that is now at work helping to relieve the suffering in war-ravaged countries. But a tremendous and desperate need still remains. To help meet this continuing need the Church is raising $1,000,000 during each of the next three years - 1947, 1948, 1949.

As our Presiding Bishop writes: "The importance of this Fund cannot be over-emphasized. Millions of people are in desperate need. Here is an opportunity to meet in part this tragic situation in the name of Christ and the Church. The authority for this appeal rests upon the unanimous action of General Convention. But there is a greater authority: the example and words of the Master. As the First Epistle of St. John declares: But whoso has this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him? Here is an appeal to heart and conscience. This is Christianity in practice."

You have received a letter outlining the plans that our Parish Committe has laid down for the raising of our share of this fund. I can think of no better way in which to keep Lent this year than by taking part in this effort to let the oppressed go free, to deal our bread to the hungry and to cover the naked. It is a big undertaking, but if each and every one of us does our bit it is easily within our potentialities, and I earnestly beg your fullest cooperation.

GOLD RUSH

Sunday afternoon, March 16, is the time set for our "Gold Rush" under the sponsorship of the men of the Parish. They plan to canvass the Chestnut Hill, Mt. Airy, and North Hills sections and will collect any old gold, silver and fat you have rooted from the attics of yourselves, your friends, and your relations. This will be sold to dealers to swell our fund. So please plan to be at home that afternoon. If you cannot be there, or if no "junk man" calls on you, will you please get in touch with Mr. George Whitney or Mr. Theodore Eckfeldt? We would appreciate it if those of you who live elsewhere would bring your contributions to the Parish House.

Watch for further details of our first musical evening to be held on March 28, with a group of young students from the Settlement House Music School as our guest artists. Several of these young people have been soloists in the Youth Concerts and should be well worth our best support.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP

The Young People's Fellowship will meet at 5:30 in the Parish House this Sunday and proceed to the Church of The Good Shepherd where it will be the guest of the YPF and see the movie "Journey into Faith".

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

As we come to the last stage of our Lenten observance and enter Holy Week, it is well to check over what Lent has meant, what it should mean to us, and what we have gained from this Lent. As we keep Holy Week it should be in all our minds that we cannot plumb the depths of the meaning of this season for ourselves or for our world with any easy or surface type of thinking. For Good Friday and Easter are more than the memorials of historical events that happened 1918 years ago. The Crucifixion and Resurrection are not merely isolated events in the stream of history. They are not only the turning point in history, but the revelation, the flashlight, if you will, showing once for all the way growth comes into this world, the way in which God, slowly but surely brings in the completion of mankind, the supreme example of the law under which we all live, that no advancement for mankind is won without its price. Except a seed fall into the ground and die, it cannot bear fruit. Except a life lose itself it cannot accomplish the purpose for which it was brought into the world. Except you and I are willing to go out from the safety and comfort of our ordinary life and willingly give ourselves for the sake of some one else, we will never accomplish that which God has hoped from us. There can be no Easter without its Good Friday, and the value of the Easter is in exact proportion to the cost of the Good Friday.

It is easy to keep Holy Week as a sort of emotional bath, as people go to the movies for a "good cry". Such an observance may have its value. But unless our watchings of the great events of this final week of our Lord's earthly life issue into an act of rededication of ourselves, our souls and bodies, to Him and to His service, so that on Easter Day, we stand ready and willing to fare forth with Him on many errands that will bring closer His Kingdom, our Lent and Holy Week have largely been in vain.

Fling wide the gates, for the Saviour waits
To tread in his royal way:
He has come from above, in His power and love
To die on this Passion Day.
His Cross is a sign of a love divine,
His crown is a thorn wreath of woe,
He bears His load on the sorrowful road,
And bends 'neath the burden low.

How sweet is the grace of His sacred face
And lovely beyond compare;
Tho' weary and worn with the merciless scorn
Of a world He has come to spare,
The burden of wrong that earth bears along;
Past evil, and evil to be—
All sins of man since the world began,
They are laid, dear Lord, on Thee.

Then on to the end, my God and my Friend,
With Thy banner lifted high!
Thou art come from above in Thy power and love,
To endure and suffer and die.

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

Someone has written: "No lingering loyalty to a dim Saviour will nerve men to accomplish His commands. 'Jesus is nowhere,' said the unbeliever. Bisect that last word and you have the truth. Jesus is NOW HERE. That is Christianity. The perfume of His life is not diminishing, like that of some flower plucked to bloom no more. His words are no mere echoes from an undiscovered grave, on which the Syrian stars look sadly down. His active living presence is not withdrawn into a state where all things are forgotten. He broke from Death; and His immortal hands, which thrust Death's doors aside, did not bleed vainly. Henceforth, age after age, He can be witnessed, winning the world despite dark periods. The potency of light is in His counsel. He is among us, judging and redeeming . . . Where love is there is Christ, the actual Person, Who suffered and still suffers for our sins."

Perhaps we are now in one of these "dark periods." During the war the Easter promise may have seemed ironical when Death so obviously reigned, but now, though the hostilities have long since ceased and the guns no longer roar, the dislocations caused by the war still plague us on every side. Famine still stalks the earth hand in hand with her sister, Pestilence, statesmen wrangle over the terms of peace, and the promises often seem further off than ever. Perhaps it is because Easter is not "highlighted" as it was in wartime and we are still not over the strains of war, that Easter comes this year with less of a lift. But it is such "dark periods" that the Christian more confidently than ever proclaims "Christ is risen." The problems of our day are basically theological, questions of belief of what the world is all about. They will not find a satisfactory answer, until that answer is made on the basis of the Christian understanding of what man is and what his relation to God is, that finds its fullest expression in the Easter story. God so loved the world that He gave His Son to suffer and die, that through suffering and death, mankind might be raised to the final victory, even as He was raised. That victory comes through slow stages, but Christ still suffers and reigns, and so we hail Him King. "If ye then be risen with Christ seek those things which are above." That is the promise and the challenge of Easter.

May it bring each of us this year great joy and fulfillment in His service.

Nelson T. Sturges

Church of St. Martin-in-the-Fields

Thou art alive, O Christ, for evermore
Teach us to live;
Thou givest gifts of gladness from Thy store,
Help us to give
Out of the radiant joy Thy love imparts
Some light divine,
So that Thine Easter Joy in other hearts
May rise and shine.

THE FIRST SUNDAY AFTER EASTER

The services on April 13, both 8 o'clock and 11 o'clock, will be in charge of Dr. McBee, rector emeritus of St. David's Church, Radnor, as Mr. Sturges will be at the Provincial Conference of the United Movement of the Church's Youth to be held at the Diocesan Conference Center in Richmond, Va., in his capacity as Adviser to the Diocesan Youth Council.

Mr. Wilkinson is preparing a special musical arrangement for the 11 o'clock service, substituting Easter Carols for the usual Chants.

JOHN LEE WHITNEY

At the ten o'clock service on Maundy Thursday, the silver candle sticks on the side Altar were dedicated to the use of the Church in loving memory of John Lee Whitney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Whitney, who died in action in the War.

MATERIAL AID

For those who attended our concert, the evening was an unqualified success, and the young artists received a most enthusiastic response. We must have them again next year and see that no one misses the opportunity of enjoying their rare talent. We are grateful to the whole group, who by their efforts, were responsible for sending nearly a ton of food to their European compatriots.

The date for our Bazaar and auction has been finally set for Saturday, April 26th. The plan is to open the proceedings at 3:00 with entertainment and food for the children, while their mothers exclaim over the handicrafts, sweetmeats and bargains in outgrown clothing and sporting goods. Dinner, buffet style, with a charge of $1.50 for adults and $1.00 for children, will be served from 6:00 to 7:00. Following that, there will be an auction with the inimitable Mr. Loring Dam as M. C. The success of this venture depends entirely upon your willingness to work and contribute

1. handicrafts — knitted or sewed goods, or saleable handmade gadgets;
2. food; seedlings;
3. clean outgrown clothes in good condition, with the emphasis on evening wear and sporting goods (NOT RUMMAGE);
4. auctionable objects;
5. time and energy.

The committees, under the general chairmanship of Mrs. Jasper Nicolls, are already at work, but they must know what you can contribute. So would you please call the Parish Office as soon as you decide what you could make or give for sale. Also, please save paper bags and cardboard cake containers for the food table.

M. And now let us present the offering of sacrifices during Lent.

HYMNS 262,261 (Verses as needed)
During these hymns, the children will come forward by classes and place their mite boxes in the Cross and the offering of the adults shall be received and presented at the Cross. Then shall be sung:

THE DOXOLOGY

INTRODUCTION

HYMN 565 "Jesus calls us"

ADDRESS

ANTHEM "Christ the Lord is Risen" Whitehead (arr.)

M. The Lord be with you.

C. And with thy spirit.

M. Let us pray.

The LORD'S PRAYER

M. O God our heavenly Father, we thank thee for the gift of thy dear Son, Grant that we who have received Him in our hearts may joyfully go forth with Him on many errands. Bless them that toil for thee in far off places; comfort them in their lineliness and unite our work with theirs. Accept our prayers, receive our gifts, and use us for the sake of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRAYERS AND BENEDICTION

RECESSIONAL HYMN 94 "Come ye faithful"

He is Risen!
Thou knowest He died not for Himself, nor for Himself arose.
Millions of souls were in His heart, and these for one He chose.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN 85

M. Christ is risen! P. He is risen indeed!

M. This is the day that the Lord hath made

P. We will rejoice and be glad in it.
Alleluia! Christ is risen!

M. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us:
P. Therefore let us keep the feast,
M. Not with the old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness;
P. But with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.
Christ, being raised from the dead, dieth no more;
Death hath no more dominion over him.
For in that he died, he died unto sin once:
But in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.
Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin,
But alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Christ is risen from the dead
And become the firstfruits of them that slept.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

M. Let us be seated and listen to the witness of the Resurrection as recorded by St. Paul:

FIRST LESSON, 1 Cor. 15:3-9

HYMN 91 "The strife is o'er"

M. Let us be seated and listen to the story of the Resurrection as reported by St. John.

SECOND LESSON, John 20:1-8

HYMN 98 "That Easter Day" vv.1,3,4

The CREED

M. Jesus said: I am he that liveth and was dead, and behold I am alive forever more.

P. Thanks be to thee, O Christ, for thy holy Gospel.

M. Other sheep I have which are not of this fold; them also must I bring, and they shall hear my voice; and they shall become one flock, one shepherd.

P. Thanks be to thee, O Christ, for thy holy Gospel.

M. Go ye therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them into the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and lo I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world.

P. Thanks be to thee, O Christ, for thy holy Gospel.

M. And ye shall receive power when the Holy Ghost is come upon you, and ye shall be my witnesses unto the uttermost parts of the earth.

P. Thanks be to thee, O Christ, for thy holy Gospel.

DR. HENRY P. BROWN, Jr.

St. Martin's may well be proud that in the person of Dr. Henry P. Brown, Jr., it is giving one of her sons to one of the newest mission fields of the Church. As the result of Bishop Quentin Huang's address to the men of the Parish in January, Dr. Brown offered his services to the Diocese of Kunming, China. The Bishop has appointed him medical officer of the Diocese, and in charge of teaching surgery at Hueitien hospital. Dr. Brown leaves with Bishop Huang for his new work on the first of May. The Woman's Auxiliary of the Parish has started a fund for him to use for the purchase of medical supplies, as a farewell gift from the Parish. Any wishing to add to this gift are asked to send their contribution to the Rector before April 15th.

CHURCH SCHOOL

Three years ago the Vestry asked Mrs. Loring Dam to reorganize the Church School of our Parish which had fallen on evil days. She was able to gather a devoted and skilled teaching staff, and by her devotion, ability and tireless energy was able to build up the school to its present flourishing condition. A year ago she asked to be released from her duties, but was persuaded to remain as superintendent for another year, and it is with great regret and yet gratitude for her splendid performance that her resignation has been accepted for the end of this academic year. Hers has been a major contribution to the life of the Parish, for which it will always be grateful.

The Vestry is pleased to announce that Mrs. Ann Adams has accepted the position of Director of Religious Education, starting in September.

MATERIAL AID

The situation in Europe is much worse this year than last, according to M. R. Zigler, a C.W.S. observer. He tells of seeing men in Cologne clad in thin suits on a cold night, walking with their heads down into the wind and snow. When he asked why they walked so interminably, someone answered: "They have to. They have nowhere to go, and if they stop to rest, they freeze." Families who have one strong and one weak child will give preference to the former in the hope that one at least will survive.

Towns of two to three hundred people have had to support from their meagre resources as many as 500 newcomers. These expellees come by box- and cattle-car jammed in like animals, with no heat. When one train arrived, twenty-three people had frozen to death and thirteen had to have frozen legs amputated.

HAVE YOU RETURNED YOUR MATERIAL AID BENEFIT POSTAL YET?

The next shipment of clothes to New Windsor leaves the Parish House on Thursday, April 24.

UNITED THANK-OFFERING

The Spring In-Gathering of the contents of your U.T.O. blue box will be held on Sunday morning, April 20th. At this service, the women of the Parish will present their offering of thanks to God for his many blessings to them.

DIOCESAN CONVENTION

The 163rd Annual Convention of the Diocese will meet at 5 o'clock on Monday May 5th at HolyTrinity. At the service at 8:00 P. M. to which the public is cordially invited, the Bishops will make their annual addresses and will present several matters of vital importance to the development of the life of the Parish. Bishop Hart has written the rector expressing the hope that at least all vestrymen and officers of all Parish organizations will be present as it will be helpful if our delegates who have to vote on the questions could have the advice of their vestry and other officers of the Parish. The three chief matters of concern are the report of the Committee on the Administration of the Diocese which is recommending a considerable change in the Diocesan set-up; the report of the Committee appointed to make a survey of Diocesan institutions and the department of Christian Social Relations which will recommend a considerable increase in the Diocesan budget; and a report on the Episcopal Hospital.

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

The financial results of "The World Relief Benefit" that we held last week appear elsewhere. In those results we can all take pride, for they were made possible only by the cooperation of the whole Parish. It is not feasible to name all those who deserve to be thanked personally for their mighty efforts on the numerous committees that made the day the success that it was, but Mrs. Nicolls, Chairman of the Bazaar, Mrs. George Woodward, Jr. Chairman of the Supper, and Mr. and Mrs. Dam, chairmen of the Auction, deserve especial mention, not only for their almost superhuman efforts, but also for the skill with which they organized their departments, and the smoothness with which all committees functioned. But apart from any financial return, I cannot but feel that the day added much to the fellowship of our Parish life, and our sense of working together in a common cause, for all of which I am supremely grateful.

Sermon Hymn 368 "Our blest Redeemer" St. Cuthbert
Offertory Anthem Ireland

Many waters cannot quench Love, neither can the floods drown it. Love is strong as death. Greater Love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. Who His own self bare our sins in His own Body on the tree, that we being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness. Ye are wash'd ye are sanctified, ye are justified, in the Name of the Lord Jesus; Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, That ye should shew forth the praises of Him Who hath call'd you out of darkness, out of darkness into His marvellous light. I beseech you, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies, a living sacrifice, holy, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

THE CHOIR

Up until the War it was the custom to send the boys of the Choir away for two weeks to a camp during the summer. It is the hope of all interested in the welfare of the choir that that can be done again this year, and plans are under way to place them in a camp. But the regular budget of the Parish cannot stand this extra expense of approximately $700 and we are forced to appeal to the generosity of the members of the Parish to carry out this project. The Choir under the able direction of Mr. Wilkinson has shown a very satisfactory growth and has done excellent work this winter. It well deserves this reward and I hope that many will help. Checks should be sent to me made out to the "Discretionary Fund, Church of St. Martin in the Fields."

PRESENTATION SERVICE

On the afternoon of Sunday May 18 at 4 o'clock the Annual Service of Presentation of the Diocesan Lenten Offering will be held on the grounds of the Episcopal Academy. Both Bishop Hart and Bishop Remington will take part in the service and the Rev. Nathaniel Groton, D. D. of St. Thomas' Church, Whitemarsh will be the preacher.

We hope to be able to send over our Church School Choir to take its place with the massed vested choirs of the Diocese and to have as many other children and adults of the parish present as possible. If you can go and could take some children with you in your car, would you tell Mrs. Loring Dam, CH 7-4009.

QUIET AFTERNOON FOR LAYMEN

Bishop Hart will conduct a "Quiet Afternoon" for the Laymen of the Diocese at the Philadelphia Divinity School on Saturday, May 10th beginning at 4 P. M. A buffet supper will be served at 6:30 P. M. Immediately after supper a service of preparation for Holy Communion will be conducted by Dean Gifford. Those interested in attending are asked to let Dean Gifford know by calling EV 6-7475.

There are a few articles, including jewelry and knitted wear, left over from the Bazaar, which may be of interest to parishioners. They will be on view at the Parish House for a few weeks.

The New Windsor shipment this last week has added up to 40 cartons, including a great many shoes, a boon to ill-shod Europe. The authorities at New Windsor are concerned with one problem: they have any number of volunteer workers for the summer months and nothing to pack—so perhaps by continuing to send things we can help solve this dilemma.

MATERIAL AID

Financially, we are "over the top" in our giving (full accounting will appear in the near future). It is lucky that the weather beginning to warm as St. Martin's generosity has reduced his cloak to shreds. It is hoped that he is so encouraged by the results of this effort that he will quietly set about weaving an even sturdier larger one against the winter when the hands of Europe, very young and very old, will again be outstretched.

Our five hour effort on Saturday, April 26, netted over $2700 which will send 21½ tons of food to Europe.

The 150 pounds of fat we have sent equals 450 cakes of soap. In America that would cost $33.00. In Europe it is worth $240.00.

Another shipment will go to New Windsor on May 28th.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP

Sunday, May 18th, will be a big day for our Y. P. F. At four o'clock our soft ball team is to play a team from the Memorial Church of the Good Shepherd. After the game at approximately 6 o'clock our Y. P. F. will be hosts to the fellowships from the Good Shepherd and from the Epiphany, Lincoln Drive. After supper Lt. J. N. Ashbrook, U.S.C.G., son of Mr. James Ashbrook, of this Parish and assistant to Com. S. F. Gray, Chief of the Coast Guard's Information Division, will show three movie films on the work of the Coast Guard in war times and in peace time and on the training received at the Coast Guard Academy in New London. The films will be shown about 7 or 7:30 P. M. and a cordial invitation is extended to any in the Parish to attend.

CHURCH SCHOOL

The Church School will present $540.39, its Mite Box and Sunday offerings during Lent, at the Diocesan Presentation Service at the Episcopal Academy on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Cars will leave the Parish House at three o'clock to take the children over to the service.

The closing exercises of the School will be held on Sunday, June 1st.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY ANNUAL REPORT - 1947

The Woman's Auxiliary has met every Thursday throughout the year except during September and the Christmas holidays.

Last summer we made 40 articles of clothing for Material Aid and sent them to New Windsor. This winter, 126 articles were sent to the Church House for the Episcopal Hospital. Sixteen sweaters were also made and sent to the Church House. The surgical committee under Mrs. Button made over 2000 4x4 surgical dressings which were sent to the Shingle Memorial Hospital, Hawaii. In addition we made 24 articles for the Bazaar.

In October there was a Book Review at the residence of Mrs. W. Griffin Gribbel to raise money toward the $1,000 Bishop Hart asked the Diocesan Committee to give him this year to help raise the salaries of the missionaries in this Diocese. We raised $126.20 which was sent to the Diocesan Committee.

On February 13th, Mr. Snowden spoke on India and showed moving pictures. On February 27th, the Rev. Mr. Nobes spoke on the Philippines; and in March Mr. Bache-Wiig spoke on the Church and World Order.

During the year, 620 persons have attended our meetings on Thursdays, averaging a little more than 21 persons a week.

The next regular meeting will be in September, but meanwhile, beginning July 10th, we will meet informally during July and August to sew for the Episcopal Hospital. The Supply Bureau will send us articles to make. I hope those at home will come.

At the Annual Meeting on May 22nd, Mrs. Butler was elected to the office of Secretary and Mrs. Hunter to that of Treasurer.

Katharine Morris, President.

Minister. The Lord is in His holy Temple: Let all the earth keep silence before Him.

People. Holy, Holy, Holy, is the Lord of Hosts: the whole earth is full of His glory.

Min. & Peo. (Sing) Nicaea (266)

Holy! Holy! Holy! Lord God Almighty!
All thy works shall praise Thy name in earth and sky and sea;
Holy! Holy! Holy! merciful and mighty!
God in Three Persons, blessed Trinity. Amen.

Min. The Lord be with you. Answer And with thy spirit.

Min. Let us pray

Min. & Peo. Almighty God, unto whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid; cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of Thy Holy Spirit that we may perfectly love Thee and worthily magnify Thy Holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Min. & Peo. Our Father who art . . .

Min. O Lord open Thou our lips.

Peo. And our mouth shall show forth Thy praise.

Min. Glory be . . . Peo. As it was . . .

Min. & Peo. The earth is the Lord's, and the fullness thereof:
The world and they that dwell therein.
For He hath founded it upon the seas,
And established it upon the floods.

Peo. Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord?
Or who shall stand in His holy place?

Min. He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart,
Who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity,
Nor sworn deceitfully,
He shall receive the blessing from the Lord,
And righteousness from the God of his salvation.
This is the generation of them that seek Him,
That seek Thy face, O God of Jacob.

Peo. Lift up your heads, O ye gates,
And be ye lift up ye everlasting doors,
And the King of Glory shall come in!

Min. Who is the King of Glory?

Peo. The Lord strong and mighty.
The Lord mighty in battle!
Lift up your heads, O ye gates,
Praise Him all creatures here bedow;
And the King of Glory shall come in.

Min. Who is the King of Glory!

Peo. The Lord of Hosts, He is the King of Glory.

Min. & Peo. (Sing) Vigiles et Sancti

Praise God from who all blessings flow;
Praise Him all creatures here below;
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost.
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

THE CANTICLE OF ST. FRANCIS

M. O Most High, Omnipotent, good Lord God, to Thee belong praise, glory, honor and all blessing.
For our brother the sun, who is our day and who brings us the light; who is fair and radiant with a very great splendour;

P. Praise, glory, and honor be to Thee, O God.
For our sister the moon, and for the stars, the which thou hast set clear and lovely in heaven;
Praise, glory, and honor, be to Thee, O God,
For our brother the wind, and for air and clouds, calms and all weather;
Praise, glory and honor, be to Thee, O God.
For our sister water, who is very serviceable unto us and humble and precious and clean;
Praise, glory and honor, be to Thee, O God.
For our brother fire, by whom thou lightest up the night, and who is fair and merry, and very mighty and strong;
Praise, glory and honor, be to Thee, O God.
For our mother earth, which doth sustain us and keep us, and bringeth forth divers fruits, and flowers of many colors. and grasses;
Praise, glory and honor, be to Thee, O God.
For all those who pardon one another for Thy love's sake, and who bear weakness and tribulation;
Praise, glory and honor, be to Thee, O God.
For our sister, the death of the body.
Praise, glory and honor, be to Thee, O God.
Blessed are they who shall peaceably endure, walking by Thy most holy will; for Thou, O most Highest, shall give them a crown.
Praise ye and bless ye the Lord, and give thanks unto Him, and serve Him with great humility. Amen

CHARTER

Copies of the new charter and by-laws have arrived and are available for those who want them on the table at the back of the Church.

The gratitude of the Parish was partially symbolized by a gift presented to her at the closing service by the children, but nothing can really express what is owed her.

CHOIR

At the same service Crosses were awarded to the following boys in recognition of their faithful service to the Parish:

Thomas Day, Robert Day, Samuel Rittenhouse, James Parsley, Blair Crownover, Lincoln Graham, Robert Fox, Edward Roth Richard Yarp.

The following boys have not missed a rehearsal or service during May: Blair Crownover, Stanley Baldwin, James Parsley, Bruce Mackey, Lincoln Graham and Robert Price.

Thanks to the generosity of a number of the members of the Parish 15 boys are to go to the YMCA camps at Downington on June 25 for two weeks, 3 to the small boys' camp, Camp Castle, 12 to the older boys' camp, Camp Dwight.

SUMMER SCHEDULE

The Woman's Auxiliary will suspend meetings during June but will meet informally for sewing on Thursday mornings during July.

The Young People's Fellowship will meet informally Sunday evenings during June.

Miss Brown will have as her vacation the month of July; Mr. Egan, July 13th to July 28th; Mr. Wilkinson, July 20th to August 17th and Mr. Sturges the month of August.

The Parish House telephone will be answered during the morning throughout the summer. In August, Mr. Sturges can be reached at Princeton, Mass., telephone 101.

We are fortunate to have again as our summer supply minister the Very Rev. Eldon B. Mowers, the dean of Holy Trinity Cathedral in Havana. He will be in charge of the services on the five Sundays in August. Dean Mowers will not have his car, and as the Penna. R. R. does not run a train to Chestnut Hill before 8:00 A. M. on Sunday mornings, we must ask for entertainment for him Saturday nights. Anyone who would be willing to put him up for one or more such nights is asked to notify Miss Brown.

CHURCH SCHOOL

The Church School opened with 120 present, and with many new faces in our midst, our total enrollment now stands at 188. Many of our most faithful attenders were absent due to colds, but we hope to welcome them on Sunday.

The School is badly in need of some book-shelves for its library and would be glad to know of anyone who would care to donate some. Call CH 7-2131 or notify Miss Adams, and we shall be glad to arrange for transportation.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Your attention is called to the School of Christian Education of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, a series of courses to be held on Tuesdays, October 14 through November 18, at the Church House. first course starting at 5:45 and the last one ending at 9:30. These courses are for everyone, not just the Church School Staff. See Bulletin Board for details.

All Parish organizations should be sure to have representatives attending, but equally important is representation of this parish by individuals who, eager to have a part in the growing life of St. Martin's, could make no better contribution than that of enriching their own knowledge of Christian life in the Church.

CHURCH SCHOOL ATTENDANCE

September 28 —— 120
October 5 —— 125

MATERIAL AID

Chill breezes are blowing across Europe by now, and we count on everyone in St. Martin's to be constantly on the lookout for warm clothing, household goods, shoes and used fats. It means not only keeping our own homes 'trimmed down', but it means constantly reminding our neighbors that we send monthly shipments to New Windsor. The articles should be in the Parish House by the 20th of each month. Let's be sure that the winter wind is not sharpened by our indfference.

N. B. Give us your old handbag full of bobby pins, buttons, needles, thread and other small but definitely practical articles.

The Church School children are bringing toys, notions, and other miscellaneous articles to fill Christmas bags which they have made out of turkish towels. This is a chance for parents to cooperate with the Church School by helping their children to remember the articles they have promised and if so moved to supplement the new gift wih an old doll or other small toy in good condition.

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

In some ways it would be nice if a Church could function without finances, but it is bound by the same laws that affect every other institution, so on Sunday afternoon, November 9th, your door bell will be rung by a fellow member of St. Martin's, who will come to receive your pledge for the support of our Parish and of our Church during the coming year. Your pledge card will be mailed to you the week before with a folder telling of our accomplishments this past year and our hopes and budget for next year. We are faced with a greatly increased budget for 1948. Rising prices account for part of the increase. Greater use of our plant means more oil, more light, more wear and tear. The tremendous growth of the Church School this fall has shown the wisdom of adding a Director of Religious Education to our Staff. And all of our increased activity has rendered necessary a large program of improvement and rehabilitation of our plant. These all add up to an increase of some $5,000 above our 1947 budget.

On the "Red Side", our pledges for the support of the Diocese and National Church, our "proportionate share" of the Diocesan and National Budget remains the same as last year. But it is a large amount and one we can maintain only when each of us realizes that the "red side" of the card is just as important as the "black side", and equally our responsibility.

There is a hesitation sometimes in speaking of money in connection with things of the Church, though that doesn't stop what often seems like a perpetual stream of appeals. But there is this to be said. What we do with our money, over and above what is needed to feed, clothe and shelter our families, is a moral and spiritual matter, and is an indication of what we consider important in life. Our pledge for the support of our branch of Christ's Church is an indication and token of how much we value it and of our allegiance and loyalty to that Church's Master. It is not merely a "donation" or an extra. It is part of our duty as members of Christ's Church.

The response to our Every Member Canvass has been most gratifying in the two previous years of my rectorship, for which I am most humbly grateful. I know that the parish will continue the excellent record that it has made.

P. F. Sturges.

Sermon The Rev. John DeF. Pettus
Offertory Anthem Parry

And did those feet in ancient time
Walk upon these our mountains green?
And was the Holy Lamb of God
On these our pleasant pastures seen?
And did the Countenance Divine
Shine forth upon our clouded hills?
And was Jerusalem builded here
Among those dark Satanic mills?

Bring me my bow of burning gold!
Bring me my arrows of desire!
Bring me my spear! O clouds unfold!
Bring me my Chariot, of Fire!
I will not cease from mental fight;
Nor shall my sword sleep in my hand
Till we have built Jerusalem
In this our green and pleasant land.

OUR PREACHER THIS SUNDAY

is the Rev. John DeF. Pettus, rector of All Saints-by-the-Sea, Santa Barbara, California. Mr. Pettus has just returned from a flying visit to China. He was present at the Synod in Shanghai when the Diocese of Yun Kwei was officially separated from the Diocese of Hongkong, with the Rt. Rev. Quentin Huang as its Bishop. He was shown around Kunming by Dr. Henry P. Brown.

ALTAR GUILD

There will be a meeting of the Altar Guild on Tuesday, October 21 at 2:30 in the Parish House. It is hoped that all members will try to attend.

CONFIRMATION CLASS

The Confirmation Class for Adults will meet for its first session on Monday evening, October 20 at 8 o'clock in the Rector's Study in the Parish House. The class is open to all and attendance at it does not mean that one has decided to be confirmed. Visitors are more than welcome.

CHURCH SCHOOL

Attendance—October 5, 125—October 12, 148
100% Attendance on October 12
Grade 4 & 5 Choir—Grade 6 & 7 Choir

The Parent-Teacher Meeting, originally scheduled for October 22, has been postponed to Wednesday, October 29. Further notice will be sent to all parents, but we urge you to save the date, so that we may have a good turn-out.

MATERIAL AID

At the recent meeting of the parish committee for raising the Presiding Bishop's Fund, it was decided to continue the long-range projects so successfully launched last year. They are: The Lending Library, Sales and Exchange, Talent Bureau, Sale of Jellies.

In order to start the Lending Library again, we need a whole supply of new readable books such as you have been garnering all summer. These may be left at the Parish Office or can be called for if necessary.

Sales and Exchange involves selling to your friends whatever spare commodities you may have such as apples, school blazers, excess china or furniture. A "want ad" department in the Parish News will solve your advertising difficulties.

Talent Bureau publicizes your talents, ways you can be of service to others. Some already successful methods are lamp-shade repair, mending, knitting, baby-sitting.

Sale of jelly—We have on hand several cases of guava jelly, orange and kumquat marmalade, and will order more as soon as it is advisable. These jellies make excellent Christmas presents.

Sale of Church World Service Christmas cards.

The Committee is planning several parish events, leading up to our incomparable Benefit in the Spring. So be on the lookout for further announcements. Also we welcome any ideas you have on money raising possibilities. Remember—the goal is $8,000. In order to reach it, we shall need to bring to bear all our faculties of imagination and heart.

Don't forget — October 20th is the deadline for this month's shipment of CLOTHING and FAT to New Windsor.

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

Last week in my "Message" I made the statment that the pledges on the "red side" of the pledge cards, that is for the work of our Diocese and National Church, are as much a part of the responsibility of each of us as those on the "black side". There is a continuing hesitation among a large part of the people of our denomination to realize this. It should be obvious to all that St. Martin's is only a unit in a larger whole, that its own effectiveness in large part depends upon its membership in that larger whole.

The moneys received from your pledges on the "red side" are sent to the Diocesan Treasurer, who keeps approximately 40% for the work of the Diocese, and the balance is sent to the National Council in New York.

Every dollar sent to National Council is divided as follows:

To Make Christ known through Missionary Work
A. At Home in 13 Missionary Districts and Special work with Negroes, College Students, etc.	29.41	cents
B. In Areas under the U.S. Flag but outside U.S.A.	8.52	"
C. In Foreign Lands	39.07	"
Total Missionary Work	77.00	"
To Make Christ Known through Education and Inspiration
D. CHRISTIAN EDUCATION	2.72	"
E. CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS	.94	"
F. LAYMEN'S WORK	.67	"
G. WOMAN'S AUXILIARY	1.66	"
H. TRAINING CENTERS AND OTHER AGENCIES	3.03	"
I. PROMOTION	.05	"
Total	14.18	"
J. ADMINISTRATION	8.82	"

The total tentative Budget for the National Council is $3.500,-000.00. This should not be too great for us if each of us did our part.It would amount to a little over $2.00 a communicant, if every communicant could and would do his part. It is a pitiful amount when compared with the spending of our people on luxury items such as tobacco, cosmetics, or liquor.

Parent-Teacher Meeting

We hope that the attendance on October 29th will be as gratifying as that of the children of the Church School. The teachers and children are well launched on our program for the year. This meeting will attempt to enlighten the parents as to their part in the program. Don't forget—

The date — Wednesday, October 29
The time — 8:15 P. M.
The place — Parish House

UNITED THANK OFFERING

The Parish Ingathering of the United Thank Offering will take place on Sunday, November 2nd. At that time, all the women of the Parish will present at the Altar their offering of thanks. Blue envelopes for this purpose are already in the mail.

ATTENTION —EVERY WOMAN OF THE PARISH

You have already received a postal telling of the lunch for all the women of St. Martin's on November 6th at 12:30. On this occasion we plan to meet together in fellowship and to learn of ways in which we may have a part in the ever-increasing work of St. Martin's. This is a vital event. There is a place reserved for you at the table. Don't fail to fill it!

Sermon Hymn 126 "For all the saints" Sine Nomine
Offertory Anthem Wesley

Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on Thee. The darkness is no darkness with Thee, but the night is as clear as the day. The darkness and the light to Thee are both alike. God is light, and in Him is no darkness at all. O let my soul live, and it shall praise Thee, for Thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for evermore.

Hymn after Prayer for Christ's Church 600 Darwell
Sursum Corda and Sanctus, Chants 734, 702
Communion Hymn 189 vv. 1 & 3 Unde et Memores
Gloria in excelsis, Chant 739
Recessional Hymn 590 "Ten thousand times ten thousand" Alford

The flowers on the Altar this Sunday are given by Mrs. Donald D. Dodge

The ushers this Sunday are the Messrs. H. P. Brown, 3rd, T. E. Eckfeldt and F. T. Hults.

Don't forget this all-important gathering which takes place in the Parish House on Thursday, November 6th at 12:30. All reservations should be made to the Parish Office by Tuesday. Send your post-card now!

YOUNG PEOPLE'S CORPORATE COMMUNION AND BREAKFAST

This Sunday we are fortunate in having as our guest speaker at the monthly Young People's breakfast Mr. Oliver deWolf Cummings, General Secretary of the Baptist Youth Fellowship. Mr. Cummings was a delegate to the Second World Conference of Christian Youth, held at Oslo, Norway, this past summer and will report on some of the highlights of the Conference and their bearing on the future. All young people in the Parish and their friends are cordially invited and should notify the office not later than Friday, so that breakfast may be provided.

October 19, 154 — October 26, 147

100% Class

7th Grade Girls

JUNIOR GIRLS FRIENDLY SOCIETY

Branch Adviser—Miss Ann Adams
Associates—Mrs. Jasper J. Bentley, Miss Charlotte H. Brown
President—Molly Carpenter

A Junior Branch of the Girls' Friendly Society has been formed at St. Martin's and has held three of its four preliminary meetings. The Branch is open to all girls between the ages of 9 and 14,, not only members of this Church. There are 25 members so far and Miss Adams will be glad to have the names of any candidates before November 3. On Monday, November 10, the Branch will hold its formal Admission Service at 4:15 in the Church. This will be followed by a short play which some of the girls are giving, and tea will be served. In addition to the girls' mothers who will receive special invitations, all women in the parish are cordially invited.

MATERIAL AID

St. Martin's is cooperating with the Churches of Chestnut Hill in a community wide Clothing collection on Sunday, November 16th. Teams with trucks will pick up from your door-step the bundles that you have prepared of clothes, bedding, shoes, etc. These should be clean and in fair condition. And please tie the shoes in pairs. Once a shoe loses its mate in a pile of five or six hundred, it is a major operation to reunite them.

FOR SALE

Strawberry plants, Child's Mahogany rocker, 1 cord of fire wood "on the hoof" to be felled in December. The Sawyer will cut it into lengths desired and deliver it free of charge. Call CH 7-4009.

SENT TO NEW WINDSOR

13 large bags of clothing and shoes, 3 cartons of medical samples, books and "Bath Towel Kits" filled by the Church School, 1 Bedding Roll, 1 bag from Jr. Springside School. (Thank you, Springside.)

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

EVERY MEMBER CANVASS ST. MARTIN'S

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1947

This week the Parish News comes enclosed in a folder developed by the finance department of our Diocese, which gives an excellent picture of the way that the 40 percent of your pledge to the work of the Church outside the Parish is spent. I recommend its study in order to get a realization of the variety and the scope of the work that is carried on by the Diocese thanks to the support you give it by your pledges on the red side of the card.

But I believe that a word of warning is needed to go with it. We can well be proud that "Pennsylvania Leads the Church" and we can go farther and be proud that St. Martin's is one of the leading parishes in the Diocese in all three campaigns, but I do not believe that is any cause for self-satisfaction or contentment with our past record. We must still do better. With the world in its present state, with famine and misery stalking over most of the world's surface, and the need for Christian leadership more desperate than it has ever been, it would hardly seem that this is an appropriate time for "a breather", nor for "sitting back in our corner and saying 'what a good boy am I'!"

I know well the number and the insistence of the appeals with which all of us are constantly being bombarded. It is of much concern to me that our Every Member Canvass conflicts with the Community Chest Red Feather Campaign, to which every one of us owes generous support. But I also know well that St. Martin's as always is able and willing to do its full share and more, in both.

CHURCH SCHOOL ATTENDANCE

Attendance — October 26, 148 November 2, 143

100% Classes — Grade 3 — Grade 5 Girls — Grade 7 Girls

Dismissal - Your attention is called to the fact that on Communion Sundays the Church School is not dismissed until the end of the service. For those who do not attend the service, this means approximately 12:20 as compared to 12 o'clock on the other Sundays. All children in Nursery and Kindergarten may leave any time from 12 o'clock on but we urge your cooperation in letting us have your children for an uninterrupted session on Communion Sundays.

Movie Projector - One of the first outcomes of the Parent Meeting is the gift of a motion picture projector to the Church School from Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Guthrie. The Teachers as well as the children are thrilled with this greatly needed piece of equipment, as we are all aware of the increasing use of visual aids in present day education, and we are deeply grateful to the Guthries for their very generous gift.

HOUSE OF REST

The House of Rest, 5919 Wayne Avenue, is for 33 women of this Diocese.

Will you make this one of your Church charities?

Mrs. Henry P. Brown, Jr., Mrs. James M. Hazlett, Mrs. John B. Lear and Mrs. J. Trevor Custis will be glad to greet you there on Donation Day, November 12, or receive your contributions if you are unable to come.

ARMISTICE NIGHT

There will a Community meeting at St. Paul's Parish House on November 11 at 8:00 P. M. at which the speaker will be Mr. Graham Hodges of New Windsor. Those who have heard Mr. Hodges know what an inspired speaker he is on the subject of Material Aid for Europe. We feel that Armistice Night is a particularly fitting moment for such a meeting and urge all of you to go.

CLOTHING COLLECTION

Sunday, November 16th is the date set for the Community Clothing Collection for Europe. We realize that St. Martin's has done a yeoman's job in this respect, but the purpose of this drive is to broaden the base of the giving. Members of the Junior Girls Friendly are taking part in this project by passing out leaflets on the Saturday before, and the Young People's Fellowship is helping to collect the clothing on Sunday. We need 15 men to drive cars. If any of you would be willing to help, will you please notify the Parish Office - CH 7-2132.

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

This afternoon the Canvasser from the Parish will wait upon you, and I hope that you will welcome him, will give him your pledge for the support of our Church for the coming year, and will tell him what you honestly think of St. Martin-in-the-Fields, whether that be pleasant or unpleasant hearing.

I hope that you will have your pledge ready for him, having made it out thoughtfully and prayerfully, realizing that it is a symbol of our loyalty to the Church and its Master, Christ. In making it out, perhaps these figures might help it bringing into a proper perspective.

"According to most reliable figures, the average churchman gave 2% of his income to the Church before the war. Today he gives slightly over 1¼% . . . . the lowest percentage in history.

"In 1941 the public set aside 9% of income for savings, by 1945 it had increased that figure to 25%. In the same period Retail Stores Sales doubled, even in the face of shortages . . . . spending in Eating and Drinking establishments skyrocketed 75% . . . . spending for tobacco, intoxicants, cosmetics and such broke all records.

"Records show that the average Churchman gave twice the percentage of his income a quarter of a century ago than he does today . . . . and when Depression was at its height his percentage was four times what it was in 1945." (Folder of the American Paper Products Co.)

"Over the years the Episcopal Church has had a better proportionate support in time of depression than in time of prosperity. In the depth of the Depression it received 10c on every $100 of the national income of the United States. After that it dropped almost continually. In the late 30's it fell below 4c and in the 40's it has averaged below 3c. Let us hope that the Episcopal Church does not have to wait for the next depression to obtain a justifiable income from its communicants."

("The Witness")

Clarence F. Sturges

Secondly, may I plead for your continued generosity in the Thanksgiving Offering for the Episcopal Hospital, and your careful study of the enclosed pamphlets. I am afraid that many of us do not realize what an outstanding piece of work Chaplain Morris is doing at the Hospital, work that has won him national recognition in the field of the ministry to the sick. Thanks to his efforts the Chaplaincy is considered an integral part of the Hospital and of the budget, as much as surgery or any other service - a situation that is almost unique in American Hospitals. Your offering, in part, goes to the continuation and expansion of his ministry.

Thirdly, I must remind you that St. Martin's is called upon this year to raise between $7,000 and $8,000 for the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief — the million dollars that our Church has promised the united effort of Protestant Churches, Church World Service — a name that is winning for itself in Europe an equal standing with "Quaker" after the last World War.

I hope that by Christmas, we can have made a substantial start toward the attainment of our quota. Think if you will in terms of a guest at your Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners, of giving what you do not have to spend on your meatless and poultryless days, or of some other form of a regular, continued giving, at least between now and Christmas, of sharing our abundance with our brethren who have less than a bare existence. There will be various "events" in addition, planned by our Fund Committee during the winter, but it is only by a continual stream of gifts, small and great, that we can achieve our end. I know the perpetual stream of appeals with which all of us are deluged, but I urge that all of us channel our gifts for overseas relief through the Presiding Bishop's Fund and Church World Service. Incidentally Mr. Graham Hodges told us on Armistice night that C.W. has supplied many carloads of wheat for the Friendship Train, purchased at the granaries.

Someone has said there are three ways of meeting a situation like this: "I should but I won't;" "Should but I can't"; "I can't but I must." As Christians, the third is our only possibility, and by God's Grace, we can turn the "must" into accomplishment, for salvation waits upon it.

Faithfully yours,

Clarkson F. Sturges

CHURCH SCHOOL

Attendance: November 9 — 139 November 16 — 155

100% Classes - Grade 5 Girls, Grade 6 & 7 Choir, Grade 7 Girls

The attendance last Sunday marked a new record for St. Martin's and represents almost 80% of our total enrollment of which we are justifiably proud. Let's keep up the good work and increase our efforts towards maintaining a percentage equal to that of day schools where the only acceptable excuse for absence is illness.

Pre-Nursery: We are pleased to announce that Mrs. Richard Dew is in charge of our new group of 2 year olds. We also wish to acknowledge a gift of toys from the Misses Swift. They were greatly appreciated and added much to the atmosphere of the new Nursery

Library: The Church School has started a library of non-secular books on the first floor of the Parish House. There are shelves for children, parents and teachers. Loans or gifts of good religious books for children, and books of general help and interest to parents and teachers will be most gratefully received. This is not to be confused with the Material Aid Lending Library in the office. These books are for the purpose of furthering Religious Education and may be borrowed free of charge by any member of the Parish.

MATERIAL AID

The Lending Library is now stocked with new and interesting books. Come in to browse and borrow!

Sent to New Windsor during the last two weeks: 11 bags and 7 cartons of clothing, one 40 lb. can of fat.

UNITED THANK OFFERING

Eighty-three women in our parish contributed $575.00 to the UTO at the Fall Ingathering on November 2nd.

MEN'S CORPORATE COMMUNION

On November 30th will be held the 3rd Annual Corporate Communion and Breakfast for the Men and Boys of the Parish. At the Breakfast following the Service the speaker will be The Rector. A hearty invitation to all men of the Parish and their friends is issued. Those planning to attend the Breakfast for which there will be a charge of $1. are asked to notify the Parish Secretary by Wednesday afternoon.

EPISCOPAL HOSPITAL

According to custom the offering on Thanksgiving will be for the Episcopal Hospital. Our Diocese may well be proud of the splendid work that this hospital is carrying on in our name. This year more than ever it needs our utmost generosity. Caught between rising operating costs and decreasing income it is facing a considerable operating deficit for this year, though it is fair to say that this is true of all hospitals, and Dr. Wilson the superintendent has done an amazing feat in keeping the deficit as low as it is.

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

First, my thanks and the thanks of the Vestry to the 50 and more men and women who gave so generously of their time and energy in the Every Member Canvass. The returns were more complete by six o'clock Sunday afternoon than they have ever been before, which means the best Canvass yet. Thanks are especially due to Mr. George Stevenson, our hard working Chairman, whose efficiency made such a good record possible.

EVERY MEMBER CANVASS

The Every Member Canvass of November 9th is reaching its final stages with but a few persons still to be heard from, and the committee earnestly asks those few to send in their cards as quicky as possible. It was one of the most successful canvasses that we have ever made, with the most complete coverage on the Sunday of the Canvass that we have ever obtained. There were some 39 new pledges received in the total of 277 pledges.

The Rector and Vestry wish to express their profound gratitude to all those who made this record possible: To all who remained home on that Sunday afternoon and welcomed the canvassers, so that what might have been an arduous chore became a pleasant afternoon; to the canvassers themselves who gave so generously of their time and effort; and above all to Mr. George Stevenson, 2nd, and his assistant, Mr. George Whitney, upon whom the success of the Canvass in the last analysis depended.

The new Offering Envelopes for 1948 will be on the table at the back of the Church this Sunday, and it would help tremendously if you would pick up your own envelopes as soon as possible.

THE CORPORATE COMMUNION FOR MEN AND BOYS

Is this Sunday. There are still a few places available. If you are planning to come please notify the Parish Office by Saturday morning. There will be a charge for the breakfast of not more than $1.00. The Rector will be the speaker.

WOMEN'S LUNCHEON

The first of the series of monthly luncheons asked for by the meeting on November 6 will be held on Wednesday, December 10 in the Parish House. The speaker will be the Rev. Clifford L. Samuelson, Associate Secretary of the Division of Domestic Missions of the National Council.

Before the lunch there will be surgical dressings to be made, sewing for material aid and other activities, details of which will be forthcoming later.

Hark! a thrilling voice is sounding;
"Christ is nigh, it seems to say;
"Cast away the dreams of darkness,
O ye children of the day;"
Wakened by the solemn warning,
Let the earthbound soul arise;
Christ, her Sun, all ill dispelling,
Shines upon the morning skies.

Lo! the Lamb, so long expected,
Comes with pardon down from heaven;
Let us haste, with tears of sorrow,
One and all to be forgiven;
That when next He comes with glory,
And the world is wrapped in fear,
With His mercy He may shield us,
And with words of love draw near.

Christ, to Thee be endless glory,
From all men on earth be praise,
Who from heaven wilt come to save us,
And redeem from sinful ways.
Honour, glory, might, and blessing
To the Father and the Son,
With the Everlasting Spirit,
While eternal ages run. Amen.

MATERIAL AID

Ten tons filling two colossal trucks with many bags left over were shipped last Sunday to New Windsor, Maryland. The amount collected was way above the expectations of the Committee and one of our own parishioners volunteered to drive the extra truck so that the clothing would be on its way without any delay.

CHURCH SCHOOL

Attendance: November 16 — 155 November 23 — 154

100% Classes — Grade 6 & 7 Choir Grade 7 girls

The following people have had perfect attendance for the first quarter of the year: Baldwin, B. and G.; Bentley, J.; Crownover, B; Curtis, G., J. and J; Dilks, C.; Eckfeldt, K. and M.; Foody, V.; Goodwin, P.; Guthrie, M.; Humphrey, B., G. and T.; Hurd, T.; Hall, B.; Ilko, W.; Jackson, L.; Knight, M B.; Knight, L.; Lawson, K., P., and T.; Lentz, M. and R.; Lieber, S.; Morton A.; Roach, A.; Straus A., H., and S.; Strubing, B.; Sturges, L. and R.; Trimble, B.; Welsh, C.; Whitaker, M. and S.; Whitney, N.; Woodward, G.

Student Council: Last Sunday the Church School elected a Student Council, which will help to increase pupil participation in the plans and program of the Church School. The following representatives were elected:

Grade 4	Susan Straus
Grade 5 girls	Katherine Eckfeldt
Grade 6 girls	Sally Carpenter
Grade 7 girls	Molly Carpenter
Grade 8 and 9	Patsy Brown
Grade 4 and5 Choir	William Stinson
Grade 6 and 7 Choir	William Ilko
Grade 6 and 7 boys	To be elected

VESTRY

At the last meeting the resignation of Col. John C. Fairchild was accepted with regret, as Col. Fairchild has been transferred to Korea. Mr. Charles Woodward was elected to fill his unexpired term, and Mr. Barclay Knight was elected Secretary of the Vestry and Parish.

One very important feature of this meeting will be a Lazy Shopper Sale for the benefit of the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief. We shall have on hand all sorts of "musts" for Christmas: lovely decorations for your trees, your tables and your houses; candy canes and jelly; Church World Service Christmas cards; and especially small toys and hand-made novelties for everyone's stockings—so plan to save yourselves a lot of trouble and to swell our funds by bringing your friends and your shopping list to join us.

For those who do not wish to do salvage sewing or surgical dressings, there will be the task of assembling and pricing the articles for sale. So come prepared to work!

CHRISTMAS DECORATION OF THE CHURCH

The beautiful rood screen wound with laurel which for many years has been the main feature of our Christmas decorations in St. Martin's has been put up for the last time. It was only with great trepidation that the men whose task it was to install it put it up last year. To take its place Mr. Martyn Kneedler has designed and Mr. Jasper Nicolls has constructed screens to be filled with laurel.

On Monday night, December 22nd, about 8 o'clock, I hope that all of you will come to the Church to fill those screens, set them in their places and put the Church in readiness for our Christmas services. Mr. Wilkinson will be there to play carols to us while we work, and afterwards there will be coffee and cocoa in the Rectory. Save the date and come in clothes you don't mind getting dirty.

P. F. Sturges

VOLUNTEER CHOIR

As in past years we hope to have a volunteer choir for the Christmas Eve Midnight Service. Any who would like to serve the Parish by singing at this service are asked to come to the first of the rehearsals on Tuesday night, December 16, in the Parish House at 8 o'clock.

Attendance: Nov. 23 — 154 Nov. 30 — 155

100% class — Grade 7 Girls

WOMEN — PLEASE NOTE

Wednesday, December 10th, is the date set for the second women's luncheon, at which time the speaker will be the Reverend Clifford Samuelson, whose topic will be rural missions. Mr. Samuelson's thorough knowledge of his field and gift for expression make him an outstanding speaker on this very important phase of our church's work.

There will be work on surgical dressings for a mission hospital and salvage sewing in the Auxiliary room from 10:30 on, so it is hoped that many of you will help with that. We are counting on you to bring your own sandwiches for luncheon at 12:30, and coffee and dessert will be provided for 25c.

QUIET DAY

The women of the parish are invited to attend a quiet day in the Church House, 202 S. 19th Street, on Tuesday, December 16th The Rt. Rev. William P. Remington will be the conductor. The day will begin with Holy Communion at 10 and end at 2:30. Luncheon will be served for 75c, if your reservation is made through our Parish Office not later than December 14th.

VOLUNTEER CHOIR

The Volunteer Choir will make its first contribution of the season at the Midnight Sevice on Christmas Eve. But some vital preparation is necessary which will take place at the rehearsals on Tuesday, December 16 and Monday, December 22, at 8 o'clock in the Parish House. All those interested are urged to attend; the choir is very eager for new members. All are warned however, that this year NO ONE will be allowed to sing at the service who has not come to at least one of the rehearsals.

PROLOGUE TO CHRISTMAS

Scene: The Church of St. Martin-in-the-Fields
Time: Monday, December 22, toward 8 o'clock
Costume: Old Clothes
Director: The Rev. P. F. Sturges
Cast of characters:

All you possessed of merry heart
And willing hands draw near.
No matter what your skill may be
We need you, never fear,
To fill the screens for Christmas Day
With laurel green and bright
That those who come may bless the Lord
And in the church delight

INVITATION FROM THE CHOIRMASTER

All members of the congregation who wish to hear the Christmas Music in rehearsal are invited to attend the regular Friday night rehearsals of the choir. Please notify Mr. Wilkinson ahead of time if you plan to come: CH 7-1334.

Jesu, joy of man's desiring, Holy Wisdom, Love most bright,
Drawn by Thee, our souls aspiring, soar to uncreated light.
Word of God our flesh that fashioned with the fire of life empassioned,
Striving still to Truth unknown, soaring, dying round Thy throne.
Through the way where Hope is guiding. Hark what peaceful music rings
Where the flock in Thee confiding, drink of joy from deathless streams.
Theirs is beauty's fairest pleasure, theirs is wisdom's holiest treasure
Thou dost ever lead Thine own, in the love of joys unknown.

Recessional Hymn 4 "Rejoice, rejoice, believers" Greenland

CHURCH SCHOOL

Attendance: November 30—155 December 7—158

100% Classes: 6th and 7th Choir, 5th Girls and 7th Girls

Christmas Plans: Members of the Church School are taking their part in the Christmas Pageant which this year is to be the combined effort of all the young people's groups in the parish; Because of the feverish excitement of the Pre-Christmas season at school and in the world at large, we are trying to limit the rehearsals to three for each participant. The Church School will have its special Christmas Celebration on Sunday, December 21, in place of the usual class time. On Sunday, December 28, all classes except the Kindergarten Department will attend The Festival Service of Carols and Lessons in the Church. We are hoping, through the general tone of our Christmas activities to instill in our children something of the real significance of Christmas.

Jesus, sunshine of my heart!
By Thee are given The joys of heaven,
Thou the true Redeemer art!
Our souls Thou wakest, Our bonds Thou breakest,
Who trusts Thee surely Hath built securely,
He stands forever. Hallelujah!
Our hearts are pining To see Thee shining,
Dying or living to Thee are cleaving,
Nought can us sever. Hallelujah!
He intercedeth, And ever pleadeth,
Jesus the truth and the way.
Fair as a flower, Waiteth the hour—
Them that seek Thee will find Thee today.
Though earth us faileth, Thy love availeth,
Who calleth clearly, findeth Thee early,
Never forsaken. Hallelujah!
All sin forgiven, earnest of Heaven.
Peace like a river, floweth forever:
New songs awaken! Hallelujah!

RECTORS MESSAGE

As Advent moves into its final stages, I hope that we have not so exhausted ourselves with our "Christmas Rush" that we have left over no energy for the true keeping of Christmes, so that "our souls are busy inns that have no room for Him" but that we have been able to keep them"quiet homes of prayer and praise where He may find fit company, where needful cares are wisely ordered and put away and wide sweet places kept for Him."

Our Parish Celebration will officially start with the Christmas Miracle Play on this Sunday afternoon at 4:30 P. M. As is past years the children will bring to the Manger their gifts of toys. These should be either new or used and in good condition, and wrapped and labelled as to the age and sex of an appropriate recipient. They will be sent to the Church of the Crucifixion. This is a colored mission on Bainbridge St. of which the Rev. H. Tabb, D. D. is rector.

I hope that all of you will come to the Church Monday evening about 8 o'clock to help trim the Church, and make a really family occasion.

The Presiding Bishop' Fund for World Relief should be in all our thoughts at this season. No where in the world is the need greater than in the areas covered by this Fund, and as it is distributed through and by the Churches in the various countries, it can go where national funds are stopped by political considerations, for it has no ulterior motives, and is given simply on the basis of need in the name of Him who said, "Inasmuch as ye have given unto one of the least of these my brethren."

Finally the Vestry urges your generosity in the regular Christmas Offering for the needs of our own Parish.

I am sorry to have filled this last "Message" before Christmas with so many requests. May I end with the prayer that this Christmas may bring us all near to that Light that shineth in our darkness, which is the peace that passeth understanding.

Faithfully, your Rector

EPIPHANY

Holy Communion at 10:00 A. M. on Tuesday, the sixth of January will be followed by intercessions sponsored by the Woman's Auxiliary committee on Worship in cooperation with the National Federation of Churches. Women of the Parish are asked to be in the Church until five o'clock. Those who are able to be in the church for a definite half-hour are asked to sign on the schedule in the vestibule of the church that we may be sure of having at least two persons in the church at all times during the day.

BARN DANCE

Keep your eyes open for our next issue which will tell you all about the BIG BARN DANCE to be held in Mrs. Mason's barn on West Hartwell Lane on Saturday, January 10th. It's for the benefit of the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief, so plan to come and bring your friends!

CHRISTMAS SALE

Our Christmas Sale on December 10th was successful, netting as it did $295.65. Many thanks to all the people who helped so enthusiastically.

ALTAR GUILD

There will be a Corporate Communion of the Altar Guild on Tuesday morning, January 13, at 10:15 A. M.

The Annual Meeting when the work of 1947 will be reviewed, will follow this service.

CHANGE OF DATE FOR WOMEN'S LUNCH

Once again the women of St. Martin's will gather together in fellowship to widen their acquaintance with other members of the Parish, pack clothes, salvage sew, fold bandages and have lunch.

The date for this event will be Tuesday, January 20th; the time 10:30 on; the speaker, the Rector.

MEN'S BREAKFAST - JANUARY 18

By popular demand, the next meeting of the men and boys of the Parish will be at a Corporate Communion and Breakfast on January 18. The Rector will be the speaker.

MATERIAL AID

WANTED - a wicker basket in which to carry a cat. A dog-type basket will do. Call Mrs. Kingsbury, CHestnut Hill 7-4182.

CHURCH SCHOOL

Attendance: January 4 — 150

Due to a change in her plans, Mrs. Richard Dew was unable to continue in full time capacity as director of the 2 year old group. We are most fortunate in having secured the services of five willing mothers — Mrs. William B. Edwards, Mrs. Frederic T Hults, Mrs. William McCook, Mrs. Samuel J. Randall and Mrs Dew—who take turns in providing as homelike and cheery an atmosphere as possible to enable the parents of our two-year olds to attend Church. We are still in the market for nursery equipment and will be most grateful to receive donations that will in any way contribute to the welfare of our "babies".

CHURCH SCHOOL

Attendance: January 4 — 150 January 11 — 155

100% Classes — Grade 7 girls, Grade 6 and 7 Choir

It seems necessary to remind the parents again that the Church School, Grades 1-7, is not dismissed until the end of the Communion Service. For those parents who do not attend Church this means 12:20, as far as we are able to time it, on the 1st and 3rd Sundays of the month. For parents who do attend Church it means that you can stay until the end of the service. Children in the Nursery and Kindergarten groups may be excused any time from 12 o'clock on, but the teachers are all on duty until the end of Church so they are cared for until the close of the full Church School session.

MATERIAL AID

FOR SALE "Bucket a Day" hot water heater, smoke pipe thermostat included and several lengths of smoke pipe. For details call J. Ashbrook, CH 7-3883.

Now that Santa has replenished your supplies, could you please bring us your old

CANDLES, XMAS CARDS, etc. . . BOOKS for the Lending Library or to send overseas; POCKETBOOKS filled with small necessaries; CRAYONS.

We also need any and all CLOTH, new or old, for a salvage sewing project which will start at the Women's Lunch on January 20th.

Don't forget to bring your used fats to the Parish House regularly. We sent 120 lbs. this week—valued at $1200 in Europe.

The December shipment included 16 cartons of assorted goods. We plan to pack on January 20, so please bring all that you can spare. Your gifts help make the Church central in the lives of war-striken peoples.

The Barn Dance of Saturday night was a howling success and netted $344.21.

MUSIC

Our organist, Mr. Harry Wilkinson, will give an organ recital in Muhlenberg College Chapel, Allentown, on Sunday, January 25th at 3:30 P. M.

ANNUAL MEETING

Notice is hereby given of the Annual Meeting of the Parish of St. Martin-in-the-Fields to be preceded by the annual election of Vestrymen in the Parish House on Monday, February 2, 1948. The polls will be open for the election of Vestrymen in the Parish House at 5:45 P. M. "Nominations for Vestrymen shall be made in writing by five or more members of the Parish entitled to vote and shall be presented to a Church Warden or Secretary of the Vestry at least seven days before the election."

Dinner at 6:45 will be followed by the annual reports of all parish organizations. Please fill out the enclosed card, indicating how many of your family expect to be present at the dinner, and return it to the Parish Office no later than January 30.

THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION SUNDAY

For the past few years, the last Sunday in January has been called "Theological Education Sunday", and the offering in those Churches which observe it has been given to the support of the Theological Schools of the Church. There was a time when our 12 schools could depend solely upon the gifts of large donors and the return from invested capital, but these sources are no longer able to meet the demands upon them. In none of the schools do the fees from the students cover the total cost of their education. It is only right that the Church as a whole should take on responsibility for training its leaders. All the schools have greatly increased enrollments, with men from the services taking up their studies in preparation for the ministry.

As is the custom on this Sunday, the offering will go to the Rector's own school.

ANNUAL MEETING

Notice is hereby given of the Annual Meeting of the Parish of St. Martin-in-the-Fields to be preceded by the annual election of Vestrymen in the Parish House on Monday, February 2, 1948. The polls will be open for the election of Vestrymen in the Parish House at 5:45 P. M. "Nominations for Vestrymen shall be made in writing by five or more members of the Parish entitled to vote and shall be presented to a Church Warden or Secretary of the Vestry at least seven days before the election."

Dinner at 6:45 will be followed by the annual reports of all parish organizations. Please notify the Parish Office as promptly as possible how many of your family expect to be present at the dinner.

ALTAR GUILD

The congregation offers its grateful thanks to Mrs. Edward W. Manderson for her gift of a piece of exquisite rose-point lace to be used upon the Children's Altar and to Mrs. W. Griffin Gribbel for a lovely Saruk rug to be placed upon those steps. These contributions were made through the Altar Guild.

At the Annual Meeting on January 13th the following officers were reinstated: Directress: Mrs. John T. Custis; Vice-Directress: Mrs. Allen Hunter; Secretary: Mrs. Thomas S. Martin, III, Treasurer: Mrs. John Walton.

CHURCH SCHOOL

Attendance January 11 — 155 January 18 — 137

100% Classes — Grade 5 Girls, Grade 7 Girls

We are grateful to Mrs. Allan Hunter for her gift of a rocking swan to our 2-year-old group. In addition to providing them with great pleasure, it gave our youngest in the Church School their first "lesson" in sharing!

We ask the cooperation of the parents in our "Change the Faces Campaign." A gentle reminder on Sunday morning to bring that extra quarter along will help us to reach our goal.

MATERIAL AID — PRESIDING BISHOP'S FUND FOR WORLD RELIEF

Did you know:

That Church World Service was one of the four agencies chosen to distribute the contents of the Friendship Train?

That people in 28 countries received CWS goods in 1947? According to U.S. Government reports more countries are reached by CWS than by any other private agency?

That because existing church facilities are used, administrative costs during 1946 were actually only 1.462% of the total cash and commodity contributions?

Third Best

O Lord,, Please be especially kind
To those who eagerly await
Our cast off clothes;
And be more merciful, Dear Lord, than just
To Thy weak children, serving moth and rust,
Who, from our bounty, offer our third best
And keep the rest.

"In ruined Caen, in Normandy, the stones from the wreckage of one of the churches have been cleaned and neatly piled, ready for rebuilding. 26 people died when a bomb destroyed that house of God, and its new structure will be a memorial to them. Signficantly, on the face of the pile of the waiting stones is the piece which was the original corner-stone on which are carved the words :'Aimez Vous Les Uns Les Autres.' On no other foundation than that of love one to another can our new world be built above the wreckage of the past. God help us to rebuild it in that spirit."

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

The open offering at all services this Sunday will be given to the support of the theological schools of our Church. The need for this support is one that is only gradually dawning upon the consciousness of the Church as a whole, as, until fairly recently, the seminaries were able to make out on the generosity of large donors both past and present. But these sources are now largely restricted and the demands upon the schools are rapidly increasing on every side. We take the supply of clergy largely for granted. All the churches nearby are staffed, or seem to be. But there are at least four rectors of nearby parishes that desparately need curates and cannot find them, and in the Church as a whole there are over 1500 vacancies in missions, small parishes and curacies. Our seminaries are only able to graduate enough men to fill the places of those men who through death and retirement have left the ministry in a given year. They cannot supply the men to carry on advance work.

I hope that our parish can give as generously as they have in the past. As is the custom throughout the Church the offerings will go to the school of which the Rector is a graduate, in our case, the Episcopal Theological School in Cambridge, Mass., unless otherwise designated.

Our Presiding Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Henry K. Sherrill, has called the Church to a renewed spirit of Evangelism this Lent. That word "Evangelism" may have conotations that are perhaps unfortunate, but it means, in its truest and best sense, the task of each of us, the responsibility of each of us, to carry the spirit of the Gospel into all the relationships of our lives, and to share it with all with whom we come in contact. It is his hope that this Lent may be kept by the whole Church as it is meant to be kept, that Easter may find us with a new vitality in our Christian living.

As a first step Bishop Sherrill has asked for a Corporate Communion of the whole Church on the First Sunday in Lent, February 15th. Before that time I hope that most of the families of the Parish will have been called on by fellow parishioners, that in the spirit of the Chinese Christian who prayed "O Lord, revive Thy Church, beginning with me" we may become, as a parish, a living witness to the power and strength of Christ's Gospel.

Alston F. Sturges

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP

The speaker at the YPF's breakfast this Sunday will be Mr. John B. Lear, Jr. Mr. Lear will tell us of some of his interesting experiences in connection with illustrating the recently published book "The Life of Christ". We shall be glad to have anyone in the Parish who would like to attend, provided they notify the office by Saturday morning so that sufficient breakfast may be provided.

MATERIAL AID

Our January shipment to New Windsor consisted of 12 bags of clothing, one carton of books, Christmas cards, etc., and four cans of fat. These latter are worth $1600 in Europe!

VOLUNTEER CHOIR

It is hoped that again this year we may have a choir for the Wednesday evening services during Lent. Mr. Wilkinson will hold a preliminary rehearsal on Wednesday night, Feb. 4. Other rehearsals will procede the Wednesday evening services. He asks that all who can, to come to the first rehearsal.

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

Enclosed in this Parish News is a copy of our Program for Lent, which is much as it has been in past years. I am hopeful that, following Presiding Bishop Sherrill's request, we can take this year's observance more seriously as a parish than ever before, and that especially every one of us will make an effort to observe the Corporate Communion on Feb. 15th that he asks for, by coming to one of the regular services either at St. Martin's or some other church.

May I call your attention also to the Community Noon-Day services that are to be held at St. Paul's.

Faithfully yours,

Clarkson F. Sturges

THE PREACHER THIS SUNDAY

We are happy to welcome to St. Martin's this Sunday the Rev. William D. Powell, General Secretary of the Philadelphia Council of Churches, who will tell some what of the important work that this organization is performing.Although organized only a short time ago, under Mr. Powell's able administration, it has already made tremendous strides toward becoming a vital part in the life of the city.

CHURCH SCHOOL

Attendance: January 18 — 137 January 25 — 120

We are most grateful to Mrs. George Woodward, Jr. for her gift of two rugs for the Kindergarten Room and to Mrs. John N. Curtis for another rocking swan for our 2 year olds.

The children are being reminded of the annual World Day of Prayer on the first Friday in Lent, February 13th this year. The Children's Service will be held at 4 o'clock in St. Paul's Church, Chestnut Hill. We are happy to announce that the St. Martin's Junior Choir will lead the music at this service and we hope that the rest of St. Martin's will have a good representation in the Congregation.

ANNUAL MEETING

The following members of the Parish have been duly nominated to fill the three places open on the Vestry: Theodore E. Eckfeldt, J. Wesley D. Kingsbury and George F. Whitney.

Under the amended Charter, those "qualified to vote at any election for Vestrymen and upon all questions which may come before any meeting of the corporation shall be all Lay, Baptized persons of the age of twenty-one years or upwards, who shall have been worshippers in this Church as their usual place of Public Worship for at least one year, and who shall appear by the books of the corporation to have contributed towards the current expenses of the corporation during each of two successive years immediately preceding such election or meeting." According to the By-Laws of the Parish: "Each member of the Parish entitled to vote may cast three votes for one candidate, or distribute his three votes upon two or more candidates; no fractional votes shall be counted."

The polls will be open in the Parish House from 5:45 to 6:45 P. M. on February 2nd immediately preceding the Parish Dinner and meeting. If you plan to attend the dinner, please notify the Parish Office immediately. The price of dinner will be $1.50 each.

WOMEN'S LENTEN STUDY

On Wednesdays in Lent, starting February 18th, the women of St. Paul's, St. Martin's and the Presbyterian Church of Chestnut Hill will join together in their Lenten Study. The committee which planned these joint sessions has worked hard to include in its program the Churches' theme of Evangelism in a varied and interesting series of discussions. The meetings are scheduled for 10:45 a. m. at St. Paul's Church and will be followed by the Community Noon-Day Service at 12:10. Mrs. Allan Hunter and Miss Ann Adams represented St. Martin's on the Committee and those from St. Martin's who will participate in the discussion panels are Mrs. P. F. Sturges, Mrs. Richard Smith, Mrs. George Woodward, Jr., Mrs. John Slemons, Miss Charlotte Brown, and Miss Adams. It is hoped that the Women of St. Martin's will give serious thought to including this program in their plans for a good Lent.

DEDICATION OF THE LENTEN MITE BOXES

M. The harvest truly is great but the laborers are few.

P. Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them into the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

M. Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you; and lo! I am with you even unto the end of the World.

P. For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.

M. Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send and who will go for us?

P. Then said I, Here am I! send me.

M. The Lord be with you. P. And with thy Spirit.

M. Let us pray

M. A Prayer for Missions

A Prayer for Children

The Prayer of Dedication of the Boxes

All O God, our heavenly Father, we thank thee for the gift of thy dear Son. Grant that we who have received him in our hearts may joyfully go forth with him on many errands. Bless those that toil for thee in far off places; comfort them in their loneliness, and unite our work to theirs. Accept our gifts; receive our prayers; and use us for the sake of thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Grace

Sermon Hymn 261 vv. 3 & 4. During these verses the Children of the School will come forward, receive their mite boxes, and go to their classes.

Offertory Anthem Wilkinson

Behold the Lamb of God! O thou for sinners slain, Let it not be in vain That thou hast died: Thee for my Saviour let me take, My only refuge let me make Thy pierced side. Behold the Lamb of God! Into the sacred flood of thy most precious blood My soul I cast: Wash me and make me clean within, And keep me pure from every sin, Till life be past. Behold the Lamb of God! All hail, incarnate Word, Thou everlasting Lord, Saviour most blest, Fill us with love that never faints, Grant us with all thy blessed saints, Eternal rest. Behold the Lamb of God! Worthy is He alone that sittest on the throne of God above; One with the Ancient of all Days, One with the Comforter in praise, All light and love.

CHURCH SCHOOL

Attendance January 25 — 120 February 1 — 148

100% classes — Grades 8 & 9

The following, who have had perfect attendance for the entire first term, we feel deserve special commendation, in view of the record snow and cold in January which caused a great drop in the attendance of both children and adults at St. Martin's:

J. Bentley, S. Carpenter, G. & J. Curtis, C. Dilks, K. & M. Eckfeldt, M. Guthrie, P. Goodwin, T. Hurd, L. Knight, M. B. Knight, K., P. & T. Lawson, B. & M. Lentz, A. Morton, A. Roach, S. Straus.

For their Epiphany project the children changed 142 faces, raising $35.50 for the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief. During Lent, we shall concentrate our giving on Mite Boxes, and work on the faces again after Easter.

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

We start Lent this year with Presiding Bishop Sherrill's plea: "I am asking every communicant to join in a Corporate Communion on the First Sunday in Lent, February 15, to pray for the peace of the world. Furthermore I urge every member of the Church to use the entire Lenten season as a realistic period of public worship, personal prayer and study. I request as minimum regular attendance every Sunday this Lent, reading of the Bible with quiet and prayer for fifteen minutes daily, and a determined effort to be Christ's disciple in every aspect of life. The important thing is that we mobilize our spiritual resources in these decisive days. The opportunity and responsibility rest upon each and every one of us who have promised to be Christ's faithful soldiers and servants unto our lives' end."

I hope that as a parish we can rise to meet that challenge, that we can so keep Lent 1948 that we shall know a quickening of the life of the Parish that all men "may take knowledge of us that we have been with Jesus" as they did of the first disciples.

Last week you received a copy of our program of services. There is surely a service that is available to every personal schedule. In addition may I call your attention to the daily noonday services at St. Stephen's, Christ, and Gloria Dei Churches in town, all at 12:30. In the Entrance Hall of the Parish House there is a shelf of books recommended for Lenten reading including the Presiding Bishop's Book for Lent, "Revive Thy Church" by Shoemaker, and most of C. S. Lewis' books. I hope that they will be put to good use.

Lent serves a valid purpose only when we use its opportunities as a chance to deepen our awareness of the things of the spirit, to strengthen the habits that keep us close to the things that are good and true and fine, so that with a clearer vision of what is God's purpose for us we can add the weight of our lives on the right side of the balance in these days of decision that they be in all truth a time of greatness.

Faithfully yours,

Thomas F. Sturges

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY CORPORATE COMMUNION

The Annual Washington's Birthday Corporate Communion for ALL MEN of the Church will be held on Saturday, February 21st at 8:30 A. M. in St. Mark's Church, 1623 Locust Street, with Bishop Remington as the Celebrant. Immediately following the service, breakfast will be served at Colonial Dames House, 1630 Latimer Street. The speaker at the breakfast will be Percival H. Granger — a churchman of distinction. Reservations should be made before February 16 with Claude Gilkyson, c/o St. Mark's Church, 1623 Locust Street, Phila. 3. Names and addresses must accompany each reservation. Breakfast costs $1.25 per person, collected at the table.

WOMEN'S LUNCH

The February Women's Luncheon will be held on Tuesday, February 17, at 12:30. We are fortunate in having as our speaker the Rev. Raymond A. Gill who has recently returned from over two years service with the Holy Cross Mission in the interior of Liberia, and has a most interesting account to give of the work our church is doing in the hinterland and of conditions there. He recommends as preparation for his talk the article in the latest National Geographic Magazine.

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

I earnestly hope that we can show our loyalty to our Presiding Bishop by observing this Sunday as he has asked with an attendance at all our services that will put Easter congregations to shame. But that is only a secondary reason. As we start this Lent, we should do so with the sense that the future of our nation and of our civilization will in no small measure be determined by the decisions made in this year of grace 1948. If those decisions are made without the sense that they are made in the presence of God, and in relation to His Will, we inevitably take the wrong path. Only as we hold close to Him, only as we gain an ever clearer conception of His will for us and for His people, can the decisions of our day be rightly made. Only so can we gain "the serenity to accept what cannot be changed, the courage to attempt the change of what should be changed and the wisdom to know the one from the other."

as we hope that all members of St. Martin's will make their Communion, there will be an extra service at 9:30 A. M.

VESTRY

At the Annual Meeting of the Parish on February 2, the following were elected to the Vestry for five year terms: Messrs. Theodore E. Eckfeldt, J. Wesley D. Kingsbury, and George F. Whitney. They succeed Messrs. Henry Lear and John W. Claghorn.

THE PRESIDING BISHOP'S BROADCAST

On Sunday, February 29, our Presiding Bishop will speak by radio directly to the members of this congregation and to Episcopal Congregations across the country as they are sitting in their pews. Over a network of over 600 radio stations and with an estimated 10,000,000 listeners, Bishop Sherrill will speak on the subject of world relief and will tell why we as Christians have a special responsibility. Your rector urges you, your family and your friends to be present at the 11 o'clock service that morning to hear the message he has prepared for us.

The Presiding Bishop's Fund Mite Boxes should be brought back to the Church at this service.

CHURCH SCHOOL

Attendance: February 1, 142 (69%) February 8, 152 (73%)

100% Class—Choir Grade 6 & 7

A word of commendation to our 2yr. olds and their parents. They have had all but one of their members in attendance for the last two Sundays!

This week you will receive a pamphlet "An Invitation and a Report", which you are urged to read carefully. It gives an excellent picture of what Church World Service has done in the past two years and what it must accomplish this year.

At St. Martin's we have made a good start towards our 1948 share. We hope that we may complete it by the offering on the 29th. Those of you who have taken "grace boxes" are asked to return them on this Sunday. There were additional boxes to replace those turned in, if you wish to continue your giving through this method.

WHOLE POWDERED MILK Cost per lb $.434 (incl. freight)

I lb powered milk makes 1 gallon of fluid milk.

$10 would provide 5 undernourished children in a church orphanage with a glass of milk once a day for a period of 12 weeks. Dry powered milk purchased in bulk is one of the world's best relief buys.

WHITE FLOUR Cost per lb. $.079 (including ocean freight)

$10 would make available 5 25-lb. bags of white flour to supplement the diet of each of five nursing mothers. Instead of milled flour or cereal, whole grain is sent when possible for milling overseas, thus providing even greater value.

CANNED BEEF Cost per lb $.408 (including ocean freight)

Allowing 5 servings a pound, $10 would provide a main dish one meal a day, for 12 people for 12 days.

Concerning C A R E.

CARE packages are a channel for the sending of gifts to relatives or known friends for whom one has a definite responsibility. Packages should never be sent to names acquired at random as this may only encourage black marketeers. Sending packages of any sort is never as efficient and economical an approach to relief as bulk shipments.

ORGAN RECITAL

Because of the wretched weather on January 25th, Mr. Wilkinson's organ recital at Muhlenburg College was postponed. It will take place at 3:30 P. M. on Sunday, February 22nd weather permitting.

THE PRESIDING BISHOP'S BROADCAST

Next Sunday will be a red letter day in the history of the Episcopal Church. Our Presiding Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Henry K. Sherrill, D. D., will speak directly by radio to every congregation of our Church over a network of over 600 stations. The importance of this service and of your presence in your pew on Sunday morning next cannot be overemphasized. We hope to raise the entire $1,000,000 of Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief for 1948, our share of Church World Service, on this one day. It can be done if all of us give as generously as we can.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP

This Sunday the St. Martin's YPF will have as their special guests the young people of St. Paul's and the 8th and 9th Grade of our Church School. There will be a service in the Church, followed by a Motion Picture in the Parish House and refreshments. All young people of St. Martin's are urged to attend this meeting, whether they are regular members of the YPF or not.

THIS SUNDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 29th

At the eleven o'clock service, your Rector urges you, your family and your friends to be present. As a part of the service, our Presiding Bishop, speaking over a network of 600 radio stations, will talk directly to you as you are sitting in your pews. He will speak of world needs and our responsibility to fulfill those needs. Your rector hopes that each of you will come prepared to make a most generous gift to the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief. A special offering for this work will be taken next Sunday, and your "Grace Boxes" should be turned in at this service. Checks should be drawn to St.-Martin-in-the-Fields and marked for the Presiding Bishop's Fund.

MATERIAL AID

Excerpt from a Polish letter:

"Dear Pastor Phillip — I am 63 years old (20 year in Methodist Church) and have now very poor. My man have 63 years and when the war we all ruined. We have need a warm sweater for me and for my man an overcoat. God bless and wishes in your work.—E. A. Muranowicz"

No overcoats or Women's sweaters have come in with material aid lately , so if anyone in the Parish would like to help this couple would you please call VI 7-2286.

Sent to New Windsor on Feb. 23: Six bags of clothing, one carton of shoes, one carton of candles, one can of fat.

ON THURSDAY, MARCH 18th

Our Presiding Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Henry K. Sherrill, will make his first official visit to Philadelphia since his election. He will speak at Holy Trinity at 5:15 P. M. on "To Secure These Rights," a report on the President's Committee on Civil Rights, It is hoped that large numbers of the congregation will attend this service to welcome the Bishop to our Diocese.

There will be Intercessions at 4:30, led by the Rt. Rev. William P. Remington.

THE PRESIDING BISHOP'S FUND

The offering at the service last Sunday amounted to $3,529.86, a most generous offering, which is almost one-third of our total giving for this cause last year. With the amounts already given, a continuation of the "Grace Boxes," and a successful "World Relief Benefit" in the spring we should easily duplicate last year's total.

The thanks of the Parish are due to Mr. James M. Skinner, Jr., and the Philco Radio Company for the splendid way in which Bishop Sherrill's inspiring address was heard by all in the Church last Sunday. There was not a hitch and the whole broadcast was dignified and truly worshipful.

Plans are already in progress for the Second World Relief Benefit that will be held on Saturday, April 24. Mrs. W. G. Gribbel has accepted the chairmanship and already has inspired her corps of committee chairmen to increasing activity, of which you will hear more as plans crystalize.

EDUCATIONAL WEEK FOR THE BLIND

For a week of every year, the auditorium on the fifth floor of Gimbel's is given over to exhibits of the activities of the blind in Philadelphia. Each institution has a booth where samples of their work are on display and for sale. On each day of the week, a church denomination is responsible for serving luncheon, the proceeds of which go to the Pennsylvania Association for the Blind which allocates it to the various institutions such as the Overbrook School for the Blind. Episcopal Day is Monday, March 15th. The exhibit is open from 10:00 to 4:00.

Luncheon is served from 11:30 until 2 for 50 cents. The Rt. Rev. William P. Remington will say a few words of welcome at 3 P. M. and Kate Smith will be there at noon. It is hoped that many from St. Martin's will drop in during the day.

EXHIBITION OF EPISCOPAL DOCUMENTS

Beginning March 1 and lasting until March 12, The Free Library of Philadelphia will have on display an exhibit of Episcopal Historical Documents, Pictures and Prayer Books. This exhibit will be of great educational interest, for never before has there been exhibited at one time and in one place, such a vast amount of material connected with our church. Bishop Hart will open the exhibit on Monday morning, March 1 at 11:30.

COMMUNITY STUDY CLASS

The Women's Study Classes being held at St. Paul's have been most successful so far. It is hoped that more women will represent St. Martin's at the remaining meetings. Many of our women have expressed the desire for more study and discussion groups and this is a chance to prove their interest and increase their knowledge.

The flowers on the Altar this Sunday are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Jennie Carrick and John Andrew Myers.

The ushers this Sunday are the Messrs. C. W. Guthrie, T. Rivel E. M. Edwards, F. T. Hults and W. deW. Robinson.

The meeting of St. Paul's and St. Martin's young people found such enthusiasm among the 42 present, that plans are underway for combining with St. Paul's in our Young People's activities. The boost provided by the additional numbers, including members of our 8th and 9th Grades, inspired our faithful but small group with new life, and we look forward to great progress in our new and broader fellowship.

When Jesus was a village lad, He planted roses fair to see.
"Some day," He said, "these lovely buds will make a blood-red crown for me."
Some mocking children came one day and tramped the lovely roses down;
They tore the tender buds apart, and left the garden bare and brown,
"How can you make your crown," they cried, "with all your roses tramped and torn?"
"One thing is left," the Lord replied, "you have not robbed me of my thorn!"
He took the thorns and wove a crown, and pressed it close upon His brow.
Lo! where the crown was red with blood, there shone the glory of the rose;

For Christ the Lord is here today with love like roses fair to see.
His great compassion fills our hearts with faith and hope and charity,
For all our hearts like gardens are, with weeds and briers overgrown;
And thorns spring up on every side to make the garden bare and brown.
Our blest Redeemer ere He gave His holy life upon the tree
Upon His brow was pressed so cruel a crown of thorns for men to see.
Yet where that crown was stained with blood, there shone the glory of the rose;
That doubting men might see again the miracle of long ago!

Recessional 341 "Beneath the cross of Jesus" St. Christopher

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

Although the first approaches of spring after an unusually hard winter make our Easter celebrations this year seem in one sense appropriate, yet in many people's minds they seem against the fears and talk of the last few weeks of the inevitableness of war, somehow ironic, as if to celebrate Easter one must shut his eyes to the hard necessities of real life. But Easter must always seem so to such minds. Easter's glory can only be known against the black background of man's fears and hates. For Easter and its hymns of triumph over the forces of Hell are the challenge that the Church throws down at the feet of the powers of darkness — that it is not true that mankind must bow to the inevitability of disaster for Jesus lives and death is conquered: that it is not true that man is the helpless pawn in the hand of a relentless destiny that grinds out unheeding his doom until the small sparks of his aspirations are at last crushed out — for Jesus lives and by His victory we too can rise to the full measure of His being and beauty.

As Phillips Brooks once wrote: "He is alive! Do you believe it? What are you dreary for, O mourner? What are you hesitating for, O worker? what are you fearing death for, O man? Oh, if we could only lift up our heads and live with Him; live new lives, high lives, lives of hope and love and holiness, to which death would be nothing but the breaking away of the last cloud and the letting of life out to its completion!"

May God give us some such blessing for our Easter this year!

PRESIDING BISHOP'S FUND

Presiding Bishop Henry K. Sherrill has released the following statement announcing the success of the Church's effort to raise $1,000,000 for World Relief.

"With deep gratitude to hundreds of donors, we have passed the minimum goal of $1,000,000. However, it should be borne in mind that the need is so great that every additional gift will bring relief to many sufferers throughout the world."

WOMEN OF ST. MARTIN'S

Wednesday, March 31st, is the date set for our next monthly lunch. It is hoped that a great many of you will make a special effort to come, as there is much to do before the Benefit on April 24th. After lunch, Mr. Sturges will attempt to answer any and all questions you may have about the Church. A Question Box will be found on the shelf of the Lending Library. Please use it freely.

Ice has gone from all the rivers, Cypress trees begin to bloom;
Now the wood-dove coos his spring song, Gone the days of dark gloom.
Peasants in the field are planting, Singing as they drop the seed:
Alleluia! Christ is risen, Christ the Lord is risen indeed!

On the steppes the flowers are gleaming, Winter's wheat is cool and green,
March- buds glisten in the valleys, Lowlands glow with mossy sheen.
Peasants on their farms are singing As the oxen munch their feed.
Alleluia! Christ is risen, Christ the Lord is risen indeed!

WORLD RELIEF BENEFIT

Work is well under way for our World Relief Benefit to be held on April 24. Mrs. Gribbel, the chairman, has appointed the following committee heads:

Co-Chairmen: Mrs. Arthur W. Howe, Jr., Mrs. Eugene Simonin in charge of general arrangements
Dinner: Mrs. R. Barclay Knight
Variety show in the evening: Messrs. George Whitney, H. Cameron Morris, Jr., and Theodore Eckfeldt
"Useful" table: Mrs. F. W. W. Graham, Jr., Mrs. Allston Jenkins
Knitwear: Mrs. Charles Woodward
Gadgets: Mrs. Cortlandt Guthrie
Handi-crafts: Mrs. John Dilks

APRIL 24 — SAVE THE DAY — APRIL 24

Our World Relief Benefit promises to be a gold mine of "musts" both from the angle of practicality and of glamour.

For the didie-darlings there will be lots of knitted baby things, dresses and sunsuits, while the Kindergarten kids and Soda-pop Set will be enchanted by such novelties as Columbian and Indian dolls, pins, books, toys, carpenter aprons, a magic show, grabs, and even a "gay nineties" doll house.

Glamor girls and brides-to-be will hover over lovely Seminole Indian skirts and blouses, silk scarves, painted tin, new gay china and various aids to neatness and beauty.

Mother, having left her young in the "tot's parking lot," can divide her time between the outgrown clothing, white elephants, homemade foods, and such useful and decorative items as knitting bags, aprons, gay luncheon sets, etc.

Fathers may concentrate on gadgets, gardening and golf accessories, also Mother's Day presents.

Speaking of gardening, the entrance hall will be a riot of bloom, with such additional offerings as azalea seedlings, zinnia and marigold seeds.

We even plan to have a hand-writing expert!

Be sure to plan to stay for dinner, served from 6:00 - 7:00, and for the surprise variety show. This whole affair promises to be more fun than last year, so don't miss it!

BRING YOUR FRIENDS

"A dollar spent for foreign relief by church groups is worth many dollars spent by government."

Rep'r. Carl T. Curtis.

PACKAGES FOR BRITAIN, INC.

Eight families have generously responded to the plan to send parcels to an English Parish, and it is hoped that two more will subscribe within the next week. We would like very much to "adopt" St. Martin-in-the-Fields in London, and the headquarters for "Packages for Britain" is trying to arrange it for us. Are there two additional families who would like to take part in this experiment in transatlantic friendship?

By early morning light, Ere yet the day was bright,
Three women came to seek their Lord;
But what their joy to hear The angel's message clear:
Fear not, For Christ the Lord is risen!
They saw upon the tomb, Dispelling all its gloom,
An angel fair in raiment white.
To them the angel said : Mourn not your Lord as dead,
Fear not, For Christ the Lord is risen!
Shine forth, O glorious ray, O'er all the world today!
The Lord is risen! He lives on high!
Joy bring to those that mourn, Hope to the sorrow-worn,
Fear not, For Christ the Lord is risen!

CHURCH SCHOOL — G. F. S.

Attendance: April 4, 158 (76%) April 11, 158 (76%)

Lenten Offering: Total to date — $473.71

Eleven members of the G. F. S. served as aides at the Episcopal Hospital Bridge Benefit held at the home of Mrs. Robert Toland last week.

In spite of a rough winter, and opposition from the Measles, there are still a good number of students who have had perfect attendance for the first three terms. They are:

J. Bentley, S. Carpenter, C. Dilks, M. Guthrie, P. Goodwin, P. and T. Lawson, A. Morton and A. Roach.

Honorable mention goes also to two of our 2-year olds, Janice and Joyce Dexter who have perfect attendance for the first half of the second term!

CHINA TEA

Dr. and Mrs. George Woodward invite those interested in Anglican Missions in China to a tea on Thursday, April 22nd, from four to six P. M. at Krisheim to meet the Rt. Rev. N. V. Halward, Assistant Bishop of Hong Kong and South China. Bp. Halward will be accompanied by several Chinese priests and a deaconess who are making a tour of America to study the Episcopal Church in action. One of their number, the Rev. Jordan Liu, will preach at St. Martin's the following Sunday.

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

Our observance as a parish of Holy Week, which should be the crown of all our Lenten discipline, is outlined in the "Calendar." I hope that everyone of us will make an earnest effort to observe the week as a time of special devotions, giving them right of way over all social engagements. The schedule is much as it has been these past two years, with the addition of the cantata, "The Crucifixion" by Stainer, on the evening of Good Friday. It has been my conviction the past two years that we ought to have some additional services on that day for all who are working during the day. Mr. Wilkinson and the choir have worked hard all winter in preparation for this service; and it should be, musically, one of the high points of the year.

The offering at all services on Good Friday will be, as has been the custom for many years, for our share of the work of the Anglican Communion in the Holy Land. The enclosed folder has just been issued and shows how that work goes forward in that troubled land.

May I ask that those of you who are parents of younger children, urge them to come to the afternoon service. The schools grant a holiday that they may come to Church and it would be unseemly if they regard that day only as occasion to be free from school.

The Altar Guild is sponsoring continuing intercessions in the Church on Maundy Thursday. It is hoped that all women of the parish will come to the Church at some time during the day for quiet prayer and meditation. Materials for guiding meditations will be available on the table at the back of the Church. Those who can are asked to sign for the time they will be there on the schedule on the same table.

There have been one or two requests for daily evensong during Holy Week. I am not scheduling formal services but I will be in the Church at 5 o'clock each afternoon for prayer and intercession, and if there is enough response, next year such services will be added to our calendar.

CHURCH SCHOOL

Attendance: March 7 — 131 (67%) March 14 — 146 (71%)
100 % Classes — Grade 7 Girls and 6th and 7th Choir
Wednesday, March 10 — 39

The 1st Grade will attend Church with the rest of the Church School this Sunday.

The children have been reminded verbally and by mail of their Good Friday Service at 4 o'clock; and it is hoped that nothing will be allowed to take precedence over their obligation to be in God's House on this important day of the year.

MAUNDY THURSDAY INTERCESSIONS

It is hoped that on Maundy Thursday, the church may be used for constant prayer, for ourselves, for each other and for God Himself, that His kingdom may come on earth and His peace dwell in all hearts. A chart may be found on the table near the door where names may be signed at designated half-hour periods.

YOUTH MEETING

The Interdenominational Youth Supper and Meeting to be held at St. Paul's on Wednesday, March 24th at 6:45 P. M. is for all who are interested in Youth — and their Responsibility as Christians in the World Today. Supper is 50c and reservations may be made through Ann Adams or direct to Mrs. F. Stokes Coleman at St. Paul's no later than March 21st. The speakers will be Eric Johnson of the Germantown Friends School Faculty, and Philip Tyler Zabriskie United States Delegate to the Oslo Conference last summer

PACKAGES FOR BRITAIN

Because so little if any of the Relief Work carried on by the major agencies has gone to the British Isles, a new agency "Packages for Britain, Inc." has been organized and is already functioning. It is hoped that Churches in this country will "adopt" a similar parish in England, i. e. sending to the Rector and nine families of the "adopted parish" five parcels a year: two of food, two of clothing, and a Christmas parcel, packed and shipped from the center of Packages for Britain, at a cost of $35 for the series. The names of the families are to be supplied by the Rector of the adopted parish to the adopting parish so that personal contacts can be developed. The Church selected for adoption will be for the most part as nearly like the adopting parish as may be.

Are there ten families in St. Martin's who would be willing to take on a family so that we could adopt such a parish? Let the Rector know this week.

This would be in addition to our commitments to the Presiding Bishop's Fund and Church World Service and would not relieve us of any responsibility in that direction.

WANTED — BEFORE APRIL 24

White Elephants — call Mrs. J. W. D. Kingsbury (WI 7-4182) or Mrs. F. H. Lee, Jr. (CH 7-3007) if you want them to be picked up.

Good used clothing, athletic equipment.

YOUNG FOLKS, OLD FOLKS, EVERYBODY COME!

Be mystified! Be dazzled! by a bewitching Magician (who is it?)

The greatest magic show on earth will be presented on - you guessed it - April 24th, Saturday. WHERE? At St. Martin's Parish House. WHEN? at 3:30 or thereabouts. WHY? for the benefit of World Relief. WILL YOU COME? YOU BET!

ON SUNDAY, APRIL 25

Our preacher will be the Rev. Jordan Liu, of the Diocese of Hong Kong and South China. Mr. Liu has been active in the New Life Movement, worked at the front with wounded soldiers and refugees duing the war, and since 1947 has been Senior Secretary of the Chinese Foreign Office.

Attendance: April 4 — 158 (76%)

100 % Class — 2 year olds!

Lenten Offering: The 4,620 pennies have been counted and from the Mite Boxes which have been turned in so far, we have received $348.31 which combined with our Sunday offerings during Lent gives us a total of $461.29. There are somewhere between 10 and 20 Mite Boxes unaccounted for, and we would appreciate having them as soon as possible.

WEEK OF PRAYER FOR WORLD PEACE

Our Bishops have issue a call for the observance of the week of April 12-18 in every parish as a week of prayer for those who wish to wait upon God and pray for improved world relationship, and they suggest Thursday, April 15, for an all day vigil beginning with a celebration at 7:30 A. M. and continuing throughout the day.

In compliance with their request, our Church will be open all day Thursday for prayer and meditation, with celebrations of the Communion at 7:30 and 10:00 A. M. and directed intercession at noon.

NATIONWIDE CORPORATE COMMUNION

On Sunday, April 18, the Annual Corporate Communion for the Youth of our Church will be observed by all Episcopal Churches in the country. At St. Martin's our service will be at 8 o'clock and will be followed by breakfast at which Loring Dam will be the speaker. At this service the Rev. Alvin Hanson, Curate of St. Paul's Church, will assist Mr. Sturges, and we will be joined by the young people of St. Paul's. As the service is for all members of the Church between the ages of 14 and 26 it is hoped that those of this age group who are not members of the YPF will make a special effort to be with us on that day.

CHURCH SCHOOL

Attendance: April 11, 158 (76%) April 18, 132 (64%)

This Sunday, Grades 2 through 7 will remain in church to hear the Rev. Jordan Liu. The Pre-School through 1st Grade will meet in the Parish House as usual.

OUR PREACHER THIS SUNDAY

is the Rev. Jordan Liu, of the Diocese of Hong Kong and South China. Mr. Liu is not only active in the Church's work in South China but is also a zealous member of the Chinese government, having been Senior Secretary of the Chinese Foreign Office since 1947.

THIS SATURDAY — APRIL 24th

Keep in mind that our Benefit offers many practical suggestions for your deflated pocketbook. The Outgrown Clothing department looks very interesting, as a result of the "new look," and you will find all sorts of good heavy and light children's dresses, and coats, etc. (anything not sold will be contributed to "Packages for Britain").

Your children are looking forward to the grabs, trick-performing dog, movies, pony rides, and especially that baffling mysterious Magic Show by the Masked Magician.

Several valuable articles, among them a gas stove and a Gay 90's doll house will be auctioned off as part of the variety show, so come prepared.

THANKS

The Rector and his family are more than thrilled by the arrival of the new car, known as "Pistachion" (Pistachio Sundae), and want to express their deep appreciation of the Parish's generosity and thoughtfulness. P. F. Sturges.

CHURCH SCHOOL

Attendance: April 18, 132 (64%) April 25, 134 (65%)

Parents are reminded that on Communion Sundays (1st and 3rd in the month) the Church School is dismissed at the same hour as Church, thus enabling the classes to have an uninterrupted session, the whole school to have a closing assembly, and the parents to remain in Church until the service ends. Children in the Preschool and Kindergarten minus older brothers and sisters may be called for as usual from 12 o'clock on, but are cared for until the end of the service. Your cooperation will be greatly appreciated.

Y. P. F.

Blair Crownover, Marion Fay, Lin Knight and Dick Yarp have been chosen as St. Martin's delegates to the Diocesan Youth Convention to be held Saturday, May 1st, at Episcopal Academy. St. Martin's will also be represented by the Rector who will lead one of the discussion groups, Charlotte Brown and Helen Sturges as members of the Youth Council, and Ann Adams.

This Sunday, May 2nd, the Y. P. F. will attend the Young People's Meeting at Grace Church, Mt. Airy, to hear with them Retired General Ulso speak on Universal Military Training. All members of St. Martin's wishing transportation should be at the Parish House at 7:00 P. M.

FIRST REPORT FROM THE BENEFIT

Over $1500 was cleared at the World Relief Benefit according to the first report, on Monday, April 26, by its Treasurer, Mrs. George Stevenson, 2nd, with returns still incomplete from several tables. The Parish is to be congratulated on this notable achievement.

CHURCH SCHOOL

Attendance: April 25, 134 (65%) May 2, 146 (71%)

Next Sunday, Whitsunday, the Church School will participate in the Birthday of the Church by presenting their Birthday Thank Offering of the year 1947-48 at the Altar. Envelopes have been distributed to all those having birthdays between now and September that their offerings may be included with those whose birthdays have been celebrated during the school year.

U. T. O.

"For Thine Own Self we Thank Thee, Lord!"

Bishop Hart will be the celebrant at the Spring In-Gathering Service of the United Thank Offering on Thursday, May 13, with Bishop Remington and the Rev. John A. Bomberger assisting. The service will be held at the Church of the Holy Apostles and the Mediator, Spruce and 51st Streets, at 10:30 A. M. It is hoped that many women from St. Martin's will be present at the service. Transportation will be provided for those who need it, and women with cars are asked to volunteer.

ALTAR GUILD

The Spring meeting of the Altar Guild will be held in the Parish House on Tuesday, May 11, at 2:30. Members are asked to bring any questions about the work which they wish to have answered.

Y. P. F.

This Sunday the YPF of The Memorial Church of the Good Shepherd will meet the young people of St. Martin's and St. Paul's in a rousing baseball game. Dick Yarp will captain the St. Martin's-St. Paul team. The game will start at 5 o'clock and will be followed by supper in the Parish House and a closing service of worship.

CAMP COLLIE CREEK FOR THE CHORISTERS

On Tuesday afternoon Mr. Robert Campbell, the new director of Camp Collie Creek will come to St. Martin's to tell the boys something of his plans and hopes for the camp to which they are going this summer for the last week in June and the first week of July. Parents of the boys are invited to come to hear and meet Mr. Campbell at four o'clock Tuesday afternoon, May 11.

PACKAGES FOR BRITAIN

More than ten contributors have made it possible for a Parish in England to be assigned to St. Martin-in-the-Fields for "adoption" and we are waiting for final word from the Bishop of London for confirmation that that Parish will be St. Martin-in-the-Fields, London. In the meantime, there has been sent to the central packing office in the 30th Street Station of the Penna. R. R. all that was not sold in the Rummage Sale of the World Benefit on April 24th. The Material Aid Committee of the Parish has designated all material received during the month of May for Packages for Britain, and urges all members of our Parish again to bring to the Parish House as soon as possible the "remainders" from your Spring Cleaning.

It should be stressed that the actual clothes from our Parish do not necesarily go to our "adopted" parish, but that the central office selects for size and suitability from the whole supply for the individual packages.

PRESIDING BISHOP'S FUND

The Diocese of Pennsylvania has topped its 1948 P. B. F. quota of $10,000 by more than $1,000. St. Martin's Material Aid Committee would like to close its books for the summer and asks all those who have Grace Boxes please to return them to the Church on Whitsunday.

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

Through the kind offices of Lt. Col. John C. Fairchild, who is now serving with the Army Military Government in Korea, our Parish will have one of the two opportunities to hear the Anglican Bishop of Korea, the Rt. Rev. Alred Cecil Cooper, speak in Pennsylvania on the situation of that troubled country.

The declaration last week by the Soviets of a new Korean Soviet to cover the entire country makes even more tense the international situation, as Korea is one of the chief trouble spots of our world today, a situation which will be heightened by the elections in the American Zone to be held this week. Bishop Cooper, who arrives in San Francisco directly from Korea this Saturday, will be able to bring us the latest information from that country based on a long intimacy with it.

As a result of a Student Volunteer Movement meeting in England, he offered his service to the Church Missionary Society in England for foreign service and in 1907 was sent to Korea, where he has spent his whole ministry — except during World War I when he was chaplain to a Chinese Labour Battalion, and in World War II when he was evacuated and served as an assistant Bishop in England from 1941-1946. He was elected Bishop of Korea in 1931 and has his Cathedral in Seoul.

Col. Fairchild writes that he has become much attached to the Bishop since he has been stationed in Seoul, and that he is a fascinating gentleman, and has a story that should interest all of us.

The Activities Committee of the Vestry is planning to have a dinner for Bishop Cooper on Friday night, May 28th, to which the Parish and their friends are invited. More details will be forthcoming, but we are all asked to save that date.

Alastair T. Sturges

BISHOP COOPER

Lt. Col. John C. Fairchild, at present stationed in Seoul, Korea, has made it possible for us to have a chance to meet the Rt. Rev. Alfred Cecil Cooper, who is passing through Philadelphia on his way to Lambeth. Bishop Cooper, who has been Bishop of Korea for the past seventeen years, will speak at a dinner meeting in the Parish House on Friday evening, May 28, at 6:30 P. M. It is requested that those who can attend the dinner make reservations immediately on the enclosed cards.

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

You have received an appeal this past week for the Convocation of Germantown "Growth Fund", to build up the mission churches in the Convocation (Germantown, northeast Philadelphia and Bucks County) especially in those areas where there is a tremendous growth in population. This is one of the most forward looking attempts that has been taken in the Diocese in recent years; and our Parish takes an especial interest in it because Mr. Loring Dam, a vestryman and one of our delegates to Convocation, has been largely instrumental in starting and promoting this endeavor.

I hope that we can make this offering at the services on Whitsunday and that it will be a true expression of St. Martin's concern to strengthen the Church's work in all fields of service.

May I also ask that those of you who have "Grace Boxes" for Church World Service bring them to the Church this Sunday.

Presentation of the Birthday Thank Offering

All: Almighty Father, the giver of all good gifts; we are grateful for thy countless blessings, for health and happiness, for our homes and parents and good friends, for our free land and faith in thee through Jesus Christ; asking thee to accept our thank offerings that they may be used to build and strengthen thy Kingdom; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O God our heavenly Father, we thank thee for the gift of thy dear Son. Grant that we who have received Him in our hearts may joyfully go forth with Him on many errands. Bless all our Bishops who toil for thee in far-off places. Unite our work to theirs through our Birthday Thank Offerings and receive our prayers for them; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

EPISCOPAL HOSPITAL MAY FETE

May 26, Wednesday, is the date of the annual May Fete at the Episcopal Hospital. WHITE ELEPHANTS are badly needed. Late Spring housecleaners, won't you gather together your eyesores and bring them, tagged for the Fete, to the church, the hospital, or the Church House?

LADIES — LEND AN EAR

The annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary - a body whose membership includes every baptized woman of the Church - will hold its annual meeting on Thursday, May 20th. Intercessions at 10:00 A. M. will be followed by a business meeting and the election of officers, and then we will all adojurn to St. Peter's in the Great Valley for a picnic lunch (bring your own). It promises to be a gay outing, so come and bring your children if they can't be left. We hope that those who have cars will offer to transport others, and to that end all those desiring transportation are asked to call the Parish House by May 8th.

TUESDAY NOON CLUB FOR BUSINESS MEN

St. Stephen's Church in the heart of town is anxious to increase its ministry to the on-the-go business person. To this end, an extra service has been added - a service for men only. Luncheon is served in the Parish House before and after the service, which is held in the Church, 10th Street above Chestnut, from 12:30 to 12:55 P. M. The service consists of hymns that all men can sing heartily and a ten minute sermon on helpful subjects is delivered by the rector.

G. F. S.

The St. Martin's Branch of the Girls' Friendly Society is in charge of the Flower Booth for the Annual Spring Fete to be held this year at the home of Mrs. Winthrop Neilson in Gladwyn, Pa., on May 22. Offers of flowers will be most gratefully accepted by any of the girls or Miss Adams, and we will arrange for picking them up.

HOUSE OF REST BRIDGE BENEFIT

The Germantown Cricket Club will be the scene of the annual Benefit Bridge for the House of Rest Wednesday, May 19th, at 2:00 P. M. Refreshments will be served, and there will be opportunities to purchase flowers, candy, surprise packages and the lovely handicrafts made by the Busy Bees. Tickets may be obtained at the Parish Office.

MAY FETE

The Episcopal Hospital will hold its annual Fete on Wednesday, May 26th. All the usual tempting booths, from Farm Produce to a Gypsy Camp, await eager scrutiny. Many women from St. Martin's have been active in preparing the Fete and will be on hand that day behind the counters. The Episcopal Hospital desperately needs the support of all communicants of the Church, and this is a painless and pleasant way of making a small contribution.

SUMMER CONFERENCES

As June heaves into view, it is time to plan for the good fellowship, spiritual stimulation and physical relaxation of a Summer Conference. Unless you have been to one, you can't possibly know how interesting and delightful one or two weeks spent in such study and play can be. The three conferences available to us are the Woman's Auxiliary Conference at Orkney Springs, Va.; the Conference of the Province of Washington at Sweetbriar, Va.; and the Young People's Conference at Haverford College.

Every woman who plans to be active in the work of the church next fall will profit by the W. A. Conference which will be held from June 14 through 18. Mr. Sturges is going to be the Chaplain and the group leaders are all women with much experience in "the extension of Christ's kingdom."

Sweetbriar is planned for clergy and lay leaders who desire new ideas and practical help. The dates are June 14 - 25. Theme: "The Gospel within the Gospels." Its faculty are experts in their various fields as well as vivid companions. A "Laymen's Weekend" is projected particularly for husbands and vestrymen who can't come for the full twelve-day term.

Haverford College is the happy choice of the Diocese of Penna. for the Youth Conference this year. If you are going to be in Philadelphia from July 5 to 10 you'll enjoy every day spent there. Mr. Sturges is on the faculty, as are other lively and inspiring people. There's nothing to equal the experiences of conference life — five days of studying toegther, playing together and worshipping together.

Transportation to each of these conferences can be pooled and scholarships are available. More information can be obtained from the Parish Office or the Church House. An educated laity is an active and interested one and it is well worth our while to promote these conferences in every way.

CHURCH SCHOOL

Attendance: May 9, 131 (63%) May 16, 124 (60%)
100% Class—Grade 2

The rapid rate at which the Church School attendance has fallen off in the last few weeks is disheartening to those who are trying to teach the children their bounden duty as a member of the Church — "to worship God every Sunday in his Church" — rain or shine. It is hoped that we may return to our usual good standards before the end of the school year.

The Children's Lenten Offering Presentation service will be held this Sunday afternoon on the grounds of the Episcopal Academy. The St. Martin Junior Choir will be represented in the large procession of choirs from all parts of the Diocese. It is hoped that a large number of the Church School will also wish to attend. $573.71 is the total of St. Martin's Mite Box Offering.

BISHOP COOPER

There is still time to make reservations for the Parish Dinner for Bishop Cooper of Korea on Friday evening, May 28th. Please return the postal sent last week or telephone the Parish House before Wednesday. Bishop Cooper comes to us with the hearty recommendation of Lt. Col. John C. Fairchild, at present stationed in Seoul, Korea. The price of dinner will be $1.50.

WANTED — BLOOD DONORS

One of our parishioners who has recently undergone a serious operation is in great need of blood donors to help replace the numerous transfusions she has had from the hospital's Blood Bank. Anyone in good physical condition who would like to give a pint of blood is asked to contact the office (CH 7-2132) immediately for arrangements. Those who have given blood before know what a simple and efficient process it is, requiring nothing of the donor but willingness and a few minutes' time, and there is surely no better way of helping a friend where it counts.

We have a quantity of JELLY and two kinds of MARMALADE waiting to be spread upon your morning toast. It would be nice if we could sell it before the Summer Disbursement sets in.

PACKAGES FOR BRITAIN, INC

The following letter has been received from the Vicar of St. Martin-in-the-Fields, London:

"I have received a very kind letter from Mrs. Ward Wheelock, Chairman of Packages for Britain, Inc. in which she tells me that your church of St. Martin-in-the-Fields is anxious to make contact with us and to send parcels to families recommended by me, and I write to say how grateful I am for this gesture. It will give me the greatest pleasure to suggest suitable families and I shall hope to send off forms to Mrs. Wheelock in the course of a week or so.

In the meantime may I be allowed to express our gratitude to all who partake in the scheme and to say how much we folk in England really do appreciate the concern for our wellbeing which unknown friends in the United States feel for us and express in so practical a way. If I may say so, we are particularly glad that your letter speaks of the need of the 'white collar' man and his family for whom the present rising cost of living and the restrictions of rationing of food and clothing are a very big problem indeed.

May I add a word of personal gratitude that your proposal includes the request that I include my own name in the list, and say how glad I am to do this, although I cannot but feel that there must be others whose need is greater. My wife and children join me in sending greetings to you and yours.

Yours sincerely,

L. M. Charles-Edward

WOMEN OF ST. MARTIN'S

Will you help to make slips and petticoats for the children of Rosebud Mission, on Thursday mornings during June and July?

Things are needed for Brent Hospital, Philippine Islands, so there will be work for all.

First come into the Church for prayers at 10 and then to the Parish House for work.

CHURCH MEMORIALS

A permanent record of all the memorials in the church is being prepared. The following is a list of furnishings and the donors. Anyone who has information concerning these or any other gifts, is asked to call the Parish House, that our records may be complete.

Sent to Presiding Bishop's Fund	7,900.00
BALANCE, May 31, 1948	$296.90
An additional $500.00 was sent direct to the P. B.F, making St. Martin's total for the 2nd year of the Presiding Bishop's Fund.	$8,400.00

To the monetary gifts of St. Martin's generous parishioners may be added many individual gifts of time and effort. The packing committee, under the able leadership of Mrs. F. W. W. Graham, Jr., and Mrs. Howard Whitaker, have shipped to New Windsor since last May, 14 cans of fat, and approximately 3 tons of clothing, bedding, shoes, books, etc. . . This included many pocketbooks filled by Mrs. F. W W. Graham, Sr. and kit bags made from an old evening wrap and filled by Mrs. Geo. Woodward. In addition to this, parishioners contributed largely to the success of the Chestnut Hill Clothing Collection in November. The Salvage Sewing Committee under the energetic direction of Mrs. Loring Dam, manufactured a goodly number of dresses, jackets, caps, booties, didies, and underwear. We hope to do much more work of this sort next year, so please save all your small or large scraps of material. The Misses Swift made about 30 pairs of booties from tiny wool pieces. Several people knit constantly, and it is a pleasure to send new sweaters, socks, etc.

Aside from this we have sent to Packages for Britain 7 large cartons of clothing in excellent condition, to help out white collar families in England; and nine families in the parish have agreed to help regularly eleven families of St. Martin-in-the-Fields, London.

The Barn Dance, Christmas Sale and World Relief Benefit were so successful that we plan to repeat them next year, also the Lending Library.

The Talent Bureau made its "pile" through such projects as sweater- washing, baby tending, barbering and selling vegetables (which netted Mr. Ashbrook $10.00 last summer; he recommends it as a way of helping painlessly).

Since we are committed for at least another year to this compelling work, we must resume our efforts in the Fall, so please be thinking up ideas and making plans to add your energies to our next year's work. Any clothing or fat which comes in this summer will be sent to New Windsor, and the Auxiliary plans to do some salvage sewing to help out. Thank you for all your efforts, individual and collective. We cannnot underestimate the morale value!

SECOND SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

June 6, 1948

8.00 A. M. Holy Communion

11:00 A. M. CLOSING SERVICE OF THE CHURCH SCHOOL

Processional Hymn 506 "Father in Heaven" Truro (484)

Minister The Lord is in His holy Temple: Let all the earth keep silence before Him.

People Holy, Holy, Holy, is the Lord of Hosts: the whole earth is full of His glory.

Min & Peo. (Sing) Nicaea (266)

Holy! Holy! Holy! Lord God Almighty!
All Thy works shall praise Thy name in earth and sky and sea:
Holy! Holy! Holy merciful and mighty!
God in Three Persons, blessed Trinity. Amen.

Min. The Lord be with you. Peo. And with thy spirit.

Min. & Peo. Almighty God, unto whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid; cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of Thy Holy Spirit that we may perfectly love Thee and worthily magnify Thy Holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Min. & Peo. Our Father who art . . .

Min. O Lord open Thou our lips.

Peo. And our mouth shall show forth Thy praise.

Min. & Peo. The earth is the Lord's, and the fullness thereof;
The world and they that dwell therein.
For He hath founded it upon the seas,
And established it upon the floods.

Peo. Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord?
Or who shall stand in His holy place?

Min. He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart,
Who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity,
Nor sworn deceitfully,
He shall receive the blessing from the Lord,
And righteousness from the God of his salvation.
This is the generation of them that seek Him.
That seek Thy face, O God of Jacob.

Peo. Lift up your heads, O ye gates,
And be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors,
And the King of Glory shall come in!

Min. Who is the King of Glory?

Peo. The Lord strong and mighty,
The Lord mighty in battle!
Lift up your heads, O ye gates;
And be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors,
And the King of Glory shall come in.
Min. Who is the King of Glory?
Peo: The Lord of Hosts, He is the King of Glory.

THE CANTICLE OF ST FRANCIS

M. O most high Omnipotent, good Lord God, to Thee belong praise, glory, honor and all blessing.

For our brother the sun, who is our day and who brings us the light; who is fair and radiant with a very great splendour;

P. Praise, glory, honor be to Thee, O God.

For our sister the moon, and for the stars, the which thou hast set clear and lovely in heaven;

Praise, glory, and honor be to Thee, O God.

For our brother the wind, and for air and clouds, calms and all weather,

Praise, glory, and honor be to Thee, O God.

For our sister water, who is very serviceable unto us and humble and precious and clean;

Praise, glory, and honor be to Thee, O God.

For our brother fire, by whom thou lightest up the night, and who is fair and merry, and very mighty and strong;

Praise, glory, and honor be to Thee, O God.

For our mother earth, which doth sustain us and keep us, and bringeth forth divers fruits and flowers of many colors, and grass;

Praise, glory, and honor be to Thee, O God.

For all those who pardon one another for Thy love's sake, and who bear weakness and tribulation;

Praise, glory, and honor be to Thee, O God.

For our sister the death of the body.

Praise, glory and honor, be to Thee, O God.

Blessed are they who shall peaceably endure, walking by Thy most holy will; for Thou, O most Highest, shall give them a crown

Praise ye and bless ye the Lord, and give thanks unto Him and serve Him with great humility. Amen.

OUR PREACHER THIS SUNDAY

is the Rt. Rev. N. Victor Halward, Assistant Bishop of Hongkong and South China. Bishop Halward, on his way to Lambeth, has been touring the United States, scrutinizing the "Episcopal Church in action". We are fortunate to have him with us on his last Sunday in America.

SUMMER IMPROVEMENTS

During August the bricks in the choir will be painted to harmonize with the stone sanctuary. This will be in preparation for a new stained glass window over the altar, which is expected later in the Fall. The Vestry has directed that the lighting in the church be improved. The required new wiring will be started and the fixtures in the choir will be erected during August; the lighting of the nave will take longer. Two new classrooms for the Church School will be added in the basement of the Parish House.

Part of the very generous bequest of the late Christine Ross will be used to pay for the improved lighting. The chancel window is being given by the descendants of, and in memory of Henry H. and Sallie Houston. The new school rooms will be paid for out of a small rehabilitation fund that was given to the church several years ago. None of the costs for these additions will be paid out of regular parish funds (the black side of the envelope or open offerings), except for the painting which is in the nature of repairs and maintenance and is properly chargeable to expenses.

These summer improvements will be under the direction and planning of our church architect, and parish member Martyn Kneedler.

SUMMER PLANS

Because of the work planned to be done in the Church this summer, the Vestry voted at its last meeting to close the Church from August first through September fifth. Mr. Trowbridge has invited members of St. Martin's who are in town to worship at St. Paul's for these six weeks; offering envelopes for St. Martin's may be used at St. Paul's. Mr. Hanson, curate at St. Paul's, will be glad to answer any calls in an emergency and can be reached at St. Paul's Parish House, CH 7-0359. The Rector's summer telephone number is Princeton, 101.

Miss Brown will be away in July; Mr. Egan, July 11-25; Mr. Sturges, Miss Adams and Mr. Wilkinson in August. The telephone in the Parish House will be answered week-days between 9:30 and 12 all summer.

Miss Adams will attend the Provincal Summer Conference at Sweet Briar and the second summer term of the Union Theological School in August. Mr. Sturges is to be Chaplain at the W. A. Conference at Shrine Mont in June and will give a course at the Diocesan Summer Conference at Haverford College in July.

The Accounting Warden asks the congregation to remember that the expenses of the Parish and of the Church throughout the world continue during the summer and he would greatly appreciate it if users of envelopes would fill them in advance before leaving for the summer.

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

The opening of another year in a parish always sees many changes. There seem to be especially many this year.

Mr. A. Hayes Jordan, who for many years has printed the Parish News, has lost his shop, word of which only reached us this week; so we must make do with the mimeograph for the present.

It was a great disappointment that the work in the Church was not completed by our first service on Sept. 12, but the architect, Mr. Kneedler, promises that all will be finished within the next two weeks. And I know that we will all rejoice in the new lighting and equipment.

The changes in the building are echoed in changes in our staff. Miss Brown has decided that she needs further training to equip herself for full time Church work and is leaving us to get that training. We know that we will not lose her from our fellowship as we wish her Godspeed with our heartfelt thanks for her loyal and devoted service of these past two years. Into her place we are fortunate to be able to welcome Mrs. Samuel Randall.

Mr. Donald Rhaesa, a middler at the Philadelphia Divinity School, joins our staff next Sunday as student assistant. He will have two classes in the Church School and will assist with the Y.F. We are also delighted that the Rev. Robert Sheeran, who was ordered Deacon in St. Martin's last June, will assist at the celebrations of the Communion this winter.

There will be a change in our system with the Church School. The children above the First Grade will come into the Church only on the last Sunday of each month, when the whole service will be attuned to their interests and grasp - what might be called a "Family Service". By this change, we hope to overcome what has been one of the greatest weaknesses of our school: the extreme shortness of the teaching period on most Sundays. The children will have their own service, led by Mr. Rhaesa, in the Parish House. I hope that all parents will get the School off to a good start next week by coming with their children to the opening service, which will be one of dedication for teachers, parents and children.

May I ask those of you who have sons or daughters going to college for the first time this fall to let me have their names and if possible their college addresses that I may write to the chaplains of their respective institutions.

J.F. Sturges

CHURCH SCHOOL

The Church School will reopen on Sunday, September 26. The choir classes, and Grades 8, 9, and 10 will meet in the Parish House at 10:00 A.M. Children in the Nursery and Kindergarten will come to the Parish House at 11:00 A.M. All other classes will attend the 11 o'clock service in the Church. A letter containing complete schedule of times, classes, and teachers is being mailed to all parents. The Director will appreciate being notified at any time of children not already in our enrollment.

CHURCH SCHOOL

The Church School reopens with 212 pupils in 15 different classes, and a staff of 30 teachers, assistants and substitutes. We have accepted with deep regret and gratitude for their loyal service the resignations of Mrs. Bentley, Mrs. Knight, Mr. Potter, and Mr. Maxwell and are happy to welcome in their places Miss June Perkins in the 1st Grade, Mr. Philip VonHemert for the 4th and 5th Grade Choir Class and Mr. Rhaesa. All other teachers return to their former grades, eager to venture into our new program, which we hope will prove beneficial to the entire parish.

Hymn 572, "O Master, Let Me Walk with Thee".....Maryton

During the singing of this Hymn the Teachers and Officers of the Church School will come forward to the Altar Rail.

Rector: Dearly beloved, you stand here before God and this company as chosen leaders in the program of Christian Education. You have one of the most important and essential offices within the gift of the Church. Your work is therefore not to be entered into unadvisedly or lightly, but seriously, conscientiously, and as in the sight of God. With all this in mind, are you now ready to undertake the duties of your various offices?

Response: We are ready, God being our helper. And we here dedicate both our souls and minds to Him in the work of His Church, in a sober, righteous and godly life. In this resolution, we ask Him to confirm and strengthen us that day by day we may grow in grace as leaders in our Church School.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing.)

All: O GOD, by whom the meek are guided in judgment, and light riseth up in darkness for the godly, grant us in all our doubts and uncertainties, the grace to ask what Thou wouldst have us to do, that the Spirit of Wisdom may save us from all false choices, and that in Thy light we may see light and in Thy straight path may not stumble; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Officers and Teachers will return to their places.

The Rector will address the Congregation as follows:

Do you, as the Congregation, Parents and Friends, in the presence of God and of this entire company, promise to give these chosen leaders the wholehearted cooperation so necessary to the accomplishment of their task?

Response: We do so promise, God being our helper.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing.)

All: ALMIGHTY GOD, heavenly Father, Who hast blessed us with the joy and care of children: give us light and strength so to train them, that they may love whatsoever things are true and pure and lovely and of good report, following the example of their Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Rector will address the Congregation as follows:

As pupils of the Church School of St. Martin-in-the-Fields and disciples of Jesus Christ, will you serve Him, by faithfully trying to live in His way in your homes, in your community, in your schools and in your Church, as you promised, or as was promised for you, at your Baptism?

Response: I will by God's help.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing.)

DEFEND, O Lord these Thy children with Thy heavenly grace, that they may continue thine forever: and daily increase in Thy Holy Spirit more and more until they come unto thine everlasting kingdom. Amen.

All: ALMIGHTY GOD, our heavenly Father, who art the only source of light and life; Send down upon this School the rich gifts of Thy good Spirit, that Thy truth may be sincerely sought, faithfully received and obediently followed. Endue its teachers with wisdom, zeal and patience. Inspire its scholars with the spirit of truth, honor and humility. May they day by day grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Hymn 239: "God My Father Loving Me".....Vienna

Sermon Hymn 578: "Children of the Heavenly King".....Pleyel's Hymn

Offertory Anthem.....Purcell

Rejoice in the Lord alway, and again I say, rejoice. Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand. Be careful for nothing; but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Jesus Christ our Lord.

TO THE "WOMEN OF ST. MARTIN'S"

Soon you will receive a letter enclosing an envelope for your offering to be presented at the Altar on October 7th at the 10 o'clock Service. There is unusual need for generosity this year and if your offering represents sacrifice it will be more acceptable to our Blessed Lord.

THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH ON THE AIR

Friday, October 1, the Episcopal Church starts a new missionary program, an attempt to reach the 70 million Americans who have no religious affiliations. "Great Scenes from Great Plays" is produced by the Episcopal Actors Guild, and their first offering is one in which all of us can well take pride. Listen to it next Friday night, and spread word of the program among your friends, when Jane Cowl will be presented in scenes from "The Corn is Green," over station WIP at 8:00 p.m.

CHURCH SCHOOL

Attendance, October 3: 155 (75%) 100% Classes: Grades 6 and 7, Choir

Parents are reminded of the Parent Teacher meeting on Wednesday, October 13, at 8:15 p.m. in the Parish House. It will be short and, we hope, helpful. Your chance to ask questions, offer suggestions about the new program, and help the year off to a better start with your support and cooperation.

DIOCESAN SCHOOL OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Once again the Department of Christian Education is conducting a very fine School for Six Tuesdays, beginning October 12, at the Church House, 202 S. 19th Street. Complete schedule of courses and times on Bulletin Board. An excellent opportunity for mental and spiritual stimulation for all members of the Parish, not just those connected with the Church School.

JUNIOR FELLOWSHIP

St. Martin's welcomed another to its roster of organizations last Sunday when boys and girls of the 7th and 8th grades, some 20 in number, met with Miss Adams and officially organized. They will have a program of Worship, Study, Service and Recreation similar to that of the Young People's Fellowship, adapted to their interests, and will welcome recruits, 12 and 13 years of age, to their company.

In Thee is gladness, amid all sadness.
Jesus, sunshine of my heart!
By Thee are given the joys of heaven,
Thou the true Redeemer art!
Our souls Thou wakest, our bonds Thou breakest,
Who trust Thee surely hath built securely,
He stands forever; Hallelujah!
Our hearts are pining to see Thy shining,
Dying or living to Thee are cleaving,
Naught can us sever: Hallelujah!
He intercedeth, and ever pleadeth,
Jesus, the truth and the way.
Fair as a flower, waiteth the hour
Them that seek Thee will find Thee today.
Though earth us faileth, Thy love availeth,
Who calleth clearly, findeth Thee early,
Never forsaken. Hallelujah!
All sin forgiven, earnest of Heaven.
Peace like a river, floweth forever;
New songs awaken! Hallelujah!
In Thee is gladness! Hallelujah!

"GREAT SCENES FROM GREAT PLAYS"

Many parishioners are planning "listening in" parties for the third broadcast of "Great Scenes from Great Plays" which takes place next Friday night, October 15, from 8:00 to 8:30 p.m. over WIP.

The idea is a good one and we suggest that other parishioners invite their non-church friends to join them in listening parties. "The Barretts of Wimpole Street," the famous story of how the great love of the poet Browning cured the illness of his fiance, Elizabeth Barrett, is portrayed by Mr. Basil Rathbone, a member of the Episcopal Actors' Guild and Miss Beatrice Straight. The religious message on the curative effects of the medicine of the soul applied by the spiritual advice of an ordained minister is important to us all.

JUNIOR FELLOWSHIP

At its inaugural meeting on October 3rd, the following were elected officers for a three-month term:

President ..... Molly Carpenter
Vice-President ..... Peter Arndt
Secretary ..... Martha Denniston
Treasurer ..... Jocelyn Bentley

JUNIOR GIRLS' FRIENDLY

The following officers were also elected for a three-month term:

President ..... Wendy Fox
Vice-President ..... Judy Curtis
Secretary ..... Emmy Churchman
Treasurer ..... Stephanie Strubing

The girls are planning a bake sale to culminate GFS week activities, on Saturday, October 30. Please save the date and do your "less work for mother" shopping at St. Martin's in lieu of Horn and Hardart's!

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

Bishop Remington will visit St. Martin's for Confirmation on the second Sunday in December, December 12. The Junior Class as part of the Church School has already started with one of the largest enrollments in recent years. I plan to start the Adult Class Monday evening, November 1st, and it will continue for seven sessions. I already have the names of a few possible candidates, but would welcome more. The classes are "open"—that is, joining the class does not mean a definite decision to be confirmed, and persons already confirmed are welcome to come and enter the discussions of what our Church is and what it stands for. I have always hoped that more lay people would realize that the confirmation class is as much theirs as the Rector's, and actively recruit candidates for it.

May I also urge parents of members of the Junior Class to tell the Godparents of their children of the approaching end of their responsibilities as Godparents, and urge them to be present at the Confirmation Service.

* * * *

It has been brought to my attention that there is a sudden burst of conversation as soon as the candles on the Altar are extinguished at the end of each service. For many it may be a great relief that the service is over but there are others who would prolong the mood of worship. For their sake it is requested that the talkative restrain themselves until they are outdoors.

Perhaps it is not too early to ask you to set aside Sunday afternoon, November 21st to receive your Visitor for the Every Member Canvass.

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

The Every Member Canvass of our Parish this year will be held on Sunday, November 21st. The Chairman, Mr. George F. Whitney, and the former Chairman, Mr. George Stevenson, 2nd, have the organization well under way and have announced that Messrs. John Claghorn, Allston Jenkins, Gerald Rorer, Cortlandt Guthrie, John Dilks, John Slemons and Henry Lear have accepted assignments as captains of the seven districts of the Parish.

I realize only too well the constant demands that are made upon our pocketbooks. Next week there starts the annual Community Chest Drive, and we welcome this Sunday morning Mr. John Park Lee to our Chancel who comes to tell us of the tremendous need of the various "Red Feather" organizations of our community that are supported by this joint drive. It should have first demand upon our generosity, and the earnest support of every thoughtful Christian. It is the extension of our hands in Christ's name to feed the hungry, clothe the naked, heal the sick, and to visit those in trouble and in prison. It is a call that we cannot fail to heed, and I am confident that members of our Parish will do their full part as they have always done.

Perhaps it is because I am a parson and therefore prejudiced, but I do not believe that there is any conflict between the Community Chest Drive and our Every Member Canvass, because the latter is not simply an appeal for contributions to a more or less worthy cause. In a very real sense it is a roll call in which by our pledges we answer "Present" to the Master as He calls us to fulfill our promise to be His "faithful soldiers and servants until our life's end." It is one of the ways in which we serve as members of His body to fulfill His will for our world.

Faithfully your Rector,

Thomas F. Sturges

BISHOP SHERRILL

Bishop Sherrill will preach at Holy Trinity Church on Thursday, November 4th, at 8:00 p.m. at the Fall Service of the United Thank Offering.

Come early to get a seat! The Presiding Bishop only comes to our Diocese about once a year.

BORIS KARLOFF IS STAR ON OCTOBER 29 RADIO PROGRAM

The fifth radio presentation in the Episcopal series, GREAT SCENES FROM GREAT PLAYS, which will be broadcast over Station WIP next Friday evening, October 29, from 8:00 to 8:30 p.m. is entitled On Borrowed Time. Boris Karloff, who plays the role of Mr. Brink, will astonish his many devotees of the screen, because instead of portraying a terrifying monster, he plays with quiet sympathy and understanding a most difficult role.

The story is that of a very old grandfather (Parker Fennelly) and his very young grandson (David Anderson) who is the embodiment of all inquisitive small boys.

To remove the sting of death and to prove that death as typified by Mr. Brink is the great liberator, is the Church's Message contained in the play.

TO THE WOMEN OF ST. MARTIN'S

There is a large group of women sewing and making surgical dressings on the second and fourth Thursdays of each month — but more workers are needed. Won't you come to help on the 28th?

Come early enough to attend the Service in the Church at 10:00 o'clock.

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

Our Every Member Canvass will be on Sunday, November 21st, and I hope you are planning to help our Chairman, Mr. George Whitney, his seven captains and fifty and more visitors make it the success that we all hope for by coming to Church in the morning and by staying at home in the afternoon to receive your visitor.

As in past years, you are asked to make a double pledge on the black side of the pledge card for the support of your parish, on the red side for the support of your Church in its activities outside of the Parish. Normally your pledge should be divided four parts on the black to one on the red as our budget calls for about $24,000 for Parish and $6,000 for Diocese and National Church. That latter figure is much smaller this year, as heretofore most of our giving on the red side has been thanks to one very large pledge, which is now being made directly to the Diocese. But the removal of that pledge means that we must do much better on the red side than we have in past years if our parish is to live up to its responsibilities.

Everything given on the red side of the cards and offering envelopes is sent to the Treasurer of the Diocese. 40% of what he receives is used for the support of the Missionary work of the Diocese, for mission parishes, the City Mission, chaplains in state and city institutions, diocesan institutions and the Diocesan Departments of Christian Education, Christian Social Relations, etc.

The balance is sent to National Headquarters. Of every dollar received by them, 75c is spent on direct missionary work — 28c in the missionary districts within the United States, 8c in American territory overseas (Alaska, Porto Rico, etc.) and 39c in overseas areas — 4c on Christian Education, 1c on Christian Social Relations, 1c on Laymen's work, 2c for the Woman's Auxiliary, 3c on Training Centers, 5c on Promotion and 9c on Administration.

I do not know how to express strongly enough the urgency that each of us should realize that the red side of the card, the support of our Church in its wider outreach is as much a part of the responsibility of each one of us as the local parish.

Faithfully your Rector,

Nelson F. Sturges

Help us to know Thee, know Thee and love Thee; Father, Father, Grant us Thy truth and grace; Father, Father, guide and defend us. Rule Thou our wilful hearts. Keep Thine our wandering thoughts; In all our sorrows, Let us find our rest in Thee; and in temptation's hour, Save through Thy mighty power, Thine aid O send us; Hear us in mercy. Show us Thy favour, So shall we live, and sing praise to Thee.

Family Sunday — Parents are reminded that this is the Sunday when all children from Grade 1 through 10 attend the 11 o'clock service with their families and sit with them, not by classes. The children have been told, but might need reminding this first time, to check with Helen Sturges, the Church School Secretary, before leaving in order that they should not be marked absent.

G. F. S.

Don't forget the Bake Sale this Saturday morning starting at 10 a.m. sponsored by the Junior Girls' Friendly. In its first year of activity at St. Martin's, this organization has contributed much toward the other money-raising affairs in the Parish. Now it asks your support in its one attempt to raise funds which must cover not only operation of the Parish Branch but also Diocesan and National obligations.

UNITED THANK OFFERING

Let's have 100% participation from the women in our Parish!

Our own ingathering will be at the eleven o'clock service, this Sunday, October 31st. The Diocesan Ingathering will be Thursday, November 4th at 8:00 p.m. at the Church of the Holy Trinity, 19th and Walnut Streets. Bishop Sherrill is the special speaker. For this we should need no urging.

"Let us give thanks unto our Lord God."

CHURCH WORLD SERVICE

The Annual Community Clothing Drive for Overseas Relief will have its Chestnut Hill Door-to-Door Collection on Sunday, November 7th, from 2-4 p.m. Please have your things ready for collection at 2 p.m.

If you live outside Chestnut Hill, take your bundles to your Church, to St. Paul's Parish House, 22 E. Chestnut Avenue, or bring to Chestnut Hill Penna. R. R. Station parking lot on Sunday, November 7, 2 - 4 p.m.

We need twelve teams of two people each to drive and collect the clothes. Volunteers please call Parish House, CH 7-2132.

WOMEN OF ST. MARTIN'S

On Thursday, November 5th, the stated meeting of the Women of St. Martin's will be held in the Parish House, immediately after the 10:00 o'clock Service.

CONFIRMATION CLASS

The first meeting of the Adult Confirmation Class in prepartation for Bishop Remington's visitation on December 12th, will be held in the Rector's Study in the Parish House next Monday night, November 1st, at 8:00 p.m. The class is open to all whether or not they have determined to be confirmed as well as to others already confirmed. If any parishioner knows of any one who is thinking of taking this step he is urged to bring him to this class.

EPISCOPAL RADIO PROGRAM PRESENTS LITTLE WOMEN ON NOVEMBER 5. No one who has ever been reared in a houseful of girls or has had a plethora of sisters can ever forget the memorable novel by Louisa May Alcott, "Little Women," which is the sixth radio play sponsored by the National Council over Station WIP on Friday, November 5, from 8:00 to 8:30 p.m. Miss Joan Caulfield, currently seen on the screen in Larceny and previously as the star in Kiss and Tell, plays the role of tempestuous Jo in the radio play. Her sister, Betty Caulfield, plays the unforgettable Amy, while the parts of Beth and Meg (her other sisters in the play) are taken by Miss Rosemary Rice and Miss Susan Douglas, respectively.

While it is quite true that the problems that beset the March household are not the same as ours, yet the fundamental principle that love conquers hate and solves all family difficulties is as true today as when Miss Alcott wrote her masterpiece of American home life.

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

The Every Member Canvass on November 21st, will this year include a new item. I hope that every one of you have heard at least one of the programs "Great Scenes from Great Plays," and have been as impressed with them as I have. If you have you will have heard Walter Hampden say that these programs are brought to you by the families of the Episcopal Church. More strictly, he should say, it is brought by the families of the Episcopal Church who last fall had enough faith in the promises of the Promotion Department of National Council to add 3% to their annual pledge to the Church. Enough came in last fall for 13 programs, i.e., until December 24th.

Your vestry feels that these programs ought to be continued and have included 3% of what we need to raise to meet our parish expenses and of what we are asked to give for our Proportionate Share for the work of the Diocese and National Church, in the Parish side of the budget, and asks that each of you as you figure out what you will pledge for the support of the Church for next year to add 3% of your total pledge to the black side of your pledge card. For example if you pledge $1.00 a week on the black side and 25¢ on the red, that is $1.25, of which 3% is 0.0375, your pledge on the red, that is $1.25, of which 3% is 0.0375, your pledge card would read on the black side $1.04 and on the red, $0.25.

The program is as yet too new to be able to assess its real value. It takes, I am told, at least two months for a program of this type to prove itself. It is still in the experimental stage. In a true sense it is a venture of faith on the part of our communion, a pioneering in a new field of missionary activity, and I do believe that it is well worthy of our wholehearted support.

Faithfully your Rector,

TO THE WOMEN OF ST. MARTIN'S

Let us all share in the Vigil in the Church on St. Martin's Day, November 11, by devoting at least one-half hour to prayer and thanksgiving.

The work room in the Parish House will be open all morning and helpers are much needed.

"A TALE OF TWO CITIES," NEXT DRAMA IN EPISCOPAL RADIO SERIES, GREAT SCENES FROM GREAT PLAYS, sponsored by the Episcopal Families in this community, over Station WIP, will have the famous star of stage, screen and radio, Mr. Brian Aherne, playing the difficult role of Sidney Carton in Charles Dickens' immortal, A Tale of Two Cities, next Friday evening, November 12, from 8:00 to 8:30 p.m. This story of self-sacrifice, although in the time of the French Revolution, had many equally thrilling counterparts of heroism in World War II.

PLEDGES

October 1st was the beginning of the fourth quarter of our fiscal year. Will those of you who are in arrears on your pledges be good enough to bring them up to date at this time.

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

Next Sunday, November 21st, you will be called upon by a fellow member of the Parish (that is if you live in the Postal Zones 18, 19, 28, 44) who will come to receive your pledge for the support of your Church for the coming year. Last week you received a pamphlet describing the work your Church is doing around the world. This week another comes to you, telling of the needs of your Church here in Philadelphia, with pledge cards and return envelopes enclosed. Unless you have questions to ask about the finances of the Parish, and the size of your pledge, you are asked to have the cards ready for the Visitor in the envelope, as he does not come to argue with you about the amount you should give. He does want your criticisms and suggestions for the improvement of our parish, and the strengthening of our fellowship. If you live outside the above Postal Zones you are asked to mail in your pledge cards as promptly as possible.

On Thanksgiving Day, as has long been customary, the offering at both services will be for the Episcopal Hospital, which is counting on a generous offering to meet a deficit for this year of almost $200,000.00. This deficit is not affected by the "agreement" which has been entered into with the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania, which does not take effect until January 1st, 1949. I believe that it should be made clear in the face of certain attacks that have been made upon the agreement, that the Hospital will continue to function at its present site, with its present staff augmented by others so that it can render even better service to the Kensington area for at least four more years. At that point, if the Hospital Board of Managers, the Board of the University Hospital, the so-called "Dieman Committee," and the committee to be set up under the agreement of representatives of the Kensington area are all in agreement, certain services of the Hospital may be moved to a new building near the University Hospital, but other services will remain at Front and Lehigh Streets. In any case the Board of Managers retains complete control over the endowments of the Episcopal Hospital, and the Hospital remains a Church institution, with all that that implies. I do not believe that the Managers could have found a more generous or more satisfactory way out of their impasse, which has been caused not by inefficient or extravagant management, but by conditions that are felt by every hospital in the country.

I hope that our parish will continue its generous support of this greatest of our diocesan institutions.

Faithfully yours,

Phillips F. Sturges

It is with a great deal of pleasure that we welcome the Rt. Rev. G. Ashton Oldham, D.D., Bishop of Albany to St. Martin's this Sunday morning. He will baptize his granddaughter, Mary Dudley Grape, at the eleven o'clock service, and will then tell us some of his experiences at the Lambeth and Amsterdam Conferences this past summer.

MEETING ON MENTAL HEALTH

On Tuesday night, November 16, there will be held at St. Paul's under the sponsorship of both St. Paul's and St. Martin's, a meeting to hear reports from the conference held last summer in London on mental health held under the aegis of the United Nations to which gathered men and women, experts in all fields that are concerned with the problems of mental health, not only psychologists and psychiatrists, but social workers, clergy, government workers, etc., etc. Reports will be heard from Miss Isobel Leighton, an outstanding speaker and member of the Governing Board of the International Committee on Mental Health, and the Rev. Robert Morris, chaplain at the Episcopal Hospital, and delegate to the Congress from our National Council and the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America. It should be a most worth while meeting as it deals with a subject that comes close to all of us.

VESTRY MEETING

Because of the above meeting and the Every Member Canvass Supper, the November Vestry meeting has been postponed one night to Thursday, November 18.

ANNUAL CORPORATE COMMUNION FOR MEN AND BOYS

As in past years the annual Corporate Communion for the male members of the parish will be held on the Sunday nearest St. Andrew's Day, this year, November 28th, at the eight o'clock service and it will be followed by a breakfast in the parish house to be served by the Women of St. Martin's. Those who have come to these communions and breakfasts in the past years have found them one of the high points of their Church year, and we hope that a far greater proportion of the Parish will be present this year, as a most interesting program is being arranged.

The Junior Girls' Friendly is pleased to announce that they made $31.00 at their Bake Sale last Saturday. Part of this will be sent to National Headquarters as our G. F. S. Week Contribution along with the contents of our Penny Purses, and the remainder will give us a good foundation for running expenses. The Director wishes to take this opportunity to thank the mothers and girls whose generosity and abundant enthusiasm made the sale such a success.

ALTAR GUILD

The Altar Guild wishes to acknowledge with a great deal of appreciation the gift of a beautiful Fair Linen cloth for the High Altar, given by Mrs. M. Renshaw Butler in memory of her Mother, Agnes Reeves Renshaw.

TO THE WOMEN OF ST. MARTIN'S

You are all urged to come to the luncheon meeting in the Parish House on Thursday, November 18, at 12:30.

Mrs. George A. Trowbridge will tell us about Displaced Persons. Please notify the Parish Office of your acceptance by November 16. Price 50 cents.

There will be a sale of delicious home cooked food for your Thursday night dinner.

GENE TIERNEY IN PINERO COMEDY TO BE BROADCAST NOVEMBER 19. A THOROUGHLY charming and delightful fantasy is the eighth radio presentation in GREAT SCENES FROM GREAT PLAYS sponsored by the Episcopal families in this community over Station WIP next Friday evening, November 19 from 8:00 to 8:30 p.m. It is Arthur Wing Pinero's Enchanted Cottage. Miss Gene Tierney, one of Hollywood's great stars who will long be remembered for her work in such plays as A Bell for Adano, The Razor's Edge, The Iron Curtain, and many others, will portray the part of Laura, while Richard Waring, long a favorite of stage and screen, plays her husband, Oliver. Walter Hampden, beloved veteran of the stage and host on this Episcopal series of radio presentations, will be heard as an old family friend, Major Hillgrove.

TO THE WOMEN OF ST. MARTIN'S
CALLING ALL SEWERS

Any women who cannot attend the work-room and can do machine sewing at home are urged to send word to Mrs. Loring Dam, who will deliver and call for the work.

As Thursday, November 25, is Thanksgiving Day, of course the usual meeting will be omitted.

THANKSGIVING DAY OFFERING FOR THE EPISCOPAL HOSPITAL

The Episcopal Hospital facing the largest deficit in its history is desperately in need of a generous offering from each of the parishes of the Diocese. With the "Agreement" that has been signed with the University of Pennsylvania and its Hospital, the future is bright for our century old institution to continue its ministry in a wider and more adequate manner. St. Martin's as always can be counted on to keep up its record of generosity.

MARRIAGE IS TOPIC OF RADIO PROGRAM NEXT FRIDAY EVENING

When the great Sir James Barrie wrote the outstanding theatrical success What Every Woman Knows nearly half a century ago, he little knew that his trenchant barbs directed against divorce would be just as applicable today as when they were written. This intensely human and delightful comedy of Scottish life at the turn of the century, is a masterpiece of satire and succinct humor. It will be broadcast next Friday evening, November 26, over Station WIP and is the ninth in the series GREAT SCENES FROM GREAT PLAYS sponsored by the Episcopal families in this community. Miss Gertrude Lawrence, long a favorite star of stage and screen, plays the part of the gay contriving Scotch lass, Maggie Wylie, while Dennis King depicts the role of John Shand, the egotistical politician who wins an election for Parliament.

EVERY MEMBER CANVASS

This Sunday afternoon, a fellow member of the Parish will call upon you to receive your pledge for the support of the work of the Church for the coming year. Unless you have questions to ask about your pledge it is hoped that you will have it made out and in the return envelope ready for him. Every communicant should make a pledge, normally divided 4 to 1 between the red and black sides of the card, plus the additional 3% of the total that this year we are asked to add to the black side for the support of the Church's radio program.

The Chairman of the Canvass, Mr. George F. Whitney, has announced the following list of his corps of workers:

FIFTH ANNUAL WORLDWIDE BIBLE READING

Thanksgiving to Christmas, 1948

This is a plan to get millions of people in America and all over the world to read the same Bible selections daily between Thanksgiving and Christmas, November 25th to December 25th, 1948. The theme this year is "The Book of All Nations." Worldwide Bible Reading is sponsored by the American Bible Society and cooperating groups. It has as its central day Bible Sunday, the second Sunday in Advent, December 5. Enclosed is a Bible Bookmark with a "great passage" from the Bible for each day of the period. Put it in your Bible and use it. Get other book marks from the Church and give them away.

CONFIRMATION SUNDAY

Next Sunday we welcome Bishop Remington to St. Martin's for the annual visitation for Confirmation. A class of about 25 will be presented to him. Parents of children being confirmed should urge that the god-parents of their children be present to see the fulfillment of the promises that they made on their behalf.

JUNIOR CHOIR

The entire Church School is grateful beyond measure to Mrs. Seward Baldwin for having designed and made the shiny new vestments in which the choir appears today. As one of the girls so aptly remarked — "It feels much more like a choir being in choir robes!"

TO THE WOMEN OF ST. MARTIN'S

Thursday, December 2, there will be a celebration of Holy Communion in the Church at 10 o'clock, followed by the stated meeting of the Women of St. Martin's. In addition to the regular reports there will be a special discussion of plans for Christmas.

U. T. O.

"Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving."

The Service of Ingathering at Holy Trinity on November 4th was packed. Those of us who attended were inspired by the Doors of Opportunity described by Bishop Sherrill — doors which swing wide as thankful hearts put their gratitude in concrete form through the faithful use of their blue boxes.

The Diocesan contribution was somewhat over $19,000, of which St. Martin's gave more than $1,100. 350 women are on our Parish mailing list. 99 responded. That's an active, vital core. Will they, through evangelizing two or three others, bring our spring total to 100%?

BIBLE SUNDAY AND THE AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY

"At the meeting of General Convention in Philadelphia in 1946 the following resolution was passed:

"Whereas, The Missionary Program of our Church is constantly benefited by the publications of the American Bible Society; and

"Whereas, the members of our Church serving in the armed forces for the past five years were particularly helped by the wide distribution of Bibles in camps, in combat units ashore and afloat;

"Resolved, that the fifty-fifth General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the U. S. A. urges upon all its members the continued support of the American Bible Society, so that it can carry forward the good news of the Gospel to all races and nations, each in his own tongue; and be it recommended that where practical offerings be taken throughout the Church on the Second Sunday in Advent, for the benefit of the American Bible Society.

"This resolution expresses the official action of our Church in regard to the American Bible Society. However, official resolutions do not count for very much unless they are backed up by the action of the entire constituency of the Church. Our Church has fallen behind almost all others in support of this important work. I am glad to testify to its value and significance. I shall be grateful, therefore, if it will be possible to have such an offering as the resolution provides.

"Faithfully yours,

Henry K. Sherrill, Presiding Bishop."

Special Offering envelopes are enclosed.

ERRATA

The Rector, in preparing material for last week's Parish News, got a week ahead of himself and the announcement of the Offering for the American Bible Society should have been for this Sunday, Bible Sunday, December 5, and the announcement concerning Confirmation should have been for next Sunday, December 12. He can only apologize humbly and hope that not too much confusion was caused.

CHRISTMAS PREPARATIONS

Again this year, it is hoped that many of the Congregation will want to share in the actual decorating of the Church for Christmas. Save the night of Tuesday, December 21, and come to the Church about eight o'clock. There will be plenty of work for all. Mrs. Sturges and the Rector hope that every one will come to the Rectory afterwards for a "light collation."

The first rehearsal of the Volunteer Choir for the Midnight Service Christmas Eve will be on Thursday evening, December 16, at 8 P.M. A hearty welcome is extended to any in the congregation who would like to share in this service to the Parish to come to the rehearsal and join this Choir.

On Thursday, December 9, immediately following the 10:00 o'clock service, the Workroom will be open for sewing, knitting and making Surgical Dressings.

MATERIAL AID

"I am still asking you for your prayers and help. We are praying over here because it is the only thing we can do." Excerpt from letter from Elzbieta Muranowicz, Poland.

Now that the winter's work has begun, we must draw attention to the fact that the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief is back with us, and the first event in its behalf will be our "Lazy Shopper's Sale," on December 16 and 18. This is a project of the Women of St. Martin's, and we need everyone's help. We plan to have all sorts of inexpensive novelties, toys (for stockings), small gifts, Christmas decorations for the house, the tree, and the table, and last but not least, candy and other Christmas goodies.

We hope that those of you who would be making candied orange peels, salted almonds, etc., for your own Christmas, will make a few extra for us. Anyone who does so will be excused from contributing to the Ways and Means Bake Sales throughout the year. There will also be a "Sweetmeats Bee" in the new kitchen just before the Sale and we would like volunteers. We need people to help fix greens—to decorate some of our wares and package them. Please plan to give us a day of your time before the 16th! We welcome any small gift, such as doll's sweaters which could be sold for $1.00 or less. Above all, save the date, save yourselves, and help save the children who need our help so desperately.

Please call the Parish House with any offers of ideas, food or help. We need— old Christmas wrappings, Spry cans, shirt cardboards and small gift boxes.

Sent to New Windsor: October—14 cartons of clothing, 1 can of fat. November—9 cartons.

Sent to Britain—2 cartons.

We still collect fat to send to New Windsor, and have on hand a few extra cartons of the proper size to ship to Britain, for those who supply individual families.

CONFIRMATION

We welcome this Sunday the Suffragan Bishop of Pennsylvania, the Rt. Rev. William P. Remington, D.D., on his second official visit to St. Martin's for Confirmation at the 11 o'clock service. It is always a joy to have him share our fellowship, and we are delighted to have him here. In the two confirmation classes are the following:

Adult Class: Mr. Ralph E. Flint, Mr. Thomas L. Foster, Jr., Mrs. C. W. Hall, Mrs. Roland Lippincott, Miss June Perkins, Mr. W. W. Robinson, Mrs. Philip Von Hemert, Mrs. George L. Winlock, Jr.

VOLUNTEER CHOIR

The date of the first rehearsal for the Volunteer Choir has been advanced from Thursday, December 16 to Tuesday, December 14. All in the parish who have the urge to sing are welcome to join the choir, but Mr. Wilkinson rightly insists that no one who has not been at the rehearsals on December 14 and 21 will be able to sing Christmas Eve in the Choir.

CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS

Last year over 40 people gathered to trim the church with laurel and greens. And all claimed to have had a splendid time. There is plenty of work for even more. Do come! Wear old clothes. The date, Tuesday, December 21. The time 8 o'clock. And come to the Rectory afterwards.

CHURCH SCHOOL

Attendance: November 28 — 158 (75%) December 5 — 165 (79%)
Grade 8 and Grades 6 and 7 Choir 100%

This Sunday, December 12, in order to be present for Bishop Remington's visitation, and the rite of Confirmation the children in Grades 5, 6, and 7 will attend the 11 o'clock service up to the sermon hymn, at which time they will adjourn to the Parish House for the remainder of their classes.

Christmas Plans: The Church School will present its Nativity Play to the Parish on Sunday afternoon, December 19 at 4:30. At this time all children will bring to the Manger their gifts of toys — new or in good condition, wrapped and labelled as to age and sex of an appropriate recipient. These will be taken to the Church of Crucifixion, a colored mission, of which the Rev. H. Tabb, D.D., is rector.

TO THE WOMEN OF ST. MARTIN'S

The main feature of the December 16th meeting will be the "Lazy Shopper's Sale." (See adv.) So plan to come early and stay for luncheon, which will be served from 12 - 2 p.m. so that you won't miss any of the attractive bargains. For the benefit of those who cannot come on Thursday the sale will be continued Saturday morning from 10 - 12 during the dress rehearsal for the Christmas play. The Junior Fellowship and the Girls' Friendly are helping as they too are interested in World Relief. Check your needs on the list below and bring your friends to help us make our sale the success it deserves to be.

All you possessed of merry heart
And willing hands draw near.
No matter what your skill may be
We need you, never fear,
To fill the screens for Christmas Day
With laurel green and bright
That those who come may bless the Lord
And in the church delight.

Behold a king shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule in judgment. And a man shall be as an hiding place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest; as rivers of water in a dry place, as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land.

Upon the land of my people shall come up thorns and briers; yea, upon all the houses of joy in the joyous city: Until the spirit be poured upon us from on high, and the wilderness be a fruitful field, and the fruitful field be counted for a forest. Then judgment shall dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness remain in the fruitful field. And the work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness quietness and assurance for ever.

Awake, stand up, O Jerusalem, which hast drunk at the hand of the Lord the cup of his fury; thou hast drunken the dregs of the cup of trembling and wrung them out. Awake, awake, put on thy strength, O arm of the Lord; as in the ancient days.

Behold, a king shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule in judgment.

OFFERING ENVELOPES

Offering Envelopes for 1949 for those who have pledged for the support of the Church on a weekly basis have been placed on the table at the back of the Church. The Parish Secretary makes the following suggestions in regard to their use:

1. Be sure that you take your own envelopes. Otherwise some one else will be credited with your offerings.

2. By using the envelope dated for the given Sunday, your remaining envelopes serve as a statement of how your account stands. However, quarterly reminders will be sent to all pledgers who are in arrears. These should not be considered as a bill, but are simply a statement of how your account stands. If for any reason you do not make your offering on one or more Sundays, it is not necessary to fill each of the envelopes for the Sundays that you missed. It will make life much simpler for the Secretary if you will put the total amount in the envelope for the current Sunday and destroy the rest.

The Accounting Warden is anxious to close his 1948 books by January 10, 1949, and urges that all who have not fulfilled their 1948 pledges do so before that date.

FAMILY STUDY PROGRAM

As the first step in the developing program of Evangelism for 1949 urged by our Presiding Bishop, there will be held throughout the Church a series of discussion groups to which it is hoped that families will come as a unit, that is including all members over 15 years old. As the fundamental unit of the Church is the family, the first unit of study will be "Successful Marriage and the Christian Family."

At St. Martin's there will be four sessions on the four Monday evenings starting January 10.

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

The services for Christmas this year have one significant change. With Christmas Day on Saturday, it was felt wiser to omit the Christmas Day Family Service and combine it with the Sunday morning service of Lessons and Carols. So that the late communion service will be at 11 o'clock with full choir and sermon on Christmas morning.

The Midnight Service on Christmas Eve is one of the most beloved services of the whole year, but for that very reason carries with it especial dangers. One can get overly sentimental about it. In past years it has tended to become more of a show than a service of worship. There have been cases in some churches when the condition of certain members of the congregation was deplorable. But I am sure that at St. Martin's we can keep this service on the high level on which it belongs.

May I request that as far as possible at all Christmas Services, those coming to receive the Sacrament allow family groups to remain intact at the Altar Rail. Our columns in the Rail often make that difficult, but on this great feast of the Family it is good that our families feel their unity strengthened at the Lord's Table.

It is a tremendous thought that when God chose to reveal His nature to Mankind He did it, in and through a Family, that He, who taught us to pray "Our Father," spent practically all His life within the confines of a family, and bore all its responsibilities, and necessities, could point to it and say, here you find God. It is a tremendous challenge to our own families. Can our children find God in them?

May we all find as the Christ is born in our hearts this Christmastide, a new strength in all our family life, that each family may in the truest sense be a cell of His Body.

"God rest you merry!"

FAMILY SUNDAY

The Festival of Lessons and Carols takes the place of the usual "Family Service" on the last Sunday of the month. All children except those in the "Nursery Class" will attend the service. There will be no 10 o'clock classes. It has been most gratifying to see the number of family groups at these services and at this service of Christmas music it is hoped that these groups will grow and be complete.

CHRISTMAS OFFERING

Enclosed in this issue of the Parish News are special Christmas Offering Envelopes. With the unusual expenses in refurbishing the Parish House for an enlarged Sunday School the Vestry is in need of a generous offering if it is to finish the year in the black. From the Christmas offering will be taken a gift to further the work of Dr. Henry P. Brown, Jr., our missionary in China.

TO THE WOMEN OF ST. MARTIN'S

Christmas is over. The New Year has begun. Let us offer ourselves to Him in service, in gratitude, in love, in devotion.

The first meeting of 1949 will be held on Thursday, January 6, the Feast of the Epiphany, after the service in the Church at 10:00 a.m.

LOST AND FOUND

In the Parish Office there is an accumulation of hats, gloves, sweaters, rubbers, galoshes, umbrellas, raincoats, scarves and a lunch box which the Secretary would be very glad to turn over to their owners. Some are marked but most of them are not. They are available any morning from 9:00 to 12:30. Come and Get Them!

Sermon Hymn 291: "Lord of All Being" ..... Mendon

Offertory Anthem: "Ring Out Wild Bells" ..... Fletcher

Ring out wild bells to the wild sky, The flying cloud in the frosty light:
The year is dying in the night, Ring out wild bells and let him die.
Ring out the old, ring in the new, Ring happy bells across the snow:
The year is going let him go; Ring out the false, ring in the true.
Ring out the grief that saps the mind, For those that here we see no more;
Ring out the feud of rich and poor, Ring in redress to all mankind.

Ring out a slowly dying cause, And ancient forms of party strife;
Ring in the nobler modes of life, With sweeter manners purer laws.
Ring out the old, ring in the new, Ring happy bells across the snow:
The year is going let him go; Ring out the false, ring in the true.
Ring out false pride in place and blood, The civic slander and the spite;
Ring in the love of truth and right, Ring in the common love of good.

Ring out old shapes of foul disease, Ring out the harrowing lust of gold;
Ring out the thousand wars of old, Ring in the thousand years of peace.
Ring in the valiant man free, The larger heart, The kindlier hand;
Ring out the darkness of the land, Ring in the Christ that is to be.
Ring out the old, ring in the new, The year is dying let him go
Ring out the false, ring in the true.

CHURCH SCHOOL

Attendance Jan. 2—157 (75%) 100% Class—Grade 6 and 7 Choir

Over 150 gifts presented at the Nativity Play were taken to the Church of the Crucifixion in South Philadelphia by three Church School students and Miss Adams. We also took Candy Canes to the Children's Clinics of the Philadelphia General Hospital.

FAMILY STUDY PROGRAM

The first meeting of the Family Study Program on Christian Marriage will be held in the Parish House on Monday, January 10, at 8:15. This is the first of an attempt to bring the Church as a whole to an awareness of the bases of the Christian Life. The family is the fundamental unit of the Christian Church, and on its strength the strength of the Church depends. Together we may be able to arrive at some ways in which our own families may more fully deserve the name of Christian.

There will be four meetings in this program each of which will last not longer than an hour and a half.

CHURCH WORLD SERVICE

Latest reports from our Lazy Shoppers' Sale on December 16, indicate a profit of $312 with a little more to come in.

About 80 people between the ages of eight and eighty worked on this project and many of us discovered unsuspected talents. We are most grateful to all of you who gave of your efforts at this busy time of year.

THE FEAST OF THE LIGHTS

This Sunday, January 9 at 5:00 p.m., a new service will be added to the Worship of St. Martin's which we hope will become an annual tradition in our keeping of the Epiphany. The Feast of Lights, a candlelight service depicting the spread of Christian Truth, had its origin in the Eastern Church even before the observance of Christmas by the Western Church; and carrying the beauty and glory of the Christian message as reflected in the symbol of light it has long been associated with this season of light. The Service, a shortened form of Evensong followed by the Candlelight Ceremony, will be sponsored by our Young People, but it is hoped that many of the Parish will show their desire to make this an annual service by being present this Sunday at 5 p.m.

GREAT SCENES FROM GREAT PLAYS

Owen Davis' Pulitzer Prize Drama, Icebound, starring Cornel Wilde will be presented on GREAT SCENES FROM GREAT PLAYS at 8:00 p.m. Friday evening, January 21, over Station WIP. Icebound tells of a young New England man, Ben Jordan, who almost destroys his own real happiness and the happiness of those around him by letting old grudges and old grievances remain frozen, icebound, inside his heart. The message of our Church to people everywhere without Church affiliation is that through Church membership and the blessed spirit of Christian love and charity millions have been able to clear their hearts of past grievances . . . and have found their way to a full and happy life.

TO THE WOMEN OF ST. MARTIN'S

Everybody is talking about the Philadelphia Fellowship Commission. Wouldn't you like to know more about it? Mrs. William R. Gullins is coming to speak to us on this subject at a luncheon meeting on Thursday, January 20, at 12:30. Please make your reservations early and not later than January 19. (50c.)

PACKAGES FOR BRITAIN

At the Luncheon given by the Committee of Packages for Britain last week the Churches and people of this country were urged to continue their sending of the food packages which they did so generously last year. Not only are the physical contents important but the friendly thought and moral uplift have made this a worthwhile and enjoyable service. Stories of friendships and amusing, as well as interesting, correspondence have grown out of these contacts. Last year 11 English families of St. Martin-in-the-Fields, London, were sponsored by members of this Parish. Today is Packages for Britain Sunday in this Church, and it is our chance to do something between a family and a family—a church and a church—a country and a country.

It is hoped that those who are already sponsoring a family will continue to do so, directly through Packages for Britain, and that there may be others who will want to take on a family, and they are asked to see Mr. Sturges. It costs $35 for the five food packages sent during the year. Clothes are not to be sent by Packages for Britain this year, but sponsors are urged to bear in mind the particular needs of their families.

FAMILY STUDY PROGRAM

The first session of the First Family Study Program entitled "Marriage: 1949 Model vs Christian Marriage" was most successful. The second this Monday night at 8:15 will be "Building a Successful Marriage." Those who could not come to the first meeting are urged not to miss the second.

That He deigns to dwell with us.
Joy, O joy beyond all gladness! Christ hath done away with sadness!
Hence, all sorrow and repining, For the Sun of grace is shining.

See, my soul, thy Saviour chooses
Weakness here and poverty, In such love He comes to thee.
Nor the hardest couch refuses; All He suffers for thy good,
To redeem thee by His blood.
Joy, then joy beyond all gladness! Christ hath done away with sadness!
Hence, all sorrow and repining, For the Sun of grace is shining.

If you wish to hear the latest Church news of what has happened and what is planned, come to this meeting.

Come to Service in the Church first.

ANNUAL MEETING

Notice is hereby given of the Annual Meeting of the Parish of St. Martin-in-the-Fields to be preceded by the annual election of Vestrymen in the Parish House on Monday, February 7, 1949. The polls will be open for the election of Vestrymen in the Parish House at 5:45 P.M. "Nominations for Vestrymen shall be made in writing by five or more members of the Parish entitled to vote and shall be presented to a Church Warden or Secretary of the Vestry at least seven days before the election."

Dinner at 6:45 will be followed by the annual reports of all parish organizations. Please notify the Parish Office as promptly as possible how many of your family expect to be present at the dinner.

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

It is with a deep gratitude for a truly Christian life that we dedicate this Sunday morning the new lighting in the Church in memory of Miss A. Christine Ross. In spite of great physical handicaps she made her Christian witness shine to all who knew her. Her faithful care for the altar flowers for many years, her interest and encouragement for everything connected with the Parish served as an example and strengthener to all in the Congregation. And it is indeed fitting that her memory will give light to all our worship in the years to come.

Her bequest to the parish made these lights possible and the balance of the bequest has been added to the endowment funds of the Parish.

The first Family Study Program "Successful Marriage" was concluded on February 1st, and was voted by all who attended a great success. There was an average attendance of 24 for the four nights. The second program "The Prayer Book Speaks in Our Uncertain Age" will be conducted on the five Tuesday evenings in Lent between Ash Wednesday and Holy Week, and will take the place of the usual Wednesday evening services. The Catering Committee of the Women of St. Martin's will serve a supper before each of the meetings at a moderate cost, and the evening will close with a short service in the Church. I hope that everyone who possibly can will make every effort to come to the program and supper regularly. The first program showed to all in it that their knowledge of the Prayer Book was "fairly limited" and the need of all of us to really know the treasure that is ours in the "Book of Common Prayer." Samples of the material have already arrived from National Headquarters and I can honestly recommend it with enthusiasm.

AN OFFICE FOR THE RECOGNITION OF VESTRYMEN

Following the Doxology the newly elected Vestrymen shall come forward to the Altar Rail, and the People standing the Rector shall say:

Except the Lord build the house, they labour in vain that build it: except the Lord keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain.

It is required in stewards that a man be found faithful. He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much.

....., ..., and....., beloved in Christ: You have been duly elected Vestrymen of this Parish. Your office is consecrated by its importance to the Church's welfare. You will always bear in mind that which you do will in high degree determine the Church's usefulness to the Kingdom of God. You will look upon your office as an opportunity to serve His Kingdom. May you have joy in being faithful servants, knowing that in dedicating your time and your talents to the good of His Church you are fellow-workers together with God. Your office being thus acknowledged, do you promise to give to the affairs of this Parish diligent study and service? The Vestrymen shall answer: I do.

Do you promise to study and strive for the strength, peace, unity and purity of the Church? They shall answer: I do.

The Rector shall ask the Congregation this question:

Do you receive and recognize these brethren as Vestrymen of this Parish, and do you promise to them full support in their work? And they shall answer: We do.

The Lord be with you. Answer: And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

ALTAR GUILD

At the Annual Meeting of the Altar Guild Mrs. Henry Lear was reappointed Directress, Mrs. Allan Hunter, Vice-Directress, Mrs. Lee Trimble was elected Secretary and Mrs. John Walton, Treasurer.

IBSEN PLAY STARRING INGRID BERGMAN EMPHASIZES VALUES OF MARRIED LIFE

The great actress, Ingrid Bergman, co-stars with Brian Aherne in the dramatic classic, Henrik Ibsen's A Doll's House, to be presented on "Great Scenes from Great Plays" at 8:00 p.m. Friday evening over Station WIP. A Doll's House has been chosen for broadcast to dramatize the Church's message that couples who are perplexed in finding happiness in married life need help. They need guidance and sympathetic counsel such as an experienced clergyman can give them. They need to learn again, and return again, to the Christian foundation of marriage.

ST. MARTIN'S SECOND ANNUAL BARN DANCE

Get ready to swing your partner
And heed the fiddler's call,
We're having another barn dance
Come young and old, come all!

The date is February 19th
In the gym at C. H. A.
Come promptly at 8:30
And dance your blues away.

(For the benefit of the Presiding Bishop's Fund, $3.00 a couple, $1.00 apiece for those under 21.)

CHURCH SCHOOL

Attendance: January 30—152 71% February 6: 167 (78%)

Early in January, our First Grade teacher, Miss Perkins, left us to further her art studies in Washington, D. C. We have been most fortunate in filling the vacancy with the loyal services of Miss Caroline F. Graham and Miss Helen P. Sturges, who were already well acquainted with the First Grade routine and pupils by virtue of their former posts as assistants.

TO THE WOMEN OF ST. MARTIN'S

This is the schedule for Thursday, February 17: Church Service at 10. Sewing until 12:30. Lunch—and Mrs. Victor Perrin, an attractive, interesting speaker at 12:30. Plan to come for the whole program.

THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION SUNDAY

"From all our seminaries comes the word: largest student group in many years. If this continues, our Church will be filled to overflowing. This is good for there is a great shortage of clergy; there are more vacancies in parishes and missions now than at any time during the war.

"But as welcome as men are to the seminaries the increased enrollment means increased costs. Even now at one seminary the yearly cost of educating one man for the ministry is $2200. The student is required to pay $550 of this amount, the school is responsible for the rest. The school is responsible! That is exactly where the Church has been satisfied to let the responsibility rest. We have had seminaries in this country for about 130 years. During all that time they have depended on gifts and bequests from a few individuals; the Church in effect told the seminaries to forage for themselves. . . .

"Adequate support for the seminaries is of strategic importance; inadequate support means necessarily inadequately trained men. . . . The Church needs men of high ability and thorough training. As the Presiding Bishop said: 'it is largely determined whether we are to have for clergy little men of small vision who can perform conventional acts or men of intellectual and spiritual capacity and depth who in the name of Christ can meet effectively the needs of our time'." "The Witness"

The Sunday nearest St. Paul's Day has become the traditional date for an offering in our parishes for our Theological Schools. I hope that this year we can give a generous offering. According to custom the offering goes to the School of which the Rector is a graduate, and enclosed are folders and offering envelopes for the Episcopal Theological School in Cambridge, Mass. But if any member of the congregation wishes their offering to go to the Philadelphia Divinity School or other seminary, they may so designate by crossing out "Episcopal" on the envelope and writing in the name of the School they wish to designate.

ALTAR GUILD

The Annual Meeting of the Altar Guild for the election of officers will be held following the Annual Corporate Communion of the Guild at 10:00 a.m. on Tuesday, January 25.

ANNUAL MEETING AND DINNER

According to the By-Laws of the Parish the Annual Meeting and Election will be held on the first Monday in February, the 7th. The polls will be open in the Parish House at 5:45 p.m. for the election of three Vestrymen and will remain open for one hour.

"Nominations for Vestrymen shall be made in writing by five or more members of the Congregation entitled to vote and shall be presented to a Church Warden or the Secretary of the Vestry at least seven days before the election." Those entitled to vote "shall be all Lay Baptized persons of the age of twenty-one years and upwards who shall have been worshippers in this Church . . . for at least one year and who shall . . have contributed towards the current expenses of the Church during each of the two preceding years."

The Annual Parish Dinner will follow the elections at 6:45 following which the Rector will give his annual report and reports will be heard from the organizations of the Parish. And we are fortunate in having as our guest the Rt. Rev. William P. Remington, Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese.

There will be a charge of $1.50 for the dinner, and you are asked to make reservations immediately on the enclosed card. (Please do not return it if you are not coming.)

FROM HUEI TIEN HOSPITAL, KUNMING, YUNNAN, CHINA

January 4, 1949

Dear Mr. Sturges:

Many thanks for your Christmas card and note — both of which are most appreciated. It was indeed nice of the Vestry to make such a generous gift for the work out here and I can assure you it will be put to good use in a manner which I am sure will meet with their approval. Please convey to them my sincerest thanks for their interest — expressed in such a practical manner — in what we are trying to accomplish out here.

The work in the hospital continues to be most interesting and has reached the stage where patients from villages situated several days journey from here — who have gone through our "mill" and survived — are referring their neighbors to us. So far, luck has held pretty well, thanks to Chinese hardihood rather than what we may contribute — and it is a real joy to try and help for they are so appreciative.

With kindest regards to the Vestry and your family and best wishes for the new year.

Cordially yours,

Henry P. Brown, Jr.

ANNUAL MEETING

Bishop and Mrs. Remington will be our guests at the Parish Dinner and Annual Meeting on Monday, February 7. There are still some places available but reservation should be made at once through the Parish Office.

The following have been duly nominated for election to the three places to be filled on the vestry at the election immediately preceding the dinner: John H. Dilks, Henry Lear, Frederick W. W. Graham, Jr., Gerald F. Rorer, and John A. Slemons. All members of the Parish, baptized and over 21 years, who have supported the Parish for the past two years are eligible to vote.

DEDICATION OF THE NEW LIGHTING IN THE CHURCH

We have all been greatly pleased with the new fixtures and their tremendous improvement in the lighting of the Church which were installed this summer and this fall. They were made possible through the use of part of the bequest left to the Parish by Miss A. Christine Ross, who entered into rest on February 14, 1948. The Vestry has erected a tablet to her memory in the Church and it seems most appropriate to dedicate both the tablet and the lighting next Sunday, February 13, which is almost the first anniversary of her death.

CHURCH SCHOOL

Attendance: January 23—167 (76%) January 30—152 (71%)
100% Class 6 and 7 Choir

We welcome to our Church School Staff this morning Mrs. Betty Metcalfe, a student in the Department of Women of the Philadelphia Divinity School. Mrs. Metcalfe will teach the 6th Grade girls, which enables us to return to the normal division of 6th and 7th grade.

TO THE WOMEN OF ST. MARTIN'S

"Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness." On Thursday, February 10th, Service in the Church at 10 o'clock. Then, work for everyone in the Parish House.

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

As last year St. Martin's will play its part in the various interdenominational services and activities planned for the observance of Lent in the "Hill."

The first event, actually before Lent, will be on Shrove Tuesday, March 1. The United Churchwomen of Chestnut Hill have arranged for a meeting to be held at the Presbyterian Church at 8:00 p.m. which will be addressed by The Rev. O. Frederick Nolde, Dean of the Mt. Airy Seminary and a member of the Executive Committee of the World Council of Churches. Dr. Nolde, who has just returned from Geneva, will speak on the "Universal Declaration of Human Rights" adopted by the United Nations.

The First Friday in Lent has been traditionally the World Day of Prayer. The arrangements for Chestnut Hill's observance have this year been under the chairmanship of a member of this Parish, Mrs. Edwin Burrell. There will be a service in Christ Lutheran Church at 11 o'clock for women, which will be led by Mrs. Sturges. In the evening, also at Christ Church, at 7 o'clock, there will be a service for Youth, arranged by Miss Ann Adams, at which the speaker will be Mr. Philip Zabriskie, of Princeton, an official delegate to both the Youth Conferences in Oslo in 1947, and to Amsterdam in 1948, and an unusually fine speaker.

On the Wednesdays in Lent, including Ash Wednesday and Holy Week there will be a half hour noonday service at St. Paul's as last year, with a splendid list of preachers, which will be in next week's Parish News. On the five Wednesdays between Ash Wednesday in Lent the Missionary Study Program will be conducted at St. Paul's starting at 10:30. Each week's discussion will be led by a panel of five made up of one member from each of the cooperating parishes.

I do hope that members of St. Martin's will help to make all these meetings the success they deserve to be by attending regularly.

Faithfully,

Philemon F. Sturges

THIS SUNDAY'S PREACHER

It is a great pleasure to welcome to St. Martin's this Sunday the Rt. Rev. M. K. Michael Chang, D.D., Lord Bishop of the Church of England Diocese of Fukien, China. Bishop Chang is returning to China from England, and is visiting a few of the American Dioceses en route.

TO THE WOMEN OF ST. MARTIN'S

On Thursday, February 24th, St. Matthias' Day, come to worship in the Church, and then to the workroom for sewing and fellowship.

CHURCH SCHOOL

Attendance: February 6 — 167 (78%) February 13 — 144 (67%)
100% Class, Grade 6 and 7 Choir

The following have had 100% attendance for the First Term ending on January 30: Anne Gisburne, Billy MacDonald, Bonnie Bregy, Teddy Freed, Mary Ann MacDonald, Cappy Hall, Babbie Baldwin, Kaysie Lawson, Gaysie Curtis, Joan Hunsberger, Ashley Roach, Judy Curtis, Susie Whitaker, Walter Miller, Peter Goodwin, John Kremer, John Randall, Robert Fleming, Sally Carpenter, Edwin Foody, Cruger Fowler, Peggy McElroy, Leigh Strubing, Bill Stinson.

The percentage of attendance by Classes shows the high rate for classes above Kindergarten — a record which we hope to keep up to in the Second Term:

94% Grade 6 and 7 Choir
91% Grade 8
86% Grade 4
85% Grade 6 Girls
82% Grade 3
81% Grade 4 and 5 Choir
80% Grade 7 Girls
78% Grade 2, Grade 5
72% Grade 1
69% Grade 6 and 7 Boys

GREAT SCENES FROM GREAT PLAYS

The Great Scenes from Great Plays broadcast on February 25 over Station WIP at 8:00 p.m., is The Lady with a Lamp, a story of Florence Nightingale, starring Miss Madeleine Carroll and dedicated to the great humanitarian work of the American Red Cross. In this broadcast, our Church urges the cooperation of all Americans in helping to carry forth this work of the American Red Cross during their annual drive.

With this broadcast, the first fall and winter series of Great Scenes from Great Plays will come to an end.

At the close of this program, you will be asked to write in and tell which programs you have especially enjoyed and what plays you would like to hear presented in the future.

Be sure to listen to this concluding broadcast and send in your comments on the series as a whole.

VESTRY

At the meeting of the Vestry on February 16, Mr. S. F. Houston was reappointed Rector's Warden, Mr. J. W. Nicolls and Mr. R. Barclay Knight were reelected Accounting Warden and Secretary of the Vestry respectively, and Messrs. Houston, Nicolls and Balis were elected delegates to Convention, with Messrs. Eckfeldt, Knight, and Whitney as alternates, and Messrs. Houston, Dam, and Lear were elected delegates to the Convocation of Germantown.

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

Enclosed in this Parish News are cards with our full Lenten Program both as a Parish and as a Community. The major change from other years is the substitution of the Tuesday evening "Study Program" for the Wednesday evening services. As an innovation, I am asking all of you to check on the cards the services or classes that you will try to attend regularly, tear off the first half, sign it and place it as part of your offering on the alms bason at any service on Ash Wednesday or at the latest the First Sunday in Lent. Additional cards may be obtained from the table at the back of the Church.

I am doing this, because I firmly believe that all of us need to get straight in our minds what it is we hope to accomplish by the observance of these "great forty days." Lent can be a bore and a nuisance, the attempt to add to an already too full schedule, and the giving up of this or that just for the sake of giving it up or for the satisfaction that comes from boasting to our neighbors that we have given it up, observances carried out because it is traditional to do so, that have little or no meaning, and which we give over with a sigh or relief, come Easter. But if Lent is to have real meaning, if it is to be, as it was originally meant to be a period of intensive training for the "soldiers and servants of Christ" that we claim to be, if it is to be a period of honest preparation for Easter so that we can keep the great feast with true joy and gladness, with a livelier sense of what God in Christ has done for us, I am convinced that it is necessary for all of us to do some fairly thorough evaluating of our daily lives, and some reorganization of our daily habits, so that we may "live more nearly as we pray."

I do not believe that we can live a truly Christian life, unless it is based on a fairly set routine of habits, governed by a definite schedule, not left to the appearance of the proper "churchy" feelings. And all of us need aids to the establishment of those habits. "Our bounden duty is to follow Christ, to worship God, every Sunday in His Church, and to work and give and pray for the spread of His Kingdom." Basically as in every other department of our life the fulfillment of that duty is dependent on our habits and until we have built up habits of regular Church attendance, regular prayer, regular study, and regular participation in the activities of the fellowship, we fall short of what is our responsibilities as soldiers and servants of the Master.

Faithfully yours,

Clarkson F. Sturges

DEDICATION OF THE LENTEN MITE BOXES

M. The harvest truly is great but the laborers are few.

P. Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them into the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

M. Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you; and lo! I am with you even unto the end of the World.

P. For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.

M. Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send and who will go for us?

P. Then said I, Here am I! send me.

M. The Lord be with you. P. And with thy Spirit. M. Let us pray.

A Prayer for Missions

A Prayer for Children

The Prayer of Dedication of the Boxes

All. O God, our heavenly Father, we thank thee for the gift of thy dear Son. Grant that we who have received him in our hearts may joyfully go forth with him on many errands. Bless those that toil for thee in far off places; comfort them in their loneliness, and unite our work to theirs. Accept our gifts; receive our prayers; and use us for the sake of thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O. Frederick Nolde, D.D., LL.D., Ph.D., will address a meeting sponsored by the Churches of Chestnut Hill who are deeply concerned about "Human Rights in the World Today" on Tuesday evening, March 1st, at 8 p.m., at The Presbyterian Church of Chestnut Hill, Germantown and Rex Avenues.

Dr. Nolde, Dean of the Graduate School of the Lutheran Theological Seminary, will return from one of his many trips to Europe just before this meeting.

He is well known for his outstanding work in the United Nations and the World Council of Churches.

LENTEN STUDY PROGRAM

The second study program issued by the National Council will be held in our Parish on the Tuesday nights in Lent preceded by a supper at 6:45 p.m., to be served by the catering committee of the Women of St. Martin's at a dollar a plate. The general subject will be "The Prayer Book Speaks in Our Uncertain Age" and the first subject on March 8th will be the "Struggle for the Prayer Book." The first session will be in the form of a symposium, with a panel made up of Mr. Gilbert A. Fall, Mr. Henry Lear, Mr. S. F. Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woodward, Miss Ann Adams and the Rector.

Those planning to come to the supper are asked to make reservations on the enclosed postcard at once. The program will start approximately at 7:45 if you are unable to come to the supper, and the evening will close with a "hymn sing" and short service in the Church.

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

I was so struck by Allen Clark's "Sermon" in his "Home Prayers" two weeks ago, that I want to pass it on to all of you.

Here in New England, on December 21st, the sun edged up over the wintry horizon at 7:25 a.m., and then slipped down behind the western hills at 4:31 p.m., after a short day of nine hours and six minutes. On March 2nd (Ash Wednesday) the sun will be up at 6:34 a.m., and will not set until 5:51 p.m., giving us eleven hours and seven minutes of daylight. That is where "Lent" got its name, for the "Lencten fasten" was the church season that came in the time of lengthening days. So the true meaning of Lent is the season of growing daylight. Now is the time to plan to make your Lent a season of increasing light!

First, more light in your praying. Many of us get into a rut, praying the small, small prayer day after day. We need the light of bigger souls than ours, so Lent is an excellent time to memorize a few prayers, such as the ones on this page, or others from the Book of Common Prayer, or your devotional book. Learn several; and then always begin your private devotions by saying one of them. You will pray more wisely and more in Jesus' spirit, if your praying is so lighted by great prayers.

Second, more light in your thinking. With radio and television at our disposal, at the touch of a button, we get lazy about our thinking. Take your New Testament this Lent, and read one of the gospels through thoroughly, asking yourself — what did Jesus talk about most? What did He mean by "sin"? What kind of people did He choose for friends? Or take a current best-seller, like Lloyd Douglas' "The Big Fisherman," and live through the stormy, wonderful life of Peter with his Master. Get some memorable biography out of your public library — Trudeau, St. Francis, Mahatma Gandhi, or Lincoln. See that your thinking this Lent is lighted by kindled lives.

Third, more light in your listening. Stop turning on the radio by the hour, blaring out its oily commercials and its sticky-sweet soap-box dramas. Pick out a few programs that will leave you warmed and lighted and refreshed — a morning watch, a United Nations broadcast, a piece of great music. Or take telephone-listening — when Gossipy Gertie rings you tomorrow morning, brimming over with the latest secondhand neighborhood fairy tales, have your wits about you, and think of some good reason why you have immediate business elsewhere. Then call up some one else, whose mind travels in sunlight rather than the sewer, for a few minutes' chat. You don't have to listen to every thing, or every one. See that your listening is lighted by a Christlike spirit.

Plan your Lent that way. What happens? Where there is more Light, there is always growth. The lengthening days bring spring on earth. The increasing light within you will bring growth in your soul — and Easter will be Spring with you!

Faithfully your rector,

Clarence F. Sturges

TO THE WOMEN OF ST. MARTIN'S

Thursday is our day for worship and work. Let us all begin the day by coming to the Church at ten, asking our Lord to bless the work which we are to do later in the Parish House.

USED CLOTHING NEEDED

Things for St. Martin-in-the-Fields, England, plus garments for New Windsor, equals your chance to spread moral and physical aid to Europe. Anything not suitable will be set aside for the Parish Rummage Sale. Please leave things soon as our shipments are falling off.

CHURCH SCHOOL

Attendance: Feb. 20, 159 (72%). Feb. 27, 146 (66%).

100% Class, Grade 6 and 7 Choir

Wednesday Afternoon Services: Parental Cooperation is asked in helping to encourage attendance at these services which begin at 4 and end promptly at 5 o'clock. Transportation home is provided for those who cannot walk, or whose parents cannot call for them, so we are striving for a good turnout.

PRAYER BOOK STUDY GROUP

The first subject on March 8 will be "The Struggle for the Prayer Book." This session will be in the form of a symposium, with the panel made up of Mr. Gilbert A. Fall, Mr. Henry Lear, Mr. S. F. Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woodward, Miss Ann Adams and the Rector.

PRAYER BOOK STUDY GROUP

The second in our series of studies on the Prayer Book will take place on Tuesday, March 15, with supper at 6:45 and closing with a brief service in the Church. Using the same method of discussion found so successful in the Marriage study program, the topic this week will be "Power for Living from Worship." For those who did not attend the first meeting, it is not too late to start this week, and we urge you to be with us in our attempt to deepen our understanding of the meaning and power of the Prayer Book.

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

At General Convention, meeting in Philadelphia in 1946, our Church pledged the organization of United Non-Roman Christianity to aid the distressed nations of the world, Church World Service, that it would take as its share of the load $1,000,000 for three years. We may be proud that our Church has over subscribed that share in each of the past two years.

This year our Church is joining in a united effort to raise the total $10,000,000 for Church World Service, of which the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief is our part, on Sunday, March 27. The night before, Saturday, March 26, between 8 p.m. and 9 p.m. there will be broadcast one of the greatest single programs in the history of radio. Called "One Great Hour" it will be heard over every one of the 1,092 stations of the major networks, CBS, NBC, ABC and Mutual, plus hundreds of non-network stations. The basic structure of this program will be dramatized true life stories of the many vitally important types of work now being done through Churches and Church organizations in Europe and Asia. The program will feature great names, great living drama, and great music. It will give to an audience of some 50,000,000 listeners a clear idea of just why contributions are so necessary right now for the overseas work of the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief and those united with us in Church World Service. It will show to America and to all the world, just how great is the power generated when all the participating Eastern Orthodox, Protestant and Anglican Churches work together for a great common cause.

St. Martin's has done exceeding well on the two former efforts and I am confident that we will keep up our record this year.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP

This Sunday, the Rector will lead the young people of St. Paul's and St. Martin's in a Devotional evening. All young people in the Parish, whether or not regular members of the Y. P. F. are cordially invited to join us in this special Lenten observance.

TO THE WOMEN OF ST. MARTIN'S

Be sure to make your reservations for lunch on March 17, when Mrs. William P. Remington will be the guest speaker. Greatly beloved in the Diocese, Mrs. Remington never fails to charm her audience.

Holy Communion will be celebrated at ten o'clock and there will be work for everyone in the Parish House all morning.

Members of the congregation will be interested to know that Mr. Harry Wilkinson will be the organist for a performance of Mendelssohn's the "Elijah" at the Wanamaker Store on March 16 at 5:00 p.m. The Temple University Chorus will sing.

QUIET MORNING

On Thursday, March 24th, instead of the workroom for the Women of St. Martin's, the Rector will conduct a series of meditations in the Church, starting with a Litany at 10 o'clock and closing with a celebration of the Holy Communion at 12. It is hoped that many in the Parish will want to observe this midpoint of Lent with a period in which we can "go apart from the world" to strengthen our ability to serve the world.

AN ORGAN FOR A BARRACKS CHURCH

In Dunkirk, on the very beach where the desperate battle was fought, there is a living story of the new hope Christian Churches in America are giving to the people of Europe. There, for Dunkirk's 30,000 people, Church World Service placed a temporary house of worship that had once been an army barracks. And to this barracks church they sent a young Methodist minister. At first the people came to their church for refuge, for bread and soup and care for their sick. Then they came to worship. And on each succeeding Sunday, as the people learned to hope again, the beloved hymns would ring louder across the beach of Dunkirk.

Then a Church in America sent an organ. They placed it near the wooden table that is their altar, and it made the Church seem almost a cathedral. But none of them knew how to play the organ. Their disappointment was great. One day the minister of Dunkirk spoke of the unplayed organ to a friend of his, a Presbyterian minister in a neighboring town. And now every Sunday, the Presbyterian minister finishes his morning services and walks ten miles to Dunkirk to play the organ for his Methodist friend's congregation and then walks the ten miles back for his evening services.

The Barracks Church at Dunkirk is the center of both work and worship. For the Christian faith, the Churches of America and the two pastors helped these people to find, has given them the courage to plan and build again their homes and farms and businesses to build a better and a happier future.

ORDINATION

On Saturday, March 19, Bishop Hart will ordain the Rev. Robert Sheeran, deacon, to the priesthood in St. Martin's at 10:00 o'clock. This service is the culmination, long hoped and prayed for, of the course of the first candidate for Holy Orders to come from this Parish, and an occasion for great rejoicing on the part of the whole Parish, and we hope that there will be a goodly congregation of St. Martin's people to wish Bob Sheeran Godspeed, and that he will be in all our prayers throughout this coming week.

The sermon will be preached by the Rev. Edmund B. Wood of St. Timothy's, Roxborough, the candidate will be presented by the Rector, and the Litany will be read by the Rev. Vincent F. Pottle, of the Philadelphia Divinity School.

It was hoped that our former Rector, Dr. Lewis, would be able to be the preacher at this service, but he has had a severe heart attack, and is confined to his bed. The prayers of the congregation are asked for his recovery.

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

Do not fail to listen to the Radio Program, "One Great Hour," sponsored by Church World Service on Saturday night, March 26, at 8 p.m. And do not fail to remind your friends to listen too, no matter what Church they belong to. Of the total $10,000,000 that it is hoped will be given as a result of this united appeal, the share of the Episcopal Church, which we call the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief, is one million dollars. Again the Diocese of Pennsylvania hopes to give its 10% of the total, $100,000.

The work of Church World Service has shifted its emphasis in the last two years. Right after the War, the immediate and pressing need was direct relief — food, clothing, shelter for starving, dying millions. Thank God, the need for that kind of relief has greatly abated. From the first, however, Church World Service knew that "Man cannot live by bread alone." With the first shipments of food and clothing went food for starved souls, Bibles, and testaments, barracks churches, supplies for destitute pastors. A hungry belly is filled more easily than a soul that has been warped and beaten by years of terror, anxiety, and rootless wanderings, but the essential need of the starved soul is greater than the starved body. It is easy to answer the cry for bread. It is dramatic. The results of the answer are quick to show. It is harder to see the results of feeding souls. All of us fall easily before our Lord's first temptation — "Command that these stones be made bread." It takes greater imagination than many people possess to see the wisdom of His answering quotation "Man does not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God."

It is to this far more important part of rehabilitation that Church World Service is now calling us. I know that our Parish has the imagination to see the vital necessity of the need, and that it will respond generously.

PRAYER BOOK STUDY PROGRAM

On Tuesday night, March 22, will be the third in the series of discussions of the Prayer Book, the subject being "Our Difficulties as Christians." Those planning to come to the supper at 6:45 are asked to notify the Parish Office by Monday morning at the latest. The discussion will start about 8:00 and will be over promptly at 9:30.

NOON DAY SERVICE

The Rector has exchanged his day for taking the noonday service at St. Paul's with Dr. Cruikshank of the Presbyterian Church, who will be away on the date originally planned for him to preach. So Dr. Cruikshank will preach this Wednesday and the Rector on April 6.

WOMEN OF ST. MARTIN'S

On Thursday, March 24th, the Rector will conduct a "Quiet Morning" for the women of the Parish. Starting at 10 o'clock with a Litany there will be a series of four periods of meditation and prayer, concluding with the celebration of the Holy Communion at 12 noon. It is hoped that many in the Parish will want to make use of this opportunity at the mid-point of Lent to strengthen their Lenten observance and to make fuller preparation for Easter.

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

10.00 P. M.

"Christian America united in a great act of compassion . . . that is the basic significance of the unprecedented broadcast scheduled for this Saturday night (March 26) at 10 o'clock over all major networks. "One Great Hour" is definitely a Christian program. The script written by Robert E. Sherwood will be presented on the air by a notable company of leading figures of stage, screen and radio. The program closes with the appeal to the Christian people of America. . . .

"It is important that Christians of every name in America listen to "One Great Hour." It is even more important that all attend Church Sunday morning to make an offering for Church World Service and the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief, when in more than sixty thousand churches, Roman, Protestant, Orthodox and Anglican, throughout America your friends and relatives will all be joining you in giving the Christian answer to the cry of those in desperate need in Europe and in Asia. Through your gift placed in the blue offering envelope (that is enclosed herewith) you will bring refreshment and new courage to sorely tried men, women and children who for so long have lived without hope. You will have a part in a great act of united Christian action. Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren ye have done it unto me." ("Forth")

Easter Even has been traditionally the date for Baptisms in the Church, and as usual we plan to have the service of Baptism on that traditional date, April 16, 1949 at four o'clock in the afternoon. And I urge the parents of any children not now baptized to consider seriously bringing them to that service. Those planning to do so are asked to get in touch with the Parish Office as soon as possible. I would like to meet with the parents and as many of the God-parents as possible of those to be baptized on the Wednesday night preceding the service, April 13 at 8:15 in the Parish House, in order to go over the service and its implications.

Faithfully yours,

Last Sunday, as part of their special Lenten endeavors, the Junior Fellowship attended the service of Evensong at the Cathedral in Roxborough, at which Mr. Henry Lear was the Lay Reader.

TO THE WOMEN OF ST. MARTIN'S

Will you come to Church on Thursday, March 31st, at ten, and then come to the Parish House for an hour or two to help with sewing?

Keep our Rummage Sale in mind when you are getting ready for Spring cleaning. We have plenty of room to store your donations. The sale will be the last week in April — date and place to be announced later.

FOR TOMORROW'S CHRISTIAN READERS

"It is like losing every single thing you own in a fire. When you start in all over again, you find the simplest things are almost indispensable."

So wrote a theological student in Europe, thanking the church in America that had sent Bibles and books and paper and pencils to his school.

When a worker from the American church visited this school soon after the war, he found one building of the formerly great school still standing among bomb-wracked ruins. He found one drafty, unheated room filled with thirty young men who were listening to their teacher, a clergyman who had been blinded by flying mortar during the raid.

Yes, they lacked the simplest things. They had two pencils among them, a small stack of carefully hoarded paper, one Bible and one prayer book which had been only singed in the fire that followed the bomb.

Yes, they were working so intently in that cold room because the need for Christian leaders in Europe is too great for delay. The clergy were not spared the ravages of war. Many priests and ministers were killed on the battlefronts or, like the teacher, wounded severely. Many were taken prisoners of war. And many went into exile with other Displaced Persons.

By sending supplies, by helping to rebuild schools, by sending teachers and by helping to repair and operate the idle religious printing presses, the Churches in America are helping to strengthen and expand the vital work of the Christian ministry in Europe.

MAUNDY THURSDAY INTERCESSIONS

As in past years the Altar Guild is sponsoring all day intercessions in the Church from 10:30 to 5 p.m. on Maundy Thursday. Those who are willing to be present in the Church for a definite period are asked to sign down on the schedule in the back of the Church. And it is hoped that all women of the Church will make a real effort to spend some time of the day in the Church for prayer and meditation.

EASTER EVEN BAPTISMS

Parents wishing to have their children Baptized on the Saturday before Easter (at 4 o'clock) are asked to notify the Parish Office, and are requested to come to a conference with the Rector on Wednesday evening, April 13, at 8 o'clock in the Parish House.

VOLUNTEER CHOIR

We hope to have the volunteer choir for the Maundy Thursday evening Communion Service. Any one in the parish who would like to sing at that service is asked to be in the Parish House by 7:30 for a short rehearsal before the Service.

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

The special services for Holy Week, recorded in the "Calendar" are the same that we have had for the past few years. They can be worthwhile or not, according to the use we put them to. They can be a step forward or a step back in our spiritual growth. If by them we learn to see more vividly that the prayer "Grant that we, walking in the way of the Cross, may find it none other than the way of life and peace" is not merely a pious phrase but an expression of an underlying law of human nature, so that God may "grant us grace to take joyfully the sufferings of this present time, in full assurance of the glory that shall be revealed," then we have gotten a firmer grip on what life is all about and will be better able to live, not only a happier, but a more useful life. If our eyes are fixed on Good Friday, and our hearts torn by the sufferings of the Master, if we allow ourselves to be worked up in a state of vicarious emotion of pity and sympathy, we do damage not only to ourselves, but to our Lord's cause. The danger that Western Christianity has opened itself to in too many instances is that its object of worship is the torn and battered body hanging in agony upon the gallows, an object of pity, a symbol of despair and defeat, and not the glorified and Risen Christ reigning from His throne, and so would seem to teach that suffering and defeat were in themselves goods to be desired, and not that they are instruments through which victory may be won. It has taught a religion of submission and resignation, and has not been a challenge to the forces of evil. It has made Good Friday its great day, and forgotten Easter. So then our prayer must be "Assist mercifully with thy help, O Lord God of our Salvation; that we may enter with joy upon the meditation of those mighty acts, whereby thou has given us life and immortality."

Faithfully your rector,

Clarence F. Sturges

A chart may be found on the table near the door where names may be signed at designated half-hour periods.

EASTER EVEN BAPTISMS

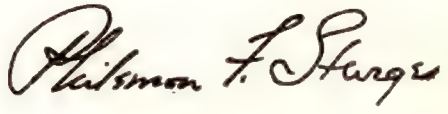
Parents wishing to have their children Baptized on the Saturday before Easter (at 4 o'clock) are asked to notify the Parish Office, and are requested to come to a conference with the Rector on Wednesday evening, April 13, at 8 o'clock in the Parish House.

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

The message, the gospel, the good news that the first disciples carried out into the surrounding world of Jews and pagans was not that a wonderful man who had spoken words such as never man had spoken, who had given men such an example of how to live as had never before been seen, who had healed and cured and succored the sick and the diseased and the needy, had been shamefully entreated and put to death. That could not have been called good news. They proclaimed that this same Jesus, had by His Resurrection proved that He was in truth the very Son of God and that His Resurrection had set the seal on the fact that "God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son to the end that all that believe in Him should not perish but have everlasting life." That because of His death and Rising again, men need no longer fear life, with its troubles and turmoils, its pains and distresses, so that too often it seemed but a "tale told by an idiot, full of sound and fury, signifying nothing." Nor need they fear death, and its entrance into a vast unknown. Life in Christ, had purpose, meaning, and made sense, and death was to be with Him, its terror torn away.

Unless we have, in some sense, experienced what those first disciples did, through our "meditation of those mighty acts" of Holy Week, we cannot appreciate the tremendousness of the meaning of Easter. Easter can be the thanksgiving and praise for the return of the seasons, a rejoicing that Spring has come again, that God has not forgotten His people. In that we are one with all peoples from the beginning of time. But that is not the Christian Easter. Christ rising from the dead, is the promise that out of defeat and disaster, out of despair, God brings in His Victory, and that we who are His, no matter how small and unimportant we may seem share in that Victory, and that our lives have a place and a part in it.

Faithfully your rector,



O Risen Lord! Who givest the Victory; Raise us, we pray Thee, from the death of sin unto the life of Righteousness, and fill us with spiritual benediction, that both now and in the world to come we may have life everlasting. Amen.

UNITED THANK OFFERING

Owing to the juxtaposition of Easter, Family Sunday and the anniversary of Saints Philip and James, the Spring Ingathering of the United Thank Offering will be held on Sunday, May 8th, in connection with a special service for Missions.

I realize that the Diocesan Ingathering will come before this, on May 2nd, at St. Clement's Church, and those who wish to have their offering presented then may send it to me before Thursday, April 28th. However, in order to have a service which will be truly meaningful to the women and Parish of St. Martin's, many of whom will not attend the Diocesan Service, we feel justified in holding our Ingathering at the earliest, most convenient date.

"All things come of Thee, O Lord, and of Thine own have we given Thee."

TO THE WOMEN OF ST. MARTIN'S

There will be no meeting on Thursday, April 28th—except informally, at the corner of Germantown and Willow Grove Avenues, where the GREAT RUMMAGE SALE will be held, in Scheetz's showroom. If you're looking for bargains, look for them there.

Please bring any Rummage you may have to the Parish House not later than Tuesday, the 26th.

Christ Our Passover, page 162

Psalm 103, page 466

First Lesson: Isaiah 43:1-12

Instead of Benedictus es, "Song of Praise" .....Thiman

The congregation will remain seated

Ring, silvery bells, When from the sun-kissed earth, Incense shall rise;
When hum of bees and myriad scents of flowers, Mount to the skies;
And fluting birds through summer's fragrant days
Shall tell in song Their great Creator's praise.

Ring, golden bells, When from the frozen seas, No sound shall come,
When on the hills where icy winds blow cold, Small birds are dumb,
Yet from the clouds the anthem rings again,
Of Bethlehem's king, Who comes on earth to reign.

Ring, bells of Heaven, When angel choirs set forth Swift on the wing.
When loud and clear the trumpets now salute All mankind's King;
And Easter joy shall greet the Name adored,
As hearts new-born Shall praise the risen Lord.

Second Lesson: Luke 24:13-35

Instead of Jubilate Deo, "Easter Carol" .....Traditional

The congregation will remain seated

The world itself is blithe and gay, Alleluia, Alleluia.
The skies with angel music ring While holy church on earth doth sing,
Our fields are decked in vernal hue,
The trees begin to bloom anew. Alleluia, Alleluia.

Hark, birds are singing far and near, Alleluia, Alleluia.
The world itself is blithe and gay And keeps with Jesus Easter day,
The skies with angel music ring
While holy church on earth doth sing. Alleluia, Alleluia.

Junior Choir Anthem

"Christ the Lord is Risen!" .....Watts

Christ the Lord is risen!
Now is the hour of darkness past;
Christ hath assumed his reigning power.
Behold the great accuser cast
Down from the skies, to rise no more:
Alleluya, Alleluya.

Christ the Lord is risen!
'Twas by thy blood, immortal Lamb,
Thine armies trod the tempter down;
'Twas by thy word and powerful name
They gained the battle and renown
Alleluya, Alleluya.

Christ the Lord is risen!
Rejoice, ye heavens! Let every star
Shine with new glories round the sky!
Saints, while ye sing the heavenly war,
Raise your Redeemer's name on high!
Alleluya, Alleluya.

Sermon Hymn 98: "That Easter Day," verses 1, 2, 4, 5.....Puer Nobis

Offertory Anthem: "An Easter Song" .....France

Christ the Lord is risen again, Hallelujah!
Christ hath broken every chain, Hallelujah!
Hark the angels shout for joy, Hallelujah!
Singing evermore on high, Hallelujah!

He who bore all pain and loss, Comfortless upon the cross,
Lives in glory now on high, Pleads for us and hears our cry
Now He bids us tell abroad, How the lost may be restored,
How the penitent forgiven, How we, too, may enter heaven.

Thou, our Paschal Lamb indeed, Hallelujah!
Christ, today Thy people feed; Hallelujah!
Take our sins and guilt away, Hallelujah!
That we all may sing for aye, Hallelujah, Hallelujah!

Mrs. Leicester C. Lewis has asked that we express her gratitude, until she can do so individually, to the many friends who sent messages from this Parish at the time of Dr. Lewis' death.

DIOCESAN CONVENTION

The 165th Annual Diocesan Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania will open May 2nd at 5 o'clock in Holy Trinity Church, Philadelphia. The delegates from this parish are the Rector and Messrs. S. F. Houston, J. W. Nicolls, and M. E. Balis.

A Mass Meeting will be held at 8 o'clock in the same place to which all members of the Diocese are urged to come, and it is hoped that there will be a goodly representation from this parish. There are no reserved seats. The singing will be led by the newly organized Diocesan Choir. Addresses will be made by Mrs. U. Grant Beath, President of the Diocesan Woman's Auxiliary, and the two Bishops.

The Convention will reassemble Tuesday morning, and will among other matters adopt the Diocesan Budget for 1950, elect the Delegates to General Convention which meets next fall in San Francisco, receive and possibly act upon the report of the Committee on the Strategic Needs of the Diocese, which will call for a considerable reorganization of the Diocesan set-up. At the second session of the Convention which will meet on Wednesday, May 11, the election for the new suffragan bishop will be held.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP

Starting this Sunday, May 1, the members of the Junior Fellowship will be welcomed into the Senior Group and will meet at 7:00 instead of 5:00 for the remainder of the year. We are fortunate in having as our speaker at the meeting the Rev. George Benedict who will lead a discussion on the Jewish Religion.

United Thank Offering Presentation Service Business Meeting, Elections, Speakers

LUNCH 12:30 P.M. ORGAN RECITAL 1:00 P.M. DINNER 6:00 P.M.

TO THE WOMEN OF ST. MARTIN'S

Our stated annual meeting will be on May 5. This is the last business meeting of the season and you will be interested to hear of your accomplishments during the 1948-49 period.

Before going into the Parish House, please come into the Church at ten o'clock so that we may all offer thanks to Almighty God for His continuing aid.

* * * * *

Can you supply the following needs which were reported at our luncheon meeting on April 21? Mrs. Harvey and Mrs. MacDonald, after visiting St. Martha's House, 2029 S. Eighth Street, asked for a game of darts and a billiard table. At the James C. Smith Home for Convalescent Women, Mrs. Knight and Mrs. Slemons found that a table for radio, records, and magazine subscriptions would be welcomed. If you can help, telephone Mrs. Randall, CH 7-2132, for further information.

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

May I take this opportunity to fulfill my duty required by the rubric at the end of the Office for the Visitation of the Sick in the Prayer Book: "The Minister is ordered, from time to time, to advise the People, whilst they are in health, to make Wills arranging for the disposal of goods, and, when of ability to leave bequests for religious and charitable uses."

The Vestry is anxious that the endowment funds of our parish should be added to from time to time. During the past year two bequests have been given by Mrs. Valentine Holman and Miss Christine Ross, and it is hoped that others will follow their example by making bequests to our fairly small endowment funds. The Diocese is also very anxious to receive similar gifts for the endowment of the Episcopate. Although we have one of the oldest of such funds, it is one of the smallest in the National Church.

Another matter which seems to crop up again and again, though of very minor importance—"How does one address a clergyman?" The element of confusion is caused by the fact that "Reverend," like "Honorable," is an adjective, and should not be used as a noun, as "Bishop" or "Senator," is used. Correct usage demands the article "the" before it, and either a title or first name or initial between it and the last name, e.g., "The Rev. Mr. or Dr. Smith, or the Rev. John Smith." In addressing the clergyman he is simply Mr. Smith, unless he has earned or been awarded a Doctor's degree, when he is Dr. Smith, or he is a Roman Catholic or High Episcopal Church, when Father Smith is proper. In the Anglican Church an Archbishop is Most Reverend, a bishop, Right Reverend, a Dean, Very Reverend, and archdeacon, Venerable and some wits would have the scheme continued to candidates for Holy Orders who would be "Nearly Reverend."

It isn't really very important, and if you must call him Rev. Smith or even Rev., he may squirm inwardly, but he will probably answer you.

THE GREAT RUMMAGE SALE

Everybody seems to want to thank everybody else for the work they did for the Rummage Sale, which was a huge success in every way. The net receipts as we go to press are $1,243.27.

Mrs. Wolcott Robinson, Chairman of the Sale, is more than grateful to the efficient Chairmen of her Committees. Each one functioned to perfection and made the whole thing go smoothly. To the following Chairmen go her special thanks: Mrs. Henry Lear and Mrs. Allan Hunter, Sorting and Pricing Committee; Mrs. William MacDonald and Mrs. Gerald Rorer, Supplies and Equipment; Mrs. R. Barclay Knight, Sales Personnel; Mrs. Jasper Bentley, Chairman of Collecting and Hauling; Mrs. John H. Dilks, Publicity Chairman, and Mrs. Jasper W. Nicolls, Cashiers' Committee, and to Mrs. Loring Dam, Chairman of our Ways and Means Committee, who set the pace for all of us.

We all want to thank Mrs. Robinson for organizing the most efficient and orderly Rummage Sale ever witnessed in these parts.

All the Chairmen want to thank their workers who gave so much time at all hours of the day and night to make the real success of the project.

Thanks, too, to the men of the Parish who pitched in to help with the dirty work and add to the fun, and to Mr. Egan who, as usual, helped with everything.

And more thanks to Mr. George W. Scheetz for letting us use his Show Room, truck and personnel. He was most generous and cooperative and it was an ideal place for the Sale.

And many thanks to all of you members of the Parish for your amazing contributions of clothing and everything imaginable .

WHITE ELEPHANTS WANTED

For those of you who are still house-cleaning and missed the Rummage Sale, here is an opportunity to dispose of your White Elephants. They are needed for our table at the May Fete at the Episcopal Hospital on Wednesday, May 25, and may be left at the Parish House or at the home of Mrs. James V. Hazlett, 240 W. Gravers Lane, any time before the 22nd.

Offertory Anthem: "Jerusalem" ..... Parry

And did those feet in ancient time
Walk upon these our mountains green?
And was the Holy Lamb of God
On these our pleasant pastures seen?
And did the countenance Divine
Shine forth upon our clouded hills?
And was Jerusalem builded here
Among those dark Satanic mills?

Bring me my bow of burning gold!
Bring me my arrows of desire!
Bring me my spear! O clouds unfold!
Bring me my chariot of fire!
I will not cease from mental flight,
Nor shall my sword sleep in my hand
Till we have built Jerusalem
In this our green and pleasant land.

On Friday, May 20th, the Junior Girls' Friendly will have their final Service in the Church and the Installation of new members. This will be followed by a supper in the Parish House for the mothers at 6:15. In the evening there will be a Talent Show with all kinds of interesting skits put on by the girls.

As we prepare to close the Church School for another summer, it seems strange to be thinking of Christmas, but in order that we shall not forget "the needs of others" while preparing for our own vacations, we are planning to send a Christmas package of fifty gifts to the boys and girls in St. Timothy's Mission, Tanacross, Alaska. We are told by Bishop Bentley that these may be the only Christmas presents these particular children will get, so we are getting new toys and writing Christmas cards to go with each one. A certain number of gifts have been assigned to each class, are to be in by May 29th, and will be on display for our Closing Exercises, June 5th at 4:00 p.m. at which time we hope to hear some first-hand information on the Mission.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP

At its Annual Meeting, following the Nation-wide Corporate Communion and Breakfast on Sunday, the following officers were elected for the Y.P.F. for 1949-50.

President, Lin Knight

1st Vice-President, Sally Soast

2nd Vice President, Andre Blanzaco

Secretary, Avery Graham

Treasurer, Blair Crownover

This Sunday, the young people will hold a talent night, in which all members are asked to participate and on Sunday, May 29th, we shall be hosts to the Good Shepherd Y.P.F. at a Baseball Game and Picnic. Our final meeting will be a Corporate Communion and Breakfast on Whitsunday, June 5th.

400th ANNIVERSARY SERVICE

On Sunday evening, June 5, at 8:00 p.m., at Holy Trinity Church, Rittenhouse Square, will be held the Diocesan Service commemorating the 400th Anniversary of the Book of Common Prayer. The music will be supplied by the Diocesan Choir. The speaker will be Canon Edward Nason West of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, New York City. The clergy of the Diocese will be in procession. This should be a memorable service and it is hoped that many from this parish will be present.

TO THE WOMEN OF ST. MARTIN'S

Please come to help with sewing on Thursday mornings in the Parish House. The work must be completed soon.

Please keep in mind the dates for these coming events:

Tuesday, June 7—Garden Day under the auspices of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Convocation of Germantown at the Leamy, Roumfort Road. Mrs. Frank Miles Day and Mrs. Kershaw Rothe will be in charge of St. Martin's booth, selling books and flowers.

Thursday, June 16—Our Parish picnic to Solebury Mission. You will hear more about this later on. You'll be sorry if you do not reserve the day.

CHURCH SCHOOL

Attendance May 8: 135 (63%) May 15: 139 (66%)
100% Class: Grade 6 and 7 Choir

Mrs. Kershaw Rothe, who is in charge of the flowers at our booth, would be very glad to have donations of cut flowers and plants. If you can let us have any annuals or perennials or cut flowers please bring them to the Parish House on the morning of the seventh before noon.

The Garden Day will be held at the Leamy on Roumfort Road, from 3 to 6:30 p.m. In case of rain, at St. Paul's Church, 20 E. Chestnut Avenue. Tickets are available in the Parish Office at twenty-five cents apiece. A light supper will be served and there will be a sale of Garden Produce, plants, aprons, novelties, books, flowers, cake and candy.

PHOTOGRAPHER WANTED

We are anxious to have color photographs of all our stained glass windows for a record for insurance purposes. Are there any parishioners who would be interested in doing this job?

THE MEANING OF THE ASCENSION

"Man is not deserted by God, or he would go down in a convulsion of evil that would reduce the world to chaos and leave only a few gibbering idiots to wander over the ruins. This 'discreditable incident on a minor planet' which we call history would be over. No! On this wayside world has been enacted a play which angels must watch with amazement. The God of this unknown, terrifying universe trod this earth as a man; and though his body was murdered, still as the God-Man he ministers to human nature, never leaving nor forsaking it, never forswearing his kinship with it, wrestling and struggling within it until it is redeemed and becomes what God meant it to be. By Christ's union with man his holy nature seeps through our foulness, cleanses and restores it. This is what John meant by this word: 'The blood of Jesus (the very nature of Christ) cleanseth us from all sin.' Thus and thus only are men saved, and to be saved means to be delivered from that final separation from God which the New Testament calls death, and which may involve such deterioration that man ceases to be a personality at all. In eternity, where time is not, the redemption is achieved already. We, poor victims of the time prison, say 'It continues,' and that 'It will go on.' Words fail us here. But he has spoken it in a deed. He has saved the world, is saving it, will save it, whichever word you choose. But there is no denying the deed. A Cross was raised up on a hill outside an ancient city. On that Cross was one who was both God and Man. What God was once He is now and forever. His reaction to sin once in His reaction to sin always. . . . That Cross was an event in history. But it is the translation into terms of history of an eternal fact. It was a deed done in time. But it was a deed of eternal significance, a promise and a pledge of endless loving, backed by the very nature of God. In that deed the mind finds rest. At the foot of the Cross, the troubled stricken heart finds peace."

VESTRY

At the Vestry meeting on May 18, the Property Committee, Mr. Charles Woodward, Chairman, reported that the Houston Memorial Window has been completed, and was inspected in the studio of Mr. W. H. Burnham, in Boston, last week by himself and the Rector, and that it will be installed in time that it and the two side chancel windows may be dedicated on Trinity Sunday, June 12. In order to do this there will have to be scaffolding in the chancel for the two preceding Sundays.

They also reported that all the leaded glass in both Parish House and Church had been inspected, that all glass needing replacing or strengthening had been attended to and the work would be completed by May 22. That the carpentry work necessary about the buildings was being done, that the roofers were already at work in replacing drain pipes and slates, and that the outside trim on both buildings would be painted as soon as this other work was completed.

The Vestry voted, after inspecting the wall of the North Transept to proceed with the experiment of painting out the black lines in the walls of the transepts and the clerestory during the summer.

CHURCH SCHOOL

Attendance May 15: 139 (66%) May 22: 134 (63%)

On Sunday, June 5, the Church School will hold its closing exercises at 4 p.m. in the Church. There will be no morning classes as it is hoped that the entire Church School family will be together for the afternoon service. Music will be furnished by the Junior Choir and Awards for attendance and achievement will be presented.

CONVOCATION GARDEN DAY

Tuesday, June 7, is the date of the Convocation Garden Day. Don't forget to bring your donations of books for our table to the Parish House. We would like to have books that are not more than five years old, as they bring a better price and sell better.

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

This Sunday will be the last time that the Choir sings for us until fall. We are glad to report that 12 of the boys will be going to Camp Carson, the camp of the YMCA of Germantown, for two weeks and we hope that they will return to us in the fall with even more music than they have rendered this year. Last week was the closing service of the Church School, and the awards given are listed elsewhere. The Women of St. Martin have closed their workroom, the vestry has held its last meeting before the fall, the congregations have fallen off considerably. In other words summer is here.

The foregoing does not mean that God goes on a vacation, even if we do, nor that our religion should be any less meaningful even though the pace of our living has slackened. Summer affords a grand opportunity to experiment with family religion — trying out methods of family prayer, family Church attendance, home Bible reading, etc., etc., and gives father a chance to share more readily in the religious nurture of his children. Religious training can be accomplished only in the home. Church School is auxiliary, not a substitute. This is because Christianity is a practical doctrine expressed in a way of life in relationships with others, and the home is the natural place for its development. Were it simply information, it could be done in Church School. Since it is not by any means simply "book-larnin' " the Church School must fail without the home.

Each child in the Church School above the kindergarten will be given a card containing Bible readings, prayers, and a Church attendance record. These could very well be made the basis of a family service of a Sunday if Church is out of reach. In any case I hope that they will be used in each of our homes this summer, and that ways and habits may be developed while the pressure is off that can be continued in our families throughout the year.

And may you all from the youngest to the oldest, find refreshment and health and joy and peace together this summer, all one family "in the Lord."

Faithfully your friend and Rector,

Philemon F. Sturges

SUMMER PLANS

It will be a real pleasure to welcome once again our summer rector, the Very Rev. Eldon B. Mowers, dean of the Episcopal Cathedral in Havana. Dean Mowers will be in charge of all services during August.

Miss Adams leaves this Sunday (June 12) for the Provincial Conference at Sweetbriar, and will take with her Miss Charlotte Brown, Miss Peggy Oneil, and Mrs. Betty Metcalfe of the Philadelphia Divinity School who has been on the Church School faculty this past half year. The first week of July she will be on the faculty of the Diocesan Summer Conference at Haverford College, at which the parish will be represented by Avery Graham, Sally Soast, Mary Whitaker, Charlotte Stevenson and Mary Winlock. During Miss Adams' vacation in August she will attend the summer school at Union Seminary in New York, staying again at the Episcopal Church Center for women students, Windham House.

Mrs. Randall will be on vacation during July, Mr. Egan during the last two weeks of July and Mr. Wilkinson during July. The Rector will be away during August and the first Sunday in September and may be reached in case of necessity at Princeton, Massachusetts.

The Accounting Warden asks the congregation to remember that the expenses of the Parish and of the Church throughout the world continue during the summer and he would greatly appreciate it if users of envelopes would fill them in advance before leaving for the summer.

Collect, Epistle and Gospel, page 180

Sermon Hymn 372: "O Holy Spirit, God" ..... Venice

Offertory Anthem: "As Waves of a Storm Swept Ocean" ..... Haydn

As waves of a storm-swept ocean are tossed in restless motion.
So doth the soul, unguided, wander forever lost.
Like vessels by tempest driven, Like trees by lightning riven,
The spirit, its God denying, sinks down defeated, dying.
By forces of terror taken, when fear-some thoughts awaken,
Souls of the lost, forsaken, call unto God for aid.
From God who never faileth, from peace that e'er availeth,
O soul, stay not apart,
If thou from earth wilt sever, Then joy and rest forever
Will dwell within thy heart.

Hymn after Prayer for Christ's Church 377: "Holy Spirit" .. Lew Trenchard

400TH ANNIVERSARY SERVICE

On Sunday evening, June 5, at 8:00 p.m., at Holy Trinity Church, Rittenhouse Square, will be held the Diocesan Service commemorating the 400th Anniversary of the Book of Common Prayer. The music will be supplied by the Diocesan Choir. The speaker will be Canon Edward Nason West of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, New York City. The clergy of the Diocese will be in procession. This should be a memorable service and it is hoped that many from this parish will be present.

CONVOCATION GARDEN DAY

Don't forget the Convocation Garden Day, on Tuesday, June 7, at the Leamy Home on Roumfort Road in Mt. Airy. Mrs. Frank Miles Day is in charge of the sale of books at our booth and would be glad to have your donations of good books not more than five years old. Either bring them to the Parish House or to Mrs. Day's home on West Mt. Airy Avenue sometime before the seventh.

Donations for our flower table should be brought to the Parish House before noon on the seventh. We need cut flowers and plants of all kinds.

NINETEENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY
October 23, 1949

HOLY COMMUNION AND SERMON

Processional Hymn 523 "God the Omnipotent"
Kyrie, Chant 702
Collect, Epistle and Gospel, page 215
Hymn 536 "Turn Back, O Man"
Address, Mr. Robert T. McCracken, for the Community Chest
Sermon Hymn 147, vv.1,4,5. Tune Melita, #512
Offertory Anthem Noble

Fierce was the wild billow, dark was the night,
Oars labored heavily, foam glimmered white,
Trembled the mariners, peril was nigh;
Then saith the God of God, "Peace! It is I!"
Ridge of the mountain wave lower thy crest,
Wail of Euroclydon, be thou at rest;
Sorrow can never be, darkness must fly,
When saith the Light of Light, "Peace! It is I!"
Jesus deliverer, come Thou to me,
Soothe Thou my voyaging, over life's sea;
Thou, when the storm of death roars sweeping by,
Whisper, O Truth of Truth, "Peace, it is I!"

Hymn after Prayer for Christ's Church 528
Sursum Corda and Sanctus, Chants 734, 704.
Communion Hymn 208 vv.1 & 2 "Here O My Lord"
Gloria in Excelsis, Chant 739
Choral Amen

General Convention has passed a budget for the National Church for 1950 larger by two million dollars than last year to take care of an expanding work in every department, the preparation of the new curriculum for our Church Schools, and the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief.

Our Vestry is very anxious to avoid the necessity for a special campaign for this increase in the Spring and hopes that we can so increase our giving for "Work Outside the Parish" in the Every Member Canvass next month, that it will be unnecessary.

We can easily meet the 33% increase in our Proportionate Share if those not now pledging for "Work Outside the Parish" would do so, and if those who last year gave directly to the Presiding Bishop's Fund would add that amount to their pledge.

* * * * * * *

We are delighted to have with us this morning Mr. Robert T. McCracken as a speaker for the Community Chest, and the Red Feather Campaign, an object that must be near to every Christian who can hear his Lord saying, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto Me."

A PRAYER

Almighty God, who art the only source of health and healing, the spirit of calm and the central peace of the universe; grant to us, Thy children, such a consciousness of Thine indwelling presence as may give us utter confidence in Thee. In all pain and weariness and anxiety may we throw ourselves on Thy besetting care, that knowing ourselves fenced about by Thy loving omnipotence, we may permit Thee to give us health and strength and peace;through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

This afternoon a fellow member of the Parish will call upon you. Unless you have questions to ask about your pledge it is hoped that you will have it ready for him in its return envelope. Every communicant should make a pledge. As has been said, giving to the Church is never a question of whether we can but of whether we will. If our faith is deep enough, our vision high enough, and our will strong enough, we can subscribe our Budget for 1950 generously and cheerfully,in the realization that thus we are fulfilling our share of the forward march of the Episcopal Church in the year that lies ahead.

EPISCOPAL HOSPITAL

As in former years the Thanksgiving Day offering goes to the Episcopal Hospital. Envelopes for this offering may be found on the table at the back of the Church.

"At this time the Church asks you to remember its concern for those who are sick and distressed that their needs might be met. Although changes have taken place in regard to Episcopal Hospital we look for your continuing interest and support."

* * * * * * * * *

O Lord of heaven, and earth, and sea,
To Thee all praise and glory be;
How shall we show our love to Thee,
Who givest all?

To Thee, from Whom we all derive
Our life, our gifts, our power to give;
Oh, may we ever with Thee live,
Who givest all!

THIS CHURCH is free to all and is supported by the voluntary offerings of its worshippers. Every member is urged to make a definite pledge for its support and to contribute by means of the weekly envelope system. Information regarding pledges may be had from the Parish Secretary.

THE CHURCH is the proper place for Baptisms, Weddings, and Funerals. Consult your Prayer Book. There are no costs. There are no fees.

IF YOU KNOW of anyone who is ill, or on whom the Rector should call, or who should be on our mailing list, would you fill out a "pew card" and either place on the Alms Bason or hand to an usher.

ADVENT 1949

ALMIGHTY GOD, give us grace that we may cast away the works of darkness, and put upon us the armour of light, now in the time of this mortal life, in which thy Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility; that in the last day, when He shall come again in His glorious majesty to judge both the quick and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal, through Him who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, now and ever. Amen.

Holy wisdom, Love most bright,
Drawn by Thee our souls aspiring,
Soar to uncreated light
Word of God our flesh that fashioned
With the fire of life impassioned,
Striving still to truth unknown,
Soaring dying round Thy throne.

Through the way where hope is guiding
Holy Wisdom Love most bright,
Where the flock in Thee confiding
Drink of joy from deathless springs.
Theirs is beauty's fairest pleasure
Theirs is wisdom's holiest treasure.
Thou dost ever lead Thine own,
In the love of joys unknown.

THE NATIVITY OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST

"By way of Bethlehem lead us, O Lord, to
newness of life;
By innocence of the Christ-Child renew our simple trust;
By the tenderness of Mary deliver us from cruelty and hardness of heart;
By the patience of Joseph save us from all rash judgment and ill-tempered action;
By the shepherds' watch open our eyes to the signs of Thy coming;
By the wise men's journey keep our searching
spirits from fainting;
By the music of the heavenly choir put to shame the clamor of the earth;
By the shining of a star guide our feet
into the way of peace. Amen".

Processional Hymn 12 "O Come All Ye Faithful"

Christmas Lullaby (Norwegian) Dickinson

Carols 27,42,36 (2 verses of each)

Kyrie, Chant 702

Collect, Epistle and Gospel, page 96.

Sermon Hymn 20, verses 1,2,3,5.

Offertory Anthem, Traditional Carol, Candllyn

Masters in this Hall, hear ye news today,
Brought from over sea, and ever I you pray,
Nowell! Nowell! Nowell! Nowell sing we clear!
Holpen are all folk on earth, born is God's son so dear.
Nowell! Nowell! Nowell! Nowell sing we loud!
God today hath poor folk raised and cast a-down the proud.
Going o'er the hills, through the milk-white snow
Heard I ewe's bleat, while the wind did blow.
Shepherds many an one sat among the sheep,
No man spake more word than they had been asleep.
Quoth I "Fellows mine, Why this guise sit ye?
Making but dull cheer, Shepherds though you be?"
Quoth those fellows then "To Bethlehem town we go
To see a mighty Lord lie in a manger low."
And a little child on her arm had she,
"Wot ye who is this?" said the hinds to me.
"This is Christ the Lord, Masters be ye glad!
Christmas is come in, and no folk should be sad."

Sursum Corda and Sanctus, Chants 734,704.

Communion Hymn 197, verses 1 and 2.

Hymn in place of Gloria 33 "Silent Night"

Recessional Hymn 21 "O Little Town of Bethlehem"

The invitation to the Holy Communion is to "All those who truly repent them of their sins, who are in love and charity with their neighbors, and intend to lead a new life." We hope that all members of other Christian denominations who are worshipping with us tonight will join with us at Our Lord's Table in celebrating His Birth.

In coming to the Altar Rail please try to allow family groups to kneel together.

At the close of the service the Rector will be in the Narthex, not at the Side Door.

A FESTIVAL SERVICE OF LESSONS AND CAROLS

CHRISTMAS DAY—1949

The Processional Hymn 12. "O Come All Ye Faithful"

Then shall be said this Bidding Prayer by the Minister, the Congregation all standing

Beloved in Christ:

Be it our care and delight to prepare ourselves to hear again the message of the Angels and in heart and mind to go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which has come to pass and the Babe lying in a manger.

Therefore, let us read and mark in Holy Scripture the tale of the loving purposes of God from the first days of our sin unto the glorious Redemption brought to us by this Holy Child; and let us make this Church glad with our carols of praise.

But first, because this of all things would rejoice His heart, let us pray to Him for the needs of the whole world and all His People; for peace upon the earth He came to save; for love and unity within the one Church He did build; and for brotherhood and good will amongst all men.

And particularly at this time let us remember before Him the poor, the cold, the hungry, and the oppressed; the sick and them that mourn; the aged and little children; and all those that know not the Lord Jesus or who love Him not; or who by sin have grieved His Heart of love.

Lastly let us remember before Him, them who rejoice with us but upon another shore and in a greater light, the multitude whom no man can number, whose hope was in the World made flesh, and with whom, in this same Jesus, we forevermore are one.

These prayers and praises let us humbly offer up to the throne of Heaven in the words which Christ Himself hath taught us:
Our Father . . . .

Then shall the Minister say:

God, the Son of God, vouchsafe to bless us and aid us; and unto the fellowship of the citizens above may the King of Angels bring us all, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Hymn 20: "Of the Father's Love Begotten" verses 1, 2, 3, 5

After this the Congregation shall sit for all the Choir carols and they shall stand and join heartily in all the Congregational Carols.

First lesson, Genesis 3:8-15, 22:15-18 ..... Read by a Chorister

The story of man's first disobedience in the Garden of Eden and of God's promise to faithful Abraham that in his seed shall all nations be blessed.

Carol: "Christ-Child's Visit" ..... Traditional

Still, still, still! Our eyes open bright!
And who is here? The Christ-child dear!
For this is holy Christmas night,
For this is holy Christmas night.
Hark, hark, hark! There's knocking at the door.
It rings out clear. Come quickly here!
Come in! For we can wait no more.
Come in! For we can wait no more.
Yea, yea, yea! We love Thee, little Child.
What bringest Thou here for Christmas cheer?
Thyself, O blessed Jesus mild!
Thyself, O blessed Jesus mild!
Thanks, thanks, thanks! Dear Christ-child, we adore,
We promise Thee, our hearts shall be Thy dwelling evermore
Thy dwelling evermore, Thy dwelling place forever more.
Thy dwelling place forever more.

Congregational Carol 31: "Good Christian Men"

Second Lesson, Isaiah 9:2, 6, 7. Micah 5:2, 3, 4 ..... Read by a Church School Scholar

The Prophets foretell Christ's Birth and Kingdom and the glory of Bethlehem.

Carol, "The Inn at Bethlehem" .....Folk Song from the Tyrol

"Who knocks so loud?" "Two folk in sorry plight."

"What will ye then?" "A shelter for the night, Anxious are we, footsore and weary, Long has been the way and dreary."

"Ye come too late!" "O let us find here rest."

"Nay, do not wait." "We'll give thee thanks the best!"

"In this inn ye cannot stay; Now go your way, no more delay! Too great the crowd!" "Your care we will requite,"

"Ye come too late!" "O friend, just this one night! For this night shall come from heaven, Christ the Lord, to mortals given."

"Who then is He!" "To save the world from sin;"

"It cannot be!" "In pity let us in."

"Go your way, your pleading cease, and let me close my door in peace!"

"No room at all!" "O friend where shall we stay?"

"In yonder stall!" "Dear Joseph, lead the way; Little Child of heaven so holy, Thou shalt lie in manger lowly."

"The stable's warm," "That humble folk and poor, may know Thee and adore."

"Ye'll meet no harm, straw there is to make a bed, A place at least to lay your head."

"O listen now! He knocketh at thy heart, O let Him not depart!

He will banish sin and sadness, Fill thy life with joy and gladness

O turn Him not away, But bid Him ever stay.

Jesus, we unbar the door, Abide with us forevermore."

Congregational Carol 21: "O little Town of Bethlehem"

Third Lesson St. Luke 1:26-33, 38, St. Matthew 1-18-23 .....Read by a Member of Youth Fellowship

The Angel Gabriel visits the Virgin Mary and St. Matthew tells of Christ's Holy Birth.

Carol: "Rise Up Early" .....Slovak

Come, rise up early in the morning to tell the glad news,
And carry it onward, No moment to lose.
Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Come rise up early in the morning,
Sing Hallelujah!

Come rise up early in the morning, this day to adorn,
This day of fulfillment, Our Savior is born!
Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Come rise up early in the morning,
Sing Hallelujah!

Come, rise up early in the morning, The time is at hand,
For joy to reign ever o'er sea and o'er land!
Hallelujah, Hallelujah!

Congregational Carol 40: "God Rest You Merry, Gentlemen"

Fourth Lesson, St. Luke 2:8-16 .....Read by an Usher
The Shepherds go unto the Manger.

Carol: "The Friendly Beasts" .....12th Century

Jesus our brother, strong and good,
Was humbly born in a stable rude,
And the friendly beasts around Him stood,
Jesus our brother, strong and good.

I, said the donkey shaggy and brown, I carried His Mother up hill and down,
I carried her safely to Bethlehem town; I, said the donkey shaggy and brown.
I, said the cow all white and red, I gave Him my manger for his bed,
I gave Him my hay to pillow His head; I, said the cow all white and red.
I, said the sheep with curly horn, I gave Him my wool for His blanket warm,
He wore my coat on Christmas morn; I, said the sheep with curly horn.

And every beast by some good spell,
In the stable dark was glad to tell
Of the gift he gave Immanuel
The gift he gave Immanuel.

Congregational Carol 19: "It Came upon a Midnight Clear"

Fifth Lesson St. Matthew 2:1-11 ..... Read by a Vestryman

The Wise Men are lead to the young Child by a Star

Carol: "I Saw Three Ships" ..... English

I saw three ships come sailing in on Christmas Day, on Christmas Day

I saw three ships come sailing in on Christmas Day in the morning.

And what was in those ships all three, on Christmas Day, on Christmas Day.

And what was in those ships all three, on Christmas Day in the morning.

Our Savior and His Lady, on Christmas Day, on Christmas Day,

Our Savior and His Lady, on Christmas Day in the morning.

O, they sailed in to Bethlehem on Christmas Day, on Christmas Day.

O, they sailed in to Bethlehem on Christmas Day in the morning

And all the bells on earth shall ring on Christmas Day, on Christmas Day,

And all the bells on earth shall ring on Christmas Day in the morning.

Rejoice, rejoice, rejoice, on Christmas Day, on Christmas Day,

Rejoice, rejoice, rejoice, on Christmas Day in the morning

Then let us all rejoice amain on Christmas Day, on Christmas Day,

Then let us all rejoice amain on Christmas Day in the morning.

Congregational Carol 30: "The First Nowell" (verses 1, 2, 3, 5)
(The Offering will be received during this Carol)

Sixth Lesson: St. John 1:1-14 ..... Read by the Rector

St. John interprets the great mystery of the Incarnation.

(The Congregation will stand for this Lesson)

The Nicene Creed

The Christmas Collect

Hymn 33: "Silent Night"
(Sung kneeling)

The Benediction

May the Almighty God who by the incarnation of His only begotten Son has chased away the darkness of the world, and irradiated the sacred night with His glorious Nativity, chase far from you the darkness of sin and fill your hearts with the light of virtue.

And may He, the great Shepherd, who willed that the joy of His blessed Nativity should be made known to shepherds by an Angel, pour upon you the refreshing dew of His benediction, and Himself lead you into pastures of eternal joy. And may He who by His Incarnation united things earthly and heavenly, fill you with the sweetness of inward peace and good will and make you comrades of the Heavenly Host.

And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost be with you all evermore. Amen.

Processional Hymn 289 "O God Our Help"
Response to Decalogue, page 68, Chant 701
Collect, Epistle and Gospel, page 105.
Sermon Hymn 323 "Jesus,Name of Wondrous Love"
Offertory Anthem Whitehead

In Thee is gladness,amid all sadness,
Jesus,sunshine of my heart!
By Thee are given the joys of heaven,
Thou the true Redeemer art!
Our souls Thou wakest, our bonds Thou breakest,
Who trusts Thee surely hath built securely,
He stands forever: Hallelujah!
Our hearts are pining to see Thy shining,
Dying or living to Thee are cleaving,
Naught can us sever: Hallelujah.
He intercedeth,and ever pleadeth,
Jesus, the truth and the way.
Fair as a flower, waiteth the hour,
Them that seek Thee will find Thee today,
Though earth us faileth, Thy love availeth,
Who calleth clearly, findeth Thee early,
Never forsaken. Hallelujah !
All sin forgiven, earnest of Heaven.
Peace like a river, floweth forever;
New songs awaken! Hallelujah'
In Thee is gladness, Hallelujah!

Sermon Hymn 46 "Brightest and Best"

Offertory Anthem, Welsh Carol, arr. Geo. Mead

Dark the night lay, wild and dreary,
Moaned the wind by Melchior's tower,
Sad the sage, while pondering weary,
O'er the doom of Judah's power.
When behold! the clouds are parted,
Westward, lo, a light gleams far!
Now his heart's quest has started,
For his eyes have seen the star.

Now Lord Jesus, hear our calling,
Deep the darkness where we stray,
How shall we, mid boulders falling,
Know for Thine the rough-hewn way?
Lo! a light shines down to guide us,
Where Thy saints and angels are!
Now we know Thy love beside us,
For our eyes have seen the star!

Choral Amen

O Lord, give us we beseech Thee, in the Name of Jesus Christ Thy Son our Lord, that love which can never cease, that will kindle our lamps but not extinguish them, that they may burn in us and enlighten others. Do Thou, O Christ, kindle our lamps, that they may evermore shine in Thy Temple,that they may receive unquenchable light from Thee that will enlighten our darkness, and lessen the darkness of the world. And so bring others to Thee the one True Light.

Offertory Anthem

O rejoice, ye Christians, loudly
For your joy is now begun;
Wondrous things our God hath done;
Tell abroad His goodness proudly,
Who our race hath honored thus,
That He deigns to dwell with us.
Joy, O joy beyond all gladness!
Christ hath done away with sadness!
Hence, all sorrow and repining,
For the Sun of grace is shining.
See, my soul, thy Saviour chooses
Weakness here and poverty,
In such love he comes to thee.
Nor the hardest couch refuses;
All He suffers for thy good,
To redeem thee by His blood.
Joy, then,joy,etc.

Sermon Hymn 563 "He Who Would Valiant Be"

Offertory Anthem Parry

And did those feet in ancient time
Walk upon these our mountains green?
And was the Holy Lamb of God
On these our pleasant pastures seen?
And did the countenance Divine
Shine forth upon our clouded hills?
And was Jerusalem builded here
Among these dark Satanic mills?

Bring me my bow of burning gold!
Bring me my arrows of desire!
Bring me my spear! O clouds unfold!
Bring me my chariot of fire!
I will not cease from mental flight,
Nor shall my sword sleep in my hand
Till we have built Jerusalem
In this our green and pleasant land.

Recessional Hymn 220 "God of the Prophets"

A PRAYER

We have brought to Thy House,O God, our pride, our selfishness, our indifference, our ingratitude.Yet we are Thy children.Thou hast redeemed us.Thou hast called us by Thy name.We are Thine. Set our hearts with the divine glow of Thy presence,and send us home forgetful of everything save Thy goodness and the infinite debt we owe to our fellow men,Through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

"In the still air the music lies unheard,
In the rough marble beauty lies unseen;
To wake the music and the beauty needs
The master's touch, the sculptor's chisel keen.

Great Master, touch us with Thy skillful hand,
Let not the music that is in us die!
Great Sculptor, hew and polish us, nor let
Hidden and lost, Thy form within us die!

Spare not the stroke,do with us as Thou wilt;
Let there be naught unfinished,broken,marred;
Complete Thy purpose,that we may become
Thy perfect image, O our God and Lord."

DEDICATION OF THE LENTEN MITE BOXES

M. The harvest truly is great but the laborers are few.

P. Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them into the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

M. Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you; and lo! I am with you even unto the end of the World.

P. For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.

M. Also I heard the voice of the Lord saying, Whom shall I send and who will go for us?

P. Then said I, Here am I! send me.

M. The Lord be with you.

P. And with thy Spirit.

M. Let us pray.

A Prayer for Missions
A Prayer for Children
The Prayer of Dedication of the Boxes

All. O God, our heavenly Father, we thank thee for the gift of thy dear Son. Grant that we who have received him in our hearts may joyfully go forth with him on many errands. Bless those that toil for thee in far off places; comfort them in their loneliness, and unite our work to theirs. Accept our gifts; receive our prayers; and use us for the sake of thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Benediction.

Hymn 185, "O Jesus Christ, our Lord Most Dear"

Sermon Hymn 536, "Turn Back, O Man"

Offertory Anthem Martin

Ho! everyone that thirsteth come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat.

Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

Incline your ear and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live.

Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the Lord, and He will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon.

Then ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace, the mountains and hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands, Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree.

Choral Amen

On Wednesday night a reception at Grace Parish House, Mt. Airy, is being given to the Rev. Charles E. Eder,D.D., on the occasion of the 25th anniversary of his becoming Rector of Grace Church. As Dr. Eder started his ministry as Curate of St. Martin's in 1914, there will be many in our Parish who will want to send him their congratulations.

Next Sunday,March 12, at the 11 o'clock Service, we will hear Presiding Bishop Sherrill's radio broadcast. Special offering envelopes will be available for those who have not yet made an offering for the $2,000,000 increase in our National Church Budget, or who wish to increase the offering they have already made.

Next Sunday, the Presbyterian Church of Chestnut Hill will hold its first service in its new Church. On Friday, March 17, there will be a community service in which all the clergy of the community will take part, and to which our congregation is cordially invited.

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us therefore let us keep the Feast.

We come this morning to greet the Risen Christ. Easter falling almost on the great Jewish festival of the Passover, draws much of its symbolism from the Passover ceremonies, and the first Christians saw in Christ's Resurrection God's deliverance of his people from the kingdom of death and darkness, even as by Moses, he had delivered their forefather's from bondage in Pharoah's kingdom.

In the joy of Easter, Christianity differs from all other religions. Other religions have their great founders and masters, who taught their followers, but when their time had come, left to their disciples the task of carrying on their work alone. But the joy of Easter is that Christ did not leave us comfortless. He has come to us. And as Moses led the children of Israel in their wandering through the wilderness, so Christ still leads his people through the wilderness of this world until they come to the Kingdom prepared for them, and leads us to eternal victory.

The central point of the Easter message is not only, that because Christ rose from the dead, we have a proof of the actuality of immortality. All other faiths have had belief in some sort of immortality, of existence beyond death, but that all life is one piece, as is life before and after birth, and that through Christ's aid and conquest we may face the future without fear or trembling. "We know that all things work together for good to them that love God."

May this Easter bring you through God's mercy true joys and the peace that only He can give.

Faithfully your Rector,

Philemon F. Sturges

Offertory Anthem: "Christ the Lord is Risen" ..... Whitehead

Christ the Lord is risen!
Now is the time of darkness past;
Christ hath assumed the reigning power
Behold the great accuser cast
Down from the skies to reign no more.
Alleluia, Alleluia.

Christ the Lord is risen!
'Twas by thy blood, immortal Lamb,
Thine armies trod the tempter down;
'Twas by Thy word and powerful name
They gained the battle and renown.
Alleluia, Alleluia.

Christ the Lord is risen!
Rejoice, ye Heavens! Let every star
Shine with new glories round the sky!
Saints, while ye sing the heavenly war,
Raise your Redeemer's name on high!
Alleluia, Alleluia.

A Collect for Eastertide

O RISEN and victorious Christ, whose power and love destroyed the darkness and death of sin; Ascend we pray Thee, the throne of our hearts, and so rule our wills by the might of that immortality wherewith Thou hast set us free, that we may evermore be alive unto God, through the power of Thy glorious resurrection; world without end. Amen.

To the Master of Music and loveliness,
Praise,power,dominion for ever.
To the Lord of the Word of Creation be
Praise,power,dominion forever.
To the maker of movement,color and light
To the builder,designer,Creator,
To the theme of all song,inspiration of Love,
To the artist of life,to the greatest and least:
Praise,power,dominion for ever.
For He is the greatest upon His high throne,
And He was the least as a child of a maiden.
Praise then to Jesus whose Mother was Mary,
And praise now to Christ who is God in the midst of us.
Lord of all beauty, adoring we come to Thee,
Give us Thyself both in time and eternity,
Lord of all beauty adoring we come to Thee,
Offering all that we are or can hope to be.
Lord of all beauty, praise,power,dominion for ever.

This afternoon at 3 P.M., at the Memorial Church of the Advocate, 18th and Diamond Sts, our girls' choir will take part in the second annual Junior Choir Festival of the Diocese.

The 166th annual Convention of the Diocese will convene in Holy Trinity Church, Rittenhouse Square, on Friday, May 5th, at 5 P.M. The Annual Service will be held at 8 P.M. that evening. Bishop Hart will make the only address, and is most anxious that as many as possible from the Parishes be present for he is to speak on several matters of concern to the Diocese. The delegates from this Parish are Mr.Samuel F. Houston, Mr. Mark E. Balis and Mr. George F. Whitney.

Next Sunday,May 7th, following the 8 A.M. service there will be a breakfast for men at which Lt.Col. John C. Fairchild will speak on his experiences in Korea.

At the 11 A.M.service, the Women of the Parish will present their United Thank Offering, which will in turn be presented at the Diocesan Service at the Church of St. Luke and the Epiphany, on Wednesday, May 10th at 8 P.M.

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING

This morning the women of our congregation present their United Thank Offering and personal thanksgiving on the the Altar of the Church, bearing in mind the many occasions of joy, of help, of comfort and of strength God has given to each. This presentation of a truly sacrificial gift, over and above the regular pledge to the church, is one way in which they can "offer and present unto thee ourselves . . ."

A total Thank Offering of over two million dollars, gathered over the three preceding years was presented at the Triennial Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary at San Francisco last Fall. This will be used:

A. For the Mission Program of National Council	$1,124,000.00
B. Pension Fund for retired and disabled missionaries	250,000.00
C. Specials
New Building for Windham House	290,000.00
Discretionary Fund	96,166.00
Building Repairs	65,000.00
Equipment for Missionaries	55,000.00
Church in Japan	44,834.00
In cooperation with other Churches	37,000.00
Church in China	25,000.00
Church in the Philippines	9,000.00
Visual aids for promotion of U.T.O	4,000.00
	$626,000.00

Our Parish offering will be presented Wed. night at the Diocesan Presentation Service at St. Luke and the Epiphany.

NOTICES

Next Sunday, at the 11 o'clock service the Choir will present its annual Festival Service for Trinity Sunday.

In the afternoon will be held the closing service of the Church School to which it is hoped all parents will come with their children. There will be no classes at all in the morning. Church School will reopen on the last Sunday in September.

The weekly services on Thursdays will be discontinued until St. Matthew's Day,September 21st.

At Diocesan Convention a resolution was passed urging the support, by the parishes, of the Philadelphia Council of Churches. St. Martins makes a contribution to it but the main support of the Council comes from contributions from individuals, and it seems appropriate on the Birthday of the Church, Whitsunday, to make an appeal for such contributions to this agency that in its three years of existence has made such tremendous strides in effective cooperation in many fields of endeavor between the Protestant Churches of the city. Membership blanks and a summary of its annual report are available on the table at the back of the Church.

A COLLECT FOR WHITSUNTIDE

O God, who in all ages hast sent forth thy power to sanctify the faithful; Let the flame of thy Spirit so kindle and cleanse the Church, that in purity and strength we may present unto thee the glad oblation of our lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

(John Wallace Suter)

NOTICES

The Closing Service of the Church School will be held this afternoon at 4 p.m., and it is hoped that all parents will attend with their children. The Church School will reopen on September 24th.

The Annual Garden Day of the Convocation of Germantown will be held on the grounds of Grace Church, Mt. Airy, this Tuesday, June 6th, from 3:00 to 6:30 p.m. Light Supper will be served. St. Martin's is responsible for the "book table" and books of recent vintage in good condition may be left for the table in the parish house tomorrow.

The June Vestry Meeting will be held a week early on June 14th.

PART I

I BELIEVE IN GOD THE FATHER ALMIGHTY — MAKER OF HEAVEN AND EARTH

Hymn 279: "Praise to the Lord"

Lesson: Isaiah 40:21

Anthem: "The Heavens Are Telling" .....Haydn

The heavens are telling the glory of God
The Wonder of His work displays the firmament;
Today that is coming speaks it the day
The night that is gone to following night,
In all the lands resounds the word,
Never unperceived, ever understood.

Responsive Reading — THE CANTICLE OF ST. FRANCIS

O most high, omnipotent, good Lord God, to thee belong praise, glory, honor and all blessing.

For our brother the sun, who is our day and who brings us the light; who is fair, and radiant with a very great splendour;

Praised be our Lord.

For our sister the moon, and for the stars, the which thou hast set clear and lovely in heaven;

Praised be our Lord.

For our brother the wind, and for air and cloud, calms and all weather;

Praised be our Lord.

For our sister water, who is very serviceable unto us and humble and precious and clean;

Praised be our Lord.

For our brother fire, by whom thou lightest up the night, and who is fair and merry, and very mighty and strong;

Praised be our Lord.

For our mother the earth, which doth sustain us and keep us and bringeth forth divers fruits, and flowers of many colors, and grass;

Praised be our Lord.

For all those who pardon one another for thy love's sake, and who bear weakness and tribulation;

Praised be our Lord.

For our sister, the death of the body;

Praised be our Lord.

Blessed are they who peaceably shall endure, walking by thy most holy will; for thou, O most highest, shall give them a crown.

Praise ye and bless ye the Lord, and give thanks unto him, and serve him with great humility. Amen

Let us pray.

O GOD, we thank thee for this universe, our great home; for its vastness and its riches, and for the manifoldness of the life which teems upon it and of which we are a part. We praise thee for the arching sky and the blessed winds, for the driving clouds and the constellations on high. We praise thee for the salt sea and the running water, for the everlasting hills, for the trees, and for the grass under our feet. We thank thee for our senses by which we can see the splendor of the morning, and hear the jubilant songs of love, and smell the breath of springtime. Grant us, we pray thee a heart wide open to all this joy and beauty, and save our souls from being so steeped in care or so darkened by passion that we pass heedless and unseeing when even the thorn-brush by the wayside is aflame with the glory of God; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PART II

And in One Lord Jesus Christ

Hymn 363: "Lord of All Hopefulness" ..... Slane

Lesson: John 14:1-13

Anthem: "We Have No Other Guide But Thee" ..... Shvedof

We Have no other guide but Thee, O holy Jesu.
Thou art our Guide, and in Thee we hope and trust,
We Praise Thee, For we are indeed Thy servants,
And are not ashamed.

An Offering of Praise and Adoration to Christ

Lift up your hearts,

We lift them up unto the Lord.

He laid his right hand upon me, saying, Fear not: I am the first and the last; I am he that liveth and was dead; and behold I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and death.

Glory be to thee, O Lord most high.

I saw in the midst of the throne a Lamb as it had been slain.

Glory be to thee, O Lord most high.

Lo, I am with you all the days;

Even unto the end of the world.

Worthy is the Lamb that was slain, to receive power and riches, and wisdom and strength, and honor and glory and blessing.

Blessing and honor, and glory and power, be unto thee for ever and ever.

Let us pray.

O KING of men, Master of our lives, entering into thy glory by the cross, to whom all authority is given, both in heaven and on earth, we acknowledge thy sovereignty over every realm of life. Come, O Lord, enter into thy kingdom; subdue the world by the might of thy love.

Blessing and honor, and glory and power, be unto thee for ever and ever.

O son of Mary,	Consecrate our homes.
Son of David,	Cleanse our politics.
Son of Man,	Rule the affairs of nations.
Son of God,	Give us eternal life.
Jesus the Carpenter,	Hallow our daily work.
Jesus the Christ,	Deliver a world which waits for thee.
Jesus the Saviour,	Save us from ourselves.
Jesus the Life-giver,	Renew thy Church.
Word of God,	Perfect thy creation.

Lord exalted at the Father's side,

Raise us to live with thee in God.

He humbled himself, becoming obedient unto death. Therefore hath God highly exalted him and given him a name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee shall bow, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Amen.

I will not leave you comfortless.

I will come to you.

I will see you again and your heart shall rejoice.

And your joy no man taketh from you.

What shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

All. Neither life nor death, nor things present, nor things to come can separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord. Alleluia, Amen.

And in The Holy Ghost — The Lord and Giver of Life

Hymn 379: "Gracious Spirit Holy Ghost" ..... Capetown

Lesson: John 14:15-19

Anthem ..... Noble

O Wisdom! Spirit of the Holy God,
Effulgent glory of eternal light,
Thou orderest all things, O divinest Might,
Strong Wisdom, Spirit of the Holy God.
O Sovereign Lord, Thou master of man's soul,
Inspire we pray Thee, by Thy human name,
Man's feeble will with love's perpetual flame,
And hold the wheels of life with strong control
O steadfast Spirit of the Holy God,
O come, be near us, guide us day by day
With saving hand along Thy marvelous way,
Fair Wisdom, Spirit of the Holy God.

THANKSGIVING FOR THE WORK OF GOD'S SPIRIT

O LORD who hast set before us the great hope that thy kingdom shall come on earth, and has taught us to pray for its coming, make us ever ready to thank thee for the signs of its dawning, and to pray and work for that perfect day when thy will shall be done on earth as it is in heaven. For the work of thy Spirit within and beyond the bounds of thy visible Church.

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the history of the world, through peaceful advance, and through pain and tumult,

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the history of our own country, through its heroes and leaders, in statecraft, law and industry.

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in science and commerce, in literature and art.

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the slow triumph of truth over error,

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the growing desire for true brotherhood, between every class and nation,

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the spread of education, and in the development of a fuller life for individuals, with healthier surroundings and better conditions.

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the deepening sense of human worth in all nations and classes, and in the growing reverence for womanhood and childhood,

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the Church, which will not cease until it joins all nations and kindred tongues and peoples into one great family, to thy praise and glory,

We thank thee, O Lord. Amen.

THREE PERSONS, ONE GOD

Hymn 272: "Thou Whose Almighty Word" ..... Moscow

Lesson: Revelation 4:1-11

Offertory Anthem ..... Rachmaninoff

Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, both now, and ever, and to ages of ages. Amen.
Only begotten Son, Word of the Father, who are immortal,
Thou didst vouchsafe for our salvation, to become incarnate of the Holy Mother of God, the blessed and ever Virgin Mary.
Changeless Essence, lo, thou wast made very Man; and Crucified, thou the God-man, to vanquish death by dying.
Thou alone, O Christ, are glorified in the Trinity with Father and Holy Spirit:
O save us, O save us. Lord have mercy upon us.
To thee O Lord, we cry. Amen, Amen.

Hymn 576: "Come, Labor On" ..... Ora Labora

During the singing of this Hymn the Teachers and Officers of the Church School will come forward to the Altar Rail.

Rector: Dearly beloved, you stand here before God and this company as chosen leaders in the program of Christian Education. You have one of the most important and essential offices within the gift of the Church. Your work is therefore not to be entered into unadvisedly or lightly, but seriously, conscientiously, and as in the sight of God. With all this in mind, are you now ready to undertake the duties of your various offices?

Response: We are ready, God being our helper. And we here dedicate both our souls and minds to Him in the work of His Church, in a sober, righteous and godly life. In this resolution, we ask Him to confirm and strengthen us that day by day we may grow in grace as leaders in our Church School.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing.)

All: O GOD, by whom the meek are guided in judgment, and light riseth up in darkness for the godly, grant us in all our doubts and uncertainties, the grace to ask what Thou wouldst have us to do, that the Spirit of Wisdom may save us from all false choices, and that in Thy light we may see light and in Thy straight path may not stumble, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Officers and Teachers will return to their places.

The Rector will address the Congregation as follows:

Do you, as the Congregation, Parents and Friends, in the presence of God and of this entire company, promise to give these chosen leaders the wholehearted cooperation so necessary to the accomplishment of their task?

Response: We do so promise, God being our helper.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing.)

All: ALMIGHTY GOD, heavenly Father, Who hast blessed us with the joy and care of children: give us light and strength so to train them, that they may love whatsoever things are true and pure and lovely and of good report, following the example of their Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Rector will address the Church School pupils as follows :

As pupils of the Church School of St. Martin-in-the-Fields and disciples of Jesus Christ, will you serve Him, by faithfully trying to live in His way in your homes, in your community, in your schools and in your Church, as you promised, or as was promised for you, at your Baptism?

Response: I will by God's help.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing.)

DEFEND, O Lord these Thy children with Thy heavenly grace, that they may continue thine forever: and daily increase in Thy Holy Spirit more and more until they come unto thine everlasting kingdom. Amen.

All: ALMIGHTY GOD, our heavenly Father, Who art the only source of light and life; send down upon this School the rich gifts of Thy good Spirit, that Thy truth may be sincerely sought, faithfully received and obediently followed. Endue its teachers with wisdom, zeal and patience. Inspire its scholars with the spirit of truth, honor and humility. May they day by day grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Anthem

Ho! Every One That Thirsteth ..... Martin

Ho! every one that thirsteth come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat.

Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

Incline your ear, and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live.

Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts, and let him return unto the Lord, and He will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon.

Then ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the fields shall clap their hands.

Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree.

Sing Alleluia forth in duteous praise,
Ye citizens of heaven,O sweetly raise
An endless Alleluia.
Ye powers, who stand before the Eternal light
In hymning choirs re-echo to the height
An endless Alleluia.
The Holy city shall take up your strain,
And with glad songs resounding wake again
An endless Alleluia.
In blissful antiphons ye thus rejoice
To render to the Lord with thankful voice
An endless Alleluia.
Ye who have gained at length your palms in bliss,
Victorious ones, your chant shall still be this,
An endless Alleluia.
There,in one grand acclaim,forever ring
The strains which tell the honor of your King,
An endless Alleluia.
While Thee,by whom all things were made,we praise
Forever, and tell out in sweetest lays
An endless Alleluia.
Almighty Christ,to Thee our voices sing,
Glory for evermore;to Thee we bring
An endless Alleluia,Amen.

Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it.Love is strong as death.

Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

Who His own self bare our sins in His own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness.

Ye are washed, ye are sanctified, ye are justified, in the Name of the Lord Jesus.

Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation. That ye should shew forth the praises of Him Who hath called you out of darkness into His marvellous light.

I beseech you, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies, a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

A PRAYER FOR THE UNITED NATIONS

ETERNAL GOD,in whose perfect Kingdom no sword is drawn but the sword of righteousness,and no strength known but the strength of love; So guide and inspire,we pray Thee,the work of the United Nations that the nations may find their security not in force of arms but in that perfect love that casteth out fear,and in that fellowship revealed to us by Thy Son Jesus Christ.

It is a great pleasure to have with us this morning Mr. Frederic C. Wheeler, who comes to bring to us the challenge of the Community Chest Drive that opens next week. This endeavor to support the social service agencies of this area is a cause that must ever be close to a Christian's heart, as it is the fulfillment of Christ's command to care for the hungry, the naked the sick and the prisoners.

EPISCOPAL HOSPITAL

The Thanksgiving Day offering is for the Episcopal Hospital.

"At this time the Church asks you to remember its concern for those who are sick and distressed, who have no resources of their own, that their needs may be met. Although changes have taken place at Episcopal Hospital, we look for your continuing interest and support."

R.B. Morris, Chaplain.

* * * * * * * *

When thy heart with joy o'er flowing
Sings a thankful prayer,
In thy joy, O let thy brother
With thee share.

If thy soul with power uplifted
Yearn for glorious deed -
Give thy strength to serve thy brother
In his need.

Share with him thy bread of blessing,
Sorrow's burden share;
When thy heart enfolds a brother
God is there.

ALMIGHTY GOD, give us grace that we may cast away the works of darkness, and put upon us the armour of light, now in the time of this mortal life, in which thy Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility; that in the last day, when He shall come again in His glorious majesty to judge both the quick and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal, through Him who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, now and ever.
Amen.

"Mary, obedient Mary, seek rest; tonight you shall find the Prince of Peace.

Kindly Joseph, seek room, a little room; tonight in the cold stable you shall find the Maker of the worlds.

O clear-eyed Shepherds, seek the Young Child; you shall find the Lamb of God, the Good Shepherd.

Sages, Students, Doctors, seek the truth; you shall find the Wisdom from on high, the Light of Men.

Good Christians, all men of good will, seek the best, you will find love; in love seek your desire, and you will find the Desire of Nations, Who tonight seeks you.

Bright Angels, who first proclaimed the Saviour's birth, sing out once more the glad tidings of comfort and joy.

GLORY TO GOD IN THE HIGHEST!" (H.McC. adapted)

Ring out, wild bells to the wild sky,
The flying cloud, the frosty light.
The year is dying in the night,
Ring out, wild bells, and let him die.
Ring out the old, ring in the new,
Ring, happy bells, across the snow.
The year is going, let him go.
Ring out the false,ring in the true.

Ring out the grief that saps the mind,
For those that here we see no more.
Ring out the feud of rich and poor.
Ring in redress to all mankind
Ring out a slowly dying cause,
And ancient forms of party strife,
Ring out the old, ring in the new,etc.

Ring out false pride in place and blood,
The civic slander and the spite.
Ring in the love of truth and right
Ring in the common love of good,
Ring out old shapes of foul disease.
Ring out the narrowing lust of gold,
Ring out the thousand wars of old.
Ring in the thousand years of peace.
Ring in the valiant man and free
The larger heart, the kindlier hand,
Ring out the darkness of the land,
Ring in the Christ that is to be.
Ring out the old, ring in the new, etc.

When Jesus, our Lord, was born in Bethlehem, in the land of Judea; behold, from the east to the city of Jerusalem there came wise men, and said: "Say, where is He born, the King of Judea? for we have seen His star and are come to adore Him."

There shall a star from Jacob come forth, and a sceptre from Israel rise up, and dash in pieces princes and nations.

As bright the star of morning gleams, So Jesus sheddeth glorious beams of light and consolation!

Thy Word, O Lord, Radiance darting, Truth imparting, Gives slavation; Thine be praise and adoration.

Praise Him, all ye stars and light;
Praise the Lord! for He hath spoken,
Worlds His mighty voice obeyed;
Laws which never shall be broken,
For their guidance He hath made.
Praise the Lord! ye heavens adore Him,
Praise Him, Angels, in the height.
Praise the Lord! for he is glorious,
Never shall His promise fail;
God hath made His saints victorious,
Sin and death shall not prevail.
Praise the God of our salvation;
Hosts on high, His power proclaim;
Heaven and earth, and all creation,
Laud and magnify His name!
Praise the Lord! ye heavens, adore Him,
Praise Him, Angels in the height,
Sun and moon, rejoice before Him,
Praise Him, all ye stars and light.

Two new publications from the Forward Movement are on the table at the rear of the Church. "LIGHT UPON THE ROAD" @ 10¢ is a selection of the best meditations that have appeared in "FORWARD Day by Day" since its first publication. PRAYERS for all Occasions" is a new compilation of prayers, containing many familiar ones and many new ones.

The Rector would appreciate it if he could be notified immediately when any member of the Con-)egation enters the Armed Services.

There are just 5 weeks before Dr. Pike's Mission starts. Remember to keep clear the 5 nights Feb.18 - 22, and to pray for the Mission and for Dr. Pike.

Offertory Anthem Noble
O Wisdom! Spirit of the Holy God,
Effulgent glory of eternal life,
Thou orderest all things, O divinest might
Strong Wisdom, Spirit of the Holy God.

O Sovereign Lord, Thou master of man's soul,
Inspire, we pray Thee by Thy human name
Man's feeble will with Love's perpetual flame,
And hold the wheels of life with strong control

O steadfast Spirit of the Holy God,
O come be near us, guide us day by day
With saving hand, along thy marvelous way,
Fair wisdom, Spirit of the Holy God.

Offertory Anthem Banks

O most blessed Jesu! Come to me when night is dark.
O come to me with light surrounded.
Thou that so oft a gentle balm hast poured upon my heart so wounded.
Hast poured a balm upon my heart.
O most blessed Jesu! Come to me when night is dark.
The storm is raging without on the lee
Come bring thou some light to me.
I'm but a reed windshaken.
If o'er the stormy sea Thou fare, it stills the waves to meet Thee.
Thou speakest and from rock and storm sweet summer flowers spring to greet Thee.
For we are naught with all our power
Be Thou our help in dangers hour
Those Thou lovest from injury guard, for gracious art Thou.

DR. PIKE'S MISSION

This evening through Thursday, February 22
Preaching Service 8:15 P.M.

Monday through Thursday
Holy Communion 7:00 & 10:00 A.M.

Come and bring someone with you. At the back of the Church is a box for questions for Dr. Pike to answer tonight.

The Youth Fellowship, instead of its regular meeting will have a supper at 6:30 and attend the Mission in a body.

Dr. Pike will be the preacher at the Community Noonday Service at the Presbyterian Church at 12:10 P.M. on Wednesday.

A PRAYER FOR THE MISSION

O Lord,Jesus Christ,The Good Shepherd,Who seekest those who have gone astray,binding up the broken hearted,healing those who are sick and nourishing the faithful,bless the Mission to be held in this Parish. Send Thy Holy Spirit upon him who will conduct it, that with grace and persuasion he may bring many into Thy fold. Arouse the careless,convert the impenitent, strengthen the weak,enrich the faithful and bless all who truly turn to Thee. Increase in us all such zeal for Thy Kingdom that it may become on earth as it is in heaven, and finally,by Thy mercy, bring us unto everlasting life, where with the Father and the Holy Ghost,Thou livest and reignest, world without end. Amen.

This Sunday has been named Red Cross Sunday and all members of the Congregation are hereby reminded of the magnificent work that this organization has accomplished and is accomplishing and urged to make the 1951 campaign for funds (Philadelphia's quota is $707,000 over last year's) the success it deserves to be.

The Rev. George A. Trowbridge, Rector of St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill, will be the speaker at the Community Noonday Service at the Presbyterian Church this Wednesday, instead of the Rev. Theodore Meek, who substituted for Mr. Trowbridge on February 14.

A communication has been received from the Cricket Club asking that the members of the congregation who park in the Club drive-way behind the Parish House observe the "ONE WAY" signs that the Club has posted and leave the Club property not by the shortest and straightest route - straight ahead to Hartwell Lane - but by the regular exits at the far end of the Club property, as several near accidents have been reported as the result of driving against traffic. The Club has always been most generous and cooperative to the Parish, and is glad to have members park in the driveway, and this seems a small way in which we might show our appreciation.

Some of our prayer books are beginning to show signs of wear. If you find one that has missing pages or is otherwise faulty, the staff would greatly appreciate it if you would leave it on the table at the back of the Church and it will be replaced later.

(From "Christ Lay in Death's Dark Prison") Bach

Christ lay in Death's dark prison
It was our sin that bound Him,
But soon to be arisen,
And shed new life around Him,
Therefore let us joyful be,
And praise our God with solemn glee,
Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

Hymn after Prayer for Christ's Church 416

There will be a meeting of the Women of St. Martin's Evening Group this Monday, March 5, at 7:30 in the Parish House. Mrs. Richard F. Smith will be there to tell us some of her experiences on her recent trip to Palestine.

The Preacher at the Community Noonday Service at the Presbyterian Church this Wednesday will be the Rev. Paul W. Hoon, Minister of the First Methodist Church, Germantown.

At the Youth Fellowship Meeting this evening at 7 o'clock in the Parish House the feature will be "Window on the Sky" a new motion picture of our Church's work among the Navajo Indians at the Good Shepherd Mission, Arizona. All members of the Parish are cordially invited to attend this very interesting movie.

If you or your children have lost any gloves, scarves, hats, sweaters or umbrellas, check our Lost and Found. We have a large collection.

A Collect for the Fourth Sunday in Lent

ALMIGHTY GOD, who didst send thy Son from heaven to be the Bread of Life: Grant, we pray thee, that coming to him we may never hunger, and believing on him we may never thirst; that, refreshed by the power of his sustaining presence, we may walk without fear in the highway of eternal life; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(J.W. Suter)

MOSES IN THE PARISH HOUSE

We point with pride to the memorable presentation of incidents in the life of Moses, done in clay by the 5th and 6th Grade girls under the direction of Mrs. J. Howell Healy, and hope you will come and see what can happen when an enthusiastic and creative teacher communicates her knowledge and love of the Bible to her pupils.

With the fire of life impassioned,
Stirring still to Truth unknown
Soaring, dying round Thy throne.

Through the way where Hope is guiding,
Hark what peaceful music rings,
Where the flock in Thee confiding
Drink of joy from deathless springs.
Theirs is beauty's fairest pleasure,
Theirs is wisdom's holiest treasure,
Thou dost ever lead Thine own
In the love of joys unknown

And did those feet in ancient time
Walk upon these our mountains green?
And was the Holy Lamb of God
On these our pleasant pastures seen?
And did the Countenance Divine
Shine forth upon our clouded hills?
And Was Jerusalem builded here
Among those dark Satanic mills?
Bring me my bow of burning gold!
Bring me my arrows of desire!
Bring me my spear! O clouds unfold!
Bring me my chariot of fire!
I will not cease from mental fight
Nor shall my sword sleep in my hand
Till we have built Jerusalem
In this our green and pleasant land.

This afternoon the children of the Church School will present their Lenten Offering of $665.86, to the Bishop at the Presentation Service on the Episcopal Academy Grounds at 4:00 P.M. The service will be televised by WFIL-TV,Channel 6, and will be reproduced on Newsreel on Monday evening, May 28, and Sunday evening, June 3.

Next Sunday, June 3, there will be no Church School classes in the morning, and the closing Service for the School will be held at four o'clock that afternoon.

On Tuesday, June 5, the Convocation of Germantown will hold its annual Garden Day at the Memorial Church of the Good Shepherd, the Oak Road, near Midvale Avenue. There will be many added attractions this year, especially for the children (see the folders on the table at the back of the Church.) This occasion deserves the whole hearted support of our congregation. The proceeds will go to the revived Mission of St. Andrew's at Somerton.

Also on Tuesday, June 5, there will be an Evening Service and Dinner for Episcopal Social Workers at 5:30 P.M. at Christ Church, Second Street above Market. Bishop Remington will be the Toastmaster, and the Dinner speaker will be the Rev. Arnold Purdie of the City Mission. Reservations for dinner ($1.35) should be made through the Church House before May 29.

On Memorial Day, May 30, the Parish Office will be closed all day.

This afternoon the Church School will hold its closing service for the year and will graduate two members from the 12th Grade - Andre Blanzaco and Blair Crownover. All parents and friends of the Church School are urged to attend.

On Tuesday, June 5th, on the grounds of the Memorial Church of the Good Shepherd, the Oak Road near Midvale Avenue, will be held the Annual Garden Day of the Convocation of Germantown. Folders are available on the table at the rear of the Church.

Next Sunday, June 10th, at 11 o'clock, at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, in New York City, Douglas Glasspool, our good friend and student assistant for the past two years will be among those whom Bishop Donegan will order Deacon. Any members of the Congregation who are to be in New Y ork at that time are urged to be present at that service. The rest of us will hold him in our prayers, that his ministry that he has so ably started among us may be richly blessed in the years ahead. And to our prayers for his ministry, we add our congratulations, though with an admixture of regret for our loss, on the announcement of h engagement to Miss Ann Adams. Miss Adams, h ever, will remain with us as Director of Religious Education for another year.

Hymn 576: "Come, Labor On" ..... Ora Labora

During the singing of this Hymn the Teachers and Officers of the Church School will come forward to the Altar Rail.

Rector: Dearly beloved, you stand here before God and this company as chosen leaders in the program of Christian Education. You have one of the most important and essential offices within the gift of the Church. Your work is therefore not to be entered into unadvisedly or lightly, but seriously, conscientiously, and as in the sight of God. With all this in mind, are you now ready to undertake the duties of your various offices?

Response: We are ready, God being our helper. And we here dedicate both our souls and minds to Him in the work of His Church, in a sober, righteous and godly life. In this resolution, we ask Him to confirm and strengthen us that day by day we may grow in grace as leaders in our Church School.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing.)

All: O GOD, by whom the meek are guided in judgment, and light riseth up in darkness for the godly, grant us in all our doubts and uncertainties, the grace to ask what Thou wouldst have us to do, that the Spirit of Wisdom may save us from all false choices, and that in Thy light we may see light and in Thy straight path may not stumble, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Officers and Teachers will return to their places.

The Rector will address the Congregation as follows:

Do you, as the Congregation, Parents and Friends, in the presence of God and of this entire company, promise to give these chosen leaders the wholehearted cooperation so necessary to the accomplishment of their task?

Response: We do so promise, God being our helper.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing.)

All: ALMIGHTY GOD, heavenly Father, Who hast blessed us with the joy and care of children: give us light and strength so to train them, that they may love whatsoever things are true and pure and lovely and of good report, following the example of their Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Rector will address the Church School pupils as follows:

As pupils of the Church School of St. Martin-in-the-Fields and disciples of Jesus Christ, will you serve Him, by faithfully trying to live in His way in your homes, in your community, in your schools and in your Church, as you promised, or as was promised for you, at your Baptism?

Response: I will by God's help.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing.)

DEFEND, O Lord these Thy children with Thy heavenly grace, that they may continue thine forever: and daily increase in Thy Holy Spirit more and more until they come unto thine everlasting kingdom. Amen.

All: ALMIGHTY GOD, our heavenly Father, Who art the only source of light and life; send down upon this School the rich gifts of Thy good Spirit, that Thy truth may be sincerely sought, faithfully received and obediently followed. Endue its teachers with wisdom, zeal and patience. Inspire its scholars with the spirit of truth, honor and humility. May they day by day grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Hymn 238: "Father of Mercy" ..... St. Elizabeth

Sermon Hymn 578: "Children of the Heavenly King" ..... Pleyel's Hymn

Anthem

Ho! Every One That Thirsteth ..... Martin

Ho! every one that thirsteth come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat.

Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

Incline your ear, and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live.

Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts, and let him return unto the Lord, and He will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon.

Then ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the fields shall clap their hands.

Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree.

EVENTS THIS WEEK

The Second Organizational Meeting for Cub Scout Parents will be held in the Parish House to-night at eight o'clock. All interested parents are urged to come as the Committee is anxious to get the Pack organized as soon as possible.

The WSM Evening Group will meet in the Parish House, Monday, October 8th about 7:30. Please make every effort to come, and bring some new members,as we need all hands to help organize the Christmas Bazaar.

Your attention is called to the unusual opportunity to hear one of today's outstanding theologians tomorrow night at the Church of the Saviour, 38th and Ludlow St. at 8 P.M. The Rev. Theodore E. Wedel will address the 81st. Annual Church School Institute, speaking on the Theology of the New Curriculum. His talk will be for parents, and all leaders in parish programs, as well as Church School Teachers, and it is hoped that many from St. Martin's will avail themselves of this rare privilege.

There will be a stated meeting of the Vestry of St. Martin-in-the-Fields on Wednesday, October 10, at 8:15 P.M. in the Parish House.

The Preacher at the 11:00 A. M. Service next Sunday, will be the Rev. R. Daunton Fear, of St. George's Church, Gravesend, England.

"Families in Church are so much more than the same number of people in Church. All who remember sitting with their parents in the solemn Sunday light which shines through Church windows - they understand. In spite of an assortment of difficulties about churches and Sundays and children, families in church are something special."

Jesu, joy of man's desiring,
Holy Wisdom, Love most bright,
Drawn by Thee, our souls aspiring
Soar to uncreated light.
Word of God our flesh that fashioned
With the fire of life impassioned,
Stirring still to Truth unknown
Soaring, dying round Thy throne.

Through the way where Hope is guiding,
Hark what peaceful music rings,
Where the flock in Thee confiding
Drink of joy from deathless springs.
Theirs is beauty's fairest pleasure
Theirs is wisdom's holiest treasure,
Thou dost ever lead Thine own
In the love of joys unknown.

A COLLECT FOR ADVENT

COME among us, O Son of man, in thy glory, and gather the nations before thee. So shall thy righteousness judge our sin, thy strength our weakness, and our wayward thoughts be measured by thy truth. Then in thy power lift us, we pray thee, to that kingdom prepared for us from the foundation of the world, where with the Father and the Holy Spirit, thou reignest Son of God, world without end. Amen.

(J. W. Suter)

ADVENT 1951

ALMIGHTY GOD, give us grace that we may cast away the works of darkness, and put upon us the armour of light, now in the time of this mortal life, in which thy Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility; that in the last day, when He shall come again in His glorious majesty to judge both the quick and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal, through Him who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, now and ever. Amen.

Offertory

JUBILATE — G. F. HANDEL

(Composed, with a Te Deum, for the peace of Utrecht, in the year 1713)

Words in Prayer Book, page 15

This rarely performed setting of the canticle is one of several great choral works the composer wrote to commemorate the important events of his day, and contains the grand choral effects, widely spaced harmonies, and simple over-all harmonic pattern which we characterize today as Handelian. Queen Anne was so pleased with this music that she settled a royal pension on Handel, later doubled under her successor. As a part of the liturgy, it would dwarf, not enhance, the service, and should therefore be presented as a separate entity on a festival occasion, as at present. A section of women's voices will be used to sing a second treble part in two choruses.

As a member of the Board of Counsel of the City Mission since last September, I have been most impressed with the varied scope of the City Mission and with the work that it is doing. Mr. Purdie comes to us with a story that every member of the Diocese ought to know, of the largely unknown work that is being done in its name. I hope that all women of the Parish will make an especial effort to come to the luncheon on Thursday.

A PRAYER FOR THE PARISH

HEAVENLY FATHER, we earnestly pray thee to bless our beloved parish. Bind us in a closer fellowship of worship, work and holy living. Give to each of us some share in carrying out thy blessed purposes for this place and for all mankind, and grant us love, faithfulness and the spirit of cooperation. We offer this our humble prayer in the name of Jesus Christ, our Saviour.

Amen.

DEDICATION OF THE LENTEN MITE BOXES

M. The harvest truly is great but the laborers are few.
P. Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them into the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.
M. Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you; and lo! I am with you even unto the end of the world.
P. For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.
M. Also I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send and who will go for us?"
P. Then said I, "Here am I! Send me."
M. The Lord be with you.
P. And with thy Spirit.
M. Let us pray.

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

The message, the gospel, the good news that the first disciples carried out into the surrounding world of Jews and pagans was not that a wonderful man who had spoken words such as never man had spoken, who had given men such an example of how to live as had never before been seen, who had healed and cured and succored the sick and the diseased and the needy, had been shamefully entreated and put to death. That could not have been called good news. They proclaimed that this same Jesus, had by His Resurrection proved that He was in truth the very Son of God and that His Resurrection had set the seal on the fact that "God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son to the end that all that believe in Him should not perish but have everlasting life." That because of His death and Rising again, men need no longer fear life, with its troubles and tumoils, its pains and distresses, so that too often it seemed but a "tale told by an idiot, full of sound and fury, signifying nothing." Nor need they fear death, and its entrance into a vast unknown. Life in Christ, had purpose, meaning, and made sense, and death was to be with Him, its terror torn away.

Unless we have, in some sense, experienced what those first disciples did, through our "meditation of those mighty acts" of Holy Week, we cannot appreciate the tremendousness of the meaning of Easter. Easter can be the thanksgiving and praise for the return of the seasons, a rejoicing that Spring has come again, that God has not forgotten His people. In that we are one with all peoples from the beginning of time. But that is not the Christian Easter. Christ rising from the dead, is the promise that out of defeat and disaster, out of despair, God brings in His Victory, and that we who are His, no matter how small and unimportant we may seem share in that Victory, and that our lives have a place and a part in it.

Faithfully your rector,

Phillips F. Sturges

O Risen Lord! Who givest the Victory; Raise us, we pray Thee, from the death of sin unto the life of Righteousness, and fill us with spiritual benediction, that both now and in the world to come we may have life everlasting. Amen.

This morning the Women of the Parish present their United Thank Offering for the furthering of the work of the whole Church, which combined with the other offerings during the past three years will be presented at a tremendous service to be held during General Convention this September.

United Thank Offering Prayer

OUR HEAVENLY FATHER, Lord of the Harvest, we pray Thee to send forth more laborers into the harvest. Grant them Thy special grace for every need. Dispose the hearts of all women to give gladly as Thou hast prospered them. Guard and guide the workers in the field, and draw us into closer fellowship with them. Accept our U.T.O. of prayer and gifts and joyful service, and bless it to the coming of Thy Kingdom, through Jesus Christ Our Lord. Amen.

To the Women of the Parish.

We are delighted to report that Mrs. George Deming and Mrs. John Ulmer will co-chairman the Christmas Bazaar, to be held on or about November 20. We need new ideas, so be on the lookout this summer for attractive gifts which could be made to sell at a reasonable price. If you're handy with a needle - Knitting or sewing - if you can mix paint or fudge, if you can hammer, paste or sell, we need your help. So be thinking, and we'll put your talents to use, first thing in the fall.

Venite, Page 9, Chant 608

Psalm 24, Page 368

Lesson, Luke 2:41

Benedictus, Page 14, Chant 643

Hymn 576: "Come, Labor On" ..... Ora Labora

During the singing of this Hymn the Teachers and Officers of the Church School will come forward to the Altar Rail.

Rector: Dearly beloved, you stand here before God and this company as chosen leaders in the program of Christian Education. You have one of the most important and essential offices within the gift of the Church. Your work is therefore not to be entered into unadvisedly or lightly, but seriously, conscientiously, and as in the sight of God. With all this in mind, are you now ready to undertake the duties of your various offices?

Response: We are ready, God being our helper. And we here dedicate both our souls and minds to Him in the work of His Church, in a sober, righteous and godly life. In this resolution, we ask Him to confirm and strengthen us that day by day we may grow in grace as leaders in our Church School.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing.)

All: O GOD, by whom the meek are guided in judgment, and light riseth up in darkness for the godly, grant us in all our doubts and uncertainties, the grace to ask what Thou wouldst have us to do, that the Spirit of Wisdom may save us from all false choices, and that in Thy light we may see light and in Thy straight path may not stumble, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Officers and Teachers will return to their places.

The Rector will address the Congregation as follows:

Do you, as the Congregation, Parents and Friends, in the presence of God and of this entire company, promise to give these chosen leaders the wholehearted cooperation so necessary to the accomplishment of their task?

Response: We do so promise, God being our helper.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing.)

All: ALMIGHTY GOD, heavenly Father, Who hast blessed us with the joy and care of children: give us light and strength so to train them, that they may love whatsoever things are true and pure and lovely and of good report, following the example of their Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Rector will address the Church School pupils as follows:

As pupils of the Church School of St. Martin-in-the-Fields and disciples of Jesus Christ, will you serve Him, by faithfully trying to live in His way in your homes, in your community, in your schools and in your Church, as you promised, or as was promised for you, at your Baptism?

Response: I will by God's help.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing.)

DEFEND, O Lord these Thy children with Thy heavenly grace, that they may continue thine forever: and daily increase in Thy Holy Spirit more and more until they come unto thine everlasting kingdom. Amen.

All: ALMIGHTY GOD, our heavenly Father, Who art the only source of light and life; send down upon this School the rich gifts of Thy good Spirit, that Thy truth may be sincerely sought, faithfully received and obediently followed. Endue its teachers with wisdom, zeal and patience. Inspire its scholars with the spirit of truth, honor and humility. May they day by day grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Hymn 238: "Father of Mercy" ..... St. Elizabeth

Sermon Hymn 402: "O Word of God, Incarnate" ..... Munich

Anthem ..... Purcell

Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice.

Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand.

Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

And the peace of God which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

Recessional Hymn 385: "Glorious Things of Thee" ..... Austria

FOR A BISHOP'S TENTH ANNIVERSARY

ALMIGHTY GOD, our heavenly Father, whose blessed son came not to be ministered unto, but to minister: We give Thee hearty thanks for the ministry of thy servant, Oliver James Hart, who through ten years hath given his life for a blessing to this Diocese. We praise thy name for the loving kindness which hath bound his heart to the hearts of this whole people, for his warning in time of peril, his sympathy in time of joy, for his courage in time of failure, for his confidence in thee in time of darkness and sorrow, and for his vision and aspiration in time when men must find their work and go forward to do it. Most of all, O Lord, we thank thee that led by him, thy children have drawn closer to that Good Shepherd who is the joy and peace of the whole world, thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ.Amen. -Bishop C.L.Slattery

All creatures of our God and King
Lift up your voice with us and sing, Alleluia.
Thou burinig sun with golden beam,
Thou silver moon with softer gleam,
O praise him, Alleluia.

Thou rushing wind that art so strong,
Ye clouds that sail in heaven along,
O praise Him, Alleluia.
Thou rising morn in praise rejoice,
Ye lights of evening find a voice
O praise Him, Alleluia.

Thou flowing water, pure and clear
Make music for thy Lord to hear, Alleluia.
Thou fire so masterful and bright
That givest man both warmth and light,
O praise Him, Alleluia.
And all ye men of tender heart,
Forgiving others, take your part, Alleluia.
Ye who long pain and sorrow bear,
Praise God and on Him cast your care
O praise Him, Alleluia.
And thou, most kind and gentle Death.
Waiting to hush our latest breath,
O praise Him, praise Him.
Thou leadest home the child of God.
And Christ Our Lord, the way hath trod.
O praise Him.
Let all things their Creator bless,
Amd worship Him in humbleness.
Praise the Father, praise the Son and praise
the spirit, Three in One. O praise Him.Alleluia.

Anthem, from "The Sower" Harold Darke

Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous, for it becometh well the just to be thankful.

Praise the Lord with harp: sing praises unto Him with the lute.

Sing unto the Lord a new song: for the word of the Lord is true, and all His works are faithful.

He loveth righteousness and judgement: the earth is full of the goodness of the Lord.

Who covereth the heavens with clouds, and prepareth rain for the earth; and maketh grass to grow upon the mountains, and herb for the use of men.

O praise the Lord, all ye nations:praise Him, all ye people.

For His merciful kindness is great toward us; and the truth of the Lord endureth for ever.

Praise ye the Lord.

We welcome this morning as our preacher, the Rev. Robert N. Back, rector of St. Peter's Church Glenside, the youngest and fastest growing parish in the Diocese.

The offering this morning is for the Episcopal Hospital, which this year is celebrating the 100th anniversary of its founding, and which has proved that it is more than keeping abreast of the challenges which its second century offers, and so is well worthy of our generous support.

The Rev. Harold Frankham, Bryan Green's assistant, will be the speaker at the breakfast following the Annual Men's Corporate Communion next Sunday morning at 8 A.M. Reservations for the breakfast should be made at the Parish House as soon as possible.

The new Forward Day by Day booklets for Advent and Epiphany are on the table at the rear of the Church.

O BLESSED Lord Jesus, our choicest gift, our dearest guest; give us thankful hearts for thee. Let not our souls be busy inns that have no room for thee and thine, but quiet homes of prayer and praise, where thou mayest find fit company, where needful cares of life are wisely ordered and put away, and wide sweet spaces kept for thee, where holy thoughts pass up and down, and fervent longings watch and wait thy coming. So when thou comest again, O Blessed One, mayest thou find all things ready, and thy servants waiting for no new master, but for one long loved and known. Even so, come, Lord Jesus. Amen

Sermon Hymn 1 Stuttgart

Anthem, "O Thou the Central Orb" Wood

O Thou the central orb of righteous love, pure beam of the most high, eternal Light of this our wintry world, Thy radiance bright awakes
new joy in faith, hope soars above.
Come,quickly come, and let Thy glory shine,
Gilding our darksome heaven with rays Divine.
Thy saints with holy lustre round Thee move,
As stars about Thy throne set in the height
Of God's ordaining counsel, as Thy sight
Give measured grace to each - Thy power to prove-
Let Thy bright beams disperse the gloom of sin
Our nature all shall feel eternal day, in fellowship with Thee, transforming day to souls ere-while unclean, now pure within. Amen

Recessional Hymn 5 St. Thomas

A Collect for Advent

Come among us, O Son of man, in thy glory,and gather the nations before thee. So shall thy righteousness judge our sin, thy strength our weakness, and our wayward thoughts be measured by thy truth. Then in thy power lift us, we pray thee, to that kingdom prepared for us from the foundation of the world, where, with the FAther and the Holy Spirit, thou reignest Son of God, world without end. Amen.

CONFERENCE ON CHRISTIAN LIVING
TUESDAY, JANUARY 13 TO THURSDAY, JANUARY 15
GERMANTOWN ACADEMY GYMNASIUM - 8 PM

Digging into the real meaning of religion, recognized leaders of our National Church will show us how our parishes can become stronger and better. All members of our parish family who are interested in playing a more active part in developing our parish life should attend these meetings. Parking space will be available. The Youth Fellowship has volunteered their services as baby sitters. If you need one, call the Parish Office.

* * * * * * * *

The Rector and Mrs. Sturges wish they could thank personally every member of the Congregation, who by his expression of Christmas wishes in myriad forms, made our Christmas this year one of the most meaningful that we have ever had, but the task is beyond us, so as a last resort, we take this very inadequate means of saying, "Thank you" and once more to quote Tiny Tim, "God bless us every one."

Anthem, from "Christus" Mendelssohn

When Jesus was born in Bethlehem in the land of Judaea, behold from the east to the city of Jerusalem there came wise men and said: "Say, where is He born, the King of Judaea? for we have seen His Star and are come to adore Him."

There shall come forth a Star from Jakob and a scepter shall rise out of Israel, and dash in pieces princes and nations.

As bright the star of morning gleams, so Jesus sheddeth glorious beams of light and consolation. Thy Word, O Lord, Radiance darting, Truth imparting, gives Salvation, Thine be praise and adoration.

"All Baptized persons of 21 years or over who have made the Church of St. Martin-in-the-Fields their usual place of worship for one year and who, as shown by the Treasurer's Books, have contributed to the current expenses of the Parish in the past two calendar years - shall be entitled to a voice and a vote at the Parish Meeting.

A PRAYER FOR THE PARISH

O LORD JESUS CHRIST, who hast promised thy presence and power to all who obey thy command to tell the nations of thy love; Bless we pray thee, our effort to strengthen and extend the work of our Parish. To all who shall take any part in our plans give wisdom and zeal. Bind our people in a closer fellowship. If any have grown careless, help us to lead them back to thy house that their love for thee may be renewed. Teach us to pray, labour and give more faithfully for the extension of thy Kingdom among men. Of thy mercy we ask this, O Blessed Saviour of the world, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost ever, one God, world without end.

Amen.

The Lord shall hear thee in distress,
His name shall well defend thee:
'Tis His to help,'tis His to bless
And strength He'll surely send thee:
To Him thy faithful offerings bear,
For He thy need well knoweth,
According to thine humble prayer
Which from thy heart out floweth,
His blessings He bestoweth.

Thy help, Lord God, our glory is,
And in thy name we trust, when
Our banners rise, declaring this,
Thy word is Yea and Amen.

Thereby shall men thine aid perceive,
When thou thy saints art raising,
In strength of thy right hand believe,
And in thy power amazing,
Thy grace and mercy praising.

LENT 1953

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who hatest nothing that Thou hast made, and dost forgive the sins of all those who are penitent; Create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we worthily lamenting our sins and acknowledging our wretchedness, may obtain of Thee, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE FOURTH SUNDAY IN LENT

March 15, 1953

HOLY COMMUNION AND SERMON

Processional Hymn 522 Bohemian Brethren

Kyrie, Chant 702

Collect, Epistle and Gospel, page 130.

Sermon Hymn 437 Georgetwon

Anthem George C. Martin

Ho! everyone that thirsteth come ye to the waters and he that hath no money; come ye buy and eat.

Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

Incline your ear and come unto me; hear and your soul shall live.

Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts, and let him return unto the Lord and He will have mercy upon him, and to our God for He will abundantly pardon.

Then ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace; the mountains and hills shall break forth before you into singing. Then ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace.

And all the trees of the field shall clap their hands. Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree.

Hymn after the Prayer for Christ's Church 416

Sursum Corda and Sanctus, Chant 734,704.

YOUTH SUNDAY

It is always one of the high lights of our year when, on Youth Sunday which is held throughout our Church, the Young People of our Parishes take over the conduct of our worship. We would like to tell them how proud we are of them. One way perhaps, is to make use of the red envelopes which are enclosed in this leaflet, for the Nat- Youth Offering, which this year has been desig- nated for the building of a boys dormitory at the School in Alejandra, Mexico, around which our Youth Fellowship built its mission study during Lent.

CHURCH COLLEGES

Your prayers and contributions are particularly requested today, National Christian College Day, for our Episcopal Colleges, Hobart College, at Geneva, New York, Trinity College, Hartford, Conn. Kenyon College, Gambier, Ohio and the University of the South, at Sewanee, Tenn. These four small colleges have educated 14% of our living clergy and a quarter of all our living Bishops.

CANTATA

Because of the state of the Organ, the Cantata, "Rejoice in the Lamb" has been postponed from May 3rd to Sunday, May 17th.

Response to Decalogue, page 68, Chant 701

Collect, Epistle and Gospel, page 174

Sermon Hymn 254 Missionary Hymn

Anthem, Psalm XX Heinrich Schutz
(1585-1672)

The Lord shall bear thee in distress,
His name shall well defend thee
'Tis His to help, 'tis His to bless,
And strength He'll surely send thee
To Him thy faithful offerings bear,
For He thy need well knoweth,
According to thine humble prayer which hideth
With righteousness his throne is bright
In judgement he abideth,
All men to him he guideth.

Before him goes consuming fire
Wherewith his foes he freighteth,
In thunder-crash and lightnings dire,
The trembling earth he smiteth.
Like wax the Mountains melt away,
Before his presence fleeing,
For over all he holdeth sway,
He gives to earth her being.
Her near and distant seeing.

CHURCH OF ST. MARTIN-IN-THE-FIELDS

CLOSING EXCERCISES OF THE CHURCH SCHOOL
June 7, 1953

Processional Hymn 506 "Father in Heaven"

Opening Sentences

M. The Lord be with you.
P. And with thy spirit.
M. Let us pray.

All. Almighty God, unto whom all hearts are open all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid; cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of Thy Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love Thee and worthily magnify Thy Holy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

M. O Lord, open thou our lips,
P. And our mouth shall show forth thy praise.
M. Glory be to the Father . . . . . .

Psalm 145, page 520

The Lesson - Acts 2:1-14, 37-42.

Hymn 258

M. Let us pray.

A LITANY OF PRAISE

For the blessed Easter message that the Lord is risen indeed.
P. We praise thee, O God.

M. For the Easter joy which fills our hearts because Christ dwells therein;
P. We praise thee, O God.

M. For the glorious Ascension of Christ into heaven, where He has gone to prepare a place for us;
P. We praise thee, O God.

M. For the joy which is ours when we seek the things which are above where Christ sitteth at the right hand of God;
P. We praise thee, O God.

M. For the day of Pentecost when thou didst come in the power of the Spirit upon the first disciples;
P. We praise thee, O God.

M. For the presence of that Holy Spirit in our hearts, giving us strength to be loving, helpful and obedient,
P. We praise thee, O God.

M. For the blessed Trinity whereby we know our God as Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
P We praise thee, O God.

M. Therefore with angels and archangels and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious name, ever more praising thee and saying:

All. Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of hosts; heaven and earth are full of thy glory; Glory be to thee, O Lord Most High.

M. Almighty God, our Father in heaven, we thank thee for the life that now is ours: for the parents who love us and whom we love; for the homes which their love provides for us, and for the friends who make us happy day by day; for health and strength and the joy of service; we thank thee also for the joyful life that is to come, which has been made known to us through thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Psalm 24, Page 368

Lesson, Luke 2:41

Benedictus, Page 14, Chant 643

Hymn 576: "Come, Labor On" ..... Ora Labora

During the singing of this Hymn the Teachers and Officers of the Church School will come forward to the Altar Rail.

Rector: Dearly beloved, you stand here before God and this company as chosen leaders in the program of Christian Education. You have one of the most important and essential offices within the gift of the Church. Your work is therefore not to be entered into unadvisedly or lightly, but seriously, conscientiously, and as in the sight of God. With all this in mind, are you now ready to undertake the duties of your various offices?

Response: We are ready, God being our helper. And we here dedicate both our souls and minds to Him in the work of His Church, in a sober, righteous and godly life. In this resolution, we ask Him to confirm and strengthen us that day by day we may grow in grace as leaders in our Church School.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing)

All: O GOD, by whom the meek are guided in judgment, and light riseth up in darkness for the godly, grant us in all our doubts and uncertainties, the grace to ask what Thou wouldst have us to do, that the Spirit of Wisdom may save us from all false choices, and that in Thy light we may see light and in Thy straight path may not stumble, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Officers and Teachers will return to their places.

The Rector will address the Congregation as follows:

Do you, as the Congregation, Parents and Friends, in the presence of God and of this entire company, promise to give these chosen leaders the wholehearted cooperation so necessary to the accomplishment of their task?

Response: We do so promise, God being our helper.

Rector: Let us pray (All standing.)

All: ALMIGHTY GOD, heavenly Father, Who hast blessed us with the joy and care of children: give us light and strength so to train them, that they may love whatsoever things are true and pure and lovely and of good report, following the example of their Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Rector will address the Church School pupils as follows:

As pupils of the Church School of St. Martin-in-the-Fields and disciples of Jesus Christ, will you serve Him, by faithfully trying to live in His way in your homes, in your community, in your schools and in your Church, as you promised, or as was promised for you, at your Baptism?

Response: I will by God's help.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing)

DEFEND, O Lord these Thy children with Thy heavenly grace, that they may continue thine forever: and daily increase in Thy Holy Spirit more and more until they come unto thine everlasting kingdom. Amen.

All: ALMIGHTY GOD, our heavenly Father, Who art the only source of light and life; send down upon this School the rich gifts of Thy good Spirit, that Thy truth may be sincerely sought, faithfully received and obediently followed. Endue its teachers with wisdom, zeal and patience. Inspire its scholars with the spirit of truth, honor and humility. May they day by day grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Hymn 238: "Father of Mercy" ..... St. Elizabeth

Sermon Hymn 578, "Children of the Heavenly King"..... Pleyel's Hymn

Anthem ..... Geoffrey Shaw

Praise God in His holiness: Praise Him in the firmament of His Power.

Praise Him in His noble acts: Praise Him according to His excellent greatness.

Praise Him in the sound of the trumpet: Praise Him upon the lute and harp.

Praise Him in the cymbals and dances. Praise Him upon the strings and pipe.

Praise Him upon the well tuned cymbals, Praise Him upon the loud cymbals.

Let everything that hath breath Praise the Lord.

Recessional Hymn 385: "Glorious Things of Thee"..... Austria

A PRAYER FOR PHYSICIANS AND NURSES

O ALMIGHTY GOD who didst send thy blessed Son to be the great Physician both of the souls and bodies of all thy children; Look we beseech thee, upon thy servants to whom thou hast committed the care of the sick. Bless O Lord, the remedies which they employ; help them ever to remember that in ministering to others they are ministering to thee;give them grace to be tender and patient in all their service, and fill their hearts with sympathy and love, for the sake of the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Anthem, Psalm XCVII — Heinrich Schutz (1585-1672)

The Lord is king, o'er land and sea
Let earth declare her gladness,
He dwells in deep and secret light,
The cloud his glory hideth,
With righteousness his throne is bright,
In judgement he abideth
All men to him he guideth

Before him goes consuming fire
Wherewith his foes he freighteth,
In thunder-crash and lightnings dire,
The trembling earth he smiteth.
Like wax the mountains melt away,
Before his presence fleeing,
For over all he holdeth sway,
He gives to earth her being,
Her near and distant seeing.

Kyrie, Chant 702

Collect, Epistle and Gospel, page 95.

Sermon Hymn 473 Dawn

Anthem Bach

O rejoice, ye Christians loudly
For your joy is now begun.
Wondrous things our God hath done,
Tell abroad His goodness proudly,
Who our race hath honored thus,
That he deigns to dwell with us.
Joy, O joy beyond all gladness
Christ has done away with sadness
Hence, all sorrow and repining,
For the Sun of grace is shining.

See, my soul, thy saviour chooses,
Weakness here and poverty,
In such love He comes to thee.
Nor the hardest couch refuses;
All He suffers for thy good,
To redeem thee by His blood.
Joy, O joy . . .

Hymn after Prayer for Christ's Church 10
Winchester New.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Sturges extend a cordial invitation to "open house" at the Rectory following the decorating of the Church and Volunteer Choir rehearsal on Tuesday evening.

The Parish is indebted to Mr. James Ashbrook for the beautiful poster announcing our Christmas services, in front of the Church. The letters derive from a Carolingian manuscript from the monastery in Tours, of which St. Martin was Bishop.

* * *

Please do not forget to take your 1954 offering envelopes from the table at the back of the Church, if you have not done so.

* * *

The Rector will be glad to bring the Communion from the service on St. Stephen's Day to those unable to attend Church. Please call the Parish Office for an appointment.

In Thee is gladness, Amid all sadness
Jesus, sunshine of my heart!
By Thee are given, The joys of heaven
Thou the true Redeemer art!
Our souls Thou wakest, Our bonds Thou breakes
Who trusts Thee surely Hath built securely
He stands for ever. Hallelujah!
Our hearts are pining, To see Thy shining
Dying or living to Thee are cleaving
Naught can us sever: Hallelujah!
He intercedeth and ever pleadeth,
Jesus the truth and the way.
Fair as a flower, Waiteth the hour,
Them that seek Thee will find Thee today.
Though earth us faileth, Thy love availeth,
Who calleth clearly, findeth Thee early.
Never forsaken, Hallelujah!
All sin forgiven, earnest of heaven,
Peace like a river, floweth forever.
New songs awaken! Hallelujah!
In Thee is gladness! Hallelujah!

A PRAYER FOR OUR PARISH

O GOD, our heavenly Father, make the door of our Parish Church wide enough to receive all who need human love and fellowship and a Father's care; and narrow enough to shut out all envy, pride and uncharitableness. Make its threshold smooth enough to be no stumbling-block to children, to weak or straying feet; but rugged and strong enough to turn back the tempter's power. O heavenly Father, make the door of our Church the gateway to Thine eternal Kingdom. Bless every member and worker in our Parish. May all that we do be to thy honor and glory, the upbuilding of our Parish and the extension of Thy Kingdom. May we continue Thine forever and daily increase in Thy Holy Spirit of love and service to others; through Jesus Christ our only Lord and Saviour. Amen.

USHERS: Messrs.Brock,Canby,Churchman,Zimmerman and Dilks.

The second part of the Funds of the BUILDERS FOR CHRIST Campaign will go for buildings of our Church overseas, the major portion having been assigned to Japan. Japan is a strategic area not only politically, but also religiously. After Japan's defeat in World War II, State Shinto was abolished, so that now there is a greater opportunity for Christianity than ever before in Japan's history. By giving to BUILDERS FOR CHRIST, Church people can provide some of the tools the Japanese Church needs to build more Christians.

A Prayer for the Church in Japan

Blessed Lord, we beseech Thee to pour out Thy Holy Spirit upon Thy Church in Japan, That she may stand fast in the faith, and that through her the people of that land may learn to know and love Thee, their Saviour, whom with the Father and the Holy Ghost, we worship as one God, world without end.
Amen.

PALM SUNDAY, April 11

Missionary work is important right here in the United States, just as it is overseas. A large part of the $4,150,000 goal of our Church's "Builders for Christ Campaign is for strengthening this missionary work at home. $500,000 is needed for the American Church Institute for Negroes for repairs in five Church Sponsored Schools in the South, and $300,000 for a few of the most urgent building needs of the Church at home. You are asked to support these efforts by pledging generously to the BUILDERS FOR CHRIST Campaign.

Death, I do not fear thee,
Though thou standest near me.
Grave I calmly spurn thee,
Though to dust thou turn me!
Strong in hope and faith,
Rising up and singing
I shall, heavenward winging
Soar and vanquish death.
And with the blest, shall forever rest,
He that reigns will rend my chains.
Earth may vanish, heaven may sever,
God is God, forever.

AN EASTER MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDING BISHOP

THE LORD IS RISEN — HE IS RISEN INDEED

Christianity is a paradox for it is the story of defeat and victory, of sorrow and of joy, of the Cross and of the Resurrection. Good Friday and Easter go hand in hand in the Gospel as they do in life. Only those who have tried humbly to take up a cross in the service of Christ can fully experience the deep and abiding joy of Easter morning. There are those who view Christianity as a means of escape from the labor, the burden bearing, the human failure and penitence, which are a part of daily living. But Christianity is deeper and more realistic than that—courage, unselfishness, sacrifice are Christian virtues. Easter does not give us exemption from the need of such. Rather, Easter tells us that the battle is worth while and assures us of the power to live victoriously. For the joy that was set before Him, He endured a Cross. There is the promise of Eastertide, a joy which no man or circumstance can take from us.

27 Melons and a Hen

IN the basket on her head she brought her offering to God: twenty-seven melons and a hen. She brought them to the palm leaf shelter, God's church, where she and her family worship. This was a family offering, for they had toiled together in the hot sun and in the wind storms to care for God's handiwork. Out of a heart overflowing, they gave thanks.

Are we ever hungry because of our giving? Are we ever weary from carrying heavy burdens for others? Do we, as a family, give from our common effort? Is our giving an offering of ourselves?

This year the Youth Offering is to help strengthen and extend youth work in Haiti. The Rt. Rev. C. Alfred Voegeli, Bishop of Haiti, writes in Haitian Drums Beat to all young people and their families saying,

"I wish I could invite you to come and visit us here in Haiti, only then would you realize how important the mission of the Episcopal Church is and how much Haiti depends on the fulfillment of our mission within her borders. We are endeavoring to bring the redemptive power of God's love into the lives of as many Haitians as possible. We are doing this by preaching the Gospel, administering the sacraments, ministering to the sick and needy, educating many of the unlettered masses, casting out the power of fear, and bringing a new vision and a new hope to as many as possible.

"The Church has established a seminary from which seminarians go forth joining with the other forty clergy, one hundred lay leaders, and school teachers, to work in the seventy-six missions and forty mountain schools, traveling on foot and horseback. The Sisters of St. Margaret are responsible for the girl's school, a children's aid program, an altar bread department, and St. Vincent's School for Handicapped Children, the only school of its kind in the islands. In brief, this is a missionary diocese whose mission is the Church's or Christ's Mission to redeem the world. You too may share by your interest, your prayers, and your support."

First returns of the "BUILDERS FOR CHRIST CAMPAIGN" Have been most encouraging. If you have not sent in your pledge, a visitor will call on you this afternoon, and it is hoped that you will be there to receive him.

Have you ever visited historic old St. Paul's Church which was built in 1761 and has been occupied by the City Mission for about 50 years? Following the completion of major alterations, the new quarters will be blessed by Bishop Hart at 2:30 P.M., Tuesday, May 18th. Everyone is invited. The Ceremony will be followed by a Reception and Tea. Mrs. Theodore Wedel will speak on "Health and Welfare Needs of the Nation and the Place of the Church Agency."

The first floor of Old St. Paul's, the headquarters of the Episcopal City Mission, at 225 S. 23rd St, ahs been completely remodeled into modern office space and consultation rooms for the Family Counseling Service and the Epiecopal Children's Service, plus a kitchen and common room for the staff of the Mission. These will be dedicated by Bishop Hart on Tuesday, at which time both Mrs. Theodore Wedel and the Rev. Arnold Purdie, Executive Director of the Mission will speak. A Reception and tour of the new offices will follow the formal meeting. The City Mission is the one Diocesan agency for social service work and here is a rare opportunity to get to know it and learn where and how it functions.

The Musical Service this afternoon will feature works by English Composers.

Responsive Reading — The Canticle of St. Francis

O most high, omnipotent, good Lord God, to thee belong praise, glory, honor and all blessing.

For our brother the sun, who is our day and who brings us the light; who is fair, and radiant with a very great splendour;

Praised be our Lord.

For our sister the moon, and for the stars, which thou hast set clear and lovely in heaven;

Praised be our Lord.

For our brother the wind, and for air and cloud, calms and all weather;

Praised be our Lord.

For our sister water, who is very serviceable unto us and humble and precious and clean;

Praised be our Lord.

For our brother fire, by whom thou lightest up the night, and who is fair and merry, and very mighty and strong;

Praised be our Lord.

For our mother the earth, which doth sustain us and keep us and bringeth forth divers fruits, and flowers of many colors, and grass;

Praised be our Lord.

For all those who pardon one another for thy love's sake, and who bear weakness and tribulation;

Praised be our Lord.

For our sister, the death of the body;

Praised be our Lord.

Blessed are they who peaceably shall endure, walking by thy most holy will; for thou, O most Highest, shall give them a crown.

Praise ye and bless ye the Lord, and give thanks unto him, and serve him with great humility. Amen.

Let us pray.

O GOD, we thank thee for this universe, our great home; for its vastness and its riches, and for the manifoldness of the life which teems upon it and of which we are a part. We praise thee for the arching sky and the blessed winds, for the driving clouds and the constellations on high. We praise thee for the salt sea and the running water, for the everlasting hills, for the trees, and for the grass under our feet. We thank thee for our senses by which we can see the splendor of the morning, and hear the jubilant songs of love, and smell the breath of springtime. Grant us, we pray thee, a heart wide open to all this joy and beauty, and save our souls from being so steeped in care or so darkened by passion that we pass heedless and unseeing when even the thorn-brush by the wayside is aflame with the glory of GOD; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PART II

"And in One Lord Jesus Christ"

Hymn 363: "Lord of All Hopefulness" ..... Slane

Lesson: John 14:1-13

Anthem: "A Hymn to Jesus" ..... Whitehead

In Thee is gladness, Amid all sadness
Jesus, the sunshine of my heart
By Thee are given, The joys of heaven
Thou the true Redeemer art!
Our souls Thou wakest, Our bonds Thou breakest,
Who trust Thee surely hath built securely
He stands for ever: Hallelujah!

Our hearts are pining to see Thy shining
Dying or living to Thee are cleaving,
Naught can us sever: Hallelujah!
He intercedeth, And ever pleadeth,
Jesus the truth and the way
Fair as a flower, Waiteth the hour—
Them that seek Thee will find Thee today.
Though earth us faileth, Thy love availeth,
Who calleth clearly, Findeth Thee early
Never forsaken. Hallelujah!

All sin forgiven, Earnest of heaven
Peace like a river, Floweth for ever.
New songs awaken! Hallelujah!
In Thee is gladness, Hallelujah!

An Offering of Praise and Adoration to Christ

Lift up your hearts,

We lift them up unto the Lord.

He laid his right hand upon me, saying, Fear not: I am the first and the last; I am he that liveth and was dead; and behold I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and death.

Glory be to thee, O Lord most high.

I saw in the midst of the throne a Lamb as it had been slain.

Glory be to thee, O Lord most high.

Lo, I am with you all the days;

Even unto the end of the world.

Worthy is the Lamb that was slain, to receive power and riches, and wisdom and strength, and honor and glory and blessing.

Blessing and honor, and glory and power, be unto thee for ever and ever.

Let us pray.

O KING of men, Master of our lives, entering into thy glory by the cross, to whom all authority is given, both in heaven and on earth, we acknowledge thy sovereignty over every realm of life. Come, O Lord, enter into thy kingdom; subdue the world by the might of thy love.

Blessing and honor, and glory and power, be unto thee for ever and ever.

O Son of Mary,	Consecrate our homes.
Son of David,	Cleanse our politics.
Son of Man,	Rule the affairs of nations.
Son of God,	Give us eternal life.
Jesus the Carpenter,	Hallow our daily work.
Jesus the Christ,	Deliver a world which waits for thee.
Jesus the Saviour,	Save us from ourselves.
Jesus the Life-giver,	Renew thy Church.
Word of God,	Perfect thy creation.

Lord exalted at the Father's side,

Raise us to live with thee in God.

He humbled himself, becoming obedient unto death. Therefore hath God highly exalted him and given him a name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee shall bow, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Amen.

I will not leave you comfortless.

I will come to you.

I will see you again and your heart shall rejoice.

And your joy no man taketh from you.

What shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

All. Neither life nor death, nor things present, nor things to come, can separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord. Alleluia, Amen.

PART III

"And in The Holy Ghost — The Lord and Giver of Life"

Hymn 377 ..... Lew Trenchard

Lesson: John 14:15-19, 25-29.

Anthem: "Expectans, Expectavi" ..... Charles Wood

This sanctuary of my soul, unwitting I keep white and whole,
Unlatched and lit, if Thou shouldest care
To enter or to tarry there.
With parted lips and out-stretched hands,
And listening ears, Thy servant stands.
Call Thou early, call Thou late,
To Thy great service, dedicate.
My soul, keep white and whole.

Thanksgiving for the Work of God's Spirit

O LORD, who hast set before us the great hope that thy kingdom shall come on earth, and has taught us to pray for its coming, make us ever ready to thank thee for the signs of its dawning, and to pray and work for that perfect day when thy will shall be done on earth as it is in heaven. For the work of thy Spirit within and beyond the bounds of thy visible Church,

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the history of the world, through peaceful advance, and through pain and tumult,

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the history of our own country, through its heroes and leaders, in statecraft, law and industry,

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in science and commerce, in literature and art,

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the slow triumph of truth over error,

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the growing desire for true brotherhood, between every class and nation,

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the spread of education, and in the development of a fuller life for individuals, with healthier surroundings and better conditions,

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the deepening sense of human worth in all nations and classes, and in the growing reverence for womanhood and childhood,

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the Church, which will not cease until it joins all nations and kindred tongues and peoples into one great family, to thy praise and glory,

We thank thee, O Lord. Amen.

"Three Persons, One God"

Hymn 272: "Thou Whose Almighty Word" .....Moscow

Lesson: Revelation 4:1-11

Offertory Anthem .....Rachmaninoff

Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, both now, and ever, and to the ages of ages. Amen.
Only begotten Son, Word of the Father, who are immortal,
Thou didst vouchsafe for our salvation, to become incarnate of the Holy Mother of God, the blessed and ever Virgin Mary.
Changeless Essence, lo, thou wast made very Man; and Crucified, thou the God-man, to vanquish death by dying.
Thou alone, O Christ, are glorified in the Trinity with Father and Holy Spirit:
O save us, O save us. Lord have mercy upon us.
To thee O Lord, we cry. Amen, Amen.

Hymn 576: "Come, Labor On" .....Ora Labora

During the singing of this Hymn the Teachers and Officers of the Church School will come forward to the Altar Rail.

Rector: Dearly beloved, you stand here before God and this company as chosen leaders in the program of Christian Education. You have one of the most important and essential offices within the gift of the Church. Your work is therefore not to be entered into unadvisedly or lightly, but seriously, conscientiously, and as in the sight of God. With all this in mind, are you now ready to undertake the duties of your various offices?

Response: We are ready, God being our helper. And we here dedicate both our souls and minds to Him in the work of His Church, in a sober, righteous and godly life. In this resolution, we ask Him to confirm and strengthen us that day by day we may grow in grace as leaders in our Church School.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing)

All: O GOD, by whom the meek are guided in judgment, and light riseth up in darkness for the godly, grant us in all our doubts and uncertainties, the grace to ask what Thou wouldst have us to do, that the Spirit of Wisdom may save us from all false choices, and that in Thy light we may see light and in Thy straight path may not stumble, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Officers and Teachers will return to their places.

The Rector will address the Congregation as follows:

Do you, as the Congregation, Parents and Friends, in the presence of God, and of this entire company, promise to give these chosen leaders the wholehearted cooperation so necessary to the accomplishment of their task?

Response: We do so promise, God being our helper.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing)

All: ALMIGHTY GOD, heavenly Father, Who hast blessed us with the joy and care of children: give us light and strength so to train them, that they may love whatsoever things are true and pure and lovely and of good report, following the example of their Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Rector will address the Church School pupils as follows:

As pupils of the Church School of St. Martin-in-the-Fields and disciples of Jesus Christ, will you serve Him, by faithfully trying to live in His way in your homes, in your community, in your schools and in your Church, as you promised, or as was promised for you, at your Baptism?

Response: I will by God's help.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing)

DEFEND, O Lord these Thy children with Thy heavenly grace, that they may continue thine forever: and daily increase in Thy Holy Spirit more and more until they come unto thine everlasting kingdom. Amen.

All: ALMIGHTY GOD, our heavenly Father, Who art the only source of light and life; send down upon this School the rich gifts of Thy good Spirit, that Thy truth may be sincerely sought, faithfully received and obediently followed. Endue its teachers with wisdom, zeal and patience. Inspire its scholars with the spirit of truth, honor and humility. May they day by day grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Lord's my shepherd, I'll not want
He makes me down to lie in pastures green
He leadeth me the quiet waters by.
My soul He doth restore again;
And me to walk doth make
Within the paths of righteousness,
E'en for His Name's sake.
Yea, though I walk in death's dark vale,
Yet will I fear none ill;
For Thou are with me; and
Thy rod and staff me comfort still
My table Thou hast furnished
In presence of my foes;
My head Thou dost with oil anoint,
And my cup over flows.
Goodness and mercy all my life
Shall surely follow me:
And in God's house for evermore
My dwelling place shall be. Amen.

This Sunday has been designated "Red Feather Sunday" and the prayers of the congregation are asked for the many agencies in our Community Chest and their prayerful consideration for the support they will give for them.

The 25th Synod of the Province of Washington will meet in Philadelphia for three days starting Tuesday, October 19. The opening Service will be held that night at Holy Trinity Church, Rittenhouse Square, with the Rt. Rev. Angus Dun, of Washington, as preacher. It is hoped that many from the Parish will attend this service. All the meetings of the Synod will be held in Holy Trinity and the galleries will be opened to the public.

Next Sunday we welcome the Rt. Rev. J. Gillespie Armstrong,S.T.D., Suffragan Bishop of Pennsylvania, who comes to make the annual Episcopal Visitation and to confirm. Bishop Hart has asked that all those who have been confirmed in the past ten years be present at the time of the Visitation, to show that they are still true to their Confirmation vows, and letters have been sent to all those who have been confirmed at St. Martin's since Mr. Sturges has been Rector asking them to be present next Sunday. Mr. Sturges expects to have a class of about 25 to present next Sunday.

On Saturday, December 11, at 10:30, in the Church of our Saviour Jenkintown, our Curate, the Rev. Stanley E. Johnson will be advanced to the priesthood at a service of Ordination to be held there by Bishop Hart. The Rev. H. Lawrence Whittemore, Rector of Trinity Church, Swarthmore, will be the Preacher. It is hoped that many members of the Parish will want to be with Mr. Johnson at this high point in his life and to wish him Godspeed in his ministry.

ADMISSION OF CHORISTERS

January 30, 1955

CHURCH OF ST. MARTIN-IN-THE-FIELDS

AN OFFICE FOR THE ADMISSION OF CHORISTERS

The minister shall stand in the chancel, the choirmaster, vested, shall present to him the Candidates, and say these words:

Reverend Sir, I present unto you these persons present to be admitted as Choristers of this Church.

Minister: Take heed that the persons whom you present to us are apt and meet, by their purity of life, good behavior, and knowledge of music, to exercise this office to the honor of God and the edifying of the Church.

Choir-master: I have inquired of them and also examined them, and think them so to be.

Then the Minister addressing the Candidates shall say:

Do you desire to become a member of this Choir?

Answer: I do.

Minister: Do you promise obedience to its rules and officers?

Answer: I do.

Minister: Will you endeavour always to behave reverently in the House of God?

Answer: I will, with the help of God.

Minister: Will you strive that your life may be in accordance with this high office?

Answer: I will so strive, the Lord being my helper.

Minister: Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord. And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father by him.

. . . . . I admit you to the office of Chorister in this Church; and I give you this Hymnal as a token of your Ministry; In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

All: These are they whom David set over the service of song in the house of the Lord: And they ministered before the dwelling place of the tabernacle of the congregation with singing.

Minister: O come let us sing unto the Lord;
Choir: Let us heartily rejoice in the strength of our salvation.
Minister: Our help is in the name of the Lord.
Choir: Who hath made heaven and earth.
Minister: Blessed be the name of the Lord;
Choir: Henceforth, world without end.
Minister: Lord hear our prayer,
Choir: And let our cry come unto thee.
Minister: Let us pray.

O GOD, who didst inspire thy servant David both to write songs, and to appoint singers for thy worship; Give grace to the Choristers of thy Church, that speaking together in psalms and hymns, and spiritual songs they may sing and make melody in their hearts to thee, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

O MOST GRACIOUS LORD, we beseech Thee of thy great goodness to accept the dedication of these thy servants who are to offer the sacrifice of praise to thee in this house, which is called by thy name. Give them grace to prepare

The message, the gospel, the good news that the first disciples carried out into the surrounding world of Jews and pagans was not that a wonderful man who had spoken words such as never man had spoken, who had given men such an example of how to live as had never before been seen, who had healed and cured and succored the sick and the diseased and the needy, had been shamefully entreated and put to death. That could not have been called good news. They proclaimed that this same Jesus, had by His Resurrection proved that He was in truth the very Son of God and that His Resurrection had set the seal on the fact that "God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son to the end that all that believe in Him should not perish but have everlasting life." That because of His death and Rising again, men need no longer fear life, with its troubles and turmoils, its pains and distresses, so that too often it seemed but a "tale told by an idiot, full of sound and fury, signifying nothing." Nor need they fear death, and its entrance into a vast unknown. Life in Christ, had purpose, meaning, and made sense, and death was to be with Him, its terror torn away.

Unless we have, in some sense, experienced what those first disciples did, through our "meditation of those mighty acts" of Holy Week, we cannot appreciate the tremendousness of the meaning of Easter. Easter can be the thanksgiving and praise for the return of the seasons, a rejoicing that Spring has come again, that God has not forgotten His people. In that we are one with all peoples from the beginning of time. But that is not the Christian Easter. Christ rising from the dead, is the promise that out of defeat and disaster, out of despair, God brings in His Victory, and that we who are His, no matter how small and unimportant we may seem share in that Victory, and that our lives have a place and a part in it.

Faithfully your rector,

Phinehas F. Sturges

O Risen Lord! Who givest the Victory; Raise us, we pray Thee, from the death of sin unto the life of Righteousness, and fill us with spiritual benediction, that both now and in the world to come we may have life everlasting. Amen.

EASTER DAY 1955

ALMIGHTY God, who through thine only-begotten Son Jesus Christ hast overcome death, and opened unto us the gate of everlasting life; We humbly beseech thee that, as by thy special grace preventing us thou dost put into our minds good desires, so by thy continual help we may bring the same to good effect; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost ever, one God, world without end. Amen.

Responsive Reading—The Canticle of St. Francis

O most high, omnipotent, good Lord God, to thee belong praise, glory, honor and all blessing.

For our brother the sun, who is our day and who brings us the light; who is fair, and radiant with a very great splendour;

Praised be our Lord.

For our sister the moon, and for the stars, which thou hast set clear and lovely in heaven;

Praised be our Lord.

For our brother the wind, and for air and cloud, calms and all weather;

Praised be our Lord.

For our sister water, who is very serviceable unto us and humble and precious and clean;

Praised be our Lord.

For our brother fire, by whom thou lightest up the night, and who is fair and merry, and very mighty and strong;

Praised be our Lord.

For our mother the earth, which doth sustain us and keep us and bringeth forth divers fruits, and flowers of many colors, and grass;

Praised be our Lord.

For all those who pardon one another for thy love's sake, and who bear weakness and tribulation;

Praised be our Lord.

For our sister, the death of the body;

Praised be our Lord.

Blessed are they who peaceably shall endure, walking by thy most holy will; for thou, O most Highest, shall give them a crown.

Praise ye and bless ye the Lord, and give thanks unto him, and serve him with great humility. Amen.

Let us pray.

O GOD, we thank thee for this universe, our great home; for its vastness and its riches, and for the manifoldness of the life which teems upon it and of which we are a part. We praise thee for the arching sky and the blessed winds, for the driving clouds and the constellations on high. We praise thee for the salt sea and the running water, for the everlasting hills, for the trees, and for the grass under our feet. We thank thee for our senses by which we can see the splendor of the morning, and hear the jubilant songs of love, and smell the breath of springtime. Grant us, we pray thee, a heart wide open to all this joy and beauty, and save our souls from being so steeped in care or so darkened by passion that we pass heedless and unseeing when even the thorn-brush by the wayside is aflame with the glory of GOD; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

An Offering of Praise and Adoration to Christ

Lift up your hearts,

We lift them up unto the Lord.

He laid his right hand upon me, saying, Fear not: I am the first and the last; I am he that liveth and was dead; and behold I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and death.

Glory be to thee, O Lord most high.

I saw in the midst of the throne a Lamb as it had been slain.

Glory be to thee, O Lord most high.

Lo, I am with you all the days;

Even unto the end of the world.

Worthy is the Lamb that was slain, to receive power and riches, and wisdom and strength, and honor and glory and blessing.

Blessing and honor, and glory and power, be unto thee for ever and ever.

Let us pray.

O KING of men, Master of our lives, entering into thy glory by the cross, to whom all authority is given, both in heaven and on earth, we acknowledge thy sovereignty over every realm of life. Come, O Lord, enter into thy kingdom; subdue the world by the might of thy love.

Blessing and honor, and glory and power, be unto thee for ever and ever.

O Son of Mary,	Consecrate our homes.
Son of David,	Cleanse our politics.
Son of Man,	Rule the affairs of nations.
Son of God,	Give us eternal life.
Jesus the Carpenter,	Hallow our daily work.
Jesus the Christ,	Deliver a world which waits for thee.
Jesus the Saviour,	Save us from ourselves.
Jesus the Life-giver,	Renew thy Church.
Word of God,	Perfect thy creation.

Lord exalted at the Father's side,

Raise us to live with thee in God.

He humbled himself, becoming obedient unto death. Therefore hath God highly exalted him and given him a name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee shall bow, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Amen.

I will not leave you comfortless.

I will come to you.

I will see you again and your heart shall rejoice.

And your joy no man taketh from you.

What shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

All. Neither life nor death, nor things present, nor things to come, can separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord. Alleluia, Amen.

PART III

"And in The Holy Ghost—The Lord and Giver of Life"

Hymn 377 ..... Lew Trenchard

Lesson: John 14:15-19, 25-29

Anthem: "Come Holy Ghost" ..... Palestrina
(Words of Hymn 217)

Thanksgiving for the Work of God's Spirit

O LORD, who hast set before us the great hope that thy kingdom shall come on earth, and has taught us to pray for its coming, make us ever ready to thank thee for the signs of its dawning, and to pray and work for that perfect day when thy will shall be done on earth as it is in heaven. For the work of thy Spirit within and beyond the bounds of thy visible Church,

We thank thee, O Lord

For the work of thy Spirit in the history of the world, through peaceful advance, and through pain and tumult,

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the history of our own country, through its heroes and leaders, in statecraft, law and industry,

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in science and commerce, in literature and art,

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the slow triumph of truth over error,

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the growing desire for true brotherhood, between every class and nation,

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the spread of education, and in the development of a fuller life for individuals, with healthier surroundings and better conditions,

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the deepening sense of human worth in all nations and classes, and in the growing reverence for womanhood and childhood,

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the Church, which will not cease until it joins all nations and kindred tongues and peoples into one great family, to thy praise and glory,

We thank thee, O Lord, Amen.

Jubilate Deo, Page 15, Chant 644

Hymn 576: "Come, Labor On" .....Ora Labora

During the singing of this Hymn the Teachers and Officers of the Church School will come forward to the Altar Rail.

Rector: Dearly beloved, you stand here before God and this company as chosen leaders in the program of Christian Education. You have one of the most important and essential offices within the gift of the Church. Your work is therefore not to be entered into unadvisedly or lightly, but seriously, conscientiously, and as in the sight of God. With all this in mind, are you now ready to undertake the duties of your various offices?

Response: We are ready, God being our helper. And we here dedicate both our souls and minds to Him in the work of His Church, in a sober, righteous and godly life. In this resolution, we ask Him to confirm and strengthen us that day by day we may grow in grace as leaders in our Church School.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing)

All: O GOD, by whom the meek are guided in judgment, and light riseth up in darkness for the godly, grant us in all our doubts and uncertainties, the grace to ask what Thou wouldst have us to do, that the Spirit of Wisdom may save us from all false choices, and that in Thy light we may see light and in Thy straight path may not stumble, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Officers and Teachers will return to their places.

The Rector will address the Congregation as follows:

Do you, as the Congregation, Parents and Friends, in the presence of God, and of this entire company, promise to give these chosen leaders the wholehearted cooperation so necessary to the accomplishment of their task?

Response: We do so promise, God being our helper.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing)

All: ALMIGHTY GOD, heavenly Father, Who hast blessed us with the joy and care of children: give us light and strength so to train them, that they may love whatsoever things are true and pure and lovely and of good report, following the example of their Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Rector will address the Church School pupils as follows:

As pupils of the Church School of St. Martin-in-the-Fields and disciples of Jesus Christ, will you serve Him, by faithfully trying to live in His way in your homes, in your community, in your schools and in your Church, as you promised, or as was promised for you, at your Baptism?

Response: I will by God's help.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing)

DEFEND, O Lord these Thy children with Thy heavenly grace, that they may continue thine forever: and daily increase in Thy Holy Spirit more and more until they come unto thine everlasting kingdom. Amen.

All: ALMIGHTY GOD, our heavenly Father, Who art the only source of light and life; send down upon this School the rich gifts of Thy good Spirit, that Thy truth may be sincerely sought, faithfully received and obediently followed. Endue its teachers with wisdom, zeal and patience. Inspire its scholars with the spirit of truth, honor and humility. May they day by day grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Hymn 239: "God my Father" ..... Vienna

Sermon Hymn 578, "Children of the Heavenly King" . Pleyel's Hymn

Anthem, "Praise God in His Holiness" ..... Geoffrey Shaw

Praise God in His holiness: Praise Him in the firmament of His power.

Praise Him in His noble acts: Praise Him according to His excellent greatness.

Praise Him in the sound of the trumpet: Praise Him upon the lute and harp.

Praise Him in the cymbals and dances: Praise Him upon the strings and pipe.

Praise God in His holiness: Praise Him in the firmament of His power.

Praise Him upon the well tuned cymbals: Praise Him upon the loud cymbals.

Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord.

Processional Hymn 402 — Munich

Response to Decalogue, page 68, Chant 701

Collect, Epistle and Gospel, page 92

Sermon Hymn 401 — Weymouth

Anthem — J.S. Bach

O rejoice, ye Christians loudly,
For your joy is now begun,
Wondrous things our God hath done.
Tell abroad His goodness proudly
Who our race has honoured thus
That He deigns to dwell with us.
Joy,O joy beyond all gladness
Christ hath done away with sadness
Hence all sorrow and repining,
For the Sun of grace is shining.

See, my soul, thy Saviour chooses,
Weakness here and poverty,
In such love He comes to thee.
Nor the hardest couch refuses;
All He suffers for thy good,
To redeem thee by His blood.
Joy, O joy, etc.

The Presiding Bishop's Christmas Message

"GOD SO LOVED THAT HE GAVE - "

The most significant events in our lives are given. We have nothing to say about our birth, our natural endowments, our initial environment. Unless we take a responsibility which does not belong to us, death comes upon us without our knowing the number of our days. The test of life is the way we meet and accept these given circumstances.

The deepest note of true religion is the giveness of God. "Ye have not chosen me ... I have chosen you." We show the quality of our Faith by our response.

So for the true understanding of Christmas the emphasis must be upon the fact, God so loved the world that he gave. The gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ.

God's blessings come not as a result of our own wisdom, creativeness, or worthiness. The initiative is His. God so loved.

So at this time with humble, thankful, and joyous hearts we receive the Lord Jesus Christ.

"How silently, how silently,
The wondrous gift is given!
Where meek souls will receive him,
Still the dear Christ enters in."

Henry K. Sherrill
Presiding Bishop

A PRAYER FOR OUR PARISH

O GOD our Heavenly Father, make the door of our Parish Church wide enough to receive all who need human love and fellowship and a Father's care; and narrow enough to shut out all envy, pride and uncharitableness. Make its threshold smooth enough to be no stumbling block to children, to weak or straying feet; but rugged and strong enough to turn back the Tempter's power. O Heavenly Father, make the door of our Parish Church a gateway to Thy eternal kingdom. Bless every member and worker in it. May all that we do be to Thy Honour and Glory, the upbuilding of our Parish and the extension of Thy Kingdom. May we continue to be Thine forever and daily increase in Thy Holy Spirit more and more in love and daily service to others; Through Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

SERVERS: Robert Lentz and John Randall.

THE THIRD SUNDAY IN LENT

March 4, 1956

HOLY COMMUNION AND SERMON

Processional Hymn 536 Old 124th

Kyrie, page 70, Chant 702.

Collect, Epistle and Gospel, page 128.

Sermon Hymn 407 St. Hilda

Anthem Martin

Ho! everyone that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money, come, buy, and eat.

Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

Incline your ear, and come unto me: hear and your soul shall live.

Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the Lord, and He will have mercy upon him and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon

Then ye shall go out with joy and be led forth with peace. The mountains and hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the fields shall clap their hands.

Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree.

Hymn after the Prayer for Christ's Church 268 (v.

Colonists of Heaven

A MESSAGE FOR EASTER

EASTER without Good Friday would be unreality. Good Friday without Easter would be unrelieved tragedy. In the providence of God we have both. Sorrow and joy, defeat and victory, death and life are so inextricably intertwined.

We come into the world and we are given through the goodness of God, freedom of choice. We can be selfish or not, cowards or heroes, sinners or saints, of the earth earthy or colonists of heaven. The truth of the matter is that we are something of all. There are times when even the best of us must wonder if the struggle ought avails.

Holy Week and Eastertide give the eternal answer not in terms of our own success or worthiness but in those of God's mercy and love. Him God raised up, He is risen.

With a sense of awe we meet the Christ who has overcome Death and more than Death for us. With renewed hope and courage, with uplifted hearts, we march on through the chances and changes of this mortal life on our pilgrimage to that eternal city whose builder and founder is God.

Alleluia.

And did those feet in ancient time
Walk upon these our mountains green?
And was the Holy Lamb of God
On these our pleasant pastures seen?
And did the countenance Divine
Shine forth upon our clouded hills?
And was Jerusalem builded here
Among those dark Satanic mills?

Bring me my bow of burning gold!
Bring me my arrows of desire!
Bring me my spear! O clouds unfold!
Bring me my chariot of Fire!
I will not cease from mental flight:
Nor shall my sword sleep in my hand
Till we have built Jerusalem
In this our green and pleasant land.

Sing Alleluia forth in duteous praise,
Ye citizens of heaven - O sweetly raise,
An endless Alleluia.
Ye powers, who stand before the Eternal Light
In hymning choirs reecho to the height
An endless Alleluia.
The Holy city shall take up your strain.
And with glad songs resounding wake again
An endless Alleluia.
In blissful antiphons ye thus rejoice
To render to the Lord with thankful voice
An endless Alleluia.
Ye who have gained at length your pains in bliss
Victorious ones, your chant shall still be this
An endless Alleluia.
Then in one grand acclaim, for ever sing,
The strains which tell the honour of your King,
An endless Alleluia.
While Thee, by whom were all things made,
We praise forever, and tell out in sweetest lays.
An endless Alleluia.
Almighty Christ, to Thee our voices sing
Glory for ever more; to Thee we bring
An endless Alleluia! Amen. Amen.

Response to Decalogue, page 68, Chant 701

Collect, Epistle and Gospel, page 188

Sermon Hymn 280 Stuttgart

Anthem Whitehead

In Thee is gladness, amid all sadness,
Jesus sunshine of my heart.
By Thee are given, the joys of heaven,
Thou the true Redeemer art!
Our souls Thou wakest, our bonds Thou breakest,
Who trusts Thee surely, hath built securely,
He stands forever: Hallelujah!
Our hearts are pining, to see Thy shining,
Dying or living to Thee are cleaving,
Naught can us sever: Hallelujah!
He intercedeth and ever pleadeth,
Jesus, the truth and the way.
Fair as a flower, waiteth the hour,
Them that seek Thee will find Thee today.
Though earth us faileth, Thy love availeth.
Who calleth clearly, findeth Thee early,
Never forsaken, Hallelujah!
All sin forgiven, earnest of Heaven,
Peace like a river floweth forever,
New songs awaken! Hallelujjah!
In Thee is gladness! In Thee is gladness!
Hallelujah!

Sermon Hymn 401 — Weymouth

Anthem — Bach

O rejoice ye Christians, loudly,
For your joy is now begun,
Wondrous things our God hath done.
Tell abroad His goodness proudly
Who our race hath honored thus,
That he deigns to dwell with us.
Joy, O joy beyond all gladness
Christ hath done away with sadness
Hence all sorrow and repining
For the Sun of grace is shining

See, my soul, thy Saviour chooses
Weakness here and poverty,
In such love He comes to thee
Nor the hardest couch refuses
All He suffers for thy good
To redeem thee by His blood.
Joy, O joy, etc. etc.

In Thee is gladness, Amid all sadness,
Jesus, sunshine of my heart!
By Thee are given, the joys of heaven,
Thou the true Redeemer art!
Our souls Thou wakest, our bonds Thou breakest,
Who trusts Thee surely, Hath built securely,
He stands forever, Hallelujah!
Our hearts are pining, to see Thy shining,
Dying or living to Thee are cleaving.
Naught can us sever, Hallelujah!
He intercedeth, and ever pleadeth,
Jesus, the truth and the way.
Fair as the flower, waiteth the hour,
Them that seek Thee will find Thee today.
Though earth us faileth, Thy love availeth.
Who calleth clearly, findeth Thee early,
Never forsaken, Hallelujah!
Peace like a river, floweth forever,
New songs awaken, Hallelujah!

Sermon Hymn 560 — Pentecost

Anthem — Ireland

Many waters cannot quench Love, neither can the floods drown it. Love is strong as death.

Greater Love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

Who His own self bare our sins in His own Body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness.

Ye are washed, ye are sanctified, ye are justified, in the Name of the Lord Jesus.

Ye are a chosen generation, a r.val priesthood, a holy nation. That he should shew forth the praises of Him Who hath called you out of darkness into His marvellous light.

I beseech you brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies, a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

He lived that his fair life might be to man
A perfect mirror of the Love of God,
The full expression of His Fatherhood.

He died that Love might live for evermore,
And find in Him its ever open door,
And we in Him find God still more and more.

He rose to show that Death is but the Gate
To Life Immortal, where He still doth wait
To welcome man with love impassionate.

THIRD SUNDAY IN LENT, March 24
- Dedication of New Organ — 11:00 Am

* * *

Oh do not pray for easy lives.
Do not pray for tasks equal to your powers.
Pray for powers equal to your tasks.
Then the doing of your work will be no miracle;
but you will be the miracle. And every day you will wonder at yourself, at the richness of life which has come to you by the Grace of God.

-Phillips Brooks.

THE THIRD SUNDAY IN LENT

March 24, 1957

DEDICATION OF ORGAN AND MORNING PRAYER

Prelude — Tocata (Dorian) — J. S. Bach
Solemn Melody — Walford Davies
Organ Concerto No.5 (Four Movements) — G. F. Handel

Processional Hymn 282 — Lauda Anima

The Dedication of the Organ

Anthem — Brahms

How lovely is Thy dwelling place , O Lord of Hosts.

For my soul longeth, yea, fainteth for the courts of the Lord, my soul and body crieth out, yea, for the living God.

Blest are they that dwell within Thy house, they praise Thy name evermore.

Venite, page 9, Chant 610

The First Lesson, Genesis 28:10-17

Te Deum Laudamus, page 10 — Stanford

The Second Lesson, Revelations 21:10

Benedictus, page 14, Chant 635

Sermon Hymn 600 — Darwell

Anthem — Hayd

As waves of a storm swept ocean
Are tossed in restless motion
So doth the soul unguided,
Wander forever lost.

Like vessels by tempest driven,
Like trees by lightning riven,
The spirit, its God denying
Sinks down defeated, dying,
So doth the soul unguided
Wander forever lost.

By forces of terror taken,
When fearsom thoughts awaken,
Souls of the lost, forsaken,
Call unto God afraid.

From God who never faileth,
From peace that e'er availeth,
O soul, stay not apart.
If thou from earth wilt sever,
Their joy and rest forever,
Will dwell within thy heart.

Recessional Hymn 599 — Vigiles et Sancti

Postlude, Prelude and Fugue, E Minor(Cathedral) — J. S. Bach

* * *

The postlude will be played by Burton Weaver, student in the music department, West Chester State Teachers College, (Those who cannot remain are requested to leave as quietly as possible.)

April 7, 1957

HOLY COMMUNION AND SERMON

Processional Hymn 357 In Babilone

Response to Decalogue, page 68, Chant 701.

Collect, Epistle and Gospel, page 132.

Sermon Hymn 339 St. Christopher

Anthem Martin

Ho! everyone that thirsteth come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come, ye, buy, and eat.

Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not?

Hearken diligently unto me, eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness. Incline your ear, and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live.

Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the Lord, and He will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon.

Then ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the fields shall clap their hands.

Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree.

Hymn after Prayer for Christ's Church 413

" A great many people are often discouraged with themselves, - think they are "no good." Perhaps they think correctly. But many, many times physical depression - fatigue, ill health, and the like - warps the judgment. Here is a good rule to be remembered, - never trust your judgment of self, of others, or of things in general when you are "down" physically. Put your judgment aside - wait till you have a sense of physical well-being, of "plus health" - then take it out and see how wrong it was. Dare to "count your highest moments your truest moments," as Phillips Brooks once said."

THE PARADOX OF PRAYER

He asked for strength that he might achieve;
He was made weak that he might obey.

He asked for health that he might do greater things
He was given infirmity that he might do better things.

He asked for riches that he might be happy;
He was given poverty that he might be wise.

He asked for power that he might have the praise of men.
He was given weakness that he might feel the need of God.

He asked for all things that he might enjoy life
He was given life that he might enjoy all things.

He has received nothing that he asked for, all that he hoped for. His prayer has been answered.

- Col. R.H. Fitzhugh.

NOTICES

The Prayer Group will meet every Thursday morning at 9:15 in the Parish House throughout the summer.

Alcoholics Anonymous will also continue to meet during the summer on Tuesday evenings at 8:30 in the Parish House.

Starting July 7 and continuing through Sept. 1, Sunday services will be Holy Communion at 8 A.M. and Morning Prayer or Holy Communion and Sermon at 10 A.M.

St. Martin's, St. Paul's and the Presbyterian Church of Chestnut Hill, will conduct a joint Vacation Church School at St. Paul's Church, for the first two weeks in July, beginning Monday, July 1st. We urge all our pupils from Kindergarten age through 6th Grade to attend this school if they will be at home at that time. Two weeks in Vacation School from 9:30 to 12 o'clock each day, can more tha equal a whole year in Church School

Great Lover of the hills, the open air, and patient lover of impatient men,
Who blindly strive and sin and strive again,
Thou Living Word, larger than any creed,
Thou Love Divine, uttered in human need -
O, teach the world erring and wandering still,
The way of Peace, the footpath of Good Will.

CHURCH OF ST. MARTIN IN THE FIELDS
CHESTNUT HILL

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

October 6, 1957

8:00 A.M. — HOLY COMMUNION

9:15 A.M.—FAMILY SERVICE AND DEDICATION SERVICE OF CHURCH SCHOOL

Processional Hymn 506: "Father in Heaven" . . . . . Truro 484

Venite, Page 9, Chant 608

Psalm 24, Page 368

Lesson, St. Luke 2:41

Jubilate Deo, Page 15

Hymn 576: "Come, Labor On" . . . . . Ora Labora

During the singing of this hymn, the Teachers and Officers of the Church School will come forward to the Altar Rail.

Rector: Dearly beloved, you stand here before God and this company as chosen leaders in the program of Christian Education. You have one of the most important and essential offices within the gift of the Church. Your work is therefore not to be entered into unadvisedly or lightly, but seriously, conscientiously, and as in the sight of God. With all this in mind, are you now ready to undertake the duties of your various offices?

Response: We are ready, God being our helper. And we here dedicate both our souls and minds to Him in the work of His Church in a sober, righteous and Godly life. In this resolution, we ask Him to confirm and strengthen us that day by day we may grow in grace as leaders in our Church School.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing)

All: O GOD, by whom the meek are guided in judgment, and light riseth up in darkness for the Godly, grant us in all our doubts and uncertainties, the grace to ask what Thou wouldst have us to do, that the Spirit of Wisdom may save us from all false choices, and that in Thy light we may see light and in Thy straight path may not stumble, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Officers and Teachers will return to their places.

The Rector will address the Congregation as follows:

Do you, as the Congregation, Parents and Friends, in the presence of God, and of this entire company, promise to give these chosen leaders the wholehearted cooperation so necessary to the accomplishment of their task?

Response: We do so promise, God being our helper.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing)

All: ALMIGHTY GOD, heavenly Father, Who hast blessed us with the joy and care of children: give us light and strength so to train them, that they may love whatsoever things are true and pure and lovely and of good report, following the example of their Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Rector will address the Church School pupils as follows:

As pupils of the Church School of St. Martin-in-the-Fields and disciples of Jesus Christ, will you serve Him, by faithfully trying to live in His way in your homes, in your community, in your schools and in your Church, as you promised, or as was promised for you, at your baptism?
Response: I will by God's help.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing)

DEFEND, O Lord, these thy children with Thy heavenly grace, that they may continue Thine forever; and daily increase in Thy Holy Spirit more and more until they come unto Thine everlasting Kingdom. Amen.

All: ALMIGHTY GOD, our heavenly Father, Who art the only source of light and life; send down upon this School the rich gifts of Thy good Spirit, that Thy truth may be sincerely sought, faithfully received and obediently followed. Endue its teachers with wisdom, zeal and patience. Inspire its scholars with the spirit of truth, honor and humility. May they day by day grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Anthem, Psalm XX — Schutz

The Lord shall hear thee in distress
His name shall well defend thee
'Tis His to help, 'tis His to bless
And strength he'll surely send thee:
To Him thy faithful offerings bear,
For He thy need well knoweth,
According to thine humble prayer,
Which from thy heart outfloweth,
His blessings He bestoweth.

To help, Lord, our glory is,
And in Thy name we trust, when,
Our banners rise, declaring this,
Thy word is Yea and Amen.
Thereby shall men thine aid perceive,
When Thou Thy saints art raising,
In strength of Thy right hand believe,
And in Thy power amazing,
Thy grace and mercy praising.

O Lord of heaven, and earth, and sea,
To Thee all praise and glory be;
How shall we show our love to Thee,
Who givest all?

The golden sunshine, vernal air,
Sweet flowers and fruits, Thy love declare;
Where harvest ripen, Thou art there,
Who givest all!

For peaceful homes and healthful days,
For all the blessings earth displays,
We owe thee thankfulness and praise
Who givest all !

To Thee, from whom we all derive
Our lives, our gifts, our power to give;
Oh, may we ever with Thee live,
Who givest all!

The Lord is king o'er land and sea
Let earth declare her gladness
Let all the isles, where'er they be
Rejoice and banish sadness
He dwells in deep and secret light
The cloud his glory hideth
With righteousness his throne is bright
In judgement he abideth
All men to him he guideth.

Before him goes consuming fire,
Wherewith his foes he freighteth
In thunder-crash and lightnings dire,
The trembling earth he smitheth
Like wax the mountains melt away,
Before his presence fleeing
For over all he holdeth sway,
He gives to earth her being,
Her near and distant seeing.

And did those feet in ancient time
Walk upon these our mountains green?
And was the holy Lamb of God
On these our pleasant pastures seen?
And did the Countenance Divine
Shine forth upon our clouded hills
And was Jerusalem builded here
Among those dark Satanic mills?
Bring me my bow of burning gold!
Bring me my arrows of desire!
Bring me my spear! O clouds unfold!
Bring me my Chariot of Fire!
I will not cease from mental fight;
Nor shall my sword sleep in my hand
Till we have built Jerusalem
In this our green and pleasant land.

Sermon Hymn 10 Winchester New
Anthem Bach

O rejoice, ye Christians, loudly,
For your joy is now begun;
Wondrous things our God hath done;
Tell abroad His goodness proudly;
Who our race hath honored thus
That he deigns to dwell with us.
Joy, O joy beyond all gladness,
Christ has done away with sadness!
Hence all sorrow and repining,
For the Sun of grace is shining.

See, my soul, thy Saviour chooses,
Weakness, here and poverty,
In such love He comes to thee.
Nor the hardest couch refuses;
All He suffers for thy good,
To redeem thee hee by His blood.
Joy, O joy beyond all gladness!
Christ hath done away with sadness!
Hence all sorrow and repining,
For the Sun of grace is shining.

ADVENT 1958

ALMIGHTY GOD, give us grace that we may cast away the works of darkness, and put upon us the armour of light, now in the time of this mortal life in which thy Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility; that in the last day, when He shall come again in His glorious majesty to judge both the quick and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal, through Him who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, now and ever.

Amen.

A PRAYER FOR ADVENT

COME among us, O Son of Man, in thy glory and gather the nations before thee. So shall thy righteousness judge our sin, thy strength our weakness, and our wayward thoughts be measured y thy truth. Then in thy power lift us, we pray thee, to that kingdom prepared for us from the foundation of the world, where with the Father and the Holy Spirit, thou reignest Son of God, world without end. Amen

LENT 1958

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who hatest nothing that Thou hast made, and dost forgive the sins of all those who are penitent; Create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we worthily lamenting our sins and acknowledging our wretchedness, may obtain of Thee, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

And did those feet in ancient time walk upon these our mountains green?

And was the Holy Lamb of God on these our pastures seen?

And did the Countenance Divine shine forth upon our clouded hills?

And was Jerusalem builded here among those dark Satanic mills?

Bring me my bow of burning gold! Bring me my arrows of desire!

Bring me my spear! O clouds unfold! Bring me my chariot of fire!

I will not cease from mental fight; nor shall my sword sleep in my hand

Till we have built Jerusalem in this our green and pleasant land.

The Chestnut Hill Group of Alcoholics Anonymous extend a cordial invitation to all members of our congregation to attend their open meeting Tuesday night in the Parish House, There will be two outstanding speakers and it should be a most interesting evening.

The first session of the Teacher Training Program was very well attended. We hope that many more of our teachers and parents will want to come this Thursday, October 30, to hear Mrs. Kelleran and meet with the other teachers and parents to learn more about our program of Christian Education. Mrs. Kelleran is a delightful speaker and everyone was very enthusiastic.

CHURCH OF ST. MARTIN IN THE FIELDS
CHESTNUT HILL

ST. MATTHEW'S DAY

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

September 21, 1958

8:00 A.M. — HOLY COMMUNION

9:30 A.M.—FAMILY SERVICE AND DEDICATION SERVICE OF CHURCH SCHOOL

Processional Hymn 506: "Father in Heaven" .....Truro 484

Venite, Page 9, Chant 608

Psalm 24, Page 368

Lesson, St. Luke 2:41

Jubilate Deo, Page 15

Hymn 576: "Come, Labor On" .....Ora Labora

During the singing of this hymn, the Teachers and Officers of the Church School will come forward to the Chancel Steps.

Rector: Dearly beloved, you stand here before God and this company as chosen leaders in the program of Christian Education. You have one of the most important and essential offices within the gift of the Church. Your work is therefore not to be entered into unadvisedly or lightly, but seriously, conscientiously, and as in the sight of God. With all this in mind, are you now ready to undertake the duties of your various offices?

Response: We are ready, God being our helper. And we here dedicate both our souls and minds to Him in the work of His Church in a sober, righteous and Godly life. In this resolution, we ask Him to confirm and strengthen us that day by day we may grow in grace as leaders in our Church School.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing)

All: O GOD, by whom the meek are guided in judgment, and light riseth up in darkness for the Godly, grant us in all our doubts and uncertainties, the grace to ask what Thou wouldst have us to do, that the Spirit of Wisdom may save us from all false choices, and that in Thy light we may see light and in Thy straight path may not stumble, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Officers and Teachers will return to their places.

The Rector will address the Congregation as follows:

Do you, as the Congregation, Parents and Friends, in the presence of God, and of this entire company, promise to give these chosen leaders the wholehearted cooperation so necessary to the accomplishment of their task?

Response: We do so promise, God being our helper.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing)

All: ALMIGHTY GOD, heavenly Father, Who hast blessed us with the joy and care of children: give us light and strength so to train them, that they may love whatsoever things are true and pure and lovely and of good report, following the example of their Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Rector will address the Church School pupils as follows:

As pupils of the Church School of St. Martin-in-the-Fields and disciples of Jesus Christ, will you serve Him, by faithfully trying to live in His way in your homes, in your community, in your schools and in your Church, as you promised, or as was promised for you, at your baptism?

Response: I will by God's help.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing)

DEFEND, O Lord, these thy children with Thy heavenly grace, that they may continue Thine forever; and daily increase in Thy Holy Spirit more and more until they come unto Thine everlasting Kingdom. Amen.

All: ALMIGHTY GOD, our heavenly Father, Who art the only source of light and life; send down upon this School the rich gifts of Thy good Spirit, that Thy truth may be sincerely sought, faithfully received and obediently followed. Endue its teachers with wisdom, zeal and patience. Inspire its scholars with the spirit of truth, honor and humility. May they day by day grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

NOTICES

The Rector, Mr. Sturges, had surgery on Saturday, July 12, at Jane Brown Memorial, hode Island Hospital, Providence, R.I. In a letter received yesterday, he says:"....I seem to have made a remarkably fast recovery and the doctor said this afternoon that I might go up to Princeton on Saturday (yesterday) -- 7 days! .... so I reckon I am plenty husky. At any rate if you want to announce Sunday that your Rector is making a rapid and satisfactory recovery I would be grateful - and thank them for their concern. " His address for the remainder of the summer will be Princeton, Massachusetts.

The Gossip's Prayer

Good St. Rita, I hear you never spoke ill of anyone, but you must admit, some of my neighbors are funny; and for one who is not learned and finds little to say about atoms or stars, there is no easier topic than people's oddities. After all, novelists are only gossip's who can dissect their neighbors artistically. And yet, there must be something wrong there, for I am vexed when my friends gossip about me; and as I want to be done by, so should I do by others. I know and I am sorry. What shall I do? My tongue is so glib and my imagination so creative. Could you curb them? Whisper to me - "What about yourself?" Some people are funny, but it will help me to learn that they are probably no funnier than I am. - Amen

"A great many people are often discouraged with themselves, - think they are no good. Perhaps they think correctly. But many, many times physical depression - fatigue, ill health, and the like - warps the judgment. Here is a good rule to be remembered, - never trust your judgment of self, of others, or of things in general when you are "down" physically. Put your judgment aside - wait till you have a sense of physical well-being, of "plus health" - then take it out and see how wrong it was. Dare to "count your highest moments your truest moments," as Phillips Brooks once said."

From "The Inner Life"

O God, Master of life, illumine our minds with the light of Thine own reason, inform our wills with Thine eternal purpose, and so make our daily work a prayer.

Amen.

Reminder

St. Martin's, St. Paul's and the Presbyterian Church of Chestnut Hill will run a joint Vacation Church School from June 30 through July 11, for children from four through eleven years of age(Kindergarten through 6th grade). It will be held at St. Paul's Church, from 9:30 to 12:00 each morning. We urge all our children who will be at home during this time to attend this school. Ten days in a Vacation School can equal a whole year in Church School!

"Thou who art eternal, the same yesterday, today and forever, strengthen us to stand steady in this shaken world, and though all things change, to keep our faith in thee firm with a growing trust and a deepening confidence. Deliver us from petty concern about ourselves; stand us in the center of a great need and then discipline us to sharpen our insight and open our hearts on all sides,that we may share both the need and the glory of our human destiny with one another. Reveal the heights above us in every mortal circumstance that we may learn to worship thee in the common routine of our daily living. Make plain the sight of thy image in the spirit of those near us, that at last we may recognize the glory of our Lord." Amen.

A Prayer

When the world annoys me with its fretting cares, speak a quiet word to my soul, oh Christ. Call me away to be with Thee. Without leaving my tasks, without leaving the throng of men may I make the very thought of Thee a sanctuary.

There receive me into Thy peace; there teach me my eternal destiny; there lift me above my worries into the region of Thy calm. Lay upon my troubled soul the benediction of Thy Serenity. Help me to feel Thy Presence with me always, Thy Power always at hand, Thy Wisdom ever ready.

Send me forth from this moment's sanctuary with a quiet pulse and a heart confident and rested. For this blessed communion I give Thee endless praise, My Saviour and my Friend. Amen.

The Law of the Spirit

Whenever we put aside any suggestion of truth, any impulse to goodness, or any prompting to right conduct, we obscure the inward light. And since every measure of light or life which we enjoy is given to us by "the Power not ourselves," it is plain that we can know nothing about the Spirit of God except as it is manifest in the spirit of man. Therefore we may say that the Spirit of God and the spirit of man are too close to be separated. In resisting the divine prompting man weakens his own faculties. In turning away from the light he obscures his own vision.

Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, both now, and ever, and to ages of ages.

Only begotten Son, Word of the Father, who art immortal.

Thou didst vouchsafe for our salvation to become incarnate of the holy Mother of God, the blessed and ever virgin Mary.

Changeless Essence, lo, thou wast made very Man; and crucified, thou the God-man, to vanquish death by dying.

Thou alone, O Christ, art glorified in the Trinity with Father and Holy Spirit.

O save us.

Lord have mercy upon us.

To thee, O lord, we cry. Amen. Amen.

Ho! everyone that thirsteth come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye buy and eat.

Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, eat ye that which is good and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

Incline your ear and come unto me; hear and your soul shall live. Let the wicked forsake his way and the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return unto the Lord. and He will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

And ye shall go out with joy and be led forth with peace; the mountains and hills shall break forth before you into singing and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands. Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree.

THE LORD IS RISEN

An Easter Message

FOR MANY centuries the world has heard the joyous proclamation "The Lord is Risen." All of us have known as many Easters as we have years. Have we therefore lost something of the impact of the Good News? This should not be, for even though the fact of the Resurrection remains constant, we are never the same. Within and without there are sundry and manifold changes.

During the year many of us have lost the visible presence of those near and dear to us. Life everlasting is more real. As we grow in age, we should also grow in grace with a deeper understanding of those things which are eternal. In the world men's hearts are failing them for fear, and there is perplexity of nations. What of the future? Does the struggle aught avail?

Here are new factors which make the age-long message vibrant with meaning and shine as a sorely needed light in current darkness. "He is risen." The powers of evil are overcome. God reigns. The first Easter changed the disciples from discouraged and fearful men into heroic apostles of their Lord.

God grant that this transformation may, through God's gift, be wrought in us.

He is risen indeed.

Henry K. Sherrill,

Presiding Bishop

EASTER DAY 1958

ALMIGHTY God, who, through thine only-begotten Son Jesus Christ hast overcome death, and opened unto us the gate of everlasting life; We humbly beseech thee that, as by thy special grace preventing us thou dost put into our minds good desires, so by thy continual help we may bring the same to good effect; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost ever, one God, world without end. Amen.

Fierce was the wild billow, dark was the night,
Oars labored heavily, foam glimmered white
Trembled the mariners, peril was nigh,
Then said the God of God,
"Peace, it is I!"

Ridge of the mountain wave, lower thy crest,
Wail of Euroclydon, be thou at rest;
Sorrow can never be, darkness must fly,
When saith the Light of Light
"Peace, It is I!"

Jesus deliverer, come Thou to me,
Soothe Thou my voyaging over life's sea;
Thou, when the storm of Death roars sweeping by,
Whisper, O Truth of Truth,
"Peace, It is I!"

Psalm 24, Page 368

Lesson, St. Luke 2:41

Jubilate Deo, Page 15

Hymn 576, "Come, Labor On" .....Ora Labora

During the singing of this hymn, the Teachers and Officers of the Church School will come forward to the Altar Rail.

Rector: Dearly beloved, you stand here before God and this company as chosen leaders in the program of Christian Education. You have one of the most important and essential offices within the gift of the Church. Your work is therefore not to be entered into unadvisedly or lightly, but seriously, conscientiously, and as in the sight of God. With all this in mind, are you now ready to undertake the duties of your various offices?

Response: We are ready, God being our helper. And we here dedicate both our souls and minds to Him in the work of His Church in a sober, righteous and Godly life. In this resolution, we ask Him to confirm and strengthen us that day by day we may grow in grace as leaders in our Church School.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing)

Teachers: O GOD, by whom the meek are guided in judgment, and light riseth up in darkness for the Godly, grant us in all our doubts and uncertainties, the grace to ask what Thou wouldst have us to do, that the Spirit of Wisdom may save us from all false choices, and that in Thy light we may see light and in Thy straight path may not stumble, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Officers and Teachers will return to their places.

The Rector will address the Congregation as follows:

Do you, as the Congregation, Parents and Friends, in the presence of God, and of this entire company, promise to give these chosen leaders the wholehearted cooperation so necessary to the accomplishment of their task?

Response: We do so promise, God being our helper.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing)

All: ALMIGHTY GOD, heavenly Father, Who hast blessed us with the joy and care of children: give us light and strength so to train them, that they may love whatsoever things are true and pure and lovely and of good report, following the example of their Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Rector will address the Church School pupils as follows:

As pupils of the Church School of St. Martin-in-the-Fields and disciples of Jesus Christ, will you serve Him, by faithfully trying to live in His way in your homes, in your community, in your schools and in your Church, as you promised, or as was promised for you, at your baptism?

Response: I will by God's help.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing)

DEFEND, O Lord, these thy children with Thy heavenly grace, that they may continue Thine forever; and daily increase in Thy Holy Spirit more and more until they come unto Thine everlasting Kingdom. Amen.

All: ALMIGHTY GOD, our heavenly Father, Who art the only source of light and life; send down upon this School the rich gifts of Thy good Spirit, that Thy truth may be sincerely sought, faithfully received and obediently followed. Endue its teachers with wisdom, zeal and patience. Inspire its scholars with the spirit of truth, honor and humility. May they day by day grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

O brother man! fold to thy heart thy brother;
Where pity dwells the peace of God is there;
To worship rightly is to love each other,
Each smile a hymn, each kindly deed a prayer.
Follow with reverent steps the great example
Of Him whose work was "doing good"
So shall the wide earth seem our Father's temple,
Each loving life a psalm of gratitude.
Then shall all shackles fall; the stormy clangour
Of wild war music o'er the earth shall cease;
Love shall tread out the baleful fire of anger,
And in its ashes plant the tree of peace!

* * *

O Lord of heaven, and earth, and sea,
To Thee all praise and glory be;
How shall we show our love to Thee,
Who givest all?

The golden sunshine, vernal air,
Sweet flowers and fruits, Thy love declare;
Where harvests ripen, Thou art there,
Who givest all!

For peaceful homes, and healthful days,
For all the blessings earth displays,
We owe The thankfulness and praise,
Who givest all!

To Thee, from Whom we all derive
Our life, our gifts, our power to give;
Oh, may we ever with Thee live,
Who givest all!

-Bishop C. Wordsworth

The Philadelphia Council of Churches asks today for support of its program "of doing for the individual Churches and denominations what they cannot do by themselves." It depends for its support largely on gifts and contributions from individuals. Members of St. Martin's have given generously to it in the past, and it is hoped that they will continue to do so. Pledge cards and envelopes are on the table at the back of the Church.

* * *

Please take your envelopes for 1961 from the table at the back of the Church if you have not already done so.

Say where is He born, the King of Judaea?
for we have seen His star, and are come to adore Him.
There shall a star from Jacob come forth and a sceptre from Israel rise up, and dash in pieces princes and nations.
As bright the star of morning gleams,
So Jesus sheddeth glorious beams of light and consolation.
Thy Word, O Lord, Radiance darting,
Truth imparting, gives Salvation.
Thine be praise and adoration!

* * *

Oh, do not pray for easy lives. Do not pray for tasks equal to your powers. Pray for powers equal to your tasks. Then the doing of your work will be no miracle; but you will be the miracle. And every day you will wonder at yourself, at the the richness of life which has come to you by the grace of God.

Prayers and Grace

I from Four Psalms, Op. 74 ..... Grieg

In heav'n above, in heav'n above,
Where God almighty dwells;
What bliss to reach that realm of love,
My heart with longing swells;
For there in all eternity
In dazzling radiance we shall see,
The Lord of Sabaoth.

From darkest night, from darkest night,
Our bodies 'neath the mould,
Shall then become all shining bright—
As bright as purest gold,
Our wounds assuaged by heav'nly grace,
We'll see our Maker face to face,
The Lord of Sabaoth.

Each soul shall find its comfort there
As promised long ago;
The wreath of righteousness shall wear
A robe as white as snow.
Oh God! What rapture will be mine,
To see Thee in Thy radiance shine,
O Lord of Sabaoth.

How fair is Thy face,
Yea fair, yea fair,
Thou Son of God, Thou Prince of Grace!
O Thou my Shulamite, sweet and kind,
Yea kind, yea kind,
All that I have is also Thine.

My Friend, Thou art mine,
Yea mine, yea mine;
For evermore let me be Thine.
Thou canst me save, canst me save,
Yea save, yea save,
Both here on earth and 'yond the grave.

Remember my plight,
Yea plight, yea plight:
Around me hostile swords flash bright.
Fly hither, Dove of Grace, Dove of Grace,
Apace, apace!
Among the rocks are peace and space.

God's Son hath set me free
From Satan's tyranny,
From base desire,
Enslavement dire,
From fear of death and hell's hot fire.
Lord Christ did intercede,
With God for me did plead;
He underwent
My punishment,
To torture, death, was sent.
I cannot fathom love so great
However much I contemplate:
That He
Could be
So merciful to me,
A sinner frail, whom naught could suit
But tasting the forbidden fruit;
By day, by night,
Old Satan's might
My soul had captured quite.
But now I'm in God's care,
In spite of Satan's snare;
No longer sad,
I wander glad
In liberation purple-clad.
How deeply I rejoice
To follow Jesus' voice:
He bids me cleave
To Him and leave
All sin — forget to grieve.
Let Mammon not expect to find
Me e'er again so weak, so blind.
Nay, nay!
I'll stray
No more from off the way.
For my salvation Christ did pay;
I shall not gamble it away.
I do despise
The tempter's lies,
To heaven lift my eyes.

My heart laughs blithe and bold
When I my grave behold;
Nor flow'ry bed,
Nor princely stead,
Can show a couch so free from dread.
To where God's Castle stands
In Deathless Life's fair lands
Death pilots me
Across the sea —
Towards Eternity.
Though stormy winds about me still
Are blowing contrary and chill
My soul
Is whole
And craves the perfect goal.
My spirit leaps, like deer or hind,
To think of leaving sin behind;
Oh blessed sign!
Christ's Cross doth shine,
Makes bliss eternal mine.

II Three Russian Anthems

We Have No Other Guide ..... Shvedof

We have no other Guide but Thee, O holy Jesu. Thou art our Guide, and in Thee we hope and trust. We praise Thee. For we are indeed Thy servants and are not ashamed.

The Day of Judgment ..... Arkhangelsky

Upon the day of judgment do I meditate with great awe, and all my wicked deeds do I lament. How may I answer the great Eternal King? How may I dare to answer the summons of the Judge? O Thou, most gracious Father, and the only begotten Son, Spirit divine, have mercy upon me.

How Blest are They ..... Tchaikowsky

How blest are they whom Thou hast chosen and taken unto Thee, O Lord! Their memorial is from generation to generation, Alleluia.

We hope to have a continuous vigil in the Church on Maundy Thursday. Those who wish to, may sign for a definite time on the chart on the table at the back of the church, but it is hoped that many others will come into the Church for a time of prayer and meditation during the day.

EASTER MESSAGE, 1961

"I, a stranger and afraid in a world I never made." How accurately that expresses the mind of modern man. This is the sickness of our time: a sense of meaninglessness and futility, of fear and hopelessness. As one man wrote when he learned suddenly that his life was threatened by a serious disease, "I found myself at the margin of existence; I looked back at my life and found it singularly meaningless; I looked ahead and was seized with fear."

What does Christianity have to say to this? More specifically, what is it that we hear in Church on Easter Day? Very surprising words when you come to think of it for people living in this world of tribulation and perplexity: words of joy and certainty. The word of Easter is not simply the promise of a life that will be given us beyond the grave, but the assurance that new life is at hand now, new life that death cannot destroy.

Easter is the celebration of a victory won; God's victory which is ours in Christ, the present Living Lord. This is the victory we inherit, this is the gift of God to us in Christ. When we accept this gift, then we are no longer strangers and afraid in this world. We are at home here, for this is God's world. This is what it means to be risen with Christ now!

The Rt. Rev. Arthur Lichtenberger, D.D.
Presiding Bishop
Protestant Episcopal Church

Faithfully your rector,

Philmon F. Sturges

O Risen Lord! Who givest the Victory; Raise us, we pray Thee, from the death of sin unto the life of Righteousness, and fill us with spiritual benediction, that both now and in the world to come we may have life everlasting. Amen.

EASTER DAY 1961

ALMIGHTY God, who, through thine only-begotten Son Jesus Christ hast overcome death, and opened unto us the gate of everlasting life; We humbly beseech thee that, as by thy special grace preventing us thou dost put into our minds good desires, so by thy continual help we may bring the same to good effect; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost ever, one God, world without end. Amen.

* * *

It is a great pleasure to welcome Bishop Remington to St. Martin's once again as the Preacher at the 11:15 AM Service. Since retiring as Suffragan Bishop of Pennsylvania, Bishop Remington has been living in Rancho Santa Fe, in California, and has been anything but inactive, and he has personally organized three new parishes in the Diocese of Southern California. So we salute this, the Senior Bishop of the Episcopal Church, who is none the less the youngest in spirit.

The Prayer for the United Thank Offering

O LORD, our heavenly Father, we pray thee to send forth more labourers into thy harvest, and to grant them thy special grace for every need. Guard and guide the workers in the field, and draw us into closer fellowship with them. Dispose the hearts of all women everywhere to give gladly as thou hast given to them. Accept from grateful hearts our United thank Offering of prayer and gifts and joyful service; and bless it to the coming of thy Kingdom through Jesus Christ our Lord,
Amen.

THE FIRST SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

June 4, 1961

Holy Communion and Sermon

Processional Hymn 266 — Nicaea

Response to Decalogue, page 68, Chant 708

Collect, Epistle and Gospel, page 189

Sermon Hymn 479 — Hyfrydol

Anthem — Parry

And did those feet in ancient time
Walk upon England's mountains green?
And was the Holy Lamb of God
On England's pleasant pastures seen?
And did the Countenance Divine
Shine forth upon our clouded hills?
And was Jerusalem builded here
Among those dark Satanic mills?
Bring me my bow of burning gold!
Bring me my arrows of desire!
Bring me my spear! O clouds unfold!
Bring me my Chariot of Fire!
I will not cease from mental fight;
Nor shall my sword sleep in my hand
Till we have built Jerusalem
In England's green and pleasant land.

Hymn after Prayer for Christ's Church 268 v.6

Sursum Corda and Sanctus, Chants 734, 711

Note on the words of this morning's anthem.

Although this anthem and Blake's words are very familiar, few people realize that it was written against what Blake felt was the corruption of England by the "new knowledge" of the last half of the 18th Century and the fear that England would be overrun by the ideologies of the French Revolution. "The dark Satannic mills" refers to the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge. "And did those feet in ancient time stand upon England's green and pleasant land" refers to the ancient legend current in his time, that Our Lord, a nephew of Joseph of Arimathea, who among his other ventures owned tim mines in Cornwall, and as a young lad had accompanied his uncle on a trip to inspect his property. It is also related that he was taken to the Druid Shrine in Avalon or what is now Glastonbury, and prophesied that one day a greater shrine would be erected on that site and dedicated to his Mother.

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

September 24, 1961

8:00 A.M. — HOLY COMMUNION

9:30 A.M. — MORNING PRAYER AND DEDICATION
SERVICE OF CHURCH SCHOOL

Processional Hymn 506: "Father in Heaven" . . . . . Truro 484

Venite, Page 9, Chant 608

Psalm 24, Page 368

Lesson, St. Luke 2:41

Jubilate Deo, Page 15

Creed, Versicles, Collects and Prayers, Page 15 ff

Hymn 563, "He who would valiant be" . . . . . St. Dunstan's

During the singing of this hymn, the Teachers and Officers of the Church School will come forward to the Altar Rail.

Rector: Dearly beloved, you stand here before God and this company as chosen leaders in the program of Christian Education. You have one of the most important and essential offices within the gift of the Church. Your work is therefore not to be entered into unadvisedly or lightly, but seriously, conscientiously, and as in the sight of God. With all this in mind, are you now ready to undertake the duties of your various offices?

Response: We are ready, God being our helper. And we here dedicate both our souls and minds to Him in the work of His Church in a sober, righteous and Godly life. In this resolution, we ask Him to confirm and strengthen us that day by day we may grow in grace as leaders in our Church School.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing)

Teachers: O GOD, by whom the meek are guided in judgment, and light riseth up in darkness for the Godly, grant us in all our doubts and uncertainties, the grace to ask what Thou wouldst have us to do, that the Spirit of Wisdom may save us from all false choices, and that in Thy light we may see light and in Thy straight path may not stumble, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Officers and Teachers will return to their places.

The Rector will address the Congregation as follows:

Do you, as the Congregation, Parents and Friends, in the presence of God, and of this entire company, promise to give these chosen leaders the wholehearted cooperation so necessary to the accomplishment of their task?

Response: We do so promise, God being our helper.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing)

All: ALMIGHTY GOD, heavenly Father, Who hast blessed us with the joy and care of children: give us light and strength so to train them, that they may love whatsoever things are true and pure and lovely and of good report, following the example of their Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Rector will address the Church School pupils as follows:

As pupils of the Church School of St. Martin-in-the-Fields and disciples of Jesus Christ, will you serve Him, by faithfully trying to live in His way in your homes, in your community, in your schools and in your Church, as you promised, or as was promised for you, at your baptism?

Response: I will by God's help.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing)

DEFEND, O Lord, these thy children with Thy heavenly grace, that they may continue Thine forever; and daily increase in Thy Holy Spirit more and more until they come unto Thine everlasting Kingdom. Amen.

All: ALMIGHTY GOD, our heavenly Father, Who art the only source of light and life; send down upon this School the rich gifts of Thy good Spirit, that Thy truth may be sincerely sought, faithfully received and obediently followed. Endue its teachers with wisdom, zeal and patience. Inspire its scholars with the spirit of truth, honor and humility. May they day by day grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Presiding Bishop, The Rt. Rev. Arthur Lichtenberger, has asked that to-day be observed throughout the Church as a day of prayer for the peace of the world.

* * *

The Offering on Thanksgiving Day, as is our custom, will be given to the Episcopal Hospital, and used for the support of the Chaplaincy Program. Episcopal Hospital spent $28,161 last year for this important part of its work. The Rev. Jerry E. Carpenter, Chaplain, and Robert C. S. Deacon, Assistant Chaplain, are both clergy of this Diocese, and maintain a full ministry to the patients and staff of the Hospital. Although the Hospital has technically become a non-sectarian Hospital in order to receive state aid, it still renders service to the Diocese by giving free medical examinations to all postulants and candidates for the ministry, by offering reduced rates to the clergy, and in many other ways. I hope that our offering, which has fallen off badly in the past few years, may be increased this year and represent more nearly the concern we should have for this most important work.

P.F. Sturges

The offering on Thanksgiving Day will be for the support of the Chaplaincy Service at Episcopal Hospital. Last year the Hospital spent $28,161 for this service. Of this amount $12,018 came from the Diocesan Thanksgiving Offering, $12,000 from endowment funds left for this purpose, and the balance was taken from the regular operating budget of the hospital. It is hoped that this year the Thanksgiving Offering can take a more adequate share in maintaining this link with Episcopal Hospital.

Your Thanksgiving Day Offering

The 1961 Thanksgiving Offering for Episcopal Hospital will be devoted to the Chaplaincy Service. In his letter to the glergy appealing for increased support, Bishop Hart stated:

"Episcopal Hospital spent $28,161 last year for the Chapel and Chaplaincy Service rendered by the Rev. Jerry E. Carpenter and his assistant, The Rev. Robert C. S. Deacon, both clergymen of this Diocese. Of this amount $1,200.00 came from Endowment Funds left to the Hospital for maintaining the Chaplaincy Program, $12,018.00 from the Diocesan Thanksgiving Offering, and the balance of $14,943.00 was taken from the regular operating budget of the hospital.

"The Chaplain and his assistant are maintaining a sacramental and pastoral ministry to church people in Episcopal Hospital, as well as reaching out in a broad pastoral ministry to all others in His Name."

Bishop Tsu, who makes his second visit to St. Martin's next Sunday, organized the Diocese of West China during the late 1930's, with his See city at Kunming. During the war he became known as the Bishop of the Burma Road and his home was always open to American flyers. When the Communists over-ran mainland China in 1948, Bishop Tsu was listed among the first Christian leaders to be denounced as "enemies of the people". He escaped from China and now lives in Fort Washington, assisting Bishop Hart by taking confirmations for him.

Sermon Hymn 473 Dawn
Anthem, from Hymn of Praise Mendelssohn

The sorrows of death had closed all around me, and Hell's dark terrors had got hold upon me with trouble and deep heaviness. But, said the Lord, Come arise from the dead, and awake thou that sleepest, I bring thee salvation. We called thro' the darkness, Watchman, will the night soon pass? The Watchman only said, Though the morning will come, the night will come also. Ask ye, enquire ye, return again, ask; Watchman, will the night soon pass?

The night is departing, the day is approaching. Therefore let us cast off the works of darkness and let us gird on the armour of light.

CHRISTMAS

In the Beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. ✻ The same was in the Beginning with God. ✻ All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. ✻ In him was life; and the life was the light of men. And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

Benedicite omnia opera Domini Domino: laudate et superexaltate eum in saecula

CHRISTMAS
In the Beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. + The same was in the Beginning with God. + All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. + In him was life; and the life was the light of men. and the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

Processional Hymn 12: "O Come All Ye Faithful" .... Adeste Fidelis

I (Girls Choir) "Procession" Ceremony of Carols . Benjamin Britten

Hodie Christus natus est: hodie Salvator apparuit:
Hodie in terra canunt angeli: laetantur archangeli:
Hodie exsultant justi dicentes: gloria in excelsis Deo:
Alleluia

Anon.

Then shall be said this Bidding Prayer by the Minister, the Congregation all standing

Beloved in Christ:

Be it our care and delight to prepare ourselves to hear again the message of the Angels and in heart and mind to go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which has come to pass and the Babe lying in a manger.

Therefore, let us read and mark in Holy Scripture the tale of the loving purposes of God from the first days of our sin unto the glorious Redemption brought to us by this Holy Child; and let us make this Church glad with our carols of praise.

But first, because this of all things would rejoice His heart, let us pray to Him for the needs of the whole world and all His people; for peace upon the earth He came to save; for love and unity within the one Church He did build; and for brotherhood and good will amongst all men.

And particularly at this time let us remember before Him the poor, the cold, the hungry, and the oppressed; the sick and them that mourn; the aged and little children; and all those that know not the Lord Jesus or who love Him not; or who by sin have grieved His Heart of love.

Lastly let us remember before Him, them who rejoice with us but upon another shore and in a greater light, the multitude whom no man can number, whose hope was in the Word made flesh, and with whom, in this same Jesus, we forevermore are one.

These prayers and praises let us humbly offer up to the throne of Heaven in the words which Christ Himself hath taught us:

Our Father . . .

Then shall the Minister say:

God, the Son of God, vouchsafe to bless us and aid us; and unto the fellowship of the citizens above may the King of Angels bring us all, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hymn 20: "Of the Father's Love Begotten" ....Divinum Mysterium

After this the Congregation shall sit for all the carols except those after the Third and Fifth Lessons for which they stand and join heartily.

First Lesson: Genesis 3:8-15 ..... Read by a Chorister

The story of Man's first Disobedience in the Garden of Eden.

II (Choir Carols) "Wolcum Yole!" ..... Britten

Wolcum be thou hevenè king,
Wolcum, born in one morning,
Wolcum for whom we sall sing!
Wolcum Yole!

Wolcum be ye, Stevene and Jon,
Wolcum, innocentes everyone,
Wolcum, Thomas marter one,
Wolcum Yole!

Wolcum be ye, good Newe Yere,
Wolcum, Twelfthe Day both in fere,
Wolcum, seintes lefe and dere,
Wolcum Yole!

(Wolcum be ye) Candlemesse
(Wolcum be ye) Quene of bliss,
Wolcum bothe to more and lesse.
Wolcum Yole!

Wolcum be ye that are here,
Wolcum alle and make good cheer.
Wolcum alle another yere.
Wolcum Yole!

Anon.

III "There Is No Rose"

There is no rose of such vertu
As is the rose that bare Jesu.
Alleluia.

For in this rose conteinèd was
Heaven and earth in litel space,
Res miranda.

By that rose we may well see
There be one God in persons three,
Pares forma.

The aungels sungen the shepherds to:
Gloria in excelsis Deo.
Guadeamus.

Leave we all this world mirth,
And follow we this joyful birth.
Transeamus.

Anon.

Second Lesson: Genesis 22:15-18 ... Read by a Church School Scholar

God promises to faithful Abraham that in his seed shall all nations be blessed.

IVa (Girls Choir) "That Yongë Child" ..... Britten

That yongë child when it gan weep
With song she lulled him asleep:
That was so sweet a melody
It passèd alle minstrelsy
The nightingalë sang also:
Her song is hoarse and nought thereto:
Whoso attendeth to her song
And leaveth the first then doth he wrong.

Anon.

IVb (Choir Carol) "Balulalow"

O my deare hert, young Jesu sweit,
Prepare thy creddil in my spreit,
And I sall rock thee to my hert,
And never mair from thee depart.

But I sall praise thee evermoir
With sanges sweit unto thy gloir:
The knees of my hert sall I bow,
And sing that richt Balulalow.

James, John, and
Robert Wedderburn

Third Lesson: Isaiah 9:2, 6, 7

Read by a member of the Youth Fellowship

Congregational Carol 36: "What Child Is This" ..... Greensleeves

V (Choir Carol) "As Dew in Aprille" ....Britten

I sing of a maiden That is makèles:
King of all kings To her son she ches.

He came al so stille There is moder was,
As dew in Aprille That falleth on the grass.

He came al so stille To his moder's bour,
As dew in Aprille That falleth on the flour.

He came al so stille There his moder lay,
As dew in Aprille That falleth on the spray.

Moder and mayden Was never none but she:
Well may such a lady Goddes moder be.

Anon.

Fourth Lesson: Micah 5:2, 3, 4 ..... Read by a Crucifer

Micah forseeth the glory of Bethlehem.

VI (Choir Carol) "This Little Babe" ..... Britten

This little Babe, so few days old,
Is come to rifle Satan's fold;
All hell doth at his presence quake.
Though he himself for cold do shake;
For in this weak unarmèd wise
The gates of hell he will surprise.

With tears he fights and wins the field,
His naked breast stands for a shield;
His battering shot are babish cries,
His arrows looks of weeping eyes,
His martial ensigns Cold and Need,
And feeble Flesh his warrior's steed.

His camp is pitchèd in a stall,
His bulwark but a broken wall;
The crib his trench, haystalks his stakes;
Of shepherds he his master makes;
And thus, as sure his foe to wound,
The angels' trump alarum sound.

My soul with Christ join thou in fight;
Stick to the tents that he hath pight.
Within his crib is surest ward;
This little Babe will be thy guard.
If thou wilt foil thy foes with joy,
Then flit not from this heavenly Boy.

Robert Southwell

Fifth Lesson: St. Luke 1:26-33, 38. . Read by a Church School Teacher

The Angel Gabriel visiteth the Virgin Mary.

Congregational Carol 40: "God Rest You Merry" God Rest You Merry

VII INTERLUDE (Harp Solo) ..... Britten

Sixth Lesson: St. Matthew 1:18-23 ..... Read by an Usher

St. Matthew tells of Christ's Holy Birth.

VIII (Choir Carol) "In Freezing Winter Night" ..... Britten

Behold, a silly tender babe,
In freezing winter night;
In homely manger trembling lies;
Alas, a piteous sight!

The inns are full; no man will yield
This little pilgrim bed.
But forced he is with silly beasts
In crib to shroud his head.

This stable is a Prince's court,
This crib his chair of State;
The beasts are parcel of his pomp,
The wooden dish his plate.

The persons in that poor attire
His royal liveries wear;
The Prince himself is come to heav'n;
This pomp is prizèd there.

With joy approach, O Christian wight,
Do homage to thy King;
And highly praise his humble pomp,
Wich he from Heav'n doth bring.

Robert Southwell

Seventh Lesson: St. Luke 2:8-16 ..... Read by a Vestryman

The Shepherds go unto the Manger.

IX (Choir Carol) "Spring Carol" ..... Britten

Pleasure it is
To hear i-wis,
The Birdès sing.

The deer in the dale,
The sheep in the vale,
The corn springing.

God's purvayance
For sustenance
It is for man.

Then we always
To give him praise
And thank him than.

William Cornish

Tom Schofield

Eighth Lesson: St. Matthew 2:1-11 ..... Read by a Warden

The Wise Men are led to the Young Child by a Star.

X (Choir Carol) "Deo Gracias" ..... Britten

Adam lay ibounden
Bounden in a bond;
Four thousand winter
Thought he not too long.

And all was for an appil,
An appil that he tok,
As clerkès finden
Written in their book.

Ne had the appil takè ben,
The appil takè ben,
Ne haddè never our lady
A ben hevenè quene.

Blessèd be the time
That appil takè was.
Therefore we moun singen
DEO GRACIAS!

Anon.

(The Congregation will stand for this Lesson)

The Nicene Creed

The Christmas Collects

Hymn 197: "Let All Mortal Flesh" ..... Picardy

The Benediction

May the Almighty God, who by the incarnation of His only begotten Son, has chased away the darkness of the world, and irradiated the sacred night with His glorious Nativity, chase far from you the darkness of sin and fill your hearts with the light of virtue.
And may He, the great Shepherd, who willed that the joy of His Blessed Nativity should be made known to shepherds by an Angel, pour upon you the refreshing dew of His benediction, and Himself lead you into pastures of eternal joy. And may He, who, by His Incarnation, united things earthly and heavenly, fill you with the sweetness of inward peace and good will and make you comrades of the Heavenly Host.
And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost be with you all evermore. Amen.

Next Sunday the Greater Philadelphia Council of Churches makes its annual appeal for support. This servant of the Churches in the Philadelphia area is doing an outstanding piece of work in doing those things which the individual churches and denominations could not do by themselves, such as surveying new areas as they are developed. I hope more members of this parish will contribute to the Council.

Sermon Hymn 48 — Stuttgart
Anthem — Grieg

God's Son hath set me free
From Satan's tyranny,
From base desire, enslavement dire,
From fear of death and hell's hot fire
Lord Christ did intercede,
With God for me did plead;
He underwent my punishment,
To torture, death was sent.
I cannot fathom love so great
However much I contemplate:
That He could be so merciful to me,
A sinner frail, whom naught could suit
But tasting the forbidden fruit;
By day, by night,
Old Satan's might
My soul had captured quite.

My heart laughs blithe and bold
When I my grave behold;
Nor flowery bed nor princely stead,
Can show a couch so free from dread.
To where God's castle stands
In Deathless Life's fair lands death pilots me
Across the sea - towards eternity.
Though stormy winds about me still
Are blowing contrary and chill
My soul is whole and craves the perfect goal.
My spirit leaps, like deer or hind,
To think of leaving sin behind;
Oh blessed sign! Christ's Cross doth shine,
Makes bliss eternal mine.

LORD, I believe man is no helpless thing that like a bird in spring comes fluttering to the light of life, and out into the darkness of long death. The breath of God is in him, and his age-long strife with evil has a meaning and an end. Though twilight-dim his vision be, yet he can see Thy truth, and in the cool of evening Thou, his friend, dost walk with him and talk (did not the word take flesh) of the great destiny that waits him and his race, in worlds that are to be.

Many waters cannot quench Love, neither can the floods drown it. Love is strong as death.

Greater Love hath no man than this that a man lay down his life for his friend.

Who His own self bare our sins in His own Body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness.

Ye are washed, ye are sanctified, ye are justified, in the Name of the Lord Jesus. Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation.

That ye should shew forth the praises of Him Who hath called you out of darkness into His marvelous light.

I beseech you, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies, a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

FESTIVAL SERVICE FOR TRINITY SUNDAY
June 17, 1962

Processional Hymn 268: "I Bind Unto Myself" (vs. 1,2,5,6,7) St. Patrick
The Bidding and The Lord's Prayer

PART I
"I Believe in God the Father Almighty — Maker of Heaven and Earth"

Hymn 309: "The Spacious Firmament on High" ..... Creation

Lesson: Isaiah 40:21

Anthem ..... F. Mendelssohn

He, watching over Israel, slumbers not nor sleeps.
Shouldst thou, walking in grief, languish, He will quicken thee.

Responsive Reading — The Canticle of St. Francis

O most high, omnipotent, good Lord God, to thee belong praise, glory, honor and all blessing.

For our brother the sun, who is our day and who brings us the light; who is fair, and radiant with a very great splendour;

Praised be our Lord.

For our sister the moon, and for the stars, which thou hast set clear and lovely in heaven;

Praised be our Lord.

For our brother the wind, and for air and cloud, calms and all weather;

Praised be our Lord.

For our sister water, who is very serviceable unto us and humble and precious and clean;

Praised be our Lord.

For our brother fire, by whom thou lightest up the night, and who is fair and merry, and very mighty and strong;

Praised be our Lord.

For our mother the earth, which doth sustain us and keep us and bringeth forth divers fruits, and flowers of many colors, and grass;

Praised be our Lord.

For all those who pardon one another for thy love's sake, and who bear weakness and tribulation;

Praised be our Lord.

For our sister, the death of the body;

Praised be our Lord.

Blessed are they who peaceably shall endure, walking by thy most holy will; for thou, O most Highest, shall give them a crown.

Praise ye and bless ye the Lord, and give thanks unto him, and serve him with great humility. Amen.

Let us pray

O GOD, we thank thee for this universe, our great home; for its vastness and its riches, and for the manifoldness of the life which teems upon it and of which we are a part. We praise thee for the arching sky and the blessed winds, for the driving clouds and the constellations on high. We praise thee for the salt sea and the running water, for the everlasting hills, for the trees, and for the grass under our feet. We thank thee for our senses by which we can see the splendor of the morning, and hear the jubilant songs of love, and smell the breath of springtime. Grant us, we pray thee, a heart wide open to all this joy and beauty, and save our souls from being so steeped in care or so darkened by passion that we pass heedless and unseeing when even the thorn-bush by the wayside is aflame with the glory of God, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Period of Silence

PART II
"And in One Lord Jesus Christ"

Hymn 363: "Lord of All Hopefulness" ..... Slane

Lesson: St. John 14:1-13

Anthem ..... Alfred Whitehead

In Thee is gladness, Amid all sadness
Jesus, sunshine of my heart!
By Thee are given The joys of heaven
Thou the true redeemer art!
Our souls thou wakest, Our bonds thou breakest,
Who trusts Thee surely Hath built securely,
He stands for ever: Hallelujah!
Our hearts are pining To see Thy shining,
Dying or living To Thee are cleaving,
Naught can us sever: Halleulujah.
He intercedeth, And ever pleadeth,
Jesus, the truth and the way.
Fair as a flower, Waiteth the hour
Them that seek Thee will find Thee today.
Thy love availeth, though earth us faileth,
Who calleth clearly, will find thee early
Never forsaken. Hallelujah!
All sin forgiven, earnest of Heaven.
Peace like a river, floweth forever
New songs awaken! Hallelujah!
In Thee is gladness! Hallelujah

An Offering of Praise and Adoration to Christ

Lift up your hearts,
We lift them up unto the Lord.

He laid his right hand upon me, saying, Fear not: I am the first and the last; I am he that liveth and was dead; and behold I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and death.

Glory be to thee, O Lord most high.

I saw in the midst of the throne a Lamb as it had been slain.

Glory be to thee, O Lord most high.

Lo, I am with you all the days;

Even unto the end of the world.

Worthy is the Lamb that was slain, to receive power and riches, and wisdom and strength, and honor and glory and blessing.

Blessing and honor, and glory and power, be unto thee for ever and ever.

Let us pray

O KING of men, Master of our lives, entering into thy glory by the cross, to whom all authority is given, both in heaven and on earth, we acknowledge thy sovereignty over every realm of life. Come, O Lord, enter into thy kingdom; subdue the world by the might of thy love.

Blessing and honor, and glory and power, be unto thee for ever and ever.

O Son of Mary,	Consecrate our homes.
Son of David,	Cleanse our politics.
Son of Man,	Rule the affairs of nations.
Son of God,	Give us eternal life.
Jesus the Carpenter,	Deliver a world which waits for thee.
Jesus the Christ,	Save us from ourselves.
Jesus, the Saviour,	Renew thy Church.
Jesus the Life-giver,	Perfect thy creation.
Word of God,	Hallow our daily work.

Lord exhalted at the Father's side,

Raise us to live with thee in God.

He humbled himself, becoming obedient unto death. Therefore hath God highly exalted him and given him a name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Amen.

I will not leave you comfortless.

I will come to you.

I will see you again and your heart shall rejoice.

And your joy no man taketh from you.

What shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

All. Neither life nor death, nor things present, nor things to come, can separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord. Alleluia, Amen.

PART III

"And in The Holy Ghost — The Lord and Giver of Life"

Hymn 377 ..... Lew Trenchard

Lesson: St. John 14:15-19, 25-29

Spiritual ..... (arr. Robt. Shaw)

"Set down, servant!" "I cain' set down.
"My soul's so happy I cain' set down"

"My Lawd, you know dat you promise' me
"Promise me a long white robe and a pair of shoes."

"Go yonder angel, Fetch me a pair of shoes,
"Place dem on my servant's feet. Now, servant, you set down."

"My Lawd, you know dat you promise me,
"Promise' me a long white robe and a golden waist band."

"Go yonder angel, Fetch me a golden waist band.
"Place it roun' my servant's waist. Now servant you set down."

"Set down, servant." "I cain' set down."

Thanksgiving for the Work of God's Spirit

O LORD, who hast set before us the great hope that thy kingdom shall come on earth, and has taught us to pray for its coming, make us ever ready to thank thee for the signs of its dawning, and to pray and work for that perfect day when thy will shall be done on earth as it is in heaven. For the work of thy Spirit within and beyond the bounds of thy visible Church.

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the history of the world, through peaceful advance, and through pain and tumult,

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of the Spirit in the history of our own country, through its heroes and leaders, in statecraft, law and industry,

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in science and commerce, in literature and art,

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the slow triumph of truth over error,

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the growing desire for true brotherhood, between every class and nation.

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the spread of education, and in the development of a fuller life for individuals, with healthier surroundings and better conditions,

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the deepening sense of human worth in all nations and classes, and in the growing reverence for womanhood and childhood,

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the Church, which will not cease until it joins all nations and kindreds and tongues and people into one great family, to thy praise and glory,

We thank thee, O Lord, Amen.

One half hour is set aside each week for the purpose of bringing before God the multifarious intercessions and thanksgivings of the people of St. Martin's. This is an extremely important aspect of the church's life, both in the fact that God is rightly approached and worshipped, and in the union that these prayers create among the participants. We urge you to attend Ante-Communion and Intercessions at 10 A.M. each Thursday.

There will be "Juice after Service" on the porch of the Parish House. Mrs. Kenneth Koerber is Hostess this morning.

"The 'ecumenical vision' is much broader than its organized manifestations in councils of churches at the local, national and world levels. As one Bishop put it,'To deal with the Church as if she really had nothing to do with the one Lord Christ but only with the opinions of men, as if there were no one truth, one Lord and one faith at the heart of our Church, that is unbearable. And if that is so ... then there is no escape from the painful, difficult, uncomfortable, costly encounter which we call the Ecumencial Movement.' "
(from "No Darkness at All" by James W. Kennedy)

THE FOURTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

September 23, 1962

8:00 A.M. — HOLY COMMUNION

9:30 A.M. — MORNING PRAYER AND DEDICATION
SERVICE OF CHURCH SCHOOL

Processional Hymn 506: "Father in Heaven" . . . . . Truro 484

Venite, Page 9, Chant 610

Psalm 24, Page 368

Lesson, St. Luke 2:41

Jubilate Deo, Page 15, Chant 643

Creed, Versicles, Collects and Prayers, Page 15 ff

Hymn 563, "He who would valiant be" . . . . . St. Dunstan's

During the singing of this hymn, the Teachers and Officers of the Church School will come forward to the Altar Rail.

Rector: Dearly beloved, you stand here before God and this company as chosen leaders in the program of Christian Education. You have one of the most important and essential offices within the gift of the Church. Your work is therefore not to be entered into unadvisedly or lightly, but seriously, conscientiously, and as in the sight of God. With all this in mind, are you now ready to undertake the duties of your various offices?

Response: We are ready, God being our helper. And we here dedicate both our souls and minds to Him in the work of His Church in a sober, righteous and Godly life. In this resolution, we ask Him to confirm and strengthen us that day by day we may grow in grace as leaders in our Church School.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing)

Teachers: O GOD, by whom the meek are guided in judgment, and light riseth up in darkness for the Godly, grant us in all our doubts and uncertainties, the grace to ask what Thou wouldst have us to do, that the Spirit of Wisdom may save us from all false choices, and that in Thy light we may see light and in Thy straight path may not stumble, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Officers and Teachers will return to their places.

The Rector will address the Congregation as follows:

Do you, as the Congregation, Parents and Friends, in the presence of God, and of this entire company, promise to give these chosen leaders the wholehearted cooperation so necessary to the accomplishment of their task?

Response: We do so promise, God being our helper.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing)

All: ALMIGHTY GOD, heavenly Father, Who hast blessed us with the joy and care of children: give us light and strength so to train them, that they may love whatsoever things are true and pure and lovely and of good report, following the example of their Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Rector will address the Church School pupils as follows:
As pupils of the Church School of St. Martin-in-the-Fields and disciples of Jesus Christ, will you serve Him, by faithfully trying to live in His way in your homes, in your community, in your schools and in your Church, as you promised, or as was promised for you, at your baptism?

Response: I will by God's help.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing)

DEFEND, O Lord, these thy children with Thy heavenly grace, that they may continue Thine forever; and daily increase in Thy Holy Spirit more and more until they come unto Thine everlasting Kingdom. Amen.

All: ALMIGHTY GOD, our heavenly Father, Who art the only source of light and life; send down upon this School the rich gifts of Thy good Spirit, that Thy truth may be sincerely sought, faithfully received and obediently followed. Endue its teachers with wisdom, zeal and patience. Inspire its scholars with the spirit of truth, honor and humility. May they day by day grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

"INASMUCH"

As we go into the holiday season and become open to pressure from every side t to eat and buy more than we really want or need, let's set aside a little for the "Share Our Surplus" work of the Presiding Bishop's Fund.

The dollar which buys two pounds of food here will provide over 300 pounds of our government surplus foods for refugees.

Envelopes for this purpose are available on the table at the back of the church or in the Parish House,(checks should be made payalbe to the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief and designated S.O.S) and may be placed on the Alms Basin when the spirit moves you. Remember "Our Surplus is their Salvation."

NOTICES

We are glad to welcome back to St. Martins this morning, Dr. Joan Caddell, who was one of our most faithful Church School Teachers for a good many years. She leaves a week from tomorrow on a Rockefeller Foundation Grant for the Makerere Medical College, of the University of East Africa, in Kampola, Uganda, and it is most gracious of her to share this morning out of her busy schedule to be with us.

Next Sunday, St. Martin's Day, Veteran's Day, is also Loyalty Sunday, when we will make our pledges at all three services, to support St. Martin's Church during 1963.

For Faithfulness in the Use of This World's Goods.
ALMIGHTY GOD, whose loving hand hath given us all that we possess; Grant that we may honour thee with our substance, and remembering the account that we must one day give, may be faithful stewards of thy bounty; through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Church of St. Martin-in-the-Fields

Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia, Pa.

Christmas Day 1962

Processional Hymn 12: "O Come All Ye Faithful" .... Adeste Fidelis

Then shall be said this Bidding Prayer by the Minister, the Congregation all standing

Beloved in Christ:

Be it our care and delight to prepare ourselves to hear again the message of the Angels and in heart and mind to go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which has come to pass and the Babe lying in a manger.

Therefore, let us read and mark in Holy Scripture the tale of the loving purposes of God from the first days of our sin unto the glorious Redemption brought to us by this Holy Child; and let us make this Church glad with our carols of praise.

But first, because this of all things would rejoice His heart, let us pray to Him for the needs of the whole world and all His people; for peace upon the earth He came to save; for love and unity within the one Church He did build; and for brotherhood and good will amongst all men.

And particularly at this time let us remember before Him the poor, the cold, the hungry, and the oppressed; the sick and them that mourn; the aged and little children; and all those that know not the Lord Jesus or who love Him not; or who by sin have grieved His Heart of love.

Lastly let us remember before Him, them who rejoice with us but upon another shore and in a greater light, the multitude whom no man can number, whose hope was in the Word made flesh, and with whom, in this same Jesus, we forevermore are one.

These prayers and praises let us humbly offer up to the throne of Heaven in the words which Christ Himself hath taught us:
Our Father . . .

Then shall the Minister say:

God, the Son of God, vouchsafe to bless us and aid us; and unto the fellowship of the citizens above may the King of Angels bring all, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hymn 20: "Of the Father's Love Begotten" ..... Divinum Mysterium

After this the Congregation shall sit for all the carols except those after the Third and Fifth Lessons for which they stand and join heartily.

Kent Hughson

First Lesson: Genesis 3:8-15 ..... Read by a Chorister

The story of Man's first Disobedience in the Garden of Eden.

Girl's Choir Carol: "Gabriel's Message" ..... Basque

The Angel Gabriel from heaven came,
His wings as drifted snow, his eyes as flame
"All hail," said he, "thou lowly maiden Mary,
Most highly favored lady." Gloria!

"For known a blessed Mother thou shalt be,
All generations laud and honour thee,
Thy Son shall be Emmanuel, by seers foretold,
Most highly favored lady." Gloria!

Then gentle Mary meekly bowed her head,
"To me be as it pleaseth God," she said,
"My soul shall laud and magnify His Holy Name,
Most highly favored lady." Gloria!

Of her Emmanuel, the Christ was born
In Bethlehem, all on a Christmas morn,
And Christian folk throughout the world will ever say:
"Most highly favored lady." Gloria!

Second Lesson: Genesis 22:15-18 ... Read by a Church School Scholar

God promises to faithful Abraham that in his seed shall all nations be blessed.

Choir Carol: "A Gallery Carol" ..... Traditional
(arr. Marlowe Johnson)

Rejoice and be merry in songs and in mirth!
O praise our Redeemer, all mortals on earth!
For this is the birthday of Jesus our King,
Who brought us salvation, His praises we sing!
Rejoice and be merry in songs and in mirth!
O praise our Redeemer, all mortals on earth!

A heavenly vision appeared in the sky;
Vast numbers of angels the shepherds did spy.
Proclaiming the birthday of Jesus our King,
Who brought us salvation, His praises we sing,
A very bright star in the East did appear
Which led the Wisemen from East to draw near.

They found the Messiah, sweet Jesus our King
Who brought us Salvation, His praises we sing.
And when they were come they their gifts unfold,
And unto Him offered myrrh, incense and gold.
So blessed for ever be Jesus our King
Who brought us Salvation, His praises we sing!

Third Lesson: Isaiah 9:2, 6, 7 Dick Miller

Read by a member of the Youth Fellowship

Congregational Carol 36: "What Child Is This" . . . . . Greensleeves

Fourth Lesson: Micah 5:2, 3, 4 Sam Madsira . . . . . Read by an Acolyte

Micah forseeth the glory of Bethlehem.

Choir Carol: "Sing, ye birds" . . . . . Mongolian
(arr. Malcolm Sargent)

Sing, ye birds, in the highest trees, "God on Earth is dwelling."
All mankind on bended knees Homage to Him giving.

Tell the wind to sing to the Child "Hosanna, gloria in excelsis."

Shine, O Sun, with thy golden light Where the Babe is lying;
Add thy rays to His halo bright, Sin and death defying.

Tell the lands to sing to the Child "Hosanna, gloria in excelsis."

Ring the bells on the highest hills, Our Salvation's dawning,
All the world with the good news thrills, For 'tis Christmas morning.

Choirs of Angels sing to the Child "Hosanna, gloria in excelsis."

Fifth Lesson: St. Luke 1:26-33, 38 Peter Stanley Read by a Church School Teacher

The Angel Gabriel visiteth the Virgin Mary.

Congregational Carol 31: "Good Christian Men Rejoice" In Dulci Jubilo

Sixth Lesson: St. Matthew 1:18-23 Barney Lentz . . . . . Read by an Usher

St. Matthew tells of Christ's Holy Birth.

Choir Carol: "Nature Carol" . . . . . Filipino Plantation Song
(arr. Malcolm Sargent)

Coral, amber, pearl and shell,
Gifts we gather from summer seas,
Find and bind make love the spell,
Take our gifts if they charm and please.
Aloha! Hanaw!*

Ruby, onyx, rain and dew
Weave a crown with your jeweled light,
Show and know whose world is new,
Who is Prince of the day and night.
Aloha! Hanaw!

Mountains, flowers, trees and hills,
Laugh and sing where His blessings fall,
Wind and waves, lagoons and rills,
Shout His love who is Lord of all.
Aloha! Hanaw!

Aloha* means "greetings" and Hanaw, "Dear Little One."

Seventh Lesson: St. Luke 2:8-16 ..... Read by a Vestryman

The Shepherds go unto the Manger.

Choir Carol: The Holly and the Ivy ..... English (arr. Frank Ahrold)

The holly and the ivy Now both are full well grown,
Of all the trees within the wood, The holly bears a crown.

Oh the rising of the sun, The running of the deer,
The playing of the merry organ, Sweet singing in the Choir.

The holly bears a blossom, As white as any flower,
And Mary bore sweet Jesus Christ, To be our sweet Saviour.

The holly bears a berry, As red as any blood,
And Mary bore sweet Jesus Christ, To do poor sinners good.

Eighth Lesson: St. Matthew 2:1-11 ..... Read by a Warden

The Wise Men are led to the Young Child by a Star.

Choir Carols: "The Holly is Up" ..... Peter Cork

The holly is up, the house is all bright
The tree is ready, the candles alight,
Rejoice and be glad, all children tonight.

The mother sings of our Lord's good grace
Whereby the child who saved our race
Was born and adored in a lowly place.

Once more the shepherds as she sings
Bend low and touch their strings
With gloria they hail the King of Kings.
(Gloria in excelsis Deo)

The children listening 'round the tree
Can hear the heavenly minstrelsy
The manger's marvel they can see.

Let every house be ready tonight,
The children gathered, the candles alight,
The music to hear, to see that sight.

"The Greenwood Tree" ..... Peter Cork

Sing hey for the greenwood tree, my boys,
Sing hey for the greenwood tree.

The slender beech and the sapling oak
That grow by the shadowy rill,
You may cut down both with a single stroke
You may cut down which you will.

But this you must know that as long as they grow,
Whatever the change may be,
You can never teach either oak or beech
To be aught but a greenwood tree.

Ninth Lesson: St. John 1:1-14 ..... Read by the Rector

St. John interprets the great mystery of the Incarnation.
(The Congregation will stand for this Lesson)

The Nicene Creed

The Christmas Collects

Hymn 197: "Let All Mortal Flesh" ..... Picardy

The Benediction

May the Almighty God, who by the Incarnation of His only begotten Son has chased away the darkness of the world, and irradiated the sacred night with His glorious Nativity, chase far from you the darkness of sin and fill your hearts with the light of virtue.

And may He, the great Shepherd, who willed that the joy of His Blessed Nativity should be made known to the shepherds by an Angel, pour upon you the refreshing dew of His benediction, and Himself lead you into pastures of eternal joy. And may He, who, by His Incarnation, united things earthly and heavenly, fill you with the sweetness of inward peace and good will and make you comrades of the Heavenly Host.

And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost be with you all evermore. Amen.

Recessional Hymn 27: "Hark the Herald Angels" .... Mendelssohn

Sermon Hymn 46 — Morning Star
Anthem: 9:30 A.M.
"Holy, Holy, Holy" — Schubert
11:15 A.M. — Mendelssohn

When Jesus, our Lord, was born in Bethlehem, in the land of Judaea; behold, from the east of the city of Jerusalem there came wise men, and said:
"Say, where is He born, the King of Judaea? for we have seen His star, and are come to adore Him."
There shall a star come forth from Jacob, and a sceptre rise up from Israel and dash in pieces princes and nations.
As bright the star of morning gleams, so Jesus sheddeth glorious beams of light and consolation.
Thy Word, O Lord, Radiance darting, Truth imparting - gives salvation, Thine be praise and adoration!

FEAST OF LIGHTS

January 10, 1965

Processional Hymn 319

Shortened form of Evening Prayer

Instructions to the congregation

Offertory Hymn 52
(The alms will not be presented at this time. Rather, they will be brought to the manger by the king who traditionally presented gold as his gift.)

First reading: Isaiah 9:2-7
(The congregation will be seated for the remainder of the service.)

Hymn 599

Second reading: St. John 1:1-5, 9-14
The lighting of the Christ candle.

The lighting of the shepherd candles.

Fourth reading: St. Matthew 2:1-10
The star appears in the East.

Hymn 51 (verses 2,3 and 4 are solo)
A candle is lighted for each king as he arrives at the manger, The first gift represents our labor, the seccon represents things of beauty, and the third represents our talents. Taken together, these three offerings suggest that we should give our entire selves to Him, who so freely gave Himself to us.

Fifth reading: St. Matthew 10:1-18
The lighting of the Apostle's candles.

Sixth reading: Acts 1:15-26
Judas' candle is extinguished, and then relighted as the reader tells of the election of Matthias.

Seventh reading: Acts 9:1-6
The lighting of Paul's candle.

A candle is lighted for all the saints.

Representing the Bishops of the Church, the light is carried from the Apostles and Saints to the congregation.

Benediction.

NOTICES

The Evening Guild will meet Monday night at 8 P.M. in the Parish House.

The Offering this morning at all services is for Theological Education. Unless otherwise specified on the envelopes, it will be divided between the Episcopal Theological Seminary, which the Rector and Curate attended, and Philadelphia Divinity School, which Donald Hays, our student assistant and our preacher at both services, attends..

The pictures that were on display at the Cricket Club on Tuesday night are now in the Auxiliary Room of the Parish House, where they may be seen at your leisure. They were arranged and mounted by Mr. John B. Lear, who should have been thanked Tuesday night.

Copies of the 75th Anniversary Issue of the Parish News are on the table at the back of the Church. Those of you who could not attend the Anniversary Dinner, where they were distributed, are welcome to take a copy with you after the service. They will not be mailed out.

At the Annual Meeting of the Parish on February 2, the Messrs. Duffield Ashmead,III, John P. Staman,Jr., and Henry Wells were elected to serve a five year term on the Vestry.

A PRAYER FOR ROGATION SUNDAY

O GOD, Who art the source of everything in our lives, when we pray help us to remember that all we have or ever hope to be comes from thee. And then give us the grace to ask for the things that we want most, leaving it to thy judgment and thy goodness to grant them or to withhold them. Teach us, Lord Jesus, in this hard world of mechanism and impersonal enterprise, to pray and to pray wisely and well.

Processional Hymn 268: "I Bind Unto Myself" (vs. 1,2,5,6,7) St. Patrick

The Bidding and The Lord's Prayer

PART I

"I Believe in God the Father Almighty — Maker of Heaven and Earth"

Hymn 309: "The Spacious Firmament on High" ..... Creation

Lesson: Isaiah 40:21

Anthem, from "The Hymn of Praise" ..... Mendelssohn

All men, all things, all that has life and breath, sing to the Lord. Praise the Lord in lute and harp, in joyful song extol Him. And let all flesh magnify His might and His glory, and let all flesh worship the Lord.

Responsive Reading—The Canticle of St. Francis

O most high, omnipotent, good Lord God, to thee belong praise, glory, honor and all blessing.

For our brother the sun, who is our day and who brings us the light; who is fair, and radiant with a very great splendour;

Praised be our Lord.

For our sister the moon, and for the stars, which thou hast set clear and lovely in heaven;

Praised be our Lord.

For our brother the wind, and for air and cloud, calms and all weather;

Praised be our Lord

For our sister water, who is very serviceable unto us and humble and precious and clean;

Praised be our Lord.

For our brother fire, by whom thou lightest up the night, and who is fair and merry, and very mighty and strong;

Praised be our Lord.

For our mother the earth, which doth sustain us and keep us and bringeth forth divers fruits, and flowers of many colors, and grass;

Praised be our Lord.

For all those who pardon one another for thy love's sake, and who bear weakness and tribulation;

Praised be our Lord.

For our sister, the death of the body;

Praised be our Lord.

Blessed are they who peaceably shall endure, walking by thy most holy will; for thou, O most Highest, shall give them a crown.

Praise ye and bless ye the Lord, and give thanks unto him, and serve him with great humility. Amen.

Let us pray.

O GOD, we thank thee for this universe, our great home; for its vastness and its riches, and for the manifoldness of the life which teems upon it and of which we are a part. We praise thee for the arching sky and the blessed winds, for the driving clouds and the constellations on high. We praise thee for the salt sea and the running water, for the everlasting hills, for the trees, and for the grass under our feet. We thank thee for our senses by which we can see the splendor of the morning, and hear the jubilant songs of love, and smell the breath of springtime. Grant us, we pray thee, a heart wide open to all this joy and beauty, and save our souls from being so steeped in care or so darkened by passion that we pass heedless and unseeing when even the thorn-bush by the wayside is aflame with the glory of God, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Period of Silence

PART II

"And in One Lord Jesus Christ"

Hymn 363: "Lord of All Hopefulness" ..... Slane

Lesson: St. John 14:1-13

Anthem ..... Spiritual (arr. Dawson)

Soon I will be done with the troubles of the world,
Going home to live with God.
I want to meet my Jesus,
I'm going to live with God.
No more weeping and a-wailing,
I'm going to live with God.

An Offering of Praise and Adoration to Christ

Lift up your hearts,

We lift them up unto the Lord.

He laid his right hand upon me, saying, Fear not: I am the first and the last; I am he that liveth and was dead; and behold I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and death.

Glory be to thee, O Lord most high.

I saw in the midst of the throne a Lamb as it had been slain.

Glory be to thee, O Lord most high.

Lo, I am with you all the days;

Even unto the end of the world.

Worthy is the Lamb that was slain, to receive power and riches, and wisdom and strength, and honor and glory and blessing.

Blessing and honor, and glory and power, be unto thee for ever and ever.

Let us pray.

O KING of men, Master of our lives, entering into thy glory by the cross, to whom all authority is given, both in heaven and on earth, we acknowledge thy sovereignty over every realm of life. Come, O Lord, enter into thy kingdom; subdue the world by the might of thy love.

Blessing and honor, and glory and power, be unto thee for ever and ever.

O Son of Mary,	Consecrate our homes.
Son of David,	Cleanse our politics.
Son of Man,	Rule the affairs of nations.
Son of God,	Give us eternal life.
Jesus the Carpenter,	Deliver a world which waits for thee.
Jesus the Christ,	Save us from ourselves.
Jesus, the Saviour,	Renew thy Church.
Jesus the Life-giver,	Perfect thy creation.
Word of God,	Hallow our daily work.

Lord exhalted at the Father's side,

Raise us to live with thee in God.

He humbled himself, becoming obedient unto death. Therefore hath God highly exalted him and given him a name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Amen.

I will not leave you comfortless.

I will come to you.

I will see you again and your heart shall rejoice.

And your joy no man taketh from you.

What shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

All. Neither life nor death, nor things present, nor things to come, can separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord. Alleluia, Amen.

PART III

"And in The Holy Ghost — The Lord and Giver of Life"

Hymn 377 ..... Lew Trenchard

Lesson: St. John 14:15-19, 25-29

Anthem (Ave Maria) ..... Rachmaninoff

Come O Gracious Spirit, pure and holy, O Spirit, joy divine. Be Thou our Guardian, Thou our Guide, Plant holy fear in all our hearts. Lead us to Christ the living way, O Spirit pure and holy. Amen.

Thanksgiving for the Work of God's Spirit

O LORD, who hast set before us the great hope that thy kingdom shall come on earth, and has taught us to pray for its coming, make us ever ready to thank thee for the signs of its dawning, and to pray and work for that perfect day when thy will shall be done on earth as it is in heaven. For the work of thy Spirit within and beyond the bounds of thy visible Church.

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the history of the world, through peaceful advance, and through pain and tumult.

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the history of our own country, through its heroes and leaders, in statecraft, law and industry.

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in science and commerce, in literature and art,

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the slow triumph of truth over error,

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the growing desire for true brotherhood, between every class and nation.

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the spread of education, and in the development of a fuller life for individuals, with healthier surroundings and better conditions,

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the deepening sense of human worth in all nations and classes, and in the growing reverence for womanhood and childhood,

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the Church, which will not cease until it joins all nations and kindreds and tongues and people into one great family, to thy praise and glory,

We thank thee, O Lord, Amen.

There is a Celebration of the Holy Communion every Thursday at 10:00 a.m. This, being the only mid-week service at St. Martin's, offers the worshipper a chance to use the propers appointed for feast days which do not fall on Sunday. Furthermore, the Thursday Celebration provides a time for numerous intercessions of the parish. At this time we remember the sick, those in the service of our country, and the special needs of our people and nation.

There are aprons, cut out and ready to sew, in the Auxiliary Room of the Parish House.

Creed, Versicles, Collects and Prayers, Page 15 ff

Hymn 566, "Jesus Calls Us" ..... Galilee

During the singing of this hymn, the Teachers and Officers of the Church School will come forward to the Altar Rail.

Rector: Dearly beloved, you stand here before God and this company as chosen leaders in the program of Christian Education. You have one of the most important and essential offices within the gift of the Church. Your work is therefore not to be entered into unadvisedly or lightly, but seriously, conscientiously, and as in the sight of God. With all this in mind, are you now ready to undertake the duties of your various offices?

Response: We are ready, God being our helper. And we here dedicate both our souls and minds to Him in the work of His Church in a sober, righteous and Godly life. In this resolution, we ask Him to confirm and strengthen us that day by day we may grow in grace as leaders in our Church School.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing)

Teachers: O GOD, by whom the meek are guided in judgment, and light riseth up in darkness for the Godly, grant us in all our doubts and uncertainties, the grace to ask what Thou wouldst have us to do, that the Spirit of Wisdom may save us from all false choices, and that in Thy light we may see light and in Thy straight path may not stumble, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Officers and Teachers will return to their places.

The Rector will address the Congregation as follows:
Do you, as the Congregation, Parents and Friends, in the presence of God, and of this entire company, promise to give these chosen leaders the wholehearted cooperation so necessary to the accomplishment of their task?

Response: We do so promise, God being our helper.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing)

All: ALMIGHTY GOD, heavenly Father, Who hast blessed us with the joy and care of children: give us light and strength so to train them, that they may love whatsoever things are true and pure and lovely and of good report, following the example of their Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Rector will address the Church School pupils as follows:
As pupils of the Church School of St. Martin-in-the-Fields and disciples of Jesus Christ, will you serve Him, by faithfully trying to live in His way in your homes, in your community, in your schools and in your Church, as you promised, or as was promised for you, at your baptism?

Response: I will by God's help.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing)

DEFEND, O Lord, these thy children with Thy heavenly grace, that they may continue Thine forever; and daily increase in Thy Holy Spirit more and more until they come unto Thine everlasting Kingdom. Amen.

All: ALMIGHTY GOD, our heavenly Father, Who art the only source of light and life; send down upon this School the rich gifts of Thy good Spirit, that Thy truth may be sincerely sought, faithfully received and obediently followed. Endue its teachers with wisdom, zeal and patience. Inspire its scholars with the spirit of truth, honor and humility. May they day by day grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Let all things now living a song of thanksgiving
To God the creator triumphantly raise.
Who fashioned and made us, protected and stayed us,
Who guideth us on to the end of our days.
His banners are o'er us, His Light goes before us,
A pillar of fire shining forth in the night,
Til shadows have vanished and darkness is banished,
As forward we travel from light into light!
His law he enforces, the stars in their courses,
The sun in his orbit obediently shine.
The hills and the mountains, the rivers and fountains
The deeps of the ocean proclaim Him divine.
We too should be voicing our love and rejoicing,
With glad adoration a song let us raise,
Till all things now living unite in thanksgiving
To God in the highest, hosanna and praise!

All ye servants of the Lord, praise the Lord. Ye that dwell in the house of the Lord, even in the courts of the house of our God, lift up your hands in the sanctuary and praise the Lord.

Behold how good and joyful a thing it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!

It is like as the dew of Hermon, which fell upon the hill of Sion for there the Lord that made heaven and earth, promised his blessing and Life forevermore.

The United Thank Offering Prayer

O LORD, our heavenly Father, we pray thee to send forth more laborers into thy harvest, and to grant they thy special grace for every need. Guard and guide the workers in the field, and draw us into closer fellowship with them. Dispose the hearts of all women everywhere to give gladly as thou hast given to them. Accept, from grateful hearts our United Thank Offering of prayer and gifts and joyful service; and bless it to the coming of thy kingdom through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Sermon Hymn 141 America

Anthem: Seth Bingham

As men of old their first fruits brought,
Of orchard, flock and field
To God the Giver of all good,
The Source of bounteous yield,
So we today first fruits would bring
The wealth of this good land,
Of farm and market, shop and home,
Of mind, and heart, and hand.

A world in need now summons us
To labor, love and give,
To make our life an offering
To God, that man may live.
The Church of Christ is calling us
To make the dream come true
A world redeemed by Christ-like love,
All life in Christ made new.

In gratitude and humble trust
We bring our best to thee,
To serve thy cause and share thy love
With all humanity.
O Thou who gavest us thyself
In Jesus Christ thy Son
Teach us to give ourselves each day
Until life's work is done.

O Bethlehem, O little town all still and sleeping,
O Bethlehem, in thee this night great things are wrought!
Jesus the world's Redeemer holy,
Is born in thee, in manger lowly.
O Bethlehem, what wondrous light around thee shineth
O Bethlehem, the gates of heaven are opened wide,
With angel songs the skies are ringing,
Peace and good will the song they're singing.
O Bethlehem, a mother o'er the crib is bending,
Softly she sings sweet lullaby,
"Sleep little Babe and take Thy rest,
In Thee shall all mankind be blest".
O Bethlehem, our lonely hearts to thee are turning,
O Bethlehem, O little child in manger bare,
Here would we kneel in adoration
And find in thee the world's salvation.

12/25/65

And may He, the great Shepherd, who willed that the joy of His blessed Nativity should be made known to shepherds by an Angel, pour upon you the refreshing dew of His benediction, and Himself lead you into pastures of eternal joy. And may He who by His Incarnation united things earthly and heavenly, fill you with the sweetness of inward peace and good will and make you comrades of the Heavenly Host.

And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost be with you all evermore. Amen.

FESTIVAL SERVICE OF LESSONS AND CAROLS

Christmas 1965

Processional Hymn 12: ..... Adeste Fideles

Then shall be said this Bidding Prayer by the Minister, the Congregation all standing

Beloved in Christ:

Be it our care and delight to prepare ourselves to hear again the message of the Angels and in heart and mind to go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which has come to pass and the Babe lying in a manger.

Therefore, let us read and mark in Holy Scripture the tale of the loving purposes of God from the first days of our sin unto the glorious Redemption brought to us by this Holy Child; and let us make this Church glad with our carols of praise.

But first, because this of all things would rejoice His heart, let us pray to Him for the needs of the whole world and all His people; for peace upon the earth He came to save; for love and unity within the one Church He did build; and for brotherhood and good will amongst all men.

And particularly at this time let us remember before Him the poor, the cold, the hungry, and the oppressed; the sick and them that mourn; the aged and little children; and all those that know not the Lord Jesus or who love Him not; or who by sin have grieved His heart of love.

Lastly let us remember before Him, them who rejoice with us but upon another shore and in a greater light, the multitude whom no man can number, whose hope was in the Word made flesh, and with whom, in this same Jesus, we forevermore are one.

These prayers and praises let us humbly offer up to the throne of Heaven in the words which Christ Himself hath taught us:

Our Father . . .

Then shall the Minister say:

God, the Son of God, vouchsafe to bless us and aid us; and unto the fellowship of the citizens above may the King of Angels bring us all, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hymn 20, st. 1-3 ..... Divinum Mysterium

After this the Congregation shall sit for all Choir Carols and stand for and join heartily in all the Congregational Carols.

Lighting the Christmas Candle of the Advent Wreath.

Girls Choir Carol: "Welcome, Yule!" ..... Eric Gritton

Welcome be thou, heavenly King,
Welcome born one glad morning,
Welcome for whom we shall sing,
Welcome, Yule!

Welcome be ye Stephen and John,
Welcome Innocents every one,
Welcome ere the year be done,
Welcome, Yule!

Welcome be ye Good New Year,
Welcome people loved and dear,
Welcome Twelfth Day's holy cheer,
Welcome, Yule!

Welcome be ye Candlemas,
Welcome be ye child of bliss,
Welcome both to more and less,
Welcome, Yule!

First Lesson: Genesis 3:8-15 ..... Read by a Chorister

The story of Man's first Disobedience in the Garden of Eden.

Choir Carol: "Holy Day Holly Carol" ..... Old Cornish Carol (arr. C. Lefevre)

Now the holly bears a berry as white as the milk,
And Mary bore Jesus who was wrapped up in silk:
And Mary bore Jesus Christ our Saviour for to be,
And the first tree in the greenwood, it was the holly.

Now the holly bears a berry as green as the grass,
And Mary bore Jesus, who died on the cross.

Now the holly bears a berry as black as the coal,
And Mary bore Jesus who died for us all.

Now the holly bears a berry, as blood is it red,
Then trust we our Saviour, who rose from the dead.

Second Lesson: Genesis 22:15-18 . . Read by a Church School Scholar

. . . . God promises to faithful Abraham that in his seed shall all nations be blessed.

Choir Carol: "Fum, Fum, Fum" . . . . . Spanish Dance Carol
(arr. Robert Shaw)

On December five and twenty, Fum, Fum, Fum!
Oh a Child was born this night so rosy white,
Son of Mary, Virgin Holy,
In a stable mean and lowly,
Fum, Fum, Fum!

On December five and twenty, Fum, Fum, Fum!
Comes a most important day, let us be gay!
We go first to church and then
We have the sweetest buns and candy,
Fum, Fum, Fum!

God will send us days of feasting, Fum, Fum, Fum!
Both in hot months and in cold, For young and old,
When we tell the Holy Story,
Ever singing of His glory,
Fum, Fum, Fum!

Third Lesson: Isaiah 9:2, 6, 7
Read by a member of the Youth Fellowship

Congregational Carol, Hymn 40 . . . . . "God Rest You Merry"

Fourth Lesson: Micah 5:2, 3, 4 . . . . . Read by a Crucifer

Micah foreseeth the glory of Bethlehem.

Choir Carol: "Patapan" . . . . . Burgundian
(arr. H. Wilkinson)

Willie, take your little drum,
With your whistle, Robin, come,
When we hear the fife and drum,
Christmas should be frolicsome.

Thus the men of olden days,
Loved the King of kings to praise,
When they hear the fife and drum,
Sure our children won't be dumb.

God and men are now become
More at one than fife and drum.
When you hear the fife and drum,
Dance and make the village hum.

Fifth Lesson: St. Luke 1:26-33,38. . Read by a Church School Teacher

The Angel Gabriel visiteth the Virgin Mary

Girls Choir Carol: "Come, Marie, Elisabette" . . . . . French
(arr. C. Dickinson)

Come, Marie, Elisabette!
Come, ye children great and small!
See a radiant star is shining,
Let us follow, one and all.

To the stable, where so lowly
In Manger poor,
Lies the Christ-child pure and holy;
Let us kneel and adore,
Let us give him our hearts

Who are these so swiftly riding?
These who follow its fair light?
Kings of Orient lands are coming,
Hastening onward through the night.
Refrain

Let us linger here no longer,
With the kings now swiftly go!
Ah, what gifts may we then take him?
That fair Child who loves us so.
Refrain

Sixth Lesson: St. Matthew 1:18-23
Read by a Theological School Student

St. Matthew tells of Christ's Holy Birth.

Congregational Carol: "Good King Wenceslas" . . . . . Traditional

Congregation

Good King Wenceslas looked out On the Feast of Stephen,
When the snow lay round about Deep and crisp and even.
Brightly shone the moon that night, Though the frost was cruel,
When a poor man came in sight, Gathering winter fuel.

Boys

"Hither page and stand by me, If thou know'st it, telling;
Yonder peasant, who is he? Where, and what his dwelling?"

Girls

"Sire, he lives a good league hence, Underneath the mountain; Right against the forest fence, By Saint Agnes' fountain."

Boys

"Bring me flesh and bring me wine, Bring me pine logs hither;
Thou and I will see him dine When we bear them thither."

Congregation

Page and monarch forth they went, Forth they went together;
Through the rude winds wild lament And the bitter weather.

Girls

"Sire, the night is darker now, And the wind blows stronger; Fails my heart, I know not how, I can go no longer."

Boys

"Mark my footsteps, my good page, Tread thou in them boldly:
Thou shalt find the winter's rage, Freeze thy blood less coldly."

Congregation

In his master's steps he trod, Where the snow lay dinted;
Heat was in the very sod Which the said had printed.
Therefore, Christian men, be sure, Wealth or rank possessing,
Ye who now will bless the poor, Shall yourselves find blessing.

Choir Carol: "Sir Christèmas" (from Suite of Carols) . . Peter Cork

Nowell, Nowell, Nowell,
Who is there that singeth so?

I am here, Sir Christèmas,
Welcome, my lord Sir Christèmas,
Welcome to you, both more or less,
Come near, Nowell.

Glad tidings I you bring:
A maid hath born a child full young,
Which causeth us to sing
Nowell.

Christ is born of a pure young maid,
In an ox-stall he is laid,
Wherefore sing we all at a braid,
Nowell.

Make good cheer and be right merry,
And sing with us now joyfully,
Nowell.

Seventh Lesson: St. Luke 2:8-16 . . . . . Read by a Vestryman

The Shepherds go unto the Manger.

Choir Carol: "Christmas Day In The Morning" . . . . . English
(arr. George Mead)

I saw three ships come sailing in
On Christmas Day in the morning.

And what was in those ships all three?
Our Saviour Christ and his Lady.

Pray whither sailed those ships all three?
O they sailed into Bethlehem.

And all the bells on earth shall ring,
And all the angels in heaven shall sing.

Then let us all rejoice amain,
On Christmas Day in the morning.

Eighth Lesson: St. Matthew 2:1-11 . . . . . Read by a Warden

The Wise Men are led to the Young Child by a Star.

Choir Carol: "A Merry Christmas" . . . . . English
(arr. Arthur Warrell)

I wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year
Good tidings I bring To you and your kin.
I wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.
So sing to the Infant Saviour, the Saviour so dear,
Good tidings . . .
Now join us in merry-making, and sing with good cheer.
Good tidings . . .
For we won't stop till you join us, and sing with good cheer.
Good tidings . . .

Ninth Lesson: St. John 1:1-14 . . . . . Read by the Rector

St. John interprets the great mystery of the Incarnation.

(The Congregation will stand for this Lesson)

The Nicene Creed

The Christmas Collects

Hymn 197: st. 1 & 4 . . . . . French—17 Century

The Benediction

May the Almighty God who by the incarnation of His only begotten Son has chased away the darkness of the world, and irradiated the sacred night with His glorious Nativity, chase far from you the darkness of sin and fill your hearts with the light of virtue.
